The portion of land for the sanctuary, &c.

MOREOVER, ^awhen ye shall ^bdivide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall ^coffer an oblation unto the LORD, ^aan holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about.

2 Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ^afive hundred in length, with five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the ^asuburbs thereof.

3 And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand: ^aand in it shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place.

4 ^aThe holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary.

5 ^aAnd the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Lē'-vites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for ^atwenty chambers.

6 ^aAnd ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand

17 And it shall be the prince's five burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the months, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities before the house of Īs'-rā-ēl: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Īs'-rā-ēl.

Thus saith the Lord God; In the first month, in the first day of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and ^acleanse the sanctuary:

And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and it upon the posts of the house, upon the four corners of the table of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.

And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month ^{for} every one that erreth, and for him that is perverse: so shall ye reconcile the people: so shall ye reconcile the people.

In the first month, in the fourth day of the month, ye shall eat the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.

And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for the people of the land ^aa bullock for a sin offering.

And ^aseven days of the feast shall prepare a burnt offering before the Lord, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily seven days; ^aand a kid of the goats daily for a sin offering.

3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the Lord in the sabbaths and in the new moons.

9 ¶ But when the people of the land ^ashall come before the Lord in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it.

10 And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; and when they go forth, shall go forth.

11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities ^athe meat offering shall be an ē-phāh to a bullock, and an ē-phāh to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ē-phāh.

12 Now when the prince shall prepare a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, ¹one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth ^{one} shall shut the gate.

13 ¹Thou shalt daily prepare a burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb ¹of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it ¹every morning.

14 And thou shalt prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ē-phāh, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD.

15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering.

16 ¶ Thus saith the Lord God; If the prince give a gift unto any of his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance.

17 But if he give a gift of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them.

18 Moreover ¹the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

CHAPTER 1.

Isaiah's captivity. 3 Of Daniel, Hananiah, and Azariah. 17 Their excellent wisdom.

In the third year of the reign of Š-hô'-ă-kîm king of Jû'-dăh, Nêb-û-çhăd-nêz'-zăr king of Bā'-lôn unto Jê-rû'-să-lēm, and he got it.

And the Lord gave Jê-hô'-ă-kîm of Jû'-dăh into his hand, with all of the vessels of the house of God, which he carried ^a into the land of Bî'-năr to the house of his god; and he brought the vessels into the sure house of his god.

And the king spake unto Āsh'-ăz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ^a certain of the children of İs'-ră-êl, and of the king's and of the princes; children ^a in whom was no blemish, but well favoured, and skilful in wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, and understanding science, such as had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and ^a whom the king might teach the learning and tongue of the Chăl-dê'-ăns.

And the king appointed them a provision of the king's meat, and of ^a the wine which he drank: so continuing them three years, that at the end thereof they might stand before the king.

Now among these were of the children of Jû'-dăh, Dăn'-iêl, Hăn-ă-nî'-ăh, Mî'-shă-êl, and Āz-ă-rî'-ăh:

7 ¶ Unto whom the prince of the eunuchs gave names: ^b for he gave unto Dăn'-iêl the name of Bêl-tê-shăz'-zăr; and to Hăn-ă-nî'-ăh, of Shă'-drăçh; and to Mî'-shă-êl, of Mê'-shăch; and to Āz-ă-rî'-ăh, of Ā-bêd'-nê-gô.

8 ¶ But Dăn'-iêl purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself ^c with the portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.

9 Now ^a God had brought Dăn'-iêl into favour and tender love with the prince of the eunuchs.

10 And the prince of the eunuchs said unto Dăn'-iêl, I fear my lord the king, who hath appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your faces ^a worse liking than the children which are of your ³ sort? then shall ye make me endanger my head to the king.

11 Then said Dăn'-iêl to ^a Mêl'-zăr, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Dăn'-iêl, Hăn-ă-nî'-ăh, Mî'-shă-êl, and Āz-ă-rî'-ăh, 12 Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us ^a pulse ³ to eat, and water to drink.

13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants.

14 So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the king's meat.

16 Thus Mēl'-zār took away the portion of their meat, and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse.

17 ¶ As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Dān'-iēl had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār.

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Dān'-iēl, Hān-ā-nī'-āh, Mi'-shā-ēl, and Az-ā-rī'-āh: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

21 And Dān'-iēl continued even unto the first year of king Cŷ'-rūs.

AND in the second year of the reign of Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, and his sleep brake from him.

2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chāl-dē'-āns, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king.

3 And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.

4 Then spake the Chāl-dē'-āns to the king in Sŷr'-i-äck, ° O king for ever: tell thy servants dream, and we will shew the interpretation.

5 The king answered and said to the Chāl-dē'-āns, The thing is from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.

6 But if ye shew the dream and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof.

7 They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it.

8 The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye will gain the time, because ye see that this thing is gone from me.

9 But if ye will not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prophesied lying and corrupt words to shew before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof.

10 ¶ The Chāl-dē'-āns answered and said, There is no man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that can shew such things as any magician or astrologer, or Chāl-dē'-ān.

11 And it is a rare thing that the king requireth, and there is no other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

12 For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Bāb'-ŷ-lon.

13 And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain; they sought Dān'-iēl and his fellows to be slain.

14 ¶ Then Dān'-iēl answered and said to the king, I beseech thee, O captain of the king's guard, that thou wouldest not slay the wise men of Bāb'-ŷ-lon:

15 He answered and said to the king's captain, Why is it that thou ee so hasty from the king? Then

-ōch made the thing known to
-iël.

Then Dăn'-iël went in, and del of the king that he would give time, and that he would shew king the interpretation.

Then Dăn'-iël went to his house, made the thing known to Hân-
-äh, Mi'-shä-ël, and Äz'-ä-rî'-äh, companions:

That they would desire mercies the God of heaven concerning secret; 'that Dăn'-iël and his ws should not perish with the of the wise men of Báb'-ÿ-

¶ Then was the secret revealed Dăn'-iël 'in a night vision.
n Dăn'-iël blessed the God of ren.

Dăn'-iël answered and said, ssed be the name of God for and ever: 'for wisdom and nt are his:

And he changeth 'the times and seasons: 'he removeth kings, setteth up kings: 'he giveth om unto the wise, and knowe-to them that know under-ding:

'He revealeth the deep and et things: 'he knoweth what

I thank thee, and praise thee, O
God of my fathers, who hast n me wisdom and might, and made known unto me now
t we 'desired of thee: for thou now made known unto us the 's matter.

¶ Therefore Dăn'-iël went in Ar'-i-ōch, whom the king had ined to destroy the wise men of ÿ-lon: he went and said thus him; Destroy not the wise men Báb'-ÿ-lon: bring me in before the
, and I will shew unto the king interpretation.

Then Ar'-i-ōch brought in Dăn'- efore the king in haste, and said unto him, 'I have found a man

e answer unto the king the pretation.

The king answered and said to 27 Dăn'-iël answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king;

28 * But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and 'maketh known to the king Nêb'-ü-chä-d-nêz'- zär 'what shall be in the latter days.
Thy dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these;

29 As for thee, O king, thy thoughts 'came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: 'and he that revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass.

30 / But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, 'but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, 'and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

31 ¶ Thou, O king, 'sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible.

32 P This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his 'thighs of brass,

33 His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay.

34 Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out 'without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces.

35 Then was the iron, the clay,
the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became 'like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that 'no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image 'became a great mountain, 'and filled the whole earth.

36 ¶ This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.

37 * Thou, O king, art a king of kings: 'for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory.

38 * And whosoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all.

^bThou art this head of gold.

39 And after thee shall arise ^canother kingdom ^dinferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.

40 And ^ethe fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise.

41 And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay.

42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly ²broken.

43 And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave ³one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

44 And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, ^mbut it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

45 Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass ³hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

46 ¶ Then the king Nēb-ū-chāḍ-nēz'-zār fell upon his face, and worshipped Dān'-iēl, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him.

47 The king answered unto Dān'-iēl, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets,

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Nebuchadnezzar's golden image. ²¹ Sh Meshach, and Abed-nego are cast into furnace. ²⁶ God delivereth them.

NĒB-Ū-CHĀḌ-NĒZ'-ZĀR the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, the breadth thereof six cubits, set it up in the plain of Dū' the province of Bāb'-y-lon.

2 Then Nēb-ū-chāḍ-nēz'-zār the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, counsellors, the sheriffs, and all rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image. Nēb-ū-chāḍ-nēz'-zār the king set up.

3 Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nēb-ū-chāḍ-nēz'-zār the king had set up, and they stood before the image. Nēb-ū-chāḍ-nēz'-zār the king set up.

4 Then an herald cried aloud, you it is commanded, O people, nations, and languages,

5 That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, lute, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image. Nēb-ū-chāḍ-nēz'-zār the king set up:

6 And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning furnace.

7 Therefore at that time, when the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages down and worshipped the golden image that Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king had set up.

¶ Wherefore at that time certain il-dē'-āns 'came near, and accused the Jews.

They spake and said to the king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, 'O king, live ever.

Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall down and worship the golden image:

And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth, that he should be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.

¶ There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Bāb'-y-lon, Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō; these men, O king, 'have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

¶ Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār in rage and fury commanded to drag Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō. Then they brought these men before the king.

Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār spake and said unto them, Is it 'true, O Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, that ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?

Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace: and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands?

¶ Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, answered and said to the king, O Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter.

If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king.

But if not, be it known unto

thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

19 ¶ Then was Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated.

20 And he commanded the 'most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 Then these men were bound in their 'coats, their hosen, and their 'hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

22 Therefore because the king's 'commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the 'flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō.

23 And these three men, Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his 'counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, 'walking in the midst of the fire, and 'they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like 'the Son of God.

26 ¶ Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār came near to the 'mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, came forth of the midst of the fire.

27 And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, 'upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had passed on them.

28 Then Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.

29 Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

30 Then the king promoted Shā'-drāch, Mē'-shāch, and Ā-bēd'-nē-gō, in the province of Bāb'-y-lon.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Nebuchadnezzar confesseth God's kingdom, 4 maketh relation of his dream, which the magicians could not interpret. 19 Daniel interpreteth the dream. 28 Story of the event.

NĒB-Ū-CHĀD-NĒZ'-ZĀR the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high God hath wrought toward me.

3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.

4 I Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace:

5 I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.

6 Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Bāb'-y-lon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chāl-dē'-āns, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me the interpretation thereof.

8 But at the last Dān'-i-ēl came in before me, whose name was Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, according to the name of my god, and in whom the spirit of the holy gods: before him I told the dream, and ing,

9 O Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, master the magicians, because I know the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.

10 Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof great.

11 The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth:

12 The leaves thereof were green, and the fruit thereof much, and it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it.

13 I saw in the visions of mine head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven;

14 He cried aloud, and said thus: Hew down the tree, and cut off his branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches:

15 Nevertheless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:

16 Let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him.

17 This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living might know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and give it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men.

18 This dream I king Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār have seen. Now thou Bēl-tē-shāz'-zār, declare the interpretation thereof.

tation thereof, ^a forasmuch as the wise men of my kingdom not able to make known unto the interpretation: but thou able; ^c for the spirit of the y gods is in thee.

¶ Then Dăn-jël, ^d whose name Běl-tê-sház'-zăr, was astonished one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and Běl-tê-sház'-zăr, let not the am, or the interpretation thereof trouble thee. Běl-tê-sház'-zăr answered and said, My lord, ^a the am be to them that hate thee, ^b the interpretation thereof to the enemies.

¶ The tree that thou sawest, which grew, and was strong, whose sight reached unto the heaven, the sight thereof to all the th;

Whose leaves were fair, and fruit thereof much, and in it s meat for all; under which the sts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the even had their habitation:

¶ It is thou, O king, that art wn and become strong: for thy tness is grown, and reacheth to heaven, ^a and thy dominion to the end of the earth.

¶ And whereas the king saw a cher and an holy one coming vn from heaven, and saying, vw the tree down, and destroy it; leave the stump of the roots roof in the earth, even with a nd of iron and brass, in the der grass of the field; and let be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the sts of the field, till seven times s over him;

This is the interpretation, O g, and this is the decree of the st High, which is come upon my nd the king:

That they shall ^a drive thee m men, and thy dwelling shall be h the beasts of the field, and y shall make thee ^b to eat grass oxen, and they shall wet thee h the dew of heaven, and seven es shall pass over thee, ^b till thou ow that the most High ruleth in y kingdom of men, and ^d giveth it whomsoever he will.

And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou shalt have known that the ^b heavens do rule.

27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and ^c break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; ^d if it may be ^e a lengthening of thy tranquillity.

28 ¶ All this came upon the king Nēb-ū-chăd-nēz'-zăr.

29 At the end of twelve months he walked ^a in the palace of the kingdom of Băb'-y-lon.

30 The king ^a spake, and said, Is not this great Băb'-y-lon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty?

31 ¶ While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell ^a a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nēb-ū-chăd-nēz'-zăr, to thee it is spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee.

32 And ^a they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

33 The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nēb-ū-chăd-nēz'-zăr: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.

34 And ^a at the end of the days I Nēb-ū-chăd-nēz'-zăr lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him ^a that liveth for ever, whose dominion is ^a an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation:

35 And ^a all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and ^a he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and ^c none can stay his hand, or say unto him, ^c What doest thou?

36 At the same time my reason returned unto me; *and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was ^dadded unto me.

37 Now I Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, ^fall whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: ^gand those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

BĒL-SHĀZ'-ZĀR the king ^amade a great feast to a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.

2 Bēl-shāz'-zār, whiles he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels ^mwhich his ⁿfather Nēb-ū-chād-nēz'-zār had ^otaken out of the temple which was in Jē-rū'-sā-lēm; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein.

3 Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them.

4 They drank wine, ^rand praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.

5 ¶ In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the king's ^scountenance ^twas changed, and his thoughts troubled him, so that the ^ujoints of his loins were loosed, and his ^vknees smote one against another.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Daniel made chief of the presidents. 4 They conspire against him. 16 He is cast into the den of lions. 18 He is delivered, 25 and God magnified.

IT pleased Dā-rī'-ūs to set ² over the kingdom an hundred and twenty princes, which should be over the whole kingdom;

2 And over these three presidents; of whom Dān'-iēl was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.

3 Then this Dān'-iēl was preferred above the presidents and princes, ⁴ because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.

4 ¶ ⁵ Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Dān'-iēl concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; foras-much as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.

5 Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Dān'-iēl, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

6 Then these presidents and princes
⁷ assembled together to the king, and said thus unto him, 'King
 Dā-rī'-ūs, live for ever.

7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm ⁸ decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.

8 Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Mēdeš and Pēr'-šāns, which ^aaltereth not.

9 Wherefore king Dā-rī'-ūs signed the writing and the decree.

10 ¶ Now when Dān'-iël knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, he kneeled upon his knees ^dthree times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime.

11 Then these men assembled, and found Dān'-iël praying and making supplication before his God.

12 ^eThen they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree: Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, ^faccording to the law of the Mēdeš and Pēr'-šāns, which altereth not.

13 Then answered they and said before the king, That Dān'-iël, ^gwhich is of the children of the captivity of Jū'-dāh, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast signed, but maketh his petition three times a day.

14 Then the king, when he heard these words, ^hwas sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Dān'-iël to deliver him: and he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Mēdeš and Pēr'-šāns is; That no decree nor statute which the king establisheth may be changed.

16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Dān'-iël, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Dān'-iël, Thy God whom thou servest continually, he will deliver thee.

own signet, and with the signet his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Dān'-iël. 18 ¶ Then the king went to palace, and passed the night fast; neither were ^ainstruments of music brought before him: ^band his sleep went from him.

19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in hither unto the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Dān'-iël: and the king spake and said to Dān'-iël, O Dān'-iël, servant of the living God, is thy God whom thou servest continually, to deliver thee from the lions?

21 Then said Dān'-iël unto the king, O king, live for ever.

22 ^cMy God hath sent his angel and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt.

23 Then was the king exceedingly glad for him, and commanded that they should take Dān'-iël up out of the den. So Dān'-iël was taken out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God.

24 ¶ And the king commanded that they should bring those men which had accused Dān'-iël, and they cast them into the den of lions, with their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces, except Dān'-iël, because he was faithful to his God.

25 ¶ Then king Dā-rī'-ūs wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth, Peace be multiplied unto you.

26 ^dI make a decree, That in every kingdom of my kingdom, men tremble and fear before the God of Dān'-iël: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end.

27 He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Dān'-iël from the power of the lions.

28 So this Dān'-iël prospered in vision of four beasts, 9 and of God's kingdom.

CHAPTER 7.

In the first year of Bēl-shāz'-zār king of Bāb'-ŷ-lon / Dān'-iēl * had dream and *visions of his head on his bed: then he wrote the am, and told the sum of the matters.

Dān'-iēl spake and said, I saw in vision by night, and, behold, the r winds of the heaven strove on the great sea.

And four great beasts *came up n the sea, diverse one from an-er.

The first was 'like a lion, and eagle's wings: I beheld till the ags thereof were plucked, *and it s lifted up from the earth, and de stand upon the feet as a n, and a man's heart was given it.

*And behold another beast, a ond, like to a bear, and *it raised itself on one side, and it *had ee ribs in the mouth of it between teeth of it: and they said thus it, Arise, devour much flesh.

After this I beheld, and lo ther, like a leopard, which had on the back of it four wings of owl; the beast had also *four ads; and dominion was given it.

After this I saw in the night
ions, and behold *a fourth beast, adful and terrible, and strong eedingly; and it had great iron th: it devoured and brake in ces, and stamped the residue h the feet of it: and it was erse from all the beasts that e before it; *and it had ten ns.

I considered the horns, and, bed, *there came up among them other little horn, before whom re were three of the first horns cked up by the roots: and, bed, in this horn were eyes like the es *of man, *and a mouth speak-great things.

*I beheld till the thrones were t down, and *the Ancient of days sit, *whose garment was white snow, and the hair of his head e the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, *and his wheels as burning fire.

10 *A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: *thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: *the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: *I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed, and given to the burning flame.

12 As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet *their lives were prolonged for a season and time.

13 I saw in the night visions, and, behold, *one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days,
and they brought him near before him.

14 *And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all *people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is *an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

15 ¶ I Dān'-iēl was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my *body, and the visions of my head troubled me.

16 I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.

17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth.

18 But *the saints of the *most High shall take the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

19 Then I would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse *from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass;
which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet;

20 And of the ten horns that were in his head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows.

21 I beheld, "and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;

22 Until the Ancient of days came, 'and judgment was given to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be 'the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.

24 "And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings.

25 'And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall 'wear out the saints of the most High, and 'think to change times and laws: and 'they shall be given into his hand 'until a time and times and the dividing of time.

26 'But the judgment shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end.

27 And the "kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, "whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, "and all 'dominions shall serve and obey him.

28 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Dän'-iël, 'my cogitations much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I 'kept the matter in my heart.

which is in the province of Ē'-lāi and I saw in a vision, and I was the river of Ū'-lāi.

3 Then I lifted up mine eyes, saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher up last.

4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; 'but he did according to his will, and became great.

5 And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the water, and 'touched not the ground, and the goat had 'a notable horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram, and had two horns, which I had standing before the river, and he smote unto him in the fury of his power.

7 And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was no power that could deliver the ram out of his hand.

8 Therefore the he goat was very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken, and for it came up 'four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven.

9 'And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, 'toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the north, 'pleasant land.

10 'And it waxed great, even to 'the host of heaven; and 'it smote down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them.

11 Yea, 'he magnified himself against 'the prince of the host, 'and by him 'the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of the sanctuary was cast down.

12 And 'an host was given against the daily sacrifice by reason transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

3 ¶ Then I heard 'one saint speaking, and another saint said to 'that certain saint which I saw, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression ^{of} desolation, to be both the sanctuary and the city to be trodden under foot?

4 And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

5 ¶ And it came to pass, when I, Daniel Dăn'-iël, had seen the vision, I sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me 'as the appearance of a man.

6 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of Ū'-lāi, which led, and said, 'Gā'-brī-ël, make his man to understand the vision.

7 So he came near where I stood: and when he came, I was afraid, and I fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the vision shall be the vision.

8 ¶ Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground: 'but he touched me, and 'set me upright.

9 And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: 'for at the time appointed the end shall be.

10 The ram which thou sawest bearing two horns are the kings of 'dī-ā and Pēr'-sā.

11 And the rough goat is the king of Grē'-cī-ā: and the great horn that was between his eyes 'is the first king.

12 ¶ Now that being broken, whereof four stood up for it, four kings shall stand up out of the vision, but not in his power.

13 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king ^{of} violence countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

14 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he will destroy wonderfully, 'and shall prosper, and practise, 'and shall destroy the mighty and the 'holy people.

CHAPTER 9.

3 Daniel's confession of sin, 16 and prayer for the restoration of Jerusalem. 24 The seventy weeks.

IN the first year ^a of Dă-rī'-ūs the son of Ā-hāš-ū-ē'-rūs, of the seed of the Mēdes, ^b which was made king over the realm of the Chāl-dē'-āns;

2 In the first year of his reign I Dăn'-iël understood by books the number of the years, whereof the word of the LORD came to 'Jēr-ē-mī'-āh the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jē-rû'-sā-lēm.

3 ¶ And I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes:

4 And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my confession, and said, O ^a Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that keep his commandments;

5 'We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments:

6 ^b Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 O Lord, ^c righteousness ^b belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Jû'-dāh, and to the inhabitants of Jē-rû'-sā-lēm, and unto all Īs'-rā-ël, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee.

8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

9 ^dTo the Lord our God belong mercies and forgivenesses, though we have rebelled against him;

10 Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.

11 Yea, ^aall İs-rā-ël have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the ⁱlaw of Mō-sēs the servant of God, because we have sinned against him.

12 And he hath ^aconfirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: ⁱfor under the whole heaven hath not been done as hath been done upon Jē-rū-sā-lēm.

13 ^kAs it is written in the law of Mō-sēs, all this evil is come upon us: ⁱyet ^rmade we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and understand thy truth.

14 Therefore hath the LORD ^awatched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for ^ethe LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed not his voice.

15 And now, O Lord our God, ^rthat hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Ē-ġypt with a mighty hand, and hast ^agotten thee ^renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.

16 ¶ O Lord, ^aaccording to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jē-rū-sā-lēm, ^rthy holy mountain: because for our sins, ^aand for the iniquities of our fathers, ^bJē-rū-sā-lēm and thy people ^dare become a reproach to all that are about us.

17 Now therefore, O our God, hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, ^aand cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary ⁱthat is desolate, ^kfor the Lord's sake.

18 ^aO my God, incline thine ear and hear; open thine eyes, ^band behold our desolations, and the ^cwhich is called by thy name: we do not ^dpresent our supplication before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies.

19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not for thine own sake, O my God: thy city and thy people are called by thy name.

20 ¶ And whiles I was speaking and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people İs-rā-ël, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God;

21 Yea, whiles I was speaking prayer, even the man ^aGā'-brī-ēl, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to ⁱswiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation.

22 And he informed me, and talked with me, and said, O Dān'-i-ēl, I am now come forth ^ato give thee strength and understanding.

23 At the beginning of thy supplications the ^acommandment was given, and I am come to shew thee the vision: for thou art ^agreatly beloved: therefore ^aunderstand the matter, and consider the vision.

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, ^ato finish the transgression, and ^ato make an end of sins, ^aand to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision, and ^aprophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and build Jē-rū-sā-lēm unto ^athe Mēs'-āh ^athe Prince shall be seven weeks: three score and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

26 And after three score and two weeks ^ashall Mēs-sī'-āh be cut off, ^abut not for himself: ^aand ⁱthe people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

7 And he shall confirm ² a the venant with ⁶ many for one week:
in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the over-reading of abominations he shall make it desolate, ^d even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

CHAPTER 10.

aniel having humbled himself seeth a vision.

IN the third year of Cŷ'-rūs king of Pēr'-šā a thing was revealed to Dān'-iēl, whose name was called l-tē-shāz-zār; and the thing was revealed, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.

In those days I Dān'-iēl was turning three ⁷ full weeks.

I ate no ⁸ pleasant bread, neither meat nor flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all,
three whole weeks were fulfilled.

And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is the Tigris;

Then I lifted up mine eyes, and behold ^a a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine gold of Ū'-phāz:

His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of the sun, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like brass, and his colour like polished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of multitude.

And I Dān'-iēl alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great fear fell upon them, so that they were unable to hide themselves.

Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my ^r comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength.

Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face turned toward the ground.

¶ And, behold, an hand touched me, which ⁴ set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.

11 And he said unto me, O Dān'-iēl, ³ a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and ⁴ stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

12 Then said he unto me, ⁵ Fear not, Dān'-iēl: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, ⁶ thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words.

13 ⁷ But the prince of the kingdom of Pēr'-šā withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, ⁸ Mi'-chā-ēl, ⁹ one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained there with the kings of Pēr'-šā.

14 Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people ¹⁰ in the latter days: ¹¹ for yet the vision is for many days.

15 And when he had spoken such words unto me, ¹² I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb.

16 And, behold, ¹³ one like the simi-litude of the sons of men ¹⁴ touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision ¹⁵ my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 For how can ¹⁶ the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord?
for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

18 Then there came again and touched me ¹⁷ one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me,

19 ¹⁸ And said, O man greatly beloved, ¹⁹ fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong.
And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

20 Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight ²⁰ with the prince of Pēr'-šā: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grē'-cī-ā shall come.

21 But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth:

and there is none that ²holdeth with me in these things, ^abut Mi'-chā-ël your prince.

CHAPTER 11.

¹ Overthrow of Persia. ⁵ Leagues and conflicts of the kings. ³⁰ Tyranny of the Romans.

ALSO I ^d in the first year of 'Dā-rī-ūs the Mēde, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

² And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Pēr'-šā; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grē'-cī-ā.

³ And ^a a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and ^o do according to his will.

⁸ And shall also carry captives into Ē'-gýpt their gods, with their princes, and with ^a their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than the king of the north.

⁹ So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land.

¹³ For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come ^a after certain years with a great army and with much riches.

¹⁸ After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince ^a for his own behalf shall cause ^a the reproach offered him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him.

¹⁹ Then he shall turn his face toward the fort of his own land.

at he shall stumble and fall, ^a and be found.

20 Then shall stand up ² in his estate ³ a raiser of taxes in the glory the kingdom: but within few ys he shall be destroyed, neither ⁴ anger, nor in battle.

21 And ⁵ in his estate ⁶ shall stand a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the ngdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries.

22 And with the arms of a flood shall they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; ⁷ yea, also the prince of the covenant.

23 And after the league made with him ⁸ he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people.

24 He shall enter ⁹ peaceably even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his brothers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and say: yea, and he shall ¹⁰ forecast devices against the strong holds, and shall be a time.

25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be driven up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not prevail: for they shall forecast devices against him.

26 Yea, they that feed of the portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many of them shall fall down slain.

27 And both these kings' ¹¹ hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but they shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.

28 Then shall he return into his land with great riches; and his part shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and shall turn to his own land.

29 At the time appointed he shall turn, and come toward the south;
but it shall not be as the former,
as the latter.

shall come against him: therefore shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and ¹¹ pleasant things.

39 Thus shall he do in the ¹² most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for ¹³ gain.

40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him:
and the king of the north shall come against him ¹⁴ like a whirlwind, with chariots, ¹⁵ and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

41 He shall enter also into the ²³ glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, ^beven Ē'-dom, and Mō'-āb, and the chief of the children of Am'-mon.

42 He shall ^astretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Ē'-gypt shall not escape.

43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Ē'-gypt: and the Lib'-y-āns and the Ē-thi-ō'-pi-āns shall be ^aat his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in ^athe ²⁹ glorious holy mountain; ^myet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts;

3 Lest ^bI strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was ^cborn, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with ^dthirst.

4 And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms.

5 ^aFor their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, ^athat give me my bread and my water; my wool and my flax, mine oil and my ^adrink.

6 Therefore, behold, ^aI will hedge up thy way with thorns, and ^amake a wall, that she shall not find her paths.

7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them; but shall not find them: then shall she say, ^aI will go and return to my ^afirst husband; for then was it better with me than now.

8 For she did not ^aknow that I gave her corn, and ^awine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, ^awhich they prepared for Bā'-āl.

9 Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will ^arecover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness.

10 And now ^awill I discover her ^alewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand.

11 ^aI will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

12 And I will ^adestroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of Bā'-āl-īm, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me ^fĪsh'-ī; and shalt call me no more ^gBā'-ā-lī.

17 For ^hI will take away the names of Bā'-ā-līm out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make ⁱa 'covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and ^jI will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to ^klie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and ^lthou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, ^mI will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jēz'-rēel.

23 And ⁿI will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I ^owill say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

1 By the expiation of an adulteress, 4 is shewed the desolation of Israel before their restoration.

CHAPTER 4.

1 God's judgments against the sins of the people, 6 and of the priests. 15 Judah is warned.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of ^aĪs'-rā-ēl: for the LORD hath a ^b'controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor ^c'knowledge of God in the land.

2 By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, they break out, and ^d'blocketh toucheth blood.

3 Therefore ^e'shall the land mourn, and ^f'every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.

4 Yet let no man strive, nor prove another: for thy people are as they ^g'that strive with the priest.

5 Therefore shalt thou fall ^h'in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I ⁱ'will destroy thy mother.

6 ^j'My people are ^k'destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

7 As they were increased, so thou shalt be diminished against me: ^l'therefore will I change their glory into shame.

8 They eat up the sin of my people, and they ^m'set their heart on their iniquity.

9 And there shall be, ⁿ'like people the priest: and I will ²punish them for their ways, and ³reward them for their doings.

10 For ¹they shall eat, and not be full enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase:
because they have left off to take care to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine ¹take away the heart.

12 ¶ My people ask counsel at their rocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for ¹the spirit of whoremens hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 ¶ They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: ¹therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your sisters shall commit adultery.

14 ¶ I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people doth not understand shall be perished.

15 ¶ Though thou, Īs'-rā-ēl, play the harlot, yet let not Jū'-dāh offend;
and come not ye unto Gil'-gāl, neither go ye up to ¹Bēth-ā'-vēm, nor swear, The LORD liveth.

16 For Īs'-rā-ēl ¹slideth back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large pasture.

17 Ē'-phrā-īm is joined to idols:
he hath forsaken him alone.

18 Their drink ²is sour: they have committed whoredom continually:
therefore ¹rulers with shame do love, and ye hate.

19 ¶ The wind hath bound her up by her wings, and ¹they shall be named because of their sacrifices.

6 ¶ They shall go with their flocks willingly walked after ³the commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ē'-phrā-īm as a moth, and to the house of Jū'-dāh ⁴as ⁵rottenness.

13 When Ē'-phrā-īm saw his sickness, and Jū'-dāh saw his ⁶wound, then went Ē'-phrā-īm ⁷to the Āssyr'-ī-ān, and sent ⁸to king Jār'-ēb:
yet could he not heal you, nor cure
you of your wound.

14 For ⁹I will be unto Ē'-phrā-īm as house of Jū'-dāh: ¹⁰I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall rescue him.

15 ¶ I will go and return to my place, ¹¹till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER 6.

1 An exhortation to repentance. 4 A complaint of their untowardness and iniquity.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for ^ahe hath torn, and ^bhe will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 ^aAfter two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.

3 ^aThen shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared ^aas the morning; and ^bhe shall come unto us ^aas the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 ¶ O Ē-phrā-īm, what shall I do unto thee? O Jū-dāh, what shall I do unto thee? for your ^agoodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by ^athe words of my mouth: ^aand thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired ^amercy, and ^anot sacrifice; and the ^aknowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

7 But they ^alike men have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 Gīl-ē-ād is a city of them that work in iniquity, and is ^apolluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way ^aby consent: for they commit ^alewdness.

10 I have seen an horrible thing in the house of Īs-rā-ēl: there is the whoredom of Ē-phrā-īm, Īs-rā-ēl is defiled.

11 Also, O Jū-dāh, he hath set an harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

1 A reproof of manifold sins. 11 God's wrath against them for their hypocrisy.

WHEN I would have healed Īs-rā-ēl, then the iniquity of Ē-phrā-īm was discovered, and the ^awickedness of Sā-mār-i-ā: for ^athey commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers ^aspoileth without.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven will chastise them, ^aas their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: ^adestruction I will send them! because they have transgressed against me: though ^aI have redeemed them, yet they have sinned lies against me.

14 ^aAnd they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they resemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I ^ahave bound and strengthened their arms, yet they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the LORD High: ^athey are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword, for the ^arage of their tongue: they law.

Is'-rā-ēl shall cry unto me,
My God, * we know thee.

Is'-rā-ēl hath cast off the thing

They have set up kings, but not me: they have made princes, selves, that they may be cut off.

Thy calf, O Sā-mār'-i-ā, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled before they attain to innocency?

For from Is'-rā-ēl was it also: the arkman made it; therefore it is cast to God: but the calf of Sā-mār'-i-ā mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of ⁸'destruction: Ē'-ggypt shall gather them up, Mēm'-phis shall bury them: ⁹'as the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles.

7 The days of visitation are come,
the days of recompence are come;
Is'-rā-ēl shall know it: the prophet is a fool, ¹⁰'the ¹¹'spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ē'-phrā-īm was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred ¹²'in the house of his God.

9 ¹³'They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of ¹⁴'Gīb'- ē-āh: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

10 I found Is'-rā-ēl like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to ¹⁵'Bā'- āl-pē-ōr, and ¹⁶'separated themselves unto that shame; ¹⁷'and their abominations were according as they loved.

11 As for Ē'-phrā-īm, their glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, ^awoe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ē'-phrā-īm, ^bas I saw Ty'-rūs, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ē'-phrā-īm shall bring forth his children to the murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them ^aa ^cmiscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in Gil'-gāl: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them no more: ^dall their princes are revolvers.

16 Ē'-phrā-īm is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even ^ethe beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10.

Israel is reproved and threatened for their impiety and idolatry.

ĪŠ'-RĀ-ĒL is ^aan empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit ^bhe hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly ^cimages.

2 ^aTheir heart is ^bdivided; now shall they be found faulty: he shall ^cbreak down their altars, he shall spoil their images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up ^aas hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Sā-mār'-ī-ā shall fear because of the calves of Bēth-ā'-vën: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and ^athe priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

8 ^Ē-phrā-īm shall say, What has I to do any more with idols? I have heard him, and observed him: I will be like a green fir tree. From me shall thy fruit found.

9 Who is wise, and he shall understand these things? prudent, and he shall know them? for ^athe ways of the LORD are right, and the just shall walk in them: but the transgressors shall fall therein.

JŌ'-ĒL.

CHAPTER 1.

Joel exhorteth to mourning.

THE word of the LORD that came to Jō'-ēl the son of Pě-thū'-ēl.

Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

Tell ye your children of it, and your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

For a nation is come up upon your land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.

Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.

The meat offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

The field is wasted, the land burneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished.

The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because they are withered away from the face of men.

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He sheweth the terrible ness of God's judgment, 12 exhorteth to repentance, 21 and comforteth Zion.

BLOW ye the trumpet in Zi'-on, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of E'-dén before them, "and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 "The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 "Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: ^aall faces shall gather ^bblackness.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall ^center in at the windows ^dlike a thief.

10 "The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining:

11 "And the LORD shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: ^efor he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and ^fwho can abide it?

12 ¶ Therefore also now, saith the LORD, ^gturn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

that suck the breasts: ¹let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep ²between the porch and the altar, and let them say, ³Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach: that the heathen should ⁴rule over them: ⁵wherefore should they weep among the people, Where is the LORD?

18 ¶ Then will the LORD ⁶be jealous for his land, ⁷and pity his people.

19 Yea, the LORD will answer ⁸say unto his people, Behold, I will send you ⁹'corn, and wine, and oil: and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you ¹⁰proach among the heathen:

20 But ¹¹I will remove far off from you ¹²the northern army, and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part ¹³toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because ¹⁴he hath done great things.

21 ¶ Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for ¹⁵the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zi'-on, and ¹⁶rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you ¹⁷former rain ¹⁸moderately, and ¹⁹will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will restore to you ²⁰years ²¹that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army, which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall ²²eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath done wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

18 His blessing upon the church.

OR, behold, ¹in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring in the captivity of Jû'-dâh and rû'-sâ-lêm,

I will also gather all nations,
I will bring them down into the ey of Jê-hôsh'-â-phât, and ²will
d with them there for my people for my heritage Îs'-râ-êl, whom y have scattered among the nas, and parted my land.

And they have ³cast lots for my ple; and have given a boy for harlot, and sold a girl for wine, they might drink.

Yea, and what have ye to do with ⁴O Tÿre, and Zi'-dôn, and all the sts of Pâl'-ês-tine? will ye render a recompence? and if ye recom-se me, swiftly and speedily will turn your recompence upon your a head;

Because ye have taken my silver r my gold, and have carried into r temples my goodly ⁵pleasant gs:

The children also of Jû'-dâh and children of Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm have sold unto ⁶the Grê'-cîans, that might remove them far from

CHAPTER 3.

The necessity of God's judgment against Israel.

HEAR this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Iš'-rā-ēl, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of E'-gŷpt, saying,

2 ^aYou only have I known of all the families of the earth: 'therefore I will ^b'punish you for all your iniquities.

3 Can two walk together, except they be agreed?

4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion ^c'cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?

5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all?

6 Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people ^d'not be afraid?
'shall there be evil in a city, ^e'and
the LORD hath not done it?

7 Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but ^f'he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.

8 The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken,
'who can but prophesy?

9 ^gI Publish in the palaces at Āsh'- dōd, and in the palaces in the land of E'-gŷpt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Sā-mār'-i-ā, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the ^h'oppressed in the midst thereof.

10 For they ⁱ'know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and ^j'robbery in their palaces.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd ² taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Is'-rā-ēl be taken out that dwell in Sā-mār'-i-ā in the corner of a bed, and ³ in Dā-mās'-cūs in a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of Jā'-qob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, 14 That in the day that I shall ⁴ visit the transgressions of Is'-rā-ēl upon him I will also visit the altars of Bēth'-ēl: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.

HEAR ye this word which I ¹ tell against you, even a lamentation, O house of Is'-rā-ēl.

2 The virgin of Is'-rā-ēl is fallen: she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; ² there is no one to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD: The city that went out by a thousand walls shall leave an hundred, and the city that went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Is'-rā-ēl.

For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Īś'-rā-ēl, ^bSeek ye me, and ye shall live: But seek not ^dBēth'-ēl, nor enter Gil'-gāl, and pass not to ^fBeer'-bā: for Gil'-gāl shall surely go to captivity, and ^aBēth'-ēl shall be to nought.

Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; he break out like fire in the house of Jō'-sēph, and devour it, there be none to quench it in H'-ēl.

Ye who ⁱturn judgment to wormwood, and leave off righteousness in the earth,

Seek him that maketh the ^mseven stars and Ō-rī'-on, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that ^jcalleth for the waters under the sea, and poureth them out on the face of the earth: ^kThe LORD is his name:

That strengtheneth the ^lspoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled will come against the fortress.

ⁿThey hate him that rebuketh the gate, and they ^oabhor him that speaketh uprightly.

Forasmuch therefore as your trading is upon the poor, and ye have from him burdens of wheat:

Ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted ^ppleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine of them.

For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take ^qa bribe, and they ^rturn aside the poor from the gate from their right.

Therefore ^sthe prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, ^tas ye have spoken.

^uHate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the land; ^vit may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Jō'-sēph.

Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall lament in all the highways, Alas! alas! they shall call the husbandman

CHAPTER 6.

1 The wantonness of Israel, ^tshall be plagued with desolation, 12 and their incorrigibleness.

WOE ^uto them that ^vare at ease in Zī'-on, and trust in the mountain of Sā-mār'-i-ā, which are named ^wchief of the nations, to whom the house of Īś'-rā-ēl came!

2 ^xPass ye unto ^yCāl'-nēh, and see; and from thence go ye to ^zHā'-māth the great: then go down to ^{aa}Gāth of the Phil'-is-tineš: ^{ab}be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

3 Ye that ^{ac}put far away the ^{ad}evil day, and cause ^{ae}the ^{af}seat of violence to come near;

4 That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;

5 *That 'chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, ⁶like Dā'-vid;

6 That drink ⁷wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: ⁸but they are not grieved for the ⁹affliction of Jō'-séph.

7 ¶ Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them that stretched themselves shall be removed.

8 /The Lord God hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor ⁹the excellency of Jā'-cob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all ¹⁰that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

10 And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, 'Hold thy tongue: 'for 'we may not make mention of the name of the LORD.

11 For, behold, ¹²the LORD commandeth, ¹³and he will smite the great house with ¹⁴breaches, and the little house with clefts.

12 ¶ Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ¹⁵ye have turned judgment into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock:

13 Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

14 But, behold, ¹⁶*I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Is'-rā-él, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the ¹⁷entering in of Hē'-māth unto the ¹⁸river of the wilderness.

THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me; and, behold, he fed ¹grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the land; growth; and, lo, it was the land growth after the king's mowing.

2 And it came to pass, that they had made an end of eating grass of the land, then I said, O God, forgive, I beseech thee: ³whom shall Jā'-cob arise? for is small.

3 *The LORD repented for this shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 ¶ Thus hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord ⁵called to contend by fire, and it vowed the great deep, and did up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord God, cease I beseech thee: ⁶by whom shall Jā'-cob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this. This also shall not be, saith the LORD.

7 ¶ Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto ⁹Ā'-mōs, what seest thou? And he said, A plumbline. Then said the LORD, Behold, ¹⁰*I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Is'-rā-él: ¹¹I will not again pass by them: more:

9 *And the high places of Is'-rā-él shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Is'-rā-él shall be laid waste; ¹²I will rise against the house of Jēr-ō-bō'-ām with the sword.

10 ¶ Then Ām-ā-zī'-āh ¹³the priest of Bēth'-ēl sent to ¹⁴Jēr-ō-bō'-ām king of Is'-rā-él, saying, ¹⁵Ā'-mōs hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Is'-rā-él: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus ¹⁶Ā'-mōs saith, Jēr-ō-bō'-ām shall die by the sword, Is'-rā-él shall surely be led away captive out of their own land.

12 Also Ām-ā-zī'-āh said unto ¹⁷mōs, O thou seer, go, flee thee away into the land of Jū'-dāh, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But ¹⁸prophesy not again in more at Bēth'-ēl: ¹⁹for it is the king's ²⁰'chapel, and it is the ²¹'king's court.

14 ¶ Then answered ²²Ā'-mōs, and to Am-ä-zî'-äh, I was no prophet, neither was I ^a a prophet's son; ^b but was an herdsman, and a gatherer of ^c sycomore fruit:

5 And the LORD took me ^a as I plowed the flock, and the LORD d^a unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people İs'-rä-ël.
6 ¶ Now therefore hear thou the word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against İs'-rä-ël, and prop not thy word against the use of İ'-säac.
7 ¶ Therefore thus saith the LORD;
Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and İs'-rä-ël shall surely go into captivity out of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

A basket of summer fruit is shewed the proximity of Israel's end. 11 Famine of the word.

THUS hath the Lord God shewed unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

And he said, Ä'-möš, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of İs'-rä-ël; ^a I will not again pass by them any more.

And ^a the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; ^a they shall cast them forth with silence.

ing the balances by deceit?

That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of meat?

The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jä'-qöb, Surely ^a I will never forget any of their works.

¶ Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that relleth therein? and it shall rise

CHAPTER 9.

1 The certainty of the desolation. 11 The restoring of the tabernacle of David.

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the 'lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and ^a cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: ^a he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 ¶ Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them;
^a though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Cär'-mél, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, ^a thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and *I will set mine eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord God of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall ^d melt, *and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by the flood of Ē'-gÿpt.

6 It is he that buildeth his ³⁴ stories in the heaven, and hath founded his ^b troop in the earth; he that ^k calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: ^k The LORD is his name.

7 Are ye not as children of the Ē-thi-ō'-pi-āns unto me, O children of Īs'-rā-ēl? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Īs'-rā-ēl out of the land of Ē'-gÿpt? and the ^m Phil'-is-tīnēs from ^o Cāph'-tôr, and the Sÿr'-i-āns from ^p Kir?

8 Behold, *the eyes of the Lord God are upon the sinful kingdom, and I *will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jā'-cob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will *sift the house of Īs'-rā-ēl among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least ^a grain fall upon the earth.

JŌ'-NĀH.

CHAPTER 1.

Jonah, fleeing to Tarshish, is cast into the sea.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto Jō'-nāh the son of Ā-mīt'- ai, saying,

2 Arise, go to Nīn'-ē-vēh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me.

3 But Jō'-nāh rose up to flee unto Tār'-shish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Jōp'-pā; and he found a ship going to Tār'- shish: so he paid the fare thereof and went down into it, to go with them unto Tār'-shish 'from the presence of the LORD.

4 ¶ But *the LORD 'sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was 'like to be broken.

5 Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and 'cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jō'-nāh was gone down 'into the sides of the ship;
and he lay, and was fast asleep.

6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, 'call upon thy God, 'if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

7 And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us ^acast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil ^{is} upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jō'-nāh.

8 Then said they unto him, ^cTell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil ^{is} upon us; What ^{is} thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what ^{is} thy country? and of what people ^{art} thou?

9 And he said unto them, I ^{am} an Hē'-brēw; and I fear ^{the} LORD, the God of heaven, ^{which} hath made the sea and the dry ^{land}.

10 Then were the men ^{exceed-}ingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

11 ¶ Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea ^{may} be calm unto us? for the sea ^{was} wrought, and was tempestuous.

12 And he said unto them, ^{Take} me up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest ^{is} upon you.

13 Nevertheless the men ^{rowed} hard to bring ^{it} to the land; ^{but} they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

14 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and ^{lay} not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, ^{hast} done as it pleased thee.

15 So they took up Jō'-nāh, and cast him forth into the sea: ^{and} the sea ^{ceased} from her raging.

16 Then the men ^{feared} the LORD exceedingly, and ^{offered} a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows.

17 ¶ Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jō'-nāh. And ^{Jō'-nāh} was in the ^{belly} of the fish three days and three nights.

1 Jonah, sent again, preacheth to the Ninevites Upon their repentance, 10 God repenteth.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jō'-nāh the second time saying,

2 Arise, go unto Nin'-ē-vēh, the great city, and preach unto it ^tthat I bid thee.

3 So Jō'-nāh arose, and went unto Nin'-ē-vēh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nin'-ē-vēh was ^uexceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jō'-nāh began to enter in the city a day's journey, and ^vcried, and said, Yet forty days, and Nin'-ē-vēh shall be overthrown.

5 ¶ So the people of Nin'-ē-vēh ^wbelieved God, and proclaimed fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nin'-ē-vēh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered ^xhim with sackcloth, ^yand sat in ashes.

And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through in-ě-vēh by the decree of the ng and his nobles, saying, Let either man nor beast, herd nor eck, taste any thing: let them t feed, nor drink water:

But let man and beast be covered th sackcloth, and cry mightily to God: yea, let them turn ery one from his evil way, and om the violence that is in their nds.

Who can tell if God will turn d repent, and turn away from his ree anger, that we perish not?

¶ And God saw their works, at they turned from their evil ay; and God repented of the evil, at he had said that he would do to them; and he did it not.

5 So Jō'-nāh went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jō'-nāh, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jō'-nāh was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jō'-nāh, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jō'-nāh, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jā'-cōb;
and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zi'-on, and the word of the LORD from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

3 ¶ And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into *plowshares, and their spears into *pruninghooks:
nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, *neither shall they learn war any more.

4 *But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For *all people will walk every one in the name of his god, and *we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, *will I assemble her that halteth, *and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted
b a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD *shall reign over them in mount Zi'-on from henceforth, even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, O tower of *the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zi'-on, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? 'is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for *pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zi'-on, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Bāb'-y-lon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zi'-on.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them ^a as the sheaves into the floor.

13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zi'-on: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt ^a beat in pieces many people: ^m and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto ⁿ the Lord of the whole earth.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall ^a smite the judge of Īs'-rā-ēl with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou, ^b Bēth'-lē-hēm Ēph'-rā-tāh, though thou be little ^a among the ⁿ thousands of Jū'-dāh, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ^a ruler in Īs'-rā-ēl; ⁿ whose goings forth have been from of old, from ^a everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that ^a she which travaileth hath brought forth: then ^b the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Īs'-rā-ēl.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and ^a feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall abide: for now ^a shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man ^a shall be the peace, when the Ās-sūr'-i-ān shall come into our land; and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight ^a principal men.

6 And they shall ^a waste the land

CHAPTER 6.

1 God's controversy for unkindness, 6 for ingratitude, 10 for injustice, 16 and for idolatry.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, of the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Īs'-rā-ēl.

3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me

* For I brought thee up out of the land of Ē-gypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Mō'-šēš, Aā'-nā, and Mīr'-i-ām.

O my people, remember now at Bā'-lāk king of Mō'-āb contended, and what Bā'-lām the son of Bē'-ōr answered him from d'Shit'-u unto Gīl'-gāl; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD.

¶ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before thee with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

'Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? 'shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

He hath shewed thee, O man, that is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but *to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God?

The LORD's voice crieth unto the man, and *the man of wisdom shall hear his name: hear ye the rod, and ye shall have appointed it.

¶ Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

'Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the deceitful weights?

For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

Therefore also will I make thee break in smiting thee, in making thee solitary because of thy sins.

'Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou desirest will I give up to the sword.

Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine.

CHAPTER 7.

1 The church, complaining of her small number, 3 and the general corruption, 5 putteth her confidence not in man, but in God. 8 The church's triumph.

WOE is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

2 The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men; they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 ¶ That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 ¶ Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.

8 ¶ Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

thy munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power rightly.

For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jā'-qōb, as the excellency of Is'-rā-ēl: for the captives have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches.

The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his reparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken.

The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways: ²they shall seem like torches, they shall be like the lightnings.

He shall recount his ³worthies:
they shall stumble in their walk;
they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the ⁴defence shall be prepared.

The gates of the rivers shall be their corpses; they stumble upon their corpses:

4 Because of the multitude of the her witchcrafts.

5 Behold, I am against thee, saith

I will shew the nations thy nakedness, and the kingdoms thy shame.

6 And I will cast abominable filth

HÄ-BÄK'-KÜK.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Unto Habakkuk, complaining of the iniquity of the land, is shewed the fearful vengeance by the Chaldeans. 12 He complaineth that vengeance should be executed by them who are far worse.

THE burden which Hä-bäk'-kük the prophet did see.

^aO LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slackened, and judgment doth never go forth: for the ^bwicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore ^cwrong judgment proceedeth.

5 ¶ Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, ^dI raise up the Chäldë'-äns, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the ^ebreadth of the land, to pos-

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall be as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: ¹⁷their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be scorned unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, ¹⁸imputing this his power unto his god.

12 ¶ Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, ¹⁹thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O ²⁰mighty God

Thou hast ² established them for correction.

3 Thou art of purer eyes than to hold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou on them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he?

4 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the ⁵ creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

5 They ⁶ take up all of them with a net, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their ⁷ drag: before they rejoice and are glad.

6 Therefore ⁸ they sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat ⁹ plentiful.

7 Shall they therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 1.

Haggai reproveth the people for neglecting the building of the house. ¶ He inciteth them to the building. 12 He promiseth God's assistance.

1 ¶ In the second year of Dā-rī'-ūs the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD 'by Hāg'-gāi the prophet unto 'Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl the son of Shē-āl'-tī-ēl, 'governor of Jū'-dāh, and to 'Jōsh'-ū-ā the son of ¹Jōs'-ē-dech, the high priest, saying,

2 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

3 Then came the word of the LORD by Hāg'-gāi the prophet, saying, 4 'Is it time for you, O ye, to dwell in your cieled houses, and this house be waste?

5 Now therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts; '6 Consider your ways.

6 Ye have 'sown much, and bring forth little; ye eat, but ye have not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and ⁷he that earneth wages earneth wages, but ⁸put it into a bag 'with holes.

7 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; consider your ways.

8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

10 Therefore ¹the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

11 And I ¹called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and 'upon all the labour of the hands.

1 The greater glory of the second temple. 20 God's promise to Zerubbabel.

IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD ² by the prophet Hăg'-gâi, saying,

2 Speak now to Zê-rûb'-bă-běl the son of Shê-ăl'-tî-ël, governor of Jû'-dăh, and to Jôsh'-û-ă the son of Jôs'-ê-dêch, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying,

3 ^a Who is left among you that saw this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? ^f is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing?

4 Yet now ^g be strong, O Zê-rûb'-bă-běl, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Jôsh'-û-ă, son of Jôs'-ê-dêch, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts:

5 ^h According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Ê'-gÿpt, so ⁱ my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

6 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^j Yet once, it is a little while, and ^k I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;

14 Then answered Hăg'-gâi, and said, ^b So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of the hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, ^c consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

vision of the four horns, and the four carpenters.

N the eighth month, ^b in the second year of Dă-rî'-ūs, came the word of the LORD ^c unto Zĕch-ā-h, the son of Bēr-ē-chî'-āh, the son of Īd'-dō the prophet, saying,
The LORD hath been ² sore displeased with your fathers.

Therefore say thou unto them,
Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

Be ye not as your fathers, ⁹ unto whom the former prophets have spoken, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ⁴ Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings:
for they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

Your fathers, where are they?
And the prophets, do they live for ever?

But ¹ my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not ² take returned and said, ³ Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he brought it all upon us.

¶ Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sē'-bāt, in the second year of Dă-rî'-ūs, came the word of the LORD unto Zĕch-ā-rî'-āh, the son are these? And the angel that 11 ^a And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, ⁴ O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jĕ-rû'-sā-lēm and on the cities of Jû'-dāh, against which thou hast had indignation ⁵ these three-score and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with ⁶ good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am ⁷ jealous for Jĕ-rû'- sā-lēm and for Zi'-on with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease:
for ⁸ I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the afflic-tion.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD;
⁹ I am returned to Jĕ-rû'-sā-lēm with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and ¹⁰ a line shall be stretched forth upon Jĕ-rû'-sā-lēm.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities throughout ¹¹ prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; ¹² and the LORD shall yet comfort Zi'-on, and ¹³ shall yet choose Jĕ-rû'-sā-lēm.

18 ¶ Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these?
And he answered me, ¹⁴ These are the horns which have scattered Jû'- dāh, Īs'-rā'-ĕl, and Jĕ-rû'-sā-lēm.

20 And the LORD shewed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Jû'-dāh, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gën'-tîlēs, which ^blifted up their horn over the land of Jû'-dāh to scatter it.

1 God, in the care of Jerusalem, sendeth to measure it. 6 The redemption of Zion. 10 The promise of God's presence.

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and I looked, and behold ^aa man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, ^aTo measure Jê-rû'-sā-lēm, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, ^aJê-rû'-sā-lēm shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her ^aa wall of fire round about, ^aand will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee ^afrom the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have ^aspread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O Zi'-on, that dwellest with the daughter of Bāb'-y-lon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that ^atoucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will ^ashake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ^aye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zi'-on: for, lo, I come, and I ^awill dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 ^aAnd many nations shall be joined to the LORD ^ain that day, and shall be ^amy people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and ^athou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall ^ainherit Jû'-dāh his portion in the holy land, and ^ashall choose Jê-rû'-sā-lēm again.

ND the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of sleep,

And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

And two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and another upon the left side thereof.

So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Lowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

Then he answered and spake to me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl thou shalt become a plain: and he shall lift forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

The hands of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall receive, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zē-rūb'-bā-bēl with those eyes; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

Then answered I, and said to him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

And I answered again, and said to him, What be these two olive branches which through the golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

And he answered me and said, Lowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my lord.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Vision of the flying roll, and of a woman pressed in an ephah.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 ¶ Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ē-phāh that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ē-phāh.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ē-phāh; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ē-phāh between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ē-phāh?

11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shī-nār: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

1 The vision of four chariots. 9 The temple and kingdom of Christ the Branch.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.

2 In the first chariot were ^cred horses; and in the second chariot ^cblack horses;

3 And in the third chariot ^swhite horses; and in the fourth chariot grised and ^bbay horses.

4 Then I answered ^sand said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, ^aThese are the four ^sspirits of the heavens, which go forth from ^sstanding before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses which are therein go forth into ^athe north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grised go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might ^swalk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have quieted my ^cspirit in the north country.

9 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

10 Take of them of the captivity, even of Hēl'-dāi, of Tō-bī'-jāh, and of Jē-dāi'-āh, which are come from Bāb'-y-lon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Jō-si'-āh the son of Zēph-ā-ni'-āh;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make ^ccrowns, and set them upon the head of Jōsh'-ū-ā the son of Jōs'-ē-dēch, the high priest;

CHAPTER 7.

1 The captives enquire concerning fasting. 4 Zechariah reproveth their fasting.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Dā-rī'-ūs, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah the prophet, in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chis'-lēu;

2 When they had sent unto the house of God Shēr-ē'-zēr and gēm-mēl'-ēch, and their men, to pray before the LORD;

3 And to ^aask unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in ^athe fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

4 ¶ Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye ^afasted and mourned in the fifth ^aand seventh month, ^aeven those seventy years, did ye eat and fast ^aunto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, ^adid not ye eat and drink ^afor yourselves?

7 ^aShould ye not hear the word of the LORD which the LORD hath cried ^aby the former prophets, when Jē-rū'-sā-lēm was inhabited and in prosperity, the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited ^athe south and the plain?

8 ¶ And the word of the LORD came unto Zēch-ā-rī'-āh, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, ^aExecute true judgment, and shew mercy and compassion every man to his brother:

10 And ^aoppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, the poor; ^aand let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

1 But they refused to hearken, and ^apulled away the shoulder, and ^astopped their ears, that they could not hear.

2 Yea, they made their ^ahearts as adamant stone, ^alest they should break the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit ^aby the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts.

3 Therefore it is come to pass, ^aat as he cried, and they would not hear; so ^athey cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

4 But ^aI scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the ^apleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER 8.

GAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^aI am jealous for Zi'on with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury.

Thus saith the LORD; I am returned unto Zi'on, and will dwell in the midst of Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm: and Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm shall be called a city of truth; and ^athe mountain of the LORD of hosts ^athe holy mountain.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts; here shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jê-rû'-lêm, and every man with his staff in his hand ^afor very age.

And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If ye be ^amarvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, ^ashould it also be marvellous mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts; behold, ^aI will save my people from the east country, and from ^athe west country;

And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm: ^aand they shall be my people,

9 ¶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^aLet your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of ^cthe prophets, which were in ^dthe day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days ^athere was no ^ahire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ^aFor the seed shall be ^aprosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and ^bthe ground shall give her increase, and ^cthe heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were ^aa curse among the heathen, O house of Jû'-dâh, and house of Is'-râ-ël; so will I save you, and ^aye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; ^aAs I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, ^aand I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm and to the house of Jû'-dâh: fear ye not.

16 ¶ These are the things that ye shall do; ^aSpeak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; ^aexecute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates:

17 ^aAnd let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD.

22 Yea, ³ many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm, and to pray before the LORD.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Destruction of Jerusalem. 3 The elect being cared for, the rest are rejected. 10 The staves of Beauty and Bands broken by the rejection of Christ. 15 Type and curse of a foolish shepherd.

OPEN ¹thy doors, O Lëb'-â-non, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the ⁶mighty are spoiled:
howl, O ye oaks of Bâ'-shân; ⁹for ⁶the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jôr'-dân is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God;
Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and ²hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them ²say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will ⁶deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king:
and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I will feed the flock of slaughter, ⁹even you, ⁷O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called ²Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off ²in one month; and my soul ³loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you:
²that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh ⁴of another.

10 ¶ And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people.

11 And it was broken in that day:
and ⁶so ²the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said unto them, ²If ye think good, give me my price; and if not, forbear. So they ⁹weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the ⁴potter: a goodly price that I was prized at of them.
And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even ²Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Jû'-dāh and Īs'-rā-ēl.

15 ¶ And the LORD said unto me, ⁴Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which shall not visit those that be ⁶cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor ⁶feed that that standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 ⁴Woe to the idol shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Jerusalem a cup of trembling to herself, 3 and a burdensome stone to her adversaries. 6 Victorious restoring of Judah. 9 Repentance of Jerusalem.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Īs'-rā-ēl, saith the LORD, ⁴which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and ⁴formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jě-rû'-sā-lēm ²a cup of ²trembling unto all the people round about, ²when they shall be in the siege both against Jû'-dāh and against Jě-rû'-sā-lēm.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jě-rû'-sā-lēm ²a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, ⁴I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Jû'-dāh, and will smite every horse of the people with blindness.

5 And the governors of Jû'-dāh shall say in their heart, ⁴The inhabitants of Jě-rû'-sā-lēm shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the governors of Jû'-dāh ⁴like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jě-rû'-sā-lēm shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jě-rû'-sā-lēm.

9 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to ⁶destroy all the nations that come against Jě-rû'-sā-lēm.

10 And I will pour upon the house of Dā'-vid, and upon the inhabitants of Jě-rû'-sā-lēm, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, ⁴as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be great ⁴mourning in Jě-rû'-sā-lēm, ⁴as the mourning of Hā-dād-rimmon in the valley of Mē-gid-don.

12 And the land shall mourn ⁴every family apart; the family of the house of Dā'-vid apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nā'-than apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13.

1 The fountain of purification for Jerusalem, 2 idolatry, and false prophecy. 7 The death of Christ and the trial of a third part.

IN that day there shall be ²a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jě-rû'-sā-lēm for sin and for ²uncleanness.

2 ¶ And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will ²cut off the names of idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause ²the prophets and the clean spirit to pass out of the land.

3 And it shall come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, that his father and his mother that be alive shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that be shall thrust him through when prophesieth.

And it shall come to pass in that day, ¹that ²the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither will they wear ³a rough garment to deceive:

But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for I have taught me to keep cattle from youth.

And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? and he shall answer, Those which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

Awake, O sword, against ¹my shepherd, and against the man ²that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon ³the little ones.

And it shall come to pass, that in that day, saith the LORD, two parts of the land shall be cut off and die; ¹but the third part shall be left therein.

And I will bring the third part through the fire, and will ²refine them as silver is refined, and as gold is tried: ³they shall be to me, and I will hear them: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

CHAPTER 14.

The destroyers of Jerusalem destroyed. ⁴The coming of Christ, and the graces of his kingdom. The plague of Jerusalem's enemies. ¹⁶The remnant shall turn to the Lord, ²⁰and their idols shall be holy.

BEHOLD, ¹the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

For ²I will gather all nations against Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses spoiled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, ¹and ye shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall re-

13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that ¹⁵a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and ¹⁶his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And ¹⁷Jū'-dāh also shall fight at Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm; ¹⁸and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.

that doeth this, 'the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jā'-qōb, 'and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 ¶ Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and 'the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: 'yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And 'did not he make one? Yet had he the 'residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek 'a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal 'treach-erously against the wife of his youth.

16 For 'the LORD, the God of Īs'- rā-ēl, saith 'that he hateth 'putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts:
therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 ¶ 'Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or,
Where is the God of judgment?

CHAPTER 3.

1 Of the messenger, majesty, and grace of Christ. 7
Of the rebellion, 8 sacrilege, 13 and infidelity of the people. 16 The promise of blessing to them that fear God.

BEHOLD, 'I will send my messenger, and he shall 'prepare the way before me: and the LORD, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, 'even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, 'he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

2 But who may abide 'the day of his coming? and 'who shall stand when he appeareth? for 'he is like a re-finer's fire, and like fullers' soap:

3 And 'he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Lē'-vī, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may 'offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then 'shall the offering of Jū'- dāh and Jē-rū'-sā-lēm be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in 'former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of Jā'-cōb are not consumed.

7 ¶ Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 ¶ Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 ¶ Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

FOR, behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; all the proud, yea, and all that have wrought wickedly, shall be as stubble: the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

2 ¶ But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow as calves of the stall.

3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 ¶ Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Hôr-êb, all Is'-ra-ël, with the statutes and judgments.

5 ¶ Behold, I will send you E-l-i-jah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD.

husband of Mār'-y, of whom was born Jē'-sūs, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Ā'-brā-hām to Dā'-vid are fourteen generations; and from Dā'-vid until the carrying away into Bāb'-y-lon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Bāb'-y-lon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the ^abirth of Jē'-sūs Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mār'-y was espoused to Jō'-sēph, before they came together, she was found with child ^b of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Jō'-sēph her husband, being a just man, and not willing ^c to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Jō'-sēph, thou son of Dā'-vid, fear not to take unto thee Mār'-y thy wife: ^d for that which is ^e conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name ^f JĒ'-SŪS: for ^g he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 'Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and ^h they shall call his name Ēm-mān'-ū-ēl, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Jō'-sēph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth ⁱ her firstborn son: and he called his name JĒ'-SŪS.

CHAPTER 2.

¹ The wise men directed to Christ by a star. 11 They worship him, and offer him presents. 14 Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and Mary. 16 Herod slayeth the children.

NOW when ^a Jē'-sūs was born in Bēth'-lē-hēm of Jū-dā'-ā in the days of Hēr'-ōd the king, behold, there came wise men ^afrom the east to Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm,

2 Saying, ^bWhere is he that is born King of the Jêw's? for we have seen ^chis star in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Hêr'-ôd the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm with him.

4 And when he had gathered all ^dthe chief priests and ^escribes of the people together, ^fhe demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bêth'-lê-hêm of Jû-dæ'-ă: for thus it is written by the prophet,

6 ^gAnd thou Bêth'-lê-hêm, in the land of Jû'-dă, art not the least among the princes of Jû'-dă: for out of thee shall come a Governor, ^hthat shall ⁱrule my people Îs'-râ-êl.

7 Then Hêr'-ôd, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bêth'-lê-hêm, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mâr'-ÿ his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, ^mthey ⁿpresented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God ^pin a dream that they should not return to Hêr'-ôd, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Jô'-sêph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Ê'-gÿpt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Hêr'-ôd will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the 15 And was there until the death of Hêr'-ôd: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, ^gOut of Ê'-gÿpt have I called my son.

16 ¶ Then Hêr'-ôd, when he perceived that he was mocked of the men, was exceeding wroth, and slew the children that were in Bêth'-lê-hêm, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by ^hJêr'-ê-mÿ the prophet, saying,

18 In Râ-mă was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Râ'-chêl weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they were not.

19 ¶ But when Hêr'-ôd was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Jô'-sêph in Ê'-gÿpt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Îs'-râ-êl: they are dead which sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Îs'-râ-êl.

22 But when he heard that chê-lă'-ûs did reign in Jû-dæ'-ă, the room of his father Hêr'-ôd, was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside ⁱinto parts of Găl'-î-lêe:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called ^jNăz'-ă-rêth: that it might be fulfilled ^kwhich was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nă-ă-rêne.

CHAPTER 3.

1 John preacheth: his office, life, and baptism. He baptizeth Christ in Jordan.

IN those days came ^aJôhn Băp'-tist, preaching ^bin the wilderness of Jû-dæ'-ă,

2 And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Ê-săi'-ăs, saying, ^c'The voice of one crying in the wilderness, ness, ^a Prepare ye the way of the rd, make his paths straight.

And ^b the same Jōhn ^c had his rai-ent of camel's hair, and a leathern rle about his loins; and his meat s ^d locusts and ^e wild honey.
^f Then went out to him Jē-rū-lēm, and all Jū-dē'-ā, and all the gion round about Jōr'-dān, ^g And were baptized of him in r'-dān, confessing their sins.
^h But when he saw many of the ār'-i-seēs and Sād'-dū-çees come his baptism, he said unto them, generation of vipers, who hath arned you to flee from ⁱ the wrath come?
Bring forth therefore fruits ^j meet repentance:
And think not to say within your-ves, ^k We have Ā'-brā-hām to our her: for I say unto you, that God able of these stones to raise up ildren unto Ā'-brā-hām.
^l And now also the axe is laid to the root of the trees: ^m there-re every tree which bringeth not rth good fruit is hewn down, and st into the fire.
ⁿ I indeed baptize you with ter unto repentance: but he at cometh after me is mightier an I, whose shoes I am not orthy to bear: ^o he shall baptize u with the Holy Ghost, and ^p with e:
^q Whose fan ^r is in his hand, and will thoroughly purge his floor, d gather his wheat into the garr; but he will ^s burn up the chaff
th unquenchable fire.
^t Then cometh Jē'-šūs ^u from il'-i-lēe to Jōr'-dān unto Jōhn, to baptized of him.
^v But Jōhn forbad him, saying, I ve need to be baptized of thee,
d comest thou to me?
^w And Jē'-šūs answering said unto m, Suffer it to be so now: for thus becometh us to fulfil all righteous-ss. Then he suffered him.
^x And Jē'-šūs, when he was bapzed, went up straightway out of e water: and, lo, the heavens were ened unto him, and he saw ^y the irit of God descending like a dove,
d lighting upon him:
^z And lo a voice from heaven, ying, ^{aa} This is my beloved Son, in

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ fasteth, and is tempted. 17 He beginneth to preach, 18 calleth Peter and Andrew, 21 James and John, 23 healeth all the diseased.

THEN was ^a Jē'-šūs led up of ^b the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil.

2 And when he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was afterward an hungred.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, ^c Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down:
for it is written, ^d He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in ^e their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jē'-šūs said unto him, It is written again, ^f Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of
them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jē'-šūs unto him, Get thee hence, Sā'-tān: for it is written, ^g Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, ^h angels came and ministered unto him.

12 ¶ Now when Jē'-šūs had heard that Jōhn was ⁱ cast into prison, he departed into Gāl'-i-lēe;

13 And leaving Nāz'-ā-rēth, he came and dwelt in Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zā-bū'-lōn and Nēph'-thā-līm:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ē-sā'-ās the prophet, saying,

15 ^j The land of Zā-bū'-lōn, and the land of Nēph'-thā-līm, by the way of the sea, beyond Jôr'dân, Gäl'-i-lée of the Gën'-tilés;

16 ^b The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 [†] From that time Jē'-šūs began to preach, and to say, [†] Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 [†] And Jē'-šūs, walking by the sea of Gäl'-i-lée, saw two brethren, Sī'-mon [†] called Pē'-tēr, and Ān'-drēw his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and [†] I will make you fishers of men.

20 [†] And they straightway left their nets, and followed him.

21 [†] And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, Jāmes the son of Zēb'-ē-dēē, and Jōhn his brother, in a ship with Zēb'-ē-dēē their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the ship and their father, and followed him.

23 [†] And Jē'-šūs went about all Gäl'-i-lée, [†] teaching in their synagogues, and preaching [†] the gospel of the kingdom, ^b and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all Sŷr'-i-ā: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 [†] And there followed him great multitudes of people from Gäl'-i-lée, and from Dē-cāp'-ō-līs, and from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and from Jū-dāē'-ā, and from beyond Jôr'dân.

CHAPTER 5.

¹ Christ beginneth his sermon in the mount: ³ declaring who are blessed, ¹³ who are the salt of the earth, ¹⁴ the light of the world, the city on an hill, ¹⁶ the candle. ²¹ What it is to kill, ²⁷ to commit adultery, ³³ to swear: ³⁸ exhorteth to suffer wrong, ⁴⁴ to love even our enemies, ⁴⁸ and to labour after perfectness.

AND seeing the multitudes, [†] he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 [†] Blessed are the poor in spirit for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 [†] Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted.

5 [†] Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 [†] Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: they shall be filled.

7 [†] Blessed are the merciful: they shall obtain mercy.

8 [†] Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God.

9 [†] Blessed are the peacemakers: they shall be called the children of God.

10 [†] Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

11 [†] Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of [†] evil against you [†] falsely, for my sake.

12 [†] Rejoice, and be exceeding glad for great is your reward in heaven for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 [†] Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour wherewith shall it be salted? it thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 [†] Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men [†] light a candle and put it under [†] a bushel, but [†] a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, [†] that they may see your good works, and [†] glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 [†] Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 [†] Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, 'Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That 'whoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, 'Rā'-cā, shall be in danger of the council: and whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore 'if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 *Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 *Agree with thine adversary quickly, 'whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, 'Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 *And if thy right eye offend thee, 'pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

30 And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

31 It hath been said, 'Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That 'whoever shall put away his wife, 47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so?

48 'Be ye therefore perfect, even 'as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ continueth his sermon in the mount, speaking of alms, 5 prayer, 14 forgiving our brethren, 16 fasting, 19 where our treasure is to be laid up, 24 of serving God, and mammon, 25 of worldly things, 33 of God's kingdom.

TAKE heed that ye do not your ²alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward ³of your Father which is in heaven.

2 Therefore ⁴when thou doest thine alms, ⁴do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself ⁵shall reward thee openly.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, ⁶enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, ⁷use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: ⁸for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore pray ye: ⁹Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kingdom come. ¹⁰Thy will be done in earth, ¹⁰as it is in heaven.

— 11 Give us this day our ¹¹daily bread.

+ 12 And ¹²forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

— 13 And lead us not into temptation, but ¹³deliver us from evil: ¹³For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. A'men.

14 ¹⁴For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

17 But thou, when thou fastest, ^canoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, who seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

19 ¶ Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moths and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal:

20 But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal:

21 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 ^aThe light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light.

23 But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

24 ¶ No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. ^aYe cannot serve God and mammon.

25 Therefore I say unto you, ^aTake no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That en Söl'-ð-møn in all his glory was arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is,
and to morrow is cast into the oven, will he not much more clothe you, ye of little faith?

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or,
What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But I seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and these things shall be added unto you.

Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall care thought for the things of itself.
Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

CHAPTER 7.

Christ ending his sermon in the mount, reproveth the Jewish judgment, 6 forbiddeth to cast holy things to the dogs, 7 exhorteth to prayer, 13 to enter in at the strait gate, 15 to beware of false prophets, 21 to be wary of the word: 24 like houses builded on a rock.

JUDGE "not, that ye be not judged.

For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: "and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

"And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, and considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam
is in thine own eye?

Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

"Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

"Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

For "every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

Jer. 29. 12,
13.

9 "Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, "being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things "whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for "this is the law and the prophets.

13 ¶ "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat:

14 "Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find
it.

15 ¶ "Beware of false prophets,
"which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are "ravening wolves.

16 "Ye shall know them by their fruits. "Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so "every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 "Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 ¶ Not every one that saith unto me, "Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we "not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

23 And "then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: "depart from me, ye that work iniquity.

24 ¶ Therefore "whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock:

25 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock.

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

28 And it came to pass, when Jē'-sūs had ended these sayings, ^athe people were astonished at his doctrine:

29 ^aFor he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

CHAPTER 8.

² Christ cleanseth the leper, ⁵ healeth the centurion's servant, ¹⁴ Peter's mother in law, ¹⁶ and many other diseased: ¹⁸ sheweth how he is to be followed: ²³ stilleth the tempest on the sea, ²⁸ driveth the devils out of two men possessed, ³¹ and suffereth them to go into the swine.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 ^aAnd, behold, there came a leper and worshipped him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

3 And Jē'-sūs put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jē'-sūs saith unto him, ^aSee thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that ^mMō'-sēs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

5 ¶ ^aAnd when Jē'-sūs was entered into Că-pēr'-nă-üm, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented.

7 And Jē'-sūs saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, ^aI am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but ^aspeak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and doeth it.

10 When Jē'-sūs heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not I's'-ră-ël.

11 And I say unto you, That ^aman shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with A'-bră-hă and I'-săac, and Jā'-cob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But ^bthe children of the kingdom ^cshall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jē'-sūs said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 ¶ ^aAnd when Jē'-sūs was come into Pē'-tēr's house, he saw ^ahis wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose and ministered unto them.

16 ¶ ^aWhen the even was come, they brought unto him many which were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Ê-săi'-ās the prophet, saying, ^a Himself took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses.

18 ¶ Now when Jē'-sūs saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 ^aAnd a certain scribe came, and said unto him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jē'-sūs saith unto him, Foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 ^aAnd another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, ^asuffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jē'-sūs said unto him, Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.

23 ¶ And when he was entered into a ship, his disciples followed him.

24 ^aAnd, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch at the ship was covered with the aves: but he was asleep.

5 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save
: we perish.

6 And he saith unto them, Why
e ye fearful, O ye of little faith?
en ^the arose, and rebuked the nds and the sea; and there was great calm.

7 But the men marvelled, saying,

e Gēr'-gē-sēneš, there met him

y.

9 And, behold, they cried out, say-g, What have we to do with thee, Jē'-šūs, thou Son of God? art thou me hither to torment us before the ne?

10 And there was a good way off

11 So the devils besought him, say-faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jē'-šūs ^aknowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it,
they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ And as Jē'-šūs passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Mātth'-ēw, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 ¶ And it came to pass, as Jē'- šūs sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Phār'-ī-seēs saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with ^gpublicans and ^gsinners?

12 But when Jē'-šūs heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, ^aI will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, ⁱbut sinners to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of Jōhn, saying, ⁱWhy do we and the Phār'-ī-seēs fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jē'-šūs said unto them, Can ^mthe children of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and ^othen shall 16 No man putteth a piece of ⁿnew cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 ¶ While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jē'-šūs arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 ¶ And, behold, a woman, which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jē'-šūs turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jē'-šūs came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jē'-šūs saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

34 But the Phā'r'-ī-sees said, casteth out devils through the power of the devils.

35 And Jē'-šūs went about the cities and villages, teaching their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 ¶ But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted and were scattered abroad, as shepherds having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Christ sendeth out his twelve apostles, with power to work miracles; 16 comforteth them, 46 promiseth a blessing to those that receive them.

AND when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Sīmōn, who is called Pē'-tēr, An'-drēw his brother; Jāmes the son of Zēb'-ē-dēe, and Jōhn his brother;

3 Phīl'-ip, and Bār-thōl'-ō-mēw Thōm'-ās, and Mātth'-ēw the publican; Jāmes the son of Al-phā'-i and Lēb-bā'-ūs, whose surname was Thād-dā'-ūs;

4 Sī'-mon the Cā'-nā-ān-ite, and Jū'-dās Is'-cār'-i-ot, who also betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jē'-šūs sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gēn'-tile and into any city of the Sā-mā'r-ī-tāns enter ye not:

6 But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Is'-rā-ēl.

7 And as ye go, preach, saying, The kingdom of heaven is at hand.
8 Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.
9 Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses,
10 Nor scrip for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat.
11 And into whatsoever city or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence.
12 And when ye come into an house, salute it.
13 And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if it be not worthy, let your peace return to you.
14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.
15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.
16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: but be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.
17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;
18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and against the Gentiles.
19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.
22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved.
23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.
25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Be-el-zēbub, how much more shall they call them of his household?
26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.
27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.
28 And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.
29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.
30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.
32 Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.
33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father which is in heaven.
34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword.
35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.
36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.
37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.
38 And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me is not worthy of me.

39 "He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 ¶ "He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

41 "He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 / And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

CHAPTER 11.

2 John sendeth his disciples to Christ. 7 Christ's testimony concerning John. 18 The opinion of the people, both concerning John and Christ. 20 Christ upbraideth the unthankfulness and impenitence of Chorazin, Bethsaida, and Capernaum: 25 and praising his Father's wisdom, 28 he calleth to him all such as feel the burden of their sins.

AND it came to pass, when Jē'-šūs had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach in their cities.

2 'Now when Jōhn had heard " in the prison the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples,

3 And said unto him, Art thou " he that should come, or do we look for another?

4 Jē'-šūs answered and said unto them, Go and shew Jōhn again those things which ye do hear and see:

5 "The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and "the poor have the gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not "be offended in me.

7 ¶ And as they departed, Jē'-šūs began to say unto the multitudes concerning Jōhn, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? "A reed shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, "and more than a prophet.

written, "Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than Jōhn the Bāp'-tist: notwithstanding that is least in the kingdom heaven is greater than he.

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced: we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For Jōhn came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He had a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber.

"A friend of publicans and sinners? But wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ "Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not:

21 Woe unto thee, Chō-rā'-zín! woe unto thee, Bēth-sā'-ī-dā! for if thou hadst been more tolerable for Tÿre and Sidōn, they would have repented long ago "in sackcloth and ashes.

24 But I say unto you, "That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sōd'-ōm in the day of judgment than for thee.

25 ¶ At that time Jē'-sūs answered and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 ¶ All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

28 ¶ Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 Take my yoke upon you, and I will ease you of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

30 ¶ For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

CHAPTER 12.

Christ reproveth the blindness of the Pharisees concerning the sabbath. 22 He healeth the man possessed that was blind and dumb. 31 Of blasphemy against the Holy Ghost. 35 Of idle words. 38 He rebuketh the unfaithful, &c.

1 ¶ At that time Jē'-sūs went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Phār'-i-seēs saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read what Dā'-vid did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him;

4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That in this place is one greater than the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath day.

thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 ¶ And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath days.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Phār'-i-seēs went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jē'-sūs knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by E-sā'-ās the prophet, saying,

18 ¶ Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gēn'-tiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory.

21 And in his name shall the Gēn'-tiles trust.

22 ¶ Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of Dā'-vid?

24 ¶ But when the Phār'-i-seēs heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Bē-ēl'-zē-būb the prince of the devils.

25 And Jē'-sūs knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:

26 And if Să-tăn cast out Să-tăn, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Bē-ēl-zē-būb cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then 'the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 'Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 ¶ Wherefore I say unto you, ^aAll manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: ^mbut the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever ^aspeaketh a word against the Son of man, ^oit shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

33 Either make the tree good, and ^ohis fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit.

34 O 'generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? ^afor out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

36 But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment.

37 For by thy words thou shalt be justified, and by thy words thou shalt be condemned.

CHAPTER 13.

3 Parable of the sower and the seed: 18 the explication. 24 Parable of the tares, 31 of the mustard seed, 33 of the leaven, 44 of the hidden treasure, 45 of the pearl, 47 of the dragnet cast into the sea. 53 Christ condemned of his own countrymen.

THE same day went Jē-sūs out of the house, and sat by the side. And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore. And he spake many things unto them in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came and devoured them up: Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth: And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear. And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of E-sai'ās, which saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.

16 But a blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.
17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.
18 ¶ Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower.
19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side.
20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it;
21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended.
22 ¶ He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful.
23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.
24 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:
25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.
26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.
27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?
28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?
29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.
30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but ^bgather the wheat into my barn.

31 ¶ Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, ^dThe kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 ¶ ^aAnother parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three ^cmeasures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 ^aAll these things spake Jē'-šūs unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, ^mI will open my mouth in parables; ⁿI will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jē'-šūs sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 ^pThe field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are ^rthe children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil; ^sthe harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, ^tand they shall gather out of his kingdom all ^uthings that offend, and them which do iniquity;

42 ^vAnd shall cast them into a furnace of fire: ^wthere shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

their Father. ^aWho hath ears hear, let him hear.

44 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field, the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and ^bbuyeth that field.

45 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 ¶ Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast in the sea, and ^cgathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, the drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and ^dsever the wicked from among the just,

50 ^eAnd shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

51 Jē'-šūs saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an household, which bringeth forth out of his treasure ^fthings new and old.

53 ¶ And it came to pass, that when Jē'-šūs had finished these parables, he departed thence.

54 ^gAnd when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Where hath this man this wisdom, and ^hthese mighty works?

55 ⁱ'Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mār'-y? ^jand ^khis brethren, ^lJāmeś, and Jō's, and Si'-mon, and Jū'-dās?

56 And his sisters, are they not with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they ^mwere offended at him. But Jē'-šūs said unto them, ⁿ'A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And ^ohe did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14.

Herod's opinion of Christ, & Why John Baptist was beheaded. 15 Christ feedeth five thousand; he walketh on the sea, & and healeth the sick by the touch of the hem of his garment.

¶ That time ^a Hēr'-ōd the tē'-trārch heard of the fame of Jē'-šūs,

And said unto his servants, This Jōhn the Bāp'-tist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works ^b do shew forth themselves in me.

¶ ^c For Hēr'-ōd had laid hold on him, and bound him, and put him in prison for Hē-rō'-dī-ās' sake, his other Phil'-ip's wife.

For Jōhn said unto him, ^d It is not lawful for thee to have her.

And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, ^e because they counted him as a prophet.

But when Hēr'-ōd's birthday was kept, the daughter of Hē-rō'-dī-ās' danced ^f before them, and pleased Hēr'-ōd.

Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

And she, being before instructed by her mother, said, Give me here Jōhn Bāp'-tist's head in a charger.

And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded ^g it to be given her.

And he sent, and beheaded Jōhn in the prison.

And his head was brought in in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought ^h it to her mother.

And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jē'-šūs.

¶ When Jē'-šūs heard of ⁱ it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard ^j thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

And Jē'-šūs went forth, and saw great multitude, and ^k was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their sick.

¶ And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves victuals.

16 But Jē'-šūs said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, ^l he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to ^m his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 ¶ And straightway Jē'-šūs constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 ¶ And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: ⁿ and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jē'-šūs went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him ^o walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jē'-šūs spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And Pē'-tēr answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Pē'-tēr was come down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jē'-šūs.

30 But when he saw the wind ^p boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jē'-šūs stretched forth ^q his hand, and caught him, and 34 ¶ And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gēn-nēs'-ā-rēt.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and ^c as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15.

³ Christ reproveth the scribes and Pharisees: 11 sheweth what defileth a man. 21 He healeth the daughter of the woman of Canaan, 30 and other great multitudes: 32 and with seven loaves and a few little fishes feedeth four thousand men, beside women and children.

THEN ^k came to Jē'-sūs scribes and Phār'-i-seēs, which were of Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, saying,

2 ^m Why do thy disciples transgress ⁿ the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them; Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, ^p Honour thy father and mother: and, ^q He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, ^r It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me;

11 ^a Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Phār'-i-seēs were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, ^b Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: ^c they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 ^d Then answered Pē'-tēr and said unto him, Declare unto us the parable.

16 And Jē'-sūs said, ^e Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, though whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But ^f those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 ^g For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashed hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ Then Jē'-sūs went then and departed into the coasts of Tyre and Sī'-dōn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Canā'-ān came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'-vīd; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Īs'-rā-ēl.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to ^h dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: for the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē'-sūs answered and said to her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

9 * And Jē'-šūs departed from thence, and came nigh ^bunto the town of Gāl'-ī-lēē; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

10 * And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'-šūs' feet; and he healed them:

11 Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Abraham.

12 ¶ Then Jē'-šūs called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

13 * And his disciples say unto him, Hence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

14 And Jē'-šūs saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

15 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

16 And ^{he} took the seven loaves and the fishes, and ^{gave} thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

17 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

18 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

19 * And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Māg'-dā-lā.

ing desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 ^d A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jō'-nās. And he left them, and departed.

5 And ^ewhen his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 ¶ Then Jē'-šūs said unto them, ^fTake heed and beware of the leaven of the Phār'-ī-sēēs and of the Sād'-dū-cēēs.

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jē'-šūs perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 ^gDo ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 ^kNeither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Phār'-ī-sēēs and of the Sād'-dū-cēēs?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Phār'-ī-sēēs and of the Sād'-dū-cēēs.

13 ¶ When Jē'-šūs came into the coasts of Cē-sā-rē'-ā Phī-lip'-pī, he asked his disciples, saying, ^oWhom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, ^pSome say that thou art Jōhn the Bāp'-tist: some, Ē-lī'-ās; and others, Jēr-ē-mī'-ās, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am?

16 And Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr answered and said, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jē-sūs answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Sī-mon Bār-jō'-nā: "for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but "my Father which is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That "thou art Pē-tēr, and "upon this rock I will build my church; and "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.

19 "And I will give unto thee the keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 "Then charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jē-sūs the Christ.

21 ¶ From that time forth began Jē-sūs "to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jē-rū-sā-lēm, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day.

22 Then Pē-tēr took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, "Be it far from thee, Lord: "this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Pē-tēr, Get thee behind me, "Sā-tān: "thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 ¶ "Then said Jē-sūs unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. \

25 For "whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

26 For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or "what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

27 For "the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father "with his angels; "and then he shall reward every man according to his works.

28 Verily I say unto you, "There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

AND "after six days Jē-sūs take Pē-tēr, James, and John brother, and bringeth them up in an high mountain apart,

2 And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them Mō-sēs and Ē-lī-ās talking with him.

4 Then answered Pē-tēr, and said unto Jē-sūs, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō-sēs, and one for Ē-lī-ās.

5 "While he yet spake, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud which said, "This is my beloved Son, "in whom I am well pleased: "hear ye him.

6 "And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their face, and were sore afraid.

7 And Jē-sūs came and "toucheth them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

13 "Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of Jōh the Bāp-tist.

14 ¶ "And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

6 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.
7 Then Jē'-sūs answered and said, faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

8 And Jē'-sūs rebuked the devil; and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.

9 Then came the disciples to Jē'-sūs apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

10 And Jē'-sūs said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, 'If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you.'

11 Howbeit this kind goeth not out thence by prayer and fasting.

12 ¶ And while they abode in Galilee, Jē'-sūs said unto them, The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men:

13 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

14 ¶ And 'when they were come to Că-pēr-nă-üm, they that received tribute money came to Pē'-tēr, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

15 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jē'-sūs prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Si'-mōn? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?

16 Pē'-tēr saith unto him, Of strangers. Jē'-sūs saith unto him, Then let the children be free.

17 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18.

Christ teacheth his disciples to be humble and merciful: 1 to avoid offences, and not to despise the little ones: 15 how to deal with our brethren, and how oft to forgive them. 23 Parable of the merciful servant.

T ¶ the same time came the disciples unto Jē'-sūs, saying, Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jē'-sūs called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, 'Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.'

4 'Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.'

5 And 'whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.'

6 'But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.'

7 ¶ Woe unto the world because of offences! for 'it must needs be that offences come; but 'woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 'Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.'

9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.'

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven 'their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.'

11 'For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.'

12 'How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.'

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.'

15 ¶ Moreover 'if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, 'thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in 'the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an ^d heathen man and a publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, 'Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 / Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, 'it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 ¶ Then came Pē'-tēr to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? 'till seven times?

22 Jē'-sūs saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: 'but, Until seventy times seven.

23 ¶ Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would take account of his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand ²talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him *to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and ³worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred 'pence: and he laid hands on him,

CHAPTER 19.

2 Christ healeth the sick: 3 answereth the Pharisees concerning divorce: 10 treateth of marriage: 13 receiveth little children: 16 instructeth how to attain eternal life, 20 and how to be perfect,

AND it came to pass, ^athat when Jē'-sūs had finished these sayings, he departed from Gāl'-il-ee and came into the coasts of Jōr'-dān;

2 ^bAnd great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there.

3 ¶ The Phā'r'-ī-seēs also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, ^cthat which made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, ^dFor this cause shall man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and ^ethe twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What the fore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, ^fWhy doth Mō'-sēs then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

He saith unto them, Mō'-šēs because of the hardness of your hearts
I have permitted you to put away your wives:
from the beginning it was not so.
And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

¶ His disciples say unto him, If in the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their father's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

¶ Then were there brought unto him little children, that he would put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

But Jē'-sūs said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

¶ And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

And he said unto him, Why dost thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

He saith unto him, Which?
Jē'-sūs said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

The young man saith unto him,
These things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?

Jē'-sūs said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven:
and come and follow me.

easier for a camel to go through the were exceedingly amazed, saying,

Who then can be saved?

said unto them, With men this is said unto him, Behold, we have have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Is'-rā-ēl.

children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Of the labourers in the vineyard. 17 Christ foretelleth his passion: 20 teacheth his disciples to be lonely, 30 and giveth sight to two blind men.

FOR the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good?

16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ And Jē'sūs going up to Jē-rū-sā-lēm took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jē-rū-sā-lēm; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death,

19 And shall deliver him to the Gēn'-tilēs to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 ¶ Then came to him the mother of Zēb'-ē-dē's children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit,

22 But Jē'sūs answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jē'sūs called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gēn'-tilēs exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister.

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant.

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

29 And as they departed from Jēr'-i-chō, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jē'sūs passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of Dā'-vid.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace; but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of Dā'-vid.

32 And Jē'sūs stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jē'sūs had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

16 And said unto him, Hearst thou what these say? And Jē'-šūs saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, ^aOut of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 † And he left them, and went out of the city into ^bBēth'-ā-n'y; and he lodged there.

18 *Now in the morning as he re- turned into the city, he hungered.

19 †And when he saw ^aa fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away.

20 †And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away!

21 Jē'-šūs answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^aIf ye have faith, and ^bdoubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, ^cbut also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And ^aall things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 † And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and ^asaid, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jē'-šūs answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of Jōhn, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; ^afor all hold Jōhn as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jē'-šūs, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 † But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir. and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jē'-šūs saith unto them, ^d Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For ^e Jōhn came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: ^f but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, ^g which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and ^h went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, ⁱ that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 ^m And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, ⁿ This is the heir; ^o come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 ^p And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 ^q They say unto him, ^r He will miserably destroy those wicked men, ^s and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jē'-šūs saith unto them, ^t Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

CHAPTER 22.

1 Parable of the marriage of the king's son. 15 Tribute to be paid to Cæsar. 23 The Sadducees confuted. 41 The Pharisees silenced.

AND Jē'-šūs answered ^a and said, ^b And he said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared dinner: ^c my oxen and ^d my fatted beasts are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed the murderers, and burned up their cities.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not ^e worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and ^f gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 ¶ And when the king came to see the guests, he saw there a man ^g which had not on a wedding garment:

12 And he saith unto him, Fri

camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he speechless.

Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and lead him away, and cast him into prison; there shall he weep and gnashing of teeth.

For many are called, but few chosen.

¶ Then went the Phār'ī-seēs, and took counsel how they might angle him in his talk.

And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Hē-rō-dī-āns, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of life in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest the person of men.

Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæ'sār, or not?

But Jē-sūs perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me hypocrites?

Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription?

They say unto him, Cæ'sār's. And he saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Cæ'sār the things which are Cæ'sār's; and unto God the things that are God's.

When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and asked him, Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and bear up seed unto his brother.

Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he was married a wife, deceased, and, leaving no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

And last of all the woman died.

Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

Jē-sūs answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ But when the Phār'ī-seēs had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the law?

37 Jē-sūs said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While the Phār'ī-seēs were gathered together, Jē-sūs asked them, 42 Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The Lord said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER 23.

1 Of the good doctrine, but evil examples, of the scribes and Pharisees. 13 Christ denounceth their hypocrisy and blindness.

THEN spake Jē-sūs to the multitude, and to his disciples,

2 Saying, The scribes and the Phār'ī-seēs sit in Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for ^athey say, and do not.

4 ^aFor they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But ^dall their works they do for to be seen of men: ^fthey make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments,

6 ^hAnd love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rāb'-bi, Rāb'-bī.

8 ⁱBut be not ye called Rāb'-bi: for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: ^mfor one is your Father, which is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, even Christ.

11 But ^ohe that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 ^pAnd whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

13 [†]But ^qwoe unto you, scribes and Phār'-i-sēes, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

14 Woe unto you, scribes and Phār'-i-sēes, hypocrites! ^rfor ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Phār'-i-sēes, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ^s*ye* blind guides, which say, ^tWhosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, ^uor the temple that sanctifieth the gold?

ever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is ^aguilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or ^bthe altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by ^cthe throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Phār'-i-sēes, hypocrites! ^dfor ye tithe of mint and ^eanise and cummin, and ^fhave omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, which straddle at a gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Phār'-i-sēes, hypocrites! ^gfor ye make clean the outside of the cup and the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Phār'-i-sēe, clean first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of it may be clean also.

27 Woe unto you, scribes and Phār'-i-sēes, hypocrites! ^hfor ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outwardly, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 ⁱWoe unto you, scribes and Phār'-i-sēes, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would have been partakers with them of the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ^jye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 ^kFill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye serpents, ye ^lgeneration of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell?

7 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall crucify, and some of them ye shall scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city.

8 That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the temple and the altar.

9 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

10 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.

11 For I say unto you, Ye shall see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the LORD.

CHAPTER 24.

rist foretelleth the destruction of the temple: and how great calamities shall be before the signs of his coming to judgment. 42 The wisdom of watching like good servants, expecting every moment our master's coming.

1 And Jē'sūs went out, and departed from the temple: and his disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jē'sūs said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and will deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must needs come to pass, but the end is not yet.

John 6. 37.
& 10. 28, 29.
Rom. 8. 29-30.
2 Tim. 2. 19.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.

13 But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Dān'īel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand.)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before.

26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers, believe it not.

27 ^b For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

28 ^d For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ ^f Immediately after the tribulation of those days ^g shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:

30 ^h And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: ⁱ and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, ^j and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

31 ^k And he shall send his angels ^l with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn ^m a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know ⁿ that 'it is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, ^o This generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 ^p Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 ¶ ^q But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, ^r but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Nō-ē were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 ^s For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Nō-ē entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 ^t Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at

CHAPTER 25.

1 The parable of the ten virgins, 14 and of the talents, 31 A description of the last judgment.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom. 2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them.

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.

But the wise answered, saying, so; lest there be not enough for and you: but go ye rather to that sell, and buy for yourselves.

And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.

Afterward came also the other servants, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

Watch therefore, for ye know not the day nor the hour where the Son of man cometh.

¶ For the kingdom of heaven is like a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, delivered unto them his goods.

And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway he departed on his journey.

Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

But he that had received one talent and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

After a long time the lord of the servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliverest unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou veriest unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall he be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, ^bInasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, ^cDepart from me, ye cursed, ^dinto everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, ^kInasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me.

46 And ^mthese shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

CHAPTER 26.

1 The rulers conspire against Christ. 14 Judas selleth him. 17 Christ eateth the passover: 26 instituteth his holy supper: 36 prayeth in the garden: 57 is led to Caiaphas, 69 and denied of Peter.

AND it came to pass, when Jē'-sūs had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 ^oYe know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 ^pThen assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Cāi'-ā-phās,

4 And consulted that they might take Jē'-sūs by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ^qNow when Jē'-sūs was in Bēth'-ā-n'y, in the house of Sī'-mon the leper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 ^xBut when his disciples saw they had indignation, saying, what purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jē'-sūs understood it, said unto them, Why trouble ye woman? for she hath wrought good work upon me.

11 ^yFor ye have the poor always with you; but ^zme ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall be done, that this woman hath done, to be a memorial for her.

14 ^{aa}Then one of the twelve called Jū'-dās Is-cār'-i-ot, went to the chief priests, 15 And said unto them, What ye give me, and I will deliver unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ^{ab}Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jē'-sūs, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city, such a man, and say unto him, Master saith, My time is at hand: I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jē'-sūs had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 ^{ac}Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as is written of him: but ^{ad}woe unto that man by whom the Son of man rayed! it had been good for that n if he had not been born.

Then Jû'-dās, which betrayed n, answered and said, Master, is
? He said unto him, Thou hast
l.

¶ And as they were eating,
Jû'-sūs took bread, and ²blessed it, broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; ³this is my body.

And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying,
Drink ye all of it;

For 'this is my blood ⁴of the new testament, which is shed 'for us for the remission of sins.

But ⁵"I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the cup, ⁶"until that day when I drink new with you in my Father's kingdom.

¶ And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the garden of Olives.

Then saith Jê'-sūs unto them,
I tell ye shall ⁷be offended because of me this night: for it is written,
I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

But after I am risen again, 'I will go before you into Gāl'-i-lée.

¶ Pê'-têr answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

Jê'-sūs said unto him, "Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

¶ Pê'-têr said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

¶ Then cometh Jê'-sūs with them unto a place called Gêth-sêm'- nî, and saith unto the disciples,
I go ye here, while I go and pray unto my Father.

And he took with him Pê'-têr and the two sons of Zêb'-ê-dêe, and they went to be sorrowful and very heavy.

Then saith he unto them, "My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and ⁸prayed, saying, "O my Father, if it be possible, ²⁸let this cup pass from me:

nevertheless ²⁹not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Pê'-têr, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 ¶ Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now,
and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, lo, Jû'-dās, one of the twelve, came,
and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jê'- sūs, and said, Hail, master; ³⁰and kissed him.

50 And Jê'-sūs said unto him,
"Friend, wherefore art thou come?"
Then came they, and laid hands on Jê'-sūs, and took him.

51 And, behold, ³¹one of them which were with Jê'-sūs stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jê'-sūs unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place:
³²for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me ³³more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, ^b that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jē'-sūs to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then ^d all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 ¶ And they that had laid hold on Jē'-sūs led him away to Cāi'-ā-phās the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Pē'-tēr followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jē'-sūs, to put him to death;

60 But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came ^k two false witnesses, 61 And said, This fellow said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

63 But ^r Jē'-sūs held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, 'I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jē'-sūs saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, 'Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered and said, 'He is guilty of death.

67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands, 68 Saying, 'Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

71 And when he was gone out to the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jē'-sūs Náz'-ā-rēth.

72 And again he denied with oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came to him they that stood by, and said, Pē'-tēr, Surely thou also art one of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then ^s began he to curse and swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Pē'-tēr remembered the word of Jē'-sūs, which said to him, 'Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27.

1 Christ is delivered bound to Pilate. 3 Judah hangeth himself. 19 Pilate, admonished by his wife, washeth his hands: 26 and looseth Barabbas. 34 Christ is crucified, 40 reviled, 50 dieth, 53 and is buried: 66 his sepulchre sealed and watched.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jē'-sūs to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to Pōn'-fīūs Pī'-lāte the governor.

3 ¶ Then Jū'-dās, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to thee? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called The field of blood, unto this day.

Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jēr'-ē-mŷ the prophet, saying, "And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Īs'-rā-ēl did value; and gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me."

1 And Jē'-šūs stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jē'-šūs said unto him, Thou sayest.

2 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

3 Then said Pī'-lāte unto him, Hearest thou not how many things they witness against thee?

4 And he answered him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

5 Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

6 And they had then a notable prisoner, called Bār-āb'-bās.

7 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pī'-lāte said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Bār-āb'-bās, or Jē'-šūs which is called Christ?

8 For he knew that for envy they delivered him.

9 ¶ When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

10 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the multitude that they should ask Bār-āb'-bās, and destroy Jē'-šūs.

11 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the two will ye that I release unto you? They said, Bār-āb'-bās.

12 Pī'-lāte saith unto them, What will I do then with Jē'-šūs which is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified.

13 And the governor said, Why say ye that evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

14 ¶ When Pī'-lāte saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 ¶ Then released he Bār-āb'-bās unto them: and when he had scourged Jē'-šūs, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jē'-šūs into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 ¶ And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cŷ-rē'-nē, Sī-mon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Gōl'-gō-thā, that is to say, a place of a skull,

34 ¶ They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, "They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots."

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JĒ'-ŠŪS THE KING OF THE JĒWS.

38 Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 ¶ And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Īś-rā-ēl, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 ^b He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 ^d The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 ^c Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour ^f Jē'-šūs cried with a loud voice, saying, Ē'-lī, Ē'-lī, lā'-mā sā-bāch'-thā-nī? that is to say, ^g My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Ē-lī-ās.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, ^h and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Ē-lī-ās will come to save him.

50 ⁱ ^k Jē'-šūs, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost.

51 And, behold, ^l the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent;

52 And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 ^m Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jē'-šūs, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, ⁿ which followed Jē'-šūs from Gāl'-i-lée, ministering unto him:

56 ^o Among which was Mār'-y Māg'-dā-lēne, and Mār'-y the mother of James and Jō'-sēs, and the mother of Zēb'-ē-dēe's children.

59 And when Jō'-sēph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 And ^w laid it in his own tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mār'-y Māg'-dā-lēne, and the other Mār'-y, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 ^x Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Phār'-isee came together unto Pī'-lāte, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was alive, ^y After three days I will be again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

65 Pī'-lāte said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, make it sure as ye can.

66 So they went, and made the sepulchre sure, ^z sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

IN the ^a end of the sabbath, at the beginning to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mār'-y Māg'-dā-lēne ^b and the other Mār'-y to the sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there ^c was a great earthquake: for ^d the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 ^e His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow.

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

not worthy to stoop down and un-loose.

8 ^tI indeed have baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you ^uwith the Holy Ghost.

9 ^vAnd it came to pass in those days, that Jē'-sūs came from Nāz'- ā-rēth of Gāl'-i-lēē, and was baptized of Jōhn in Jōr'-dān.

10 ^wAnd straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens ^xopened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from heaven, saying, ^yThou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 ^zAnd immediately the spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, tempted of Sā'-tān; and was with the wild beasts; *and the angels ministered unto him.

14 *Now after that Jōhn was put in prison, Jē'-sūs came into Gāl'-i-lēe, *preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and / the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 *Now as he walked by the sea of Gāl'-i-lēe, he saw Si'-mon and An'-drēw his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

17 And Jē'-sūs said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway *they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 *And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw Jāmes the son of Zēb'-ē-dēe, and Jōhn his brother, who also were in the ship mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zēb'-ē-dēe in the ship with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 *And they went into Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 *And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 *And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, Let us alone; *what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'-sūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jē'-sūs *rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit *had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, in-somuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

15 ^a But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jē'-šūs could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: ^c and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAPTER 2.

Christ healeth one sick of the palsy. 14 Call of Matthew. 15 Christ eateth with publicans and sinners, 23 excuseth his disciples for not fasting, &c.

AND again ^a he entered into Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm after some days; and it was noised that he was in the house.

And straightway many were gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, neither so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them. And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, which was borne of four.

And when they could not come up unto him for the press, they covered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay.

When Jē'-šūs saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning against their hearts,

Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? ^a who can forgive sins but God only?

And immediately ^a when Jē'-šūs received in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

^a Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude 14 ^b And as he passed by, he saw Lē'-vī the son of Āl-phāē'-ūs sitting ^c at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 ^d And it came to pass, that, as Jē'-šūs sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jē'-šūs and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Phār'-ī-seēs saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jē'-šūs heard it, he saith unto them, ^e They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

18 ^f And the disciples of Jōhn and of the Phār'-ī-seēs used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of Jōhn and of the Phār'-ī-seēs fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jē'-šūs said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

21 No man also seweth a piece of ^a new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.

23 ^g And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples began, as they went, ^h to pluck the ears of corn.

24 And the Phār'-ī-seēs said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of A-bī'-ā-thār the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, ^dwhich is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore ^ethe Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Christ healeth the withered hand, 10 and many other infirmities: 11 rebuketh the unclean spirits: 13 chooseth his twelve apostles: 22 convinceth the blasphemy of casting out devils by Beelzebub: 31 and sheweth who are his brother, sister, and mother.

AND ^ahe entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there which had a withered hand.

2 And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.

3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, ^bStand forth.

4 And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace.

5 And when he had looked round about on them with anger, being grieved for the ^chardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

6 ^dAnd the Phār'-i-sēes went forth, and straightway took counsel with ^ethe Hē-rō'-dī-āns against him, how they might destroy him.

7 But Jē'-sūs withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Gāl'-i-lēe followed him, ^fand from Jū-dē'-ā,

8 And from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and from Ī-dū-mā'-ā, and from beyond Jōr'-dān; and they about Tyre and Sī'-dōn, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him.

9 And he spake to his disciples, that a small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.

23 ^jAnd he called them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Sā'-tān cast out Sā'-tān?

24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Sā'-tān rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

27 ^kNo man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house.

8 * Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme :

9 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation :

10 Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.

11 ¶ There came then his brethren and his mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him.

12 And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren without seek for thee.

13 And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren ?

14 And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren !

15 For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 4.

The parable of the sower, 14 and the meaning thereof. 21 We must communicate the light of our knowledge to others. 26 The parable of the seed sown secretly, 30 and of the mustard seed. 35 Christ stilleth the tempest on the sea.

AND he began again to teach by the sea side : and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea ; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the land.

And he taught them many things in parables, ^a and said unto them in doctrine,

Hearken ; Behold, there went out power to sow :

And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the winds of the air came and devoured up.

And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth ; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth :

But when the sun was up, it was parched ; and because it had no root, it withered away.

And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased ; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 ^b And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God : but unto ^c them that are without, all these things are done in parables :

12 ^e That seeing they may see, and not perceive ; and hearing they may hear, and not understand ; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable ? and how then will ye know all parables ?

14 ¶ The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown ; but when they have heard, Sā-tān cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise which are sown on stony ground ; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness ;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time : afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended.

18 And these are they which are sown among thorns ; such as hear the word,

19 And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.

20 And these are they which are sown on good ground ; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 ¶ ^k And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed ? and not to be set on a candlestick ?

22 ^l For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested ; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 ^m If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: "with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 ^b For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 ¶ And he said, "So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is, ^a brought forth, immediately "he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

30 ¶ And he said, "Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it.

33 ^c And with many such parables spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it.

34 But without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.

35 ^d And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto the other side.

36 And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with him other little ships.

37 And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full.

38 And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

2 And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jē'-šūs afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'-šūs, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jē'-šūs gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep ace into the sea, (they were about e thousand;) and were choked in e sea.

4 And they that fed the swine d, and told it in the city, and in e country. And they went out to e what it was that was done.
5 And they come to Jē'-sūs, and e him that was possessed with the vil, and had the legion, sitting, and othed, and in his right mind: and ey were afraid.
6 And they that saw it told them
w it befell to him that was posssed with the devil, and also conrning the swine.
7 And ^athey began to pray him to part out of their coasts.
8 And when he was come into e ship, ^ahe that had been posssed with the devil prayed him at he might be with him.
9 Howbeit Jē'-sūs suffered him ot, but saith unto him, Go home to y friends, and tell them how great ings the Lord hath done for thee,
d hath had compassion on thee.
10 And he departed, and began to blish in Dē-cāp'-ō-līs how great ings Jē'-sūs had done for him:
d all men did marvel.
11 /And when Jē'-sūs was passed er again by ship unto the other le, much people gathered unto m: and he was nigh unto the sea.
12 ^aAnd, behold, there cometh one the rulers of the synagogue, Jārūs by name; and when he saw
m, he fell at his feet, 13 And besought him greatly, say-g, My little daughter lieth at the int of death: I pray thee, come d lay thy hands on her, that she ay be healed; and she shall live.
14 And Jē'-sūs went with him;
d much people followed him, and ronged him.
15 And a certain woman, ^awhich
d an issue of blood twelve years, 16 And had suffered many things many physicians, and had spent that she had, and was nothing ttered, but rather grew worse, 17 When she had heard of Jē'- s, came in the press behind, and ouched his garment.
18 For she said, If I may touch but s clothes, I shall be whole.
19 And straightway the fountain her blood was dried up; and she

30 And Jē'-sūs, immediately knowing in himself that ^avirtue had gone

31 And his disciples said unto him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched

32 And he looked round about to see her that had done this thing.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

34 And he said unto her, Daughter, ^athy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague.

35 ^aWhile he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?

36 As soon as Jē'-sūs heard the word that was spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue,
Be not afraid, only believe.

37 And he suffered no man to follow him, save Pē'-tēr, and Jāmes, and Jōhn the brother of Jāmes.

38 And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

39 And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not

40 And they laughed him to scorn.
^aBut when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Tāl'-i-thā cū'-mī; which is, being interpreted,
Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And ^ahe charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Christ is contemned of his countrymen. 7 He giveth the twelve power over unclean spirits. 14 Divers opinions of Christ. 27 John Baptist is beheaded. 30 The apostles return from preaching. 35 He feedeth five thousand. 48 He walketh on the sea: 56 and healeth all that touch him.

AND ^bhe went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, 'From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mār'-y, ^cthe brother of Jāmes, and Jō'-sēs, and of Jū'-dā, and Sī'-mon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they ^awere offended at him.

4 But Jō'-sūs said unto them, 'A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 'And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And ^ehe marvelled because of their unbelief. ^fAnd he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 ¶ And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no ^gmoney in their purse:

9 But ^hbe shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 'And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 'And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, ⁱshake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sōd'-qm ^jand Gō-mōr'-rhā in the day of judgment, than for that city.

12 And they went out, and preached that men should repent.

13 And they cast out many devils, ^kand anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 ^aAnd king Hēr'-qd heard of him (for his name was spread abroad) and he said, That Jōhn the Bāp'-tist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew for themselves in him.

15 ^bOthers said, That it is Ē-lī'-h. And others said, That it is a prophor as one of the prophets.

16 ^cBut when Hēr'-qd heard thereof, he said, It is Jōhn, whom I have beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Hēr'-qd himself had sent forth and laid hold upon Jōhn, and bound him in prison for Hēr'-qd's sake, his brother Phil'-ip's wife for he had married her.

18 For Jōhn had said unto Hēr'-qd, 'It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Hēr'-qd's wife quarrelled against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Hēr'-qd ^dfeared Jōhn, knowing that he was a just man and a holy, and ^eobserved him; and when he heard him, he did many things and heard him gladly.

21 ^fAnd when a convenient day was come, that Hēr'-qd ^gon his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates Gal'-ī-lée;

22 And when the daughter of the said Hēr'-qd's wife came in, and danced, and pleased Hēr'-qd and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt and I will give it thee.

23 And he swore unto her, 'Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of Jōhn the Bāp'-tist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked saying, I will that thou give me the head, and by in a charger the head of Jōhn the Bāp'-tist.

26 ^hAnd the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,

8 And brought his head in a larger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

9 And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.

10 And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jē'-šūs, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had thought.

11 And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there are many coming and going, and ye have no leisure so much as to eat.

12 And they departed into a desert place by ship privately.

13 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and went forth out of all cities, and went out to meet them, and came together unto him.

14 And Jē'-šūs, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

15 And when the day was now spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

16 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

17 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

18 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

19 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

20 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

21 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them;

and the two fishes divided he among them all.

42 And they did all eat, and were filled.

43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bēth-sā'-i-dā, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gēn-nēs'-ā-rēt, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

1 The Pharisees find fault at the disciples for eating with unwashen hands. 14 Meat defileth not man. 24 Christ healeth the Syrophenician woman's daughter, 31 and one that was deaf, and stammered in his speech.

THEN ^b came together unto him the Phār'-i-seēs, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with ^a defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the Phār'-i-seēs, and all the Jēws, except they wash their hands ^a oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and ^a pots, brasen vessels, and of ^b tables.

5 ^c Then the Phār'-i-seēs and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Ē-sāi'-ās prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, ^d This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye ^e reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

14 ¶ ^a And when he had called the people unto him, he said unto them, Harken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from within a man, that entering into him, can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 ^b If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 ^c And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him;

19 Because it entereth not into the heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging the meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 ^d For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, ^e covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ ^f And from thence he arose and went into the borders of Tyre and Sī'-dōn, and entered into a house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.

7 And they had a few small fishes:

8 So they did eat, and were filled:
and they took up of the broken meat

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 ¶ And °straightway he entered

11 °And the Phār'-ī-sēēs came generation seek after a sign? verily

I say unto you, There shall no sign

13 And he left them, and entering into the ship again departed to the 14 ¶ Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 °And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Phār'-ī-sēēs, and of the leaven of Hēr'-ōd.

16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is °because we have no bread.

17 And when Jē'-šūs knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? °perceive ye your heart yet hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye

20 And °when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that °ye do not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bēth-sā'-ī-dā;

and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ And Jē-sūs went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cē-sā-rē-ā Phī-lip-pī: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, 'Jōhn the Bāp'-tist: but some say, Ē-lī'-ās; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Pē-tēr answereth and saith unto him, 'Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Pē-tēr took him, and began to rebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Pē-tēr, saying, Get thee behind me, Sā-tān: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 ¶ And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?

CHAPTER 9.

2 Jesus is transfigured. 11 Of the coming of the Son of man. 14 He casteth forth a dumb and deaf spirit, foretelleth his death and resurrection: 33 exhorteth his disciples to humility: 38 bidding them to give offence to any of the faithful.

AND he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there shall be some of them that stand here, who shall not taste of death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 ¶ And after six days Jē-sūs taketh with him Pē-tēr, and Jān and Jōhn, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as fuller on earth can white them.

4 And there appeared unto them Ē-lī'-ās with Mō'-sēs: and they were talking with Jē'-sūs.

5 And Pē-tēr answered and said unto Jē'-sūs, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'-sēs, and one for Ē-lī'-ās.

6 For he wist not what to say; they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And suddenly, when they were looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jē'-sūs only with themselves.

9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 ¶ And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Ē-lī'-ās must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Ē-lī'-ās verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and ^a be at nought.

3 But I say unto you, That ^a Ë-li'-ās indeed come, and they have done to him whatsoever they listed, as is written of him.

4 ¶ And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.

5 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted
 him.

6 And he asked the scribes, What question ye ² with them?

7 And ¹ one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit;

8 And wheresoever he taketh him,
²teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and beth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

9 He answereth him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

10 And they brought him unto him:
 11 when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

12 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child.

13 And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do this thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

14 Jē-sūs said unto him, ^a If thou wilt believe, all things are possible unto him that believeth.

15 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou my unbelief.

16 When Jē-sūs saw that the people were running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

17 And the spirit cried, and rent his clothes, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that they said, He is dead.

30 ¶ And they departed thence, and passed through Gāl'-i-lée; and he would not that any man should 31 ^c For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men,

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

 them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for twelve, and saith unto them, ^a If any sent me.

38 ¶ And Jōhn answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.

39 But Jē-sūs said, Forbid him not:
^d for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.

40 For ^e he that is not against us is on our part.

41 ^f For whosoever shall give you

 I say unto you, he shall not lose his

42 And whosoever shall offend one

43 ^b And if thy hand ^a offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

44 ^c Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

45 And if thy foot offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:

46 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

47 And if thine eye ^a offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire:

48 Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 For every one shall be salted with fire, ^a and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 ^a Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltiness, wherewith will ye season it? ^b Have salt in yourselves, and ^c have peace one with another.

7 ^a For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh. so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, ^a Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

13 ¶ And they brought unto him children to him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.

14 But when Jē'-sūs saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: ^a for of such is the kingdom of God.

15 Verily I say unto you, ^a Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

16 And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.

17 ¶ And when he was gone forth into the way, there came one running and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jē'-sūs said unto him, What callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God.

19 Thou knowest the commandments, Do ^a not commit adultery, do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother.

20 And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.

21 Then Jē'-sūs beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, and whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ And Jē'-sūs looked round out, and saith unto his disciples, Now hardly shall they that have entered into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jē'-sūs answereth them, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them ^a that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jē'-sūs looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for ^b with God all things are possible.

28 ¶ Then Pē'-tēr began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jē'-sūs answered and said, verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

30 / But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life.

31 ^a But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 ¶ And they were in the way going up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm; and Jē'-sūs went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. ^a And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

38 But Jē'-sūs said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?

45 For even ^f the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and ^g to give his life a ransom for many.

46 ¶ ^m And they came to Jēr'-i-chō: and as he went out of Jēr'-i-chō with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bār-ti-mæ'-ūs, the son of Ti-mæ'-ūs, sat by the highway side begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jē'-sūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth, he began to cry out, and say, Jē'-sūs, thou son of Dā'-vid, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of Dā'-vid, have mercy on me.

49 And Jē'-sūs stood still, and commanded him to be called. And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.

50 And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jē'-šūs.

51 And Jē'-šūs answered and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jē'-šūs said unto him, Go thy way; ^athy faith hath ^amade thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jē'-šūs in the way.

AND ^awhen they came nigh to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, unto Bēth'-phā-gē and Bēth'-ā-nŷ, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jē'-šūs had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jē'-šūs, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

25 And when ye stand praying forgive, if ye have ought against y: that your Father also which in heaven may forgive you your spasses.

6 But ^a if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

7 ¶ And they come again to Jē-rū'-lē̄m: ^c and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders,

8 And say unto him, By what authority doest thou these things? and he gave thee this authority to do these things?

9 And Jē'-šūs answered and said unto them, I will also ask of you a question, and answer me, and will tell you by what authority I do these things.

10 The baptism of Jōhn, was it from heaven, or of men? answer me.

11 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then didst thou not believe him?

12 But if we shall say, Of men; we feared the people: for ^d all men counted Jōhn, that he was a prophet indeed.

13 And they answered and said unto Jē'-šūs, We cannot tell. And Jē'-šūs answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

the parable of the vineyard let out to unthankful husbandmen. 13 Of paying tribute to Cæsar. 18 The Sadducees confuted. 28 The first commandment. 38 The people are bidden to beware of ambition, &c. 41 The poor widow commended above all.

AND ^a he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the sheaf, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be our's.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture; ^d The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes?

12 ^e And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 ¶ And they send unto him certain of the Phār'-ī-seēs and of the Hē-rō'-dī-āns, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cæ'-sār, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a ^g penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose ^h is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæ'-sār's.

17 And Jē'-šūs answering said unto them, Render to Cæ'-sār the things that are Cæ'-sār's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 ¶ ⁱ Then come unto him the Sād'-dū-ceēs, ^k which say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

19 Master, ^l Mō'-šēs wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

20 Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.

21 And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jē'-šūs answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but ^{are} as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Mō'-šēs, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, ^{I am} the God of Ā'-brā-hām, and the God of Ī'-śāac, and the God of Jā'-cob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jē'-šūs answered him, The first of all the commandments is, ^{Hear}, O Īs'-rā-ēl; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; 'and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with

CHAPTER 13.

1 Christ foretelleth the destruction of the temple, the persecutions for the gospel: 10 the gospel to be preached to all nations. 24 The manner of Christ's coming to judgment: 32 the hour which being unknown, all are exhorted to watch and pray.

And Jē'-sūs answering said unto m, Seest thou these great buildgs? ^athere shall not be left one one upon another, that shall not thrown down.

And as he sat upon the mount Olives over against the temple,
Jē'-tēr and Jāmes and Jōhn and Jē'-drēw asked him privately, ^aTell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when these things shall be fulfilled?

And Jē'-sūs answering them began to say, ^aTake heed lest any man deceive you:

For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end shall not be yet.

For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
and there shall be earthquakes in vers places, and there shall be mines and troubles: ^athese are the beginnings of ^asorrows.

^aBut ^atake heed to yourselves:
lest they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be ought before rulers and kings for ysake, for a testimony against them.
And ^athe gospel must first be

But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought ghost.

Now ^athe brother shall betray his brother to death, and the father his son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

And ye shall be hated of all that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

tribulation, the sun shall be dark-of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 ^aNow learn a parable of the fig away.

32 ¶ But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 * Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 * For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 * Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

1 A conspiracy against Christ. 3 A woman poureth precious ointment on his head. 10 Judas covenanteth to betray him. 18 Christ eateth the passover: 22 instituteth his supper. 53 He is falsely accused, 65 and shamefully abused by the council. 66 Peter denieth him.

AFTER ¹ two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ And being in Bêth'-â-nÿ in the house of Si'-mon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of ³ spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred *pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jê'-süs said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wherever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, it shall also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 ¶ And Jû'-däs İs-câr'-i-ot, of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 ¶ And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall ye meet you a man bearing a pottle of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 * And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jê'-süs said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 * The Son of man indeed goes as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 ¶ And as they did eat, Jê'-süs took bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, T

my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

5 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

6 ¶ And when they had sung a hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

7 ¶ And Jē'-sūs saith unto them, I ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

8 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Gāl'-i-lée.

9 ¶ But Pē'-tēr said unto him, though all shall be offended, yet will not I.

10 And Jē'-sūs saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

11 But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

12 ¶ And they came to a place which was named Gēth-sēm'-ā-nē: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

13 And he taketh with him Pē'-tēr and James and Jōhn, and began to sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

14 And saith unto them, "My soul exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

15 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

16 And he said, "Ab'-bā, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

17 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Pē'-tēr, Si'-mon, sleepest thou? couldst thou watch one hour?

18 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. "The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

19 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

20 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 "Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 ¶ And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Jū'-dās, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

46 ¶ And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 ¶ And Jē'-sūs answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.

50 "And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 ¶ And they led Jē'-sūs away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Pē'-tēr followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 ¶ And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jē'-sūs to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, "I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 ^b And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jē'-šūs, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But ^c he held his peace, and answered nothing. ^a Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jē'-šūs said, I am: ^f and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 ¶ ^k And as Pē'-tēr was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And when she saw Pē'-tēr warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth.

68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crew.

69 ^m And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 And he denied it again. ⁿ And a little after, they that stood by said again to Pē'-tēr, Surely thou art one of them: ^o for thou art a Gāl'-ī-lā'-ān, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

71 But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.

72 ^p And the second time the cock crew. And Pē'-tēr called to mind the word that Jē'-šūs said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And ^q when he thought thereon, he wept.

27 crucified between two thieves, 48 and honour buried by Joseph.

AND ^a straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jē'-šūs and carried him away, and delivered him to Pī'-lāte.

2 ^d And Pī'-lāte asked him, Art thou the King of the Jēws? And answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 ^g And Pī'-lāte asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 ^h But Jē'-šūs yet answered nothing; so that Pī'-lāte marvelled.

6 Now ⁱ at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Bār-āb'-bās, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pī'-lāte answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jēws?

10 For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But ^l the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Bār-āb'-bās unto them.

12 And Pī'-lāte answered and said again unto them, What will ye that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jēws?

13 And they cried out again, Crucify him.

14 Then Pī'-lāte said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 ¶ ^p And so Pī'-lāte, willing to content the people, released Bār-āb'-bās unto them, and delivered Jē'-šūs, when he had scourged him to be crucified.

16 ^r And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Præ-tōr'-i-um; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with he had been any while dead.

2 ^a And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 ^a And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

6 ^a And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his disciples and Pē'-tēr that he goeth before you into Gāl'-ī-lēē: there shall ye see him, ^a as he said unto you.

8 And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: ^a neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be

21 And the people waited for Zāch- ā-rī'-ās, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as 'the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Ē-līs'-ā-bēth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to 'take away my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gā'-brī-ēl was sent from God unto a city of Gāl'-i-lée, named Nāz'-ā-rēth,

27 To a virgin 'espoused to a man whose name was Jō'-séph, of the house of Dā'-vid; and the virgin's name was Mār'-y.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, 'Hail, thou that art 'highly favoured, 'the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, 'she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her,
Fear not, Mār'-y: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 'And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and 'shalt call his name JĒ'- SUS.

32 He shall be great, 'and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and 'the Lord God shall give unto him
the throne of his father Dā'-vid:

33 'And he shall reign over the house of Jā'-cōb for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mār'-y unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, 'The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee:

therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called ^a the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Ē-līs'-ā-bēth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For ^a with God nothing shall be impossible.

38 And Mār'-y said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mār'-y arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, ^f into a city of Jū-dā;

40 And entered into the house of Zāch-ā-rī'-ās, and saluted Ē-līs'-ā-bēth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Ē-līs'-ā-bēth heard the salutation of Mār'-y, the babe leaped in her womb; and Ē-līs'-ā-bēth was filled with the Holy Ghost:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, ^a Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she ^a that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mār'-y said, ^a My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For ^a he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth ^a all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty ^a hath done to me great things; and ^a holy is his name.

50 And ^a his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

56 And Mār'-y abode with about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Ē-līs'-ā-bēth's full time came that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and cousins heard how the Lord shewed great mercy upon her; they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zāch-ā-rī'-ās, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered said, ^a Not so; but he shall be called Jōhn.

61 And they said unto her, This is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to her, how he would have been called.

63 And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is Jōhn. And they marvelled.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and these ^a sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Jū-dā-ā.

66 And all they that heard ^a laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child is this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zāch-ā-rī'-ās was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying,

69 ^a And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of our servant Dā'-vīd;

that hate us;
2 To perform the mercy promised our fathers, and to remember his covenant;
3 The oath which he swore to father Á'-bră-hăm,
4 That he would grant unto us,
5 At we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might 'serve

7 And thou, child, shalt be called prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;
8 To give knowledge of salvation to his people 'by the remission of their sins,
9 Through the 'tender mercy of God; whereby the 'dayspring in on high hath visited us, 10 To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.
11 And the child grew, and waxed

AND it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Că'-săr Aû-gûs'-tûs that all the world should be 'taxed.
(And this taxing was first made when Cŷ'-rê-nî-ûs was governor of ding clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping 'watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them:
'and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them,
Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, 'which shall be to all people.

11 'For unto you is born this day in the city of Dă'-vid 'a Saviour,
'which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 'And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth 'peace, 'good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, 'the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bêth'-lê-hêm, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Măr'-ŷ, and Jô'-sêph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 'But Măr'-ŷ kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 'And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called 'JÊ-SÛS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when 'the days of her purification according to the law of Mō'-šēs were accomplished, they brought him to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, to present him to the Lord;

23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, ^b Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;)

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to ^d that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, whose name was Sim'-ē-on; and the same man was just and devout, ^c waiting for the consolation of Is'-rā-ēl: and the Holy Ghost was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not ^a see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came ^e by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jē'-šūs, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, ^f now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

30 For mine eyes ^g have seen thy salvation,

31 Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;

32 ^h A light to lighten the Ġen'-tīlēs, and the glory of thy people Is'-rā-ēl.

33 And Jō'-sēph and his mother marvelled at those things which were spoken of him.

34 And Sim'-ē-on blessed them, and said unto Mār'-y his mother, Behold, this child is set for the ⁱ fall and rising again of many in Is'-rā-ēl; and for ^j a sign which shall be spoken against;

35 (Yea, ^k a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.

36 And there was one Ān'-nā, a prophetess, the daughter of Phā-nū'-ēl, of the tribe of A'-sēr: she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years from her virginity;

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but

50 And ^{ad} they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nāz'-ā-rēth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jē'-šūs ^{ae} increased in wisdom, and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAPTER 3.

Preaching and baptism of John: 15 his testimony of Christ. 20 Herod imprisoneth John. 21 Christ baptized, receiveth testimony from heaven. 23 The age, and genealogy of Christ from Joseph.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Ti-bē-rī-ūs Cā'-sār, Pōn'-tius Pi'-lāte being governor of Jū-dā'-ā, and Hēr'-ōd being tē'-trārch of Gāl'-i-lēe, and his brother Phil'-ip tē'-trārch of Ī-tū-rā'-ā and of the region of Trāch'-ō-nī'-tis, and Lŷ-sā'-i-ās the tē'-trārch of Āb-i-lē'-nē,
2 'And nās and Cāl'-ā-phās being the high priests, the word of God came unto Jōhn the son of Zāch'-ā'-ās in the wilderness.

3 'And he came into all the country about Jōr'-dān, preaching the baptism of repentance for the emission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Ē-sāi'-ās the prophet, saying, 'The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And 'all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, 'O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits 'worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Ā'-brā-hām to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Ā'-brā-hām.

9 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: 'every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, 'What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, 'He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then 'came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

CHAPTER 4.

1 Temptation and fasting of Christ. 13 He cometh the devil. 14 He beginneth to preach. The people of Nazareth admire his gracious words. 38 He curseth one possessed of a devil, 38 Peter's mother in law, 40 and divers others.

AND ^b Jē'-sūs being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jōr'-dan and ^c was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 Being forty days tempted of the devil. And ^d in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered.

3 And the devil said unto him, I will tempt thee: thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jē'-sūs answered him, saying, ^e It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for ^f that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt ^g worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jē'-sūs answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for ^h it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jē-rû-să-lēm, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, I will tempt thee: thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For ⁱ it is written, He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And in ^j their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jē'-sūs answering said unto him, ^k It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him ^l for a season.

14 ^m And Jē'-sūs returned in the power of the Spirit into ⁿ Găl'-i-lē and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 ¶ And he came to ^a Nāz'-ă-rēth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, ^b he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Ē-sāi'-ās. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, 'Is not this Jō'-šēph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Că-pēr'-nă-ūm, do also here in ^cthy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No ^d prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, ^emany widows were in Īs'-ră-ēl in the days of Ē-lī'-ās, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Ē-lī'-ās sent, save unto Să-rēp'-tă, a city of Sī'-dōn, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many lepers were in Īs'-ră-ēl in the time of Ē-lī-sē'-ūs the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Nă'-ă-măn the Sŷr'-ān.

28 And all they in the synagogue,

30 But he ^cpassing through the midst of them went his way,

31 And ^dcame down to Că-pēr'-nă-ūm, a city of Găl'-i-lēe, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his doctrine: ^efor his word was with power.

33 ¶ And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, ^fLet us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ă-rēth? art thou come to destroy us? ^gI know thee who thou art; ^h'the Holy One of God.

35 And Jē'-šūs rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 ¶ And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Sī'-mōn's house. And Sī'-mōn's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 ¶ Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

41 And devils also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And ⁱhe rebuking them suffered them not ^jto speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place:

and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of Gāl'-i-lée.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ teacheth out of Peter's ship. 4 The miraculous draught of fishes. 12 Christ cleanseth the leper: 16 prayeth in the wilderness: 18 healeth the palsy: 27 calleth Matthew: 29 eateth with sinners: 34 foresheweth fastings and afflictions.

AND "it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gēn-nēs'-ā-rēt,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Sī'-mōn's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Sī'-mōn, "Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Sī'-mōn answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Sī'-mōn Pē'-tēr saw it, he fell down at Jē'-šūs' knees, saying, "Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Jāmes, and Jōhn, the sons of Zēb'-ē-dēē, which were partners with Sī'-mōn. And Jē'-šūs said unto Sī'-mōn, Fear not; "from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, "they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold man full of leprosy: who seeing Jē'-šūs fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, "according as Mō'-sēs commanded, for a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more were there a fame abroad of him: "and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phār'-i-sēēs and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gāl'-i-lée, and Jū-dā'-ā, and Jē-rū'-sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'-šūs.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Phār'-i-sēēs began to reason, saying, What is this which speaketh blasphemies? "Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jē'-šūs perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick) of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lê-vi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Lê-vi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Phăr'-i-sêes murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jê'-sûs answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick.

32 ¶ I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of Jôhn fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Phăr'-i-sêes; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days.

36 ¶ And he spake also a parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

1 Christ reproveth the Pharisees touching the observation of the sabbath: 13 chooseth twelve apostles: 17 healeth the diseased. 20 Of blessings and curses: 27 how we must love our enemies: 46 and join the doing of good works to the hearing of the word.

AND ^a it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands.

2 And certain of the Phăr'-i-sêes said unto them, Why do ye that ^c which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days?

3 And Jê'-sûs answering them said, Have ye not read so much as this, ^d what Dā'-vîd did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God, and did take and eat the shew-bread, and gave also to them that were with him; ^e which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said unto them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

6 And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Phăr'-i-sêes watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him.

8 But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jê'-sûs unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jê'-sûs.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 ¶ And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: "and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles;

14 Sī'-mon, (^d whom he also named Pē'-tēr, and An'-drēw his brother, Jāmes and Jōhn, Phil'-ip and Bār-thōl'-ō-mēw,

15 Mātth'-ēw and Thōm'-ās, Jāmes the son of Al-phā'-ūs, and Sī'-mon called Zē-lō'-tēs, 16 And Jū'-dās ^hthe brother of Jāmes, and Jū'-dās Īs-cār'-i-qt, which also was the traitor.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, ^kand a great multitude of people out of all Jū-dā'-ā and Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and from the sea coast of Tȳre and Sī'-dōn, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude ^osought to touch him: for ^rthere went virtue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, "Blessed be ye poor: for your's is the kingdom of God.

21 "Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. "Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 "Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they ^ashall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 "Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for ^cin the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 "But woe unto you ^hthat are rich! for ^kye have received your consolation.

25 "Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. "Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

47 ^a Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like:

48 He is like a man which built a house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7.

Christ findeth a greater faith in the centurion a Gentile, than in any of the Jews: 10 healeth his servant being absent: 11 raiseth the widow's son: 19 answereth John's messengers: 24 testifieth of John: 36 sheweth himself a friend of sinners.

NOW when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Că-pēr'-nă-m.

2 And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jē'-šūs, he sent unto him the elders of the Jēws, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jē'-šūs, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jē'-šūs went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldst enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jē'-šūs heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Is'-rā-ēl.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

11 ¶ And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nă'-in; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, ^a Arise.

15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he delivered him to his mother.

16 ^a And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, ^b That God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Jū-dă'-ă, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ^a And the disciples of Jōhn shewed him of all these things.

19 ¶ And Jōhn calling unto him

two of his disciples sent them to Jē'-šūs, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, Jōhn Bāp'-tist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight.

22 ¶ Then Jē'-šūs answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell Jōhn what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, ¹to the poor the gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

24 ¶ And when the messengers of Jōhn were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning Jōhn, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, 'Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Jōhn the Bāp'-tist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, ²being baptized with the baptism of Jōhn.

30 But the Phār'-ī-sēes and lawyers ³rejected ⁴the counsel of God ⁵against themselves; being not baptized of him.

31 ¶ And the Lord said, ⁶Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye

35 ^bBut wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 ¶ ^cAnd one of the Phār'-ī-sēes desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Phār'-ī-sēe's house, and sat down to meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jē'-šūs sat at meat in the Phār'-ī-sēe's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment,

38 And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Phār'-ī-sēe which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, ^dThis man if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him; for she is a sinner.

40 And Jē'-šūs answering said unto him, Si'-mon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master say on.

41 There was a certain creditor, which had two debtors: the one owed five hundred ^epence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Si'-mon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman and said unto Si'-mon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

CHAPTER 8.

Women minister unto Christ. 4 Parable of the sower, 16 and of the candle. 21 Christ declareth who are his mother, and brethren: 22 rebuketh the winds: 26 casteth out the legion of devils: 37 is rejected of the Gadarenes: 43 healeth the issue of blood, 49 and raiseth Jairus' daughter.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And ^g certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Már'-y called Mäg'-dä-lëne, out of whom went seven devils,

3 And Jō-än'-nä the wife of Chū'-zä Jēr'-qd's steward, and Sū-sän'-nä, and many others, which ministered unto him of their substance.

4 ^h And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake
by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns;
and the thorns sprang up with it,
and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 ⁱ And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; ^{ad} that seeing they might 11 ^{ae} Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: ^{ak} for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he ^{al} seemeth to have.

19 ^{am} ¶ Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain which said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it.

22 ^{an} ¶ Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep:
and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 ¶ And they arrived at the country of the Găd'-ă-rêneş, which is over against Găl'-i-lée.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jē'-šūs, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jē'-šūs, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.)

30 And Jē'-šūs asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many devils were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

33 Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jē'-šūs, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jē'-šūs, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed.

37 ¶ Then the whole multitude of the country of the Găd'-ă-rêne round about ^b besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again.

38 Now ^c the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that he might be with him: but Jē'-šūs sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jē'-šūs had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jē'-šūs was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 ¶ And, behold, there came a man named Jā'-i-rūs, and he was ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jē'-šūs' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 ¶ And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stancheth.

45 And Jē'-šūs said, Who touched me? When all denied, Pē'-tēr and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jē'-šūs said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that ^a virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 ¶ While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not he Master.

50 But when Jē'-sūs heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Pē'-tēr, and Jāmes, and Jōhn, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway: and he commanded to give her meat.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

¶ THEN he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that Jōhn was risen from the dead;

8 And of some, that Ē-lī'-ās had appeared; and of others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Hēr'-ōd said, Jōhn have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.

10 ¶ And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bēth-sā'-i-dā.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 ¶ And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering said, Jōhn the Bāp'-tist; but some say, Ē-lī'-ās; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Pē'-tēr answering said, The Christ of God.

21 ^a And he straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, ^d The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ^f And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 ^h For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 ^f For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of the holy angels.

27 ^h But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ^f And it came to pass about an eight days after these ² sayings, he took Pē-tēr and Jōhn and Jāmes, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Mō'-sēs and Ē-lī'-ās:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

32 But Pē-tēr and they that were with him ^a were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Pē-tēr said unto Jē'-šūs, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Mō'-sēs, and one for Ē-lī'-ās: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

the cloud, saying, ^b This is my beloved Son ^c hear him.

36 And when the voice was past Jē'-šūs was found alone. ^c And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 ^f And it came to pass, that the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him; and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not.

41 And Jē'-šūs answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming the devil threw him down, and tarried him. And Jē'-šūs rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ^f And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jē'-šūs did, he said unto his disciples, 44 ^m Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 ^a But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.

46 ^f Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jē'-šūs, perceiving their thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, ^g Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sendeth me: ^h for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ^f And Jōhn answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jē'-sūs said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Să-măr'-i-tāns, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

54 And when his disciples Jāmes and Jōhn saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as E-li'-ās did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

57 ¶ And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

58 And Jē'-sūs said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jē'-sūs said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at my house.

62 And Jē'-sūs said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 10.

Christ sendeth out seventy disciples: 17 admonisheth them to be humble, and wherein to rejoice: 25 teacheth how to attain eternal life: 41 reprehendeth Martha, and commendeth Mary.

2 Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Söd'-om, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chō-rā'-zîn! woe unto thee, Bēth-sā'-i-dā! for if the mighty works had been done in Tÿre and Sī'-dōn, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tÿre and Sī'-dōn at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou, Că-pēr' nă-üm, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, "I beheld Sā'-tān as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, ¹I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because ²your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ In that hour Jē'-sūs rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 ³All things are delivered to me of my Father: and ⁴no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and ⁵he to whom the Son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, ⁶that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

26 He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?

27 And he answering said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and ⁷thy neighbour as thyself.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and ⁸thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to ⁹justify himself, said unto Jē'-sūs, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jē'-sūs answering said, A certain man went down from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm to Jēr'-i-chō, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, ¹he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Lē'-vite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain ²Sā-mār'-i-tān, when he journeyed, came where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two ³pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jē'-sūs unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named ⁴Mār-thā received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mār'-y, ⁵which also ⁶sat at Jē'-sūs' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Mār'-thā was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And Jē'-sūs answered and said unto her, Mār'-thā, Mār'-thā, thou art careful and troubled about many things:

42 But ⁷one thing is needful: and Mār'-y hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Christ teacheth to pray, and that instantly. 14 He, casting out a dumb devil, rebuketh the blasphemous Pharisees: 28 and sheweth who are blessed: 29 preacheth to the people, 37 and reprehendeth the Pharisees' outward shew of holiness.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as Jöhn also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, 'Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us ³day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine 'in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, ^aThough he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 'If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 ¶ And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, 'He casteth out devils through ²Bē-ēl'-zē-būb the chief of the devils.

16 And others, tempting him, ^bsought of him a sign from heaven.

17 'But ^che, knowing their thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Sā'-tān also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Bē-ēl'-zē-būb.

19 And if I by Bē-ēl'-zē-būb cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I ^dwith the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 'When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But ^ewhen a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 'He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 'When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and ^fthe last state of that man is worse than the first.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, ^gBlessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea ^hrather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 ¶ And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jō'-nās the prophet.

30 For as 'Jō'-nās was a sign unto the Nín'-ê-vites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

31^a The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sôl'-ô-mon; and, behold, a greater than Sôl'-ô-mon is here.

32 The men of Nín'-ê-vê shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jô'-nās; and, behold, a greater than Jô'-nās is here.

33^a No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a^b bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come in may see the light.

34^a The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when^a the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37^a And as he spake, a certain Phăr'-i-seê besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

38 And^a when the Phăr'-i-seê saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner.

39^a And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Phăr'-i-seês make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but^a your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

41^a But rather give alms^a of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things are clean unto you.

42^a But woe unto you, Phăr'-i-seês! for ye tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

43^a Woe unto you, Phăr'-i-seês! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

CHAPTER 12.

1 Christ preacheth to his disciples to avoid hypocrisy, 13 to beware of covetousness. 22 Of worldly carnalness. 49 Of divisions, on account of the gospel.

IN^a the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, in so much that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, ^aBeware ye of the leaven of the Phăr'-i-seês, which is hypocrisy.

2^a For there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed; neither id, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you ^b my friends, be not afraid of them that kill the

that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast

him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for 7 But even the very hairs of your therefore: ye are of more value than

8 ^a Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before men, him will I also confess before the angels
of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels

10 And ^a whosoever shall speak a it shall not be forgiven.

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, ^f and is not rich toward God.

22 ¶ And he said unto his disciples,
Therefore I say unto you, ^g Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the ravens: for they and yet I say unto you, that Söl'- ö-mön in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, ⁱ neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 ¶ ^j But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little flock; for ^k it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

33 "Sell that ye have, and give alms; ^aprovide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 "Let your loins be girded about, and ^fyour lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 "Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 "And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 "Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 ¶ Then Pe'tër said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, "Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 "Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 "But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will ^acut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Christ preacheth repentance upon the punishment of the Galileans and others. 6 The fruitless tree. 11 The crooked woman healed. 18 Parable of the grain of mustard seed, and of leaven. 24 The strait gate. 31 He reproveth Herod and Jerusalem.

1 HERE were present at that season some that told him of the Gāl-i-læ'-āns, whose blood Pi-lāte had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jē'-sūs answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Gāl-i-læ'-āns were sinners above all the Gāl-i-læ'-āns, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Si-lō'-ām fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Si-rū'-sā-lēm?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable; 'A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 ¶ And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jē'-sūs saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because that Jē'-sūs had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Ā'-brā-hām, whom Sā'-tān hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 ¶ Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when ye shall see Ā'-brā-hām, and Ī'-sāac, and Jā'-cob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out.

29 And they shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 *And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first which shall be last.

31 † The same day there came certain of the Phār'-i-seēs, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Hēr'-ōd will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the third day ^c I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

34 ^d O Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!

35 Behold, ^f your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, ^g Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let him go;

those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him, come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.

10 ^b But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room: that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 ^c For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 † Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call ^d the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

14 And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.

15 † And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 ^k Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And ^l sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things. The the master of the house being angry did to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the lamed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded,
and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and edges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

24 For I say unto you, ^d That none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.

25 ¶ And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and looked unto them,

26 ¶ If any man come to me, ^f and leave not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, ^g yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 And ^h whosoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For ⁱ which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it?

29 Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,

30 Saying, This man began to build,
and was not able to finish.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an am-bassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 ¶ ^j Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

35 It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, the publicans and sinners for to hear him.

2 And the Phār' ī-sēēs and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, ^b and eateth with them.

3 ¶ And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 ¶ What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep ^c which was lost.

7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, ^d more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

8 ¶ Either what woman having ten ^e pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

9 And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 ¶ And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me.
And he divided unto them ^f his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee,

19 And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But ⁶when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry.

24 ⁶For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might have merry with my friends:

CHAPTER 16.

1 The parable of the unjust steward. 14 Christ proveth the hypocrisy of the covetous Pharisee. 19 The rich glutton, and Lazarus the beggar.

AND he said also unto his disciples, A There was a certain rich man which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred ^ameasures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred ^ameasures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than ^athe children of light.

9 And I say unto you, ^aMake to yourselves friends of the ^a*mām'* money of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 ^aHe that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous ^a*mām'* money, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 ¶ No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and nām'-mon.

14 And the Phār'-ī-seēs also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 ¶ There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain beggar named Lāz'-ā-rūs, which was laid at his gate full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Ā'-brā-hām's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Ā'-brā-hām afar off, and Lāz'-ā-rūs in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Ā'-brā-hām, have mercy on me, and send Lāz'-ā-rūs, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.

25 But Ā'-brā-hām said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lāz'-ā-rūs evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house.

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Ā'-brā-hām saith unto him, They have Mō'-šēs and the prophets; let them hear them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Ā'-brā-hām: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Mō'-šēs and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

CHAPTER 17.

1 Christ teacheth to avoid occasions of offence: 3 to forgive one another. 6 The power of faith. 11 He healeth ten lepers. 22 Of the kingdom of God, and the coming of the Son of man.

THEN said he unto the disciples, 'It is impossible but that offences will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come!

2 It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones.

3 ¶ Take heed to yourselves: * If thy brother trespass against thee, * rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him.

4 And if he trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.

5 And the apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith.

6 And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you.

7 But which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are ^dunprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do.

11 ¶ And it came to pass, as he went to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, that he passed through the midst of Sā-mār'-i-ā and Gāl'-i-lēē.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, ^awhich stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jē-šūs, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, ^kGo shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,

16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Sā-mār'-i-tān.

17 And Jē-šūs answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

19 ^pAnd he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

20 ¶ And when he was demanded of the Phār'-i-seēs, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not ^swith observation:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, ^tthe kingdom of God is ^uwithin you.

22 And he said unto the disciples, ^vThe days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 ^wAnd they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 ^bBut first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 ^cAnd as it was in the days of Nō-ē, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Nō-ē entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 ^dLikewise also as it was in the days of Lōt; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But ^ethe same day that Lōt went out of Sōd-ōm it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man ^fis revealed.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 ^kTwo men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, ^lWhere, Lord? And he said unto them, Whosoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

CHAPTER 18.

3 ^mOf the importunate widow. 9 ⁿThe Pharisee and publican. 15 ^oChildren brought to Christ. 28 ^pOf leaving all for Christ's sake. 31 ^qHe foresheweth his death: 35 ^rrestoreth a blind man to sight.

AND he spake a parable unto them ^sto this end, that men ought ^talways to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was ^uin a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Phār'i-sēe, and the other a publican.

11 The Phār'i-sēe stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw that, they rebuked them.

16 But Jē'-sūs called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

19 And Jē'-sūs said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, 'Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'-sūs heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'-sūs saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 Then Pē'-tēr said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 ¶ Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gēn'-tīlēs, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on:

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 ¶ And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jēr'-i-chō, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging :

36 And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him, that Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jē'-šūs, thou son of Dā'-vid, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace : but he cried so much the more, Thou son of Dā'-vid, have mercy on me.

40 And Jē'-šūs stood, and commanded him to be brought unto him : and when he was come near, he asked him, 41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee ? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jē'-šūs said unto him, Receive thy sight : ^athy faith hath saved thee.

43 And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, ^bglorifying God : and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

AND Jē'-šūs entered and passed through Jēr'-i-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zāc-chæ'-ūs, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'-šūs who he was ; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him : for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'-šūs came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zāc-chæ'-ūs, make haste, and come down ; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zāc-chæ'-ūs stood, and said unto the Lord ; Behold, Lord, the 10 ^fFor the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm and because ^gthey thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 ^hHe said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten ⁱpounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 ^jBut his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the ^kmoney, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant : because thou hast been ^lfaithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin :

21 ^mFor I feared thee, because thou art an austere man : thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, ⁿOut of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. ^oThou knewest that I was an austere man, aking up that I laid not down, and aping that I did not sow :

23 Wherefore then gavest not thou y money into the bank, that at y coming I might have required mine own with usury ?

24 And he said unto them that ood by, Take from him the pound, nd give it to him that hath ten ounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, e hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, ^a That unto 27 But those mine enemies, which

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending up to 29 ^a And it came to pass, when he

CHAPTER 20.

1 Christ avoucheth his authority by a question of John's baptism. 9 Parable of the vineyard. 19 Of giving tribute to Caesar. 27 He confuteth the Sadducees. 41 How Christ is the son of David. 45 He warneth his disciples to beware of the scribes.

AND ^a it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, ^a by what authority doest thou these things ? or who is he that gave thee this authority ?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing ;
and answer me :

4 The baptism of Jōhn, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: ⁶for they be persuaded that Jōhn was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jē'-sūs said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable; ^aA certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be our's.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, ^aThe stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but ^{on} whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and he feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 ^aAnd they watched him, and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, ^cMaster, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God ^{truly}:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Cæ'-sār, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, What tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a ^apenny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cæ'-sār's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæ'-sār the things which be Cæ'-sār's, and unto God the things which be God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ ¹Then came to him certain of the Sād'-dū-cess, ^fwhich deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, ^gMō'-sēs wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also; and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jē'-sūs answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, nei-ar marry, nor are given in marriage:

6 Neither can they die any more: they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

7 Now that the dead are raised, even Mō'-sēs shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Ā'-brā'-hām, and the God of Ī'-sac, and the God of Jā'-qob.

8 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for 'all live unto me.

9 ¶ Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast all said.

10 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

11 And he said unto them, ^hHow say they that Christ is Dā'-vīd's son?

12 And Dā'-vīd himself saith in the book of Psalms, 'The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 'Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

13 Dā'-vīd therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

14 ¶ Then in the audience of all people he said unto his disciples,

15 ¶ Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;

16 'Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.

1 AND he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two ^amites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly ones and gifts, he said, which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.

10 ¶ Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 ¶ But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

14 ¶ Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 ¶ And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kins-folks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 ¶ But there shall not an hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 ¶ And when ye shall see Jē-rū'-sā-lēm compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Jū-dā'-ā flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that ^a all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 ^d But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jê-rû-sâ-lêm shall be trodden down of the Gën'-tîlê, ^e until the times of the Gën'-tîlê be fulfilled.

25 ^f And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: ^h for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man ⁱ coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for ^j your redemption draweth nigh.

29 ^k And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand.

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.

33 ^l Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

34 ^m And ⁿ take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

35 For ^o as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 ^p Watch ye therefore, and ^q pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and ^r to stand before the Son of man.

37 ^b And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and ^c at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

CHAPTER 22.

1 The Jews conspire against Christ. 7 The apostles prepare the passover. 19 Christ instituteth his holy supper. 42 His agony in the garden. 47 His betrayal. 50 He healeth Malchus' ear, 54 and thrice denied of Peter.

NOW ^a the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And ^b the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 ^c Then entered Sâ'-tân into Jû-dâs surnamed Is-câr'-i-ot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and ^d covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them ^e in the absence of the multitude.

7 ^f Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Pê-têr and Jôhn saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the good man of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guests' chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 ^g And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, ^h With 16 I have desired to eat this pass-

 17 er with you before I suffer :
 18 For I say unto you, I will not 19 any more eat thereof, ^buntil it be 20 filled in the kingdom of God.
 21 And he took the cup, and gave 22 thanks, and said, Take this, and 23 divide it among yourselves :
 24 For ^aI say unto you, I will not 25 drink of the fruit of the vine, until 26 the kingdom of God shall come.
 27 ¶ And he took bread, and gave 28 thanks, and brake it, and gave unto 29 them, saying, This is my body which 30 is given for you : ^athis do in remem-31 brance of me.
 32 Likewise also the cup after sup-33 per, saying, ^aThis cup is the new 34 testament in my blood, which is shed
 35 for you.

 37 that betrayeth me is with me on the 38 table.
 39 And truly the Son of man
 40 hath, ^aas it was determined : but 41 he went unto that man by whom he is 42 betrayed !
 43 And they began to enquire
 44 among themselves, which of them
 45 was that should do this thing.
 46 ¶ And there was also a strife
 47 among them, which of them should 48 be accounted the greatest.
 49 And he said unto them, The 50 kings of the Gën'-tilës exercise lord-51 ship over them ; and they that exer-
 52 cise authority upon them are called 53 benefactors.
 54 But ye shall not be so : ^abut he 55 that is greatest among you, let him 56 be as the younger ; and he that is 57 chief, as he that doth serve.
 58 For whether is greater, he that 59 sitteth at meat, or he that serveth ?
 60 Is not he that sitteth at meat ? but 61 I am among you as he that serveth.

that thy faith fail not : ^aand when thou art converted, strengthen thy

 33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.
 34 And he said, I tell thee, Pë'-tër, the cock shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.
 35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing ?
 And they said, Nothing.
 36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip : and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.
 37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, ^aAnd he was reckoned among the transgressors : for the things concerning me have an end.
 38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.
 39 ¶ And he came out, and ^awent, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives ; and his disciples also followed him.
 40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.
 41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be ^awilling, remove this ^acup from me : nevertheless ^anot my will, but thine, be done.
 43 And there appeared ^aan angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.
 44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly : and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
 45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,
 46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye ? rise and ^apray, lest ye enter into temptation.
 47 ¶ And while he yet spake, ^abe-hold a multitude, and he that was called Jü'-däs, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jë'-süs to kiss him.

48 But Jē'-sūs said unto him, Jū'-dās, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jē'-sūs answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jē'-sūs said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 ¶ Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Pē'-tēr followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Pē'-tēr sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Pē'-tēr said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Gāl-i-lē'-ān.

60 And Pē'-tēr said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned, and looked upon Pē'-tēr. And Pē'-tēr remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Pē'-tēr went out, and wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jē'-sūs mocked him, and smote him.

AND the whole multitude of the people arose, and led him unto Pil'-lāt.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæ'-sār, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pil'-lāt asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pil'-lāt to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jew'-ry, beginning from Gāl-i-lēe to this place.

6 When Pil'-lāt heard of Gāl-i-lēe, he asked whether the man were of Gāl-i-lēe.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Hēr'-ōd's jurisdiction, he sent him to Hēr'-ōd, who himself also was at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm at that time.

8 ¶ And when Hēr'-ōd saw Jē'-sūs, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season.

because ^a he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 ^a And Hēr'-ōd with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pī'-lāte.

12 ¶ And the same day ^a Pī'-lāte and Hēr'-ōd were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ And Pī'-lāte, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, ^a Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, ^a I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Hēr'-ōd: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 ^a I will therefore chastise him, and release him.

17 ^a (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And ^a they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Bār-āb'-bās:

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast to prison.)

20 Pī'-lāte therefore, willing to release Jē'-šūs, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? ye have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified. And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And ^a Pī'-lāte gave sentence that he should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him whom they desired, and for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jē'-šūs to their will.

26 ^a And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Sī'-mon, a Cŷ-rē-ni'-ān, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jē'-šūs.

27 ¶ And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jē'-šūs turning unto them said, Daughters of Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 ^a For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 ¶ Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 ^a For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 ^a And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put to death.

33 And ^a when they were come to the place, which is called ^a Cāl'-vā-rŷ, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 ¶ Then said Jē'-šūs, Father, ^a forgive them; for ^a they know not what they do. And ^a they parted his raiment, and cast lots.

35 And ^a the people stood beholding. And the ^a rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou be the king of the Jēw's, save thyself.

38 ^a And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Græek, and Lāt'-in, and Hē'-brēw, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEW'S.

39 ¶ ^a And one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds:

but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he said unto Jē'-šūs, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jē'-šūs said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in paradise.

44 ^d And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the ² earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and ³ the veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jē'-šūs had cried with a loud voice, he said, ^a Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: ^a and having said thus, he gave up the ghost.

47 ^a Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.

49 ^o And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Gāl'-i-lēē, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ ^a And, behold, there was a man named Jō'-šēph, a counsellor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of Ār-īm-ā-thāē'-ā, a city of the Jews: ^a who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pī'-lāte, and begged the body of Jē'-šūs.

53 ^a And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was ³ the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also, ^a which came with him from Gāl'-i-lēē, followed after, and ^a beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and ^b prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day ^d according to the commandment.

NOW ^a upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, ^b bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

2 ^c And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 ^c And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jē'-šūs.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, ^a behold two men stood by them in shining garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ^a the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: ^a remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Gāl'-i-lēē.

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinners, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And ^a they remembered his words.

9 ^a And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mār'-y Māg'-dā-lēne, and ^a Jō-ān'-nā, and Mār'-y the mother of Jāmes, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 ^a And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 ^a Then arose Pē'-tēr, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen cloth laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 ¶ ^a And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Ēm-mā'-ūs, which was from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, when they communed together and reasoned, ^a Jē'-šūs himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But ^a their eyes were holden, that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, ^a whose name was Clē'-ō-pās, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger to the things which are come to pass here in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, concerning Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth, which was a prophet ^a mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 ¹ And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted ^o that it had been done which should have redeemed Īs'-r-ēl: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and ¹ certain women also of our company made us astonished, which were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive.

24 And ¹ certain of them which were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken:

26 ^o Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 ¹ And beginning at ^o Mō'-šēs and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and ^o he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But ^o they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, ^o he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he ² vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way,

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO

ST. JOHN.

CHAPTER 1.

The divinity, humanity, and office of Christ.

IN the beginning ^b was the Word, and the Word was ^d with God, ^e and the Word was God.

2 ^a The same was in the beginning with God.

3 ^a All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 ^a In him was life; and ^a the life was the light of men.

5 And ^a the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 ¶ There was a man sent from God, whose name was Jôhn.

7 ^a The same came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

8 He was not that Light, but was sent to bear witness of that Light.

9 ^a That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

10 He was in the world, and ^a the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 ^b He came unto his own, and his own received him not.

12 But ^a as many as received him, to them gave he ^a power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:

13 ^d Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

14 ^a And the Word ^a was made ^a flesh, and dwelt among us, (and ^a we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) ^a full of grace and truth.

15 ¶ Jôhn bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, ^a He that cometh after me is preferred before me: ^a for he was before me.

16 And of his ^a fulness have all w received, and grace for grace.

17 For ^a the law was given b Mō'-sēs, but ^a grace and ^a truth came by Jê'-süs Christ.

18 ^a No man hath seen God ^a any time; ^a the only begotten Son which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is ^a the record of Jôhn, when the Jêws sent priests and Lē'-vites from Jê-rû'-sâ-lêm to ask him, Who art thou?

20 And ^a he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then Art thou 'Ē-lī'-ās? And he saith, am not. Art thou ^a that prophet And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

23 ^a He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Making straight the way of the Lord, ^a said the prophet Ē-sāi'-ās.

24 And they which were sent were of the Phār'-ī-sēes.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then if thou be not that Christ, no Ē-lī'-ās, neither that prophet?

26 Jôhn answered them, saying, I baptize with water: ^a but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 ^a He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done ^a in Bêth'-âb'-â-râ beyond Jôr'-dân, where Jôhn was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day Jôhn seeth Jê'-süs coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, ^b which ² taketh away the sin of the world.

30 ^a This is he of whom I said, after me cometh a man which is referred before me: for he was afore me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Is'rah-ël, ^a therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 ^b And Jōhn bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he hath sent me to baptize with water, and the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, ^c the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after Jōhn stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking upon Jē'sūs as he walked, he saith, ^d Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jē'sūs.

38 Then Jē'sūs turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rāb'-bī, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ^e about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard Jōhn speak, and followed him, was An'-drēw, Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother ī'-mon, and saith unto him, We have found the Mēs-sī'-ās, which is, being interpreted, ^f the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jē'sūs. And when Jē'sūs beheld him, he said, Thou art Sī'-mon the son of ō'-nā: ^g thou shalt be called Qē'-hās, which is by interpretation, ^h 'A stone'.

43 ¶ The day following Jē'sūs would go forth into Gāl'-i-lēe, and findeth Phil'-ip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now ⁱ Phil'-ip was of Bēth-sā'-ī-ā, the city of An'-drēw and Pē'-tēr.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Christ turneth water into wine: 12 departeth into Capernaum, and to Jerusalem: 14 purgeth the temple: 19 foretelleth his death and resurrection. 23 Many believe because of his miracles.

AND the third day there was a marriage in ^a Cā'-nā of Gāl'-i-lēe; and the mother of Jē'sūs was there:

2 And both Jē'sūs was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jē'sūs saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jē'sūs saith unto her, ^b Woman, ^c what have I to do with thee? ^d mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, ^e after the manner of the purifying of the Jēws, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jē'sūs saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

^a ch. 12. 21.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jē'sūs in Cā'-nā of Gāl'-ī-lée, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

12 ¶ After this he went down to Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 ¶ And the Jēws' passover was at hand, and Jē'sūs went up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm,

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 ¶ Then answered the Jēws and said unto him, "What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jē'sūs answered and said unto them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jēws, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scrip-

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jē-rū-sā-lēm at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jē'sūs did not commit himself unto them, because he knew men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ teacheth the necessity of regeneration. The great love of God towards the world. 18 Condemnation for unbelief. 23 The baptism of witness of John.

THERE was a man of the Phār-sees, named Nic-ō-dē'-mūs, ruler of the Jēws:

2 "The same came to Jē'sūs by night, and said unto him, Rāb'-bī, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nic-ō-dē'-mūs saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jē'sūs answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.

8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nic-ō-dē'-mūs answered and said unto him, "How can these things be?

10 Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Is'-rā-ēl and knowest not these things?

11 "Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and yet we receive not our witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And ^bno man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 ¶ And as Mō'-sēs lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but ^chave eternal life.

16 ¶ ^aFor God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 ^aFor God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 ¶ He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For ^aevery one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 ¶ After these things came Jē'-ūs and his disciples into the land of ū-dē'-ā; and there he tarried with them, ^aand baptized.

23 ¶ And Jōhn also was baptizing in Ā'-nōn near to ^aSā'-līm, because there was much water there: ^aand they came, and were baptized.

24 For ^aJōhn was not yet cast into prison.

25 ¶ Then there arose a question between some of Jōhn's disciples and the Jēws about purifying.

26 And they came unto Jōhn, and said unto him, Rāb'-bī, he that was with thee beyond Jōr'-dān, ^ato whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Christ talketh with a woman of Samaria. 31 His zeal for God's glory. 39 Many Samaritans believe. 43 He departeth into Galilee, and healeth the ruler's son.

WHEN therefore the Lord knew how the Phār'-i-sees had heard that Jē'-sūs made and ^bbaptized more disciples than Jōhn,

2 (Though Jē'-sūs himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

3 He left Jā-dē'-ā, and departed again into Gāl'-i-lée.

4 And he must needs go through Sā-mār'-i-ā.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Sā-mār'-i-ā, which is called Sŷ'-chār, near to the parcel of ground ^athat Jā'-cōb gave to his son Jō'-sēph.

6 Now Jā'-cōb's well was there. Jē'-sūs therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Sā-mâr'-i-ă to draw water: Jē'-sūs saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)

9 Then saith the woman of Sā-mâr'-i-ă unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jēw, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Sā-mâr'-i-ă? for ^dthe Jēws have no dealings with the Sā-mâr'-i-tāns.

10 Jē'-sūs answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee ^eliving water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father Jā'-cob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jē'-sūs answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:

14 But ^fwhosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him ^gshall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.

15 ^hThe woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jē'-sūs saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jē'-sūs said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, ⁱI perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in ^jthis mountain; and ye say, that in ^kJē-rū'-sā-lēm is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jē'-sūs saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, ^lwhen ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ^mye know not what: we know what we worship: for ⁿsalvation is of the Jēws.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in ^aspirit ^band in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 ^cGod is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Mēs-si'-ās cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come ^dhe will tell us all things.

26 Jē'-sūs saith unto her, ^eI have speak unto thee am he.

27 ^fAnd upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 Come, see a man, ^gwhich told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city and came unto him.

31 ^h¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ⁱought to eat?

34 Jē'-sūs saith unto them, ^jMy meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and ^kthen cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; ^lfor they are white already to harvest.

36 ^mAnd he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true. One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereof ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 ⁿ¶ And many of the Sā-mâr'-i-tāns of that city believed on him ^ofor the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Sā-mâr'-i-tāns were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them : and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word ;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thysaying : or we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 ¶ Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Gāl'-lée.

44 For ^d Jē'-šūs himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Gāl'-i-lée, the Gāl'-i-lē'-āns received him, ^e having seen all the things that he did at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm at the feast : ^f for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jē'-šūs came again into Cā'-nā of Gāl'-i-lée, ^g where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm.

47 When he heard that Jē'-šūs was come out of Jū-dē'-ā into Gāl'-i-lée, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and alight his son : for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jē'-šūs unto him, 'Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jē'-šūs saith unto him, Go thy way ; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jē'-šūs had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jē'-šūs said unto him, Thy son liveth : and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second miracle that Jē'-šūs did, when he was come out of Jū-dē'-ā into Gāl'-i-lée.

cavil. 17 He reproveth them, shewing by the testimony of his Father, 32 of John, 36 of his works, 39 and of the scriptures, who he is.

AFTER ^a this there was a feast of the Jews ; and Jē'-šūs went up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

2 Now there is at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm ^b by the sheep ^c market a pool, which is called in the Hē'-brēw tongue Bēth-ēs'-dā, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water : whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jē'-šūs saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole ?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool : but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jē'-šūs saith unto him, ^a Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked : and ^k on the same day was the sabbath.

10 ¶ The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day : 'it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk ?

13 And he that was healed wist not who it was : for Jē'-šūs had conveyed himself away, ^a a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jē'-šūs findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole : ^m sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jē'-šūs, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews persecute Jē'-šūs, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 ¶ But Jē'-šūs answered them, 'My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefore the Jēw's 'sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, 'making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jē'-šūs and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, 'The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For ^m the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; 'even so the Son quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but 'hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. 'He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, 'He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; 'but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when 'the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And 'hath given him authority to execute judgment also, 'because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,

29 'And shall come forth; 'they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

CHAPTER 6.

Christ feedeth five thousand. 19 He walketh on the sea to his disciples: 32 declareth himself to be the bread of life to believers. 66 Many disciples forsake him. 68 Peter confesseth him. 70 Judas is a devil.

AFTER *these things Jē'-sūs went over the sea of Gāl'-i-lēe, which is the sea of Ti-bē'-rī-ās.

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jē'-sūs went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 *And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 † And when Jē'-sūs then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Phil'-ip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Phil'-ip answered him, *Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, An'-drēw, Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr's brother, saith unto him, 9 There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, and two small fishes: / but what are they among so many?

10 And Jē'-sūs said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jē'-sūs took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jē'-sūs did, said, This is of a truth *that prophet that should come into the world.

15 † When Jē'-sūs therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 † And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea,

17 And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm. And it was now dark, and Jē'-sūs was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.

19 So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jē'-sūs walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 † The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jē'-sūs went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone;

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Ti-bē'-rī-ās nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jē'-sūs was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Cā-pēr'-nā-ūm, seeking for Jē'-sūs.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rāb'-bī, when camest thou hither?

26 Jē'-sūs answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.

27 † Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but / for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: / for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, What

29 Jē'-sūs answered and said unto them, 'This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, 'What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 'Our fathers did eat mān'-nā in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, 'that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jēws then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, 'Is not this Jē'-sūs, the son of Jō'-séph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jē'-sūs therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

cept the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 'It is written in the prophets And they shall be all taught of God. 'Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 'Not that any man hath seen the Father, 'save he which is God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you 'He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 'I am that bread of life.

49 'Your fathers did eat mān'-nā in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 'This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread 'which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and 'the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jēws therefore 'strove among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jē'-sūs said unto them Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except 'ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 'Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, 'dwelleth in me and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 'This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat mān'-nā, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Că-pēr-nā-ūm.

60 'Many therefore of his disciples when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jē'-sūs knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it

He said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 ^aWhat and if ye shall see the son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 ^dIt is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But ^fthere are some of you that believe not. For ^gJē'-sūs knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore ^hsaid I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 [†]From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jē'-sūs unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Si'-mon Pē-tēr answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast ^athe words of eternal life.

69 ^aAnd we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jē'-sūs answered them, ^aHave ye not chosen you twelve, ^aand one of you is a devil?

71 He spake of Jū-dās Is-cār'-i-ot the son of Si'-mon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 ^bThe world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, ^cbecause I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; ^afor my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Gāl'-i-lēē.

10 [†]But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then ^athe Jēws sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And ^athere was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for ^msome said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him ^afor fear of the Jēws.

14 [†]Now about the midst of the feast Jē'-sūs went up into the temple, and taught.

15 ^pAnd the Jēws marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man ^aletters, having never learned?

16 Jē'-sūs answered them, and said, ^aMy doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 ^aIf any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 ^aHe that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 ^aDid not Mō'-sēs give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? ^aWhy go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered and said, ^aThou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jē'-sūs answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 ^aMō'-sēs therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Mō'-sēs, ^fbut of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, ^athat the law of Mō'-sēs should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because ^aI have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 "Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jē'-sūs in the temple as he taught, saying, "Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and "I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 ¶ The Phār'-i-seēs heard that the people murmured such things concerning him; and the Phār'-i-seēs and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jē'-sūs unto them, "Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then said the Jēws among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gēn'-tīlēs, and teach the Gēn'-tīlēs?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 "In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jē'-sūs stood and cried, saying, "If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 "He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, "out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.

40 ¶ Many of the people therefore when they heard this saying, said Of a truth this is the Prophet.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Christ delivereth the woman taken in adultery. 12 Christ the light of the world. 33 He answers the Jews that boasted of Abraham, 59 and condemneth himself from their cruelty.

JĒ'-SŪS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 And the scribes and Phār'-i-seēs brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Mō'-sēs in the law commanded us, that such should be punished: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jē'-sūs stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jē'-sūs was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jē'-sūs had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jē'-sūs said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 ¶ Then spake Jē'-sūs again unto her, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

13 The Phār'-i-seēs therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true.

14 Jē'-sūs answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jē'-sūs answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jē'-sūs again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jēws, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.

25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And Jē'-sūs saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jē'-sūs unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jē'-sūs to those Jēws which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 ¶ They answered him, We be Ā'-brā'-hām's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jē'-sūs answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Ā'-brā-hām's seed; but ^aye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 ^aI speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, ^a*Ā'-brā-hām* is our father. Jē'-šūs saith unto them, ^aIf ye were Ā'-brā-hām's children, ye would do the works of Ā'-brā-hām.

40 ^aBut now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, ^awhich I have heard of God: this did not Ā'-brā-hām.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; ^awe have one Father, even God.

42 Jē'-šūs said unto them, ^aIf God were my Father, ye would love me: ^afor I proceeded forth and came from God; ^aneither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 ^aWhy do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 ^aYe are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and ^aabode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 ^aHe that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jēws, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Sā-mār'-ī-tān, and ^bhast a devil?

49 Jē'-šūs answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And ^aI seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^aIf a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jēws unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. ^k*Ā'-brā-hām* is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Ā'-brā-hām, which is dead: and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?

59 Then ^atook they up stones to cast at him: but Jē'-šūs hid himself, and went out of the temple ^agoing through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER 9.

1 The man that was born blind restored to sight. He is brought to the Pharisees, who are offended at it, and cast him out. 38 He confesseth Christ.

AND as Jē'-šūs passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples asked him saying, Master, ^awho did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jē'-šūs answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: ^abut that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 ^aI must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, ^aI am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, ^ahe spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he ^aanointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay.

7 And said unto him, Go, wash ^ain the pool of Sī-lō-ām, (which is but interpretation, Sent.) ^aHe went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jē'-šūs made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Si-lō'-ām, and wash: and I went and washed, and received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Phār'-ī-sēes him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jē'-šūs made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Phār'-ī-sēes also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Phār'-ī-sēes, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jēws did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jēws: for the Jēws had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Mō'-sēs' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Mō'-sēs: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jē'-šūs heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jē'-šūs said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jē'-šūs said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Phār'-ī-sēes which were with him heard these words, "and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jē'-šūs said unto them, "If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10.

¹ Christ is the door, and the good shepherd. ²⁴ He proveth by his works that he is Christ the Son of God.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Jē'-šūs unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jē'-šūs unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 "I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.

11 "I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and ^b know my sheep, and am known of mine.

15 ^d As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: "and lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And ^f other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also must bring, and they shall hear my voice; "and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, ^h because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I ⁱ have power to take it again. ^j This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 ^k There was a division therefore again among the Jews for the sayings.

20 And many of them said, "I have a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a devil. "Can a devil open the eyes of the blind?

22 ^l And it was at Jē-rū'-sā-lē the feast of the dedication, and was winter.

23 And Jē'-šūs walked in the temple ^m in Sōl'-ō-mōn's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou ⁿ make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jē'-šūs answered them, I testify unto you, and ye believed not: "the work that I do in my Father's name, ye bear witness of me.

26 But ^o ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 ^p My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and ^q they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 ^r My Father, "which gave me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.

30 ^s I and my Father are one.

31 Then ^t the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jē'-šūs answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from ny Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, 'For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, ^b makest thyself God.

34 Jē'-sūs answered them, 'Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, 'unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, ^c whom the Father hath sanctified, and ^a sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; 'because said, I am ^k the Son of God?

37 'If I do not the works of my father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, ^a believe the works: that ye may know, and believe, 'that the father is in me, and I in him.

39 ^p Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away again beyond Jōr'-dān into the place 'where Jōhn first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, Jōhn did no miracle: ^a but all things that Jōhn spake of this man were true.

42 'And many believed on him here.

NOW a certain man was sick, ^a named Lāz'-ā-rūs, of Bēth'-ā-nŷ, the town of 'Mār'-ŷ and her sister Mār'-thā.

2 ('It was that Mār'-ŷ which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lāz'-ā-rūs was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jē'-sūs heard that, he said, 'This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified hereby.

5 Now Jē'-sūs loved Mār'-thā, and her sister, and Lāz'-ā-rūs.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, ^a he abode two days till in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Jū-dā'-ā again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, 'the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jē'-sūs answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? ^a If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But ^f if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lāz'-ā-rūs ^m sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.

13 Howbeit Jē'-sūs spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.

14 Then said Jē'-sūs unto them plainly, Lāz'-ā-rūs is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said Thōm'-ās, which is called Did'-ŷ-mūs, unto his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jē'-sūs came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bēth'-ā-nŷ was nigh unto Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, ^a about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Mār'-thā and Mār'-ŷ, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Mār'-thā, as soon as she heard that Jē'-sūs was coming, went and met him: but Mār'-ŷ sat still in the house.

21 Then said Mār'-thā unto Jē'-sūs, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, ^a whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jē'-sūs saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Mār'-thā saith unto him, ^a I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jē'-sūs said unto her, I am ^b the resurrection, and the ^c life: ^a he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:

26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: ^bI believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mār'-y her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jē'-šūs was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Mār'-thā met him.

31 The Jēwē then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mār'-y, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there.

32 Then when Mār'-y was come where Jē'-šūs was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, ^aLord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jē'-šūs therefore saw her weeping, and the Jēwē also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and ²was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 ¹Jē'-šūs wept.

36 Then said the Jēwē, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, ^mwhich opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jē'-šūs therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jē'-šūs said, Take ye away the stone. Mār'-thā, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jē'-šūs saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jē'-šūs lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Láz'-ā-rú, come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and ^ahis face was bound about with a napkin. Jē'-šūs saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jēwē which came to Mār'-y, ^aand had seen the things which Jē'-šūs did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went the other ways to the Phār'-i-seēs, and told them what things Jē'-šūs had done.

47 ¶ ¹Then gathered the chief priests and the Phār'-i-seēs a council, and said, ²What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, a ^amen will believe on him: and the Rō'-māns shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named Cā'-aphās, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 ^kNor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jē'-šūs should die for that nation;

52 And ⁿnot for that nation only: ^obut that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jē'-šūs ^ptherefore walked more openly among the Jēwē; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called ^qĒ'-phrā-īm, and there continued with his disciples.

55 ¶ ^rAnd the Jēwē's passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jē-rú'-sā-lēm before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 ^sThen sought they for Jē'-šūs and spake among themselves, as they hood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast? 57 Now both the chief priests and the Phār'-i-seēs had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12.

Jesus exouseth Mary anointing his feet. 9 People flock to see Lazarus. 12 Christ rideth into Jerusalem. 20 Greeks desire to see Jesus. 37 The Jews are generally blinded. 44 Jesus calleth earnestly for confession of faith.

THEN Jē'-sūs six days before the passover came to Bēth'-ā-n'y, where Lāz'-ā-rūs was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2^a There they made him a supper; and Mār'-thā served: but Lāz'-ā-rūs was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took ¹ Mār'-y a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jē'-sūs, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Jā'-dās Is-cār'-i-ot, Sī'-mōn's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and ² had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jē'-sūs, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For ³ the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jēws therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jē'-sūs' sake only, but that they might see Lāz'-ā-rūs also, ⁴ whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ⁵ But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lāz'-ā-rūs also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jēws went away, and believed on Jē'-sūs.

and went forth to meet him, and cried, ^a Hō-sān'-nā: Blessed is the King of Is'-rā-ēl that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 ^b And Jē'-sūs, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 ^c Fear not, daughter of Sī'-on: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things ^d understood not his disciples at the first: ^e but when Jē'-sūs was glorified, ^f then remembered they that these things were written of him, and ^g that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him when he called Lāz'-ā-rūs out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 ^h For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Phār'-i-seēs therefore said among themselves, ⁱ Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 ^j And there ^k were certain Greeks among them ^l that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Phil'-ip, ^m which was of Bēth-sā'-i-dā of Gāl'-i-lēe, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jē'-sūs.

22 Phil'-ip cometh and telleth An'-drēw: and again An'-drēw and Phil'-ip tell Jē'-sūs.

23 ⁿ And Jē'-sūs answered them, saying, ^o The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, ^p Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 ^q He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and ^r where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will ^s my Father honour.

27 ^t Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: ^u but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. ^v Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jē'-šūs answered and said, ^d This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall ^f the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, ^a if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw ^b all men unto me.

33 ^m This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, ⁿ We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jē'-šūs said unto them, Yet a little while ^e is the light with you. ^r Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for ^h he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be ^t the children of light. These things spake Jē'-šūs, and departed, and ^z did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Ē-sāi'-ās the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^o Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Ē-sāi'-ās said again,

40 ^d He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with ^u their eyes, nor understand with ^v their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 ^f These things said Ē-sāi'-ās, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but ^a because of the Phār'-ī-seēs they did not confess ^h him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 ^b For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jē'-šūs cried and said, ^t That believeth on me, believeth on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And ^b he that seeth me see him that sent me.

46 ^c I am come a light into this world, that whosoever believeth in me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my word and believe not, ^e I judge him now for ^f I came not to judge the world but to save the world.

48 ^h He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: ⁱ the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For ^j I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me he gave me a commandment, ^k what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Jesus washeth his disciples' feet: exhorteth to love one another in unity: 34 commandeth them to love one another

NOW ^a before the feast of the passover, when Jē'-šūs knew that ^b his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end.

2 And supper being ended, ^c the devil having now put into the hearts of Jū-dās Is-cār'-i-ot, Sī'-mōn's son, to betray him;

3 Jē'-šūs knowing ^d that the Father had given all things into his hand, and ^e that he was come from God and went to God;

4 ^f He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel and girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe ^g them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to Sī'-mōn Peter: and ^h Pē'-tēr saith unto him, Lord, ⁱ dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jē'-šūs answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest now; ^j but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Pē'-tēr saith unto him, Tho hath never wash my feet. Jē'-šūs answered him, ^a If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Sī'-mōn Pē'-tēr saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.

10 Jē'-šūs saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ^c ye are clean, but not all.

11 For ^d he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have said to you?

13 ^e Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 ^f If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ^g ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For ^h I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 ⁱ Verily, verily, I say unto you, the servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 ^j If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 ^k I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, ^l He that loveth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 ^m Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.

20 ⁿ Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 ^o When Jē'-šūs had thus said, ^p he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ^q one of you shall betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now ^r there was leaning on Jē'-šūs' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jē'-šūs loved.

24 Sī'-mōn Pē'-tēr therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who he should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jē'-šūs' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jē'-šūs answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a ² sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Jū'-dās Is-cār'-i-qt, the son of Sī'-mōn.

27 ^b And after the sop Sā'-tān entered into him. Then said Jē'-šūs unto him, That thou doest, do so quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because ^c Jū'-dās had the bag, that Jē'-šūs had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 ¶ Therefore, when he was gone out, Jē'-šūs said, 'Now is the Son of man glorified, and ^d God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and ^e shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: ^f and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 ^g A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 ^h By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 ¶ Sī'-mōn Pē'-tēr said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jē'-šūs answered him, Whither I go, thou cannot not follow me now; but ⁱ thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Pē'-tēr said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will ^j lay down my life for thy sake.

38 Jē'-šūs answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples: 6 professeth himself the way, the truth, and the life: 13 prayers in his name effectual. 16 He promiseth the Holy Ghost: 27 and leaveth his peace with them.

LET ^d not your heart be troubled: I ye believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. ^bI go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if ^cI go and prepare a place for you, ^dI will come again, and receive you unto myself; that ^ewhere I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thōm'ās saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jē'sūs saith unto him, I am ^fthe way, ^gthe truth, and ^hthe life: ⁱno man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 ^jIf ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Phil'ip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jē'sūs saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Phil'ip? ^khe that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Shew us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that ^lI am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you ^mI speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: ⁿor else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 ^oVerily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 ^pAnd whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 ^q'If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and ^rhe shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

22 ^jJū-dās saith unto him, nō īs-cār'-ī-ot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jē'sūs answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, ^kand we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and ^lthe world which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: ^xfor the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and ^ythat the Father gave me commandments, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

CHAPTER 15.

The consolation and mutual love between Christ and his members. 18 Comfort in the hatred and persecution of the world. 26 Office of the Holy Ghost.

1 AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: or without me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.

18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep your's also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16.

1 Christ comforteth his disciples against tribulation by the promise of the Holy Ghost, &c. 23 Prayers made in his name are acceptable to his Father. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And *these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But ^bthese things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now ^cI go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, ^ethe Comforter will not come unto you; but ^fif I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will ^greprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 ^hOf sin, because they believe not on me;

10 ⁱOf righteousness, ^jbecause I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 ^kOf judgment, because ^lthe prince of this world is judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, ^mbut ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, ⁿthe Spirit of truth, is come, ^ohe will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, ^pthat shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.

14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew ^qit unto you.

15 ^rAll things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew ^sit unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, ^tbecause I go to the Father.

17 Then said ^usome of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 ^aA woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask nothing. ^bVerily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, ^cthat your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in ^dproverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in ^eproverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 ^fFor the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and ^ghave believed that I came out from God.

28 ^hI came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no ⁱproverb.

30 Now are we sure that ^jthou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: but this ^kwe believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jē-sūs answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 ^lBehold, the hour cometh, when now is, that ye shall be scattered, ^mevery man to ⁿhis own home, and shall leave me alone: and ^oyet

13 These things I have spoken unto you, that ^ain me ye might have peace. ^aIn the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

CHAPTER 17.

Christ prayeth to his Father to glorify him, 6 to preserve his apostles, 20 and all other believers.

1 THESE words spake Jē'sūs, and ^alifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, ^athe hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 ^aAs thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many ^aas thou hast given him.

3 And ^athis is life eternal, that they might know thee ^athe only true God, and Jē'sūs Christ, ^awhom thou hast sent.

4 ^aI have glorified thee on the earth: ^aI have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory ^awhich I had with thee before the world was.

6 ^aI have manifested thy name unto the men ^awhich thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the words ^awhich thou gavest me; and they have received them, ^aand have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

9 I pray for them: ^aI pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.

11 ^aAnd now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, ^aas we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, ^aI kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and ^anone of them is lost, ^abut the son of perdition; ^athat the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; ^aand the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, ^aeven as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but ^athat thou shouldst keep them from the evil.

CHAPTER 18.

1 Judas betrayeth Jesus. 10 Peter smiteth off Malchus' ear. 12 Jesus is taken, and led unto Annas and Caiaphas. 15 Peter's denial. 28 Jesus arraigned before Pilate.

WHEN Jē'-šūs had spoken these words, ^b he went forth with his disciples over ^c the brook Cē-drōn, where was a garden, into the which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Jū'-dās also, which betrayed him, knew the place: ^d for Jē'-šūs oftentimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 ^e Jū'-dās then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Phār'-i-seēs, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and weapons.

4 Jē'-šūs therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth. Jē'-šūs saith unto them, I am he. And Jū'-dās also, which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth.

8 Jē'-šūs answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, ^a Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 ^f Then Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Māl'-chūs.

11 Then said Jē'-šūs unto Pē'-tēr, Put up thy sword into the sheath: ^g the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jēws took Jē'-šūs, and bound him,

13 And ^h led him away to ⁱ Ān'-nās first; for he was father in law to Cāi'-ā-phās, which was the high priest that same year.

14 ^j Now Cāi'-ā-phās was he, which gave counsel to the Jēws, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ^k And Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr followed Jē'-šūs, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jē'-šūs into the palace of the high priest.

16 ^v But Pē'-tēr stood at the door without. Then went out the other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Pē'-tēr.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Pē'-tēr, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? saith, I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Pē'-tēr stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 ^w The high priest then asked Jē'-šūs of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jē'-šūs answered him, ^x I spake openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jēws always resorted, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken one of the officers which stood by ^y struck Jē'-šūs ^z with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jē'-šūs answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 ^{aa} Now Ān'-nās had sent his bound unto Cāi'-ā-phās the high priest.

25 And Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr stood and warmed himself. ^{ab} They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Pē'-tēr cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Pē'-tēr then denied again: ^{ac} and immediately the cock crew.

28 ^{ad} Then led they Jē'-šūs from Cāi'-ā-phās unto ^{ae} the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.

29 Pī'-lāte then went out unto them and said, What accusation bringest thou against this man?

0 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him unto thee.

1 Then said Pi'-lāte unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jēw's therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

2 That the saying of Jē'-sūs might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

3 Then Pi'-lāte entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jē'-s, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jēw's?

4 Jē'-sūs answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

5 Pi'-lāte answered, Am I a Jēw? mine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

6 Jē'-sūs answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jēw's: at now is my kingdom not from hence.

7 Pi'-lāte therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jē'-sūs answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that 'is of the truth heareth my voice.

8 Pi'-lāte saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jēw's, and saith unto them, I find in him no fault at all.

9 But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jēw's?

10 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Bār-āb'-s. Now Bār-āb'-bās was a robber.

3 And said, Hail, King of the Jēw's! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pi'-lāte therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jē'-sūs forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pi'-lāte saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pi'-lāte saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jēw's answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 When Pi'-lāte therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jē'-sūs, Whence art thou? But Jē'-sūs gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pi'-lāte unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jē'-sūs answered, Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pi'-lāte sought to release him: but the Jēw's cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæ'-sār's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against Cæ'-sār.

13 When Pi'-lāte therefore heard that saying, he brought Jē'-sūs forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hē'-brēw, Gāb'-bā-thā.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jēw's, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pi'-lāte saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæ'-sār.

16 *Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jē'-šūs, and led him away.

17 *And he bearing his cross ^dwent forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hē'- brēw Gōl'-gō-thā:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Jē'-šūs in the midst.

19 ¶ *And Pī'-lāte wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JĒ'-ŠŪS OF NĀZ'-Ā-RĒTH THE KING OF THE JĒWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jēws: for the place where Jē'-šūs was crucified was nigh to the city:
and it was written in Hē'-brēw, and Græek, and Lāt-in.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jēws to Pī'-lāte, Write not, The King of the Jēws; but that he said,
I am King of the Jēws.

22 Pī'-lāte answered, What I have written I have written.

23 ¶ *Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jē'-šūs, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, ²woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, *They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 ¶ *Now there stood by the cross of Jē'-šūs his mother, and his mother's sister, Mār'-ŷ the wife of ²*Clē'-ō-phās, and Mār'-ŷ Māg'-dālēne.

26 When Jē'-šūs therefore saw his mother, and *the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, *Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her *unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jē'-šūs knowing that all things were now accomplished, *that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and ^bthey filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jē'-šūs therefore had ceived the vinegar, he said, ^bI finished: and he bowed his head and gave up the ghost.

31 The Jēws therefore, *because was the preparation, ^cthat the body should not remain upon the cross the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought late that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, ^aand brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jē'- šūs and saw that he was dead already,
they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with his spear pierced his side, and forthwith ^acame there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done ^athat the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, ^cThey shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ *And after this Jō'-sēph Ār-im-ā-thāē-ā, being a disciple of Jē'-šūs, but secretly ^afor fear of the Jēws, besought Pī'-lāte that he might take away the body of Jē'-šūs: Pī'-lāte gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jē'-šūs.

39 And there came also ^cNīc-ōnūs, which at the first came to Jēws by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jēws, and ^cwound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the manner of the Jēws is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, where was never man yet laid.

42 ^cThere laid they Jē'-šūs therefore *because of the Jēws' preparation day; for the sepulchre was now at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

1 Mary cometh to the sepulchre: 3 as also Peter and John. 11 Jesus appeareth to Mary Magdalene and to his disciples. 24 The incredulity, confession of Thomas.

THE first day of the week cometh Mār-ŷ Māg'-dā-lēne early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

Then she runneth, and cometh Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr, and to the other disciple, whom Jē'-sūs loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and I know not where they have laid him.

Pē'-tēr therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Pē'-tēr, and came first to the sepulchre.

And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; and went he not in.

Then cometh Sī'-mon Pē'-tēr following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes

And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

But Mār-ŷ stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jē'-sūs had lain.

And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw the angels standing, and knew not that they were Jē'-sūs.

Jē'-sūs saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where 16 Jē'-sūs saith unto her, Mār-ŷ. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rāb-bō'-nī; which is to say, Master.

17 Jē'-sūs saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God.

18 Mār-ŷ Māg'-dā-lēne came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jē'-sūs and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. ¶ Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jē'-sūs to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost:

23 ¶ Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thōm'-ās, one of the twelve, called Did'-ŷ-mūs, was not with them when Jē'-sūs came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 ¶ And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thōm'-ās with them: then came Jē'-sūs, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thōm'-ās, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thōm'-ās answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jē'-šūs saith unto him, Thōm'-ās, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: ^a blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.

30 ¶ ^b And many other signs truly did Jē'-šūs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 ^c But these are written, that ye might believe that Jē'-šūs is the Christ, the Son of God; ^d and that believing ye might have life through his name.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Christ appeareth again to his disciples. 6 The great draught of fishes. 15 Christ's charge to Peter. 18 He foretelleth him of his death. 25 The conclusion.

AFTER these things Jē'-šūs shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Ti-bē'-rī-ās; and on this wise shewed he himself.

2 There were together Si'-mon Pē'-tēr, and Thōm'-ās called Did'-y-mūs, and ^e Nā-thān'-ā-ēl of Cā'-nā in Gāl'-ī-lēē, and ^f the sons of Zēb'-ē-dēē, and two other of his disciples.

3 Si'-mon Pē'-tēr saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jē'-šūs stood on the shore: but the disciples ^g knew not that it was Jē'-šūs.

5 Then ^h Jē'-šūs saith unto them, ⁱ Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, ^j Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore ^k that disciple whom Jē'-šūs loved saith unto Pē'-tēr, It is the Lord. Now when Si'-mon Pē'-tēr heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

11 Si'-mon Pē'-tēr went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jē'-šūs saith unto them, ^v Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jē'-šūs then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and likewise.

14 This is now ^w the third time that Jē'-šūs shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Jē'-šūs saith to Si'-mon Pē'-tēr, Si'-mon, son of Jō'-nās, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord, thou knowest that I love thee. Jē'-šūs saith unto him, Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Si'-mon, son of Jō'-nās, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Si'-mon, son of Jō'-nās, lovest thou me? Pē'-tēr was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he saith unto him, Lord, ^x thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jē'-šūs saith unto him, Feed my sheep.

18 ^y Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdest thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying what death he should glorify God by. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Pē'-tēr, turning about, seeth the disciple ^z whom Jē'-šūs loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Pē'-tēr seeing him saith to Jē'-šūs, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jē'-šūs saith unto him, If I will, at he tarry 'till I come, what is at to thee? follow thou me.

3 Then went this saying abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jē'-sūs said unto him, He shall not die; but,
I will that he tarry till I come,
that is that to thee?

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

CHAPTER 1.

Christ, preparing his apostles to the beholding of his ascension, gathereth them together to mount Olivet, bidding them to expect in Jerusalem the coming down of the Holy Ghost. 9 The ascension.
They return, and give themselves to prayer. 26
Matthias is chosen in place of Judas.

THE former treatise have I made,
O Thē-ōph'-i-lūs, of all that Jē'-sūs began both to do and teach, Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Ghost 'had given commandments unto the apostles whom he had chosen:

To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion by many certain proofs, being seen of them several days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

And, being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jē-rū'- sā-lēm, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me.

For Jōhn truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.

When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore unto us the kingdom to Is'-rā-ēl?

And he said unto them, It is not your business to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put into his own power.

But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and in all Jū-dā'-ā, and in Sā-mā'-i-ā, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked sted-fastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Gāl'-i-lēe, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jē'-sūs, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jērū'-sā-lēm from the mount called Ōl'-i-vēt, which is from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm a sabbath day's journey.

13 And when they were come in,
they went up into an upper room, where abode both Pē'-tēr, and Jāmes, and Jōhn, and Ān'-drēw, Phīl'-ip, and Thōm'-ās, Bār-thōl'- ō-mēw, and Mātth'-ēw, Jāmes the son of Al-phā'-ūs, and Sī'-mon Zē-lō'-tēs, and Jū'-dās the brother of Jāmes.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mār'-y the mother of Jē'-sūs, and with his brethren.

15 And in those days Pē'-tēr stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of Dā'-vid spake before concerning Jū'-dās, which was guide to them that took Jē'-sūs.

17 For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.

18 Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jē-rū-sā-lēm; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, A-cēl'-dā-mā, that is to say, The field of blood.

20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, ¹Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and ²his ³bishoprick let another take.

21 Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jē'-šūs went in and out among us,

22 ^dBeginning from the baptism of Jōhn, unto that same day that ^ehe was taken up from us, must one be ordained ^fto be a witness with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Jō'-šēph called ^gBār'-sā-bās, who was surnamed Jūs'-tūs, and Mātth-ī'-ās.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, ^hwhich knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 ⁱThat he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Jū'-dās by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Mātth-ī'-ās; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2.

¹The apostles, filled with the Holy Ghost, and speaking divers languages, are admired by some, and derided by others. ¹⁴Peter's sermon. ⁴¹He baptizeth a great number that were converted, the apostles working many miracles, and God daily increasing his church.

AND when ^athe day of Pēn'-tē-cōst was fully come, ^bthey were all with one accord in one place.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

20 ^fThe sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, ^gthat whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Īs'-rā-ēl, hear these words; Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth, a man approved of God among you ^bby miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: 23 Him, ^abeing delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ^cye have taken, and ^dwicked hands have crucified and slain: 24 ^eWhom God hath raised up, giving loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. 25 For Dā'-vid speaketh concerning him, ^fI foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: 26 Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover so my flesh shall rest in hope: 27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer the Holy One to see corruption. 28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance. 29 Men and brethren, ^glet me tell you truly, ^hlet me truly speak unto you ⁱof the patriarch Dā'-vid, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. 30 Therefore being a prophet, ^jand knowing that God had sworn with oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; 31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, ^kthat his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. 32 ^l'This Jē'-šūs hath God raised up, ^mwhereof we all are witnesses. 33 Therefore ⁿbeing by the right hand of God exalted, and ^ohaving received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he ^phath shed forth this which ye now see and hear. 34 For Dā'-vid is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself, ^qThe LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool. 36 Therefore let all the house of Īs'-rā-ēl know assuredly, that God ^chath made that same Jē'-šūs, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 ¶ Now when they heard this, ^dthey were pricked in their heart, and said unto Pē'-tēr and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Pē'-tēr said unto them, ^eRepent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jē'-šūs Christ for the remission of sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

39 For the promise is unto you, and ^fto your children, and ^gto all that are afar off, ^heven as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation.

41 ¶ Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added ⁱunto them about three thousand souls.

42 ^jAnd they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and ^kmany wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and ^lhad all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and ^mparted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 ⁿAnd they, continuing daily with one accord ^oin the temple, and ^pbreaking bread ^qfrom house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and ^rhaving favour with all the people. And ^sthe Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

CHAPTER 3.

1 A lame man healed. 12 Peter preacheth to the people. 19 He exhorteth them by repentance and faith to seek remission of their sins.

NOW Pē'-tēr and Jōhn went up together ^ainto the temple at the hour of prayer, ^bbeing the ninth hour.

2 And ^ca certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, * to ask alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Pē'-tēr and Jōhn about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Pē'-tēr, fastening his eyes upon him with Jōhn, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something of them.

6 Then Pē'-tēr said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jē'-sūs Christ of Nāz'-ā-rēth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.

8 And he *leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he which *sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as the lame man which was healed held Pē'-tēr and Jōhn, all the people ran together unto them in the porch *that is called Sōl'-ō-mōn's, greatly wondering.

12 ¶ And when Pē'-tēr saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Ī'-rā-ēl, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?

13 'The God of Ā'-brā-hām, and of Ī'-śāac, and of Jā'-cob, the God of our fathers, *hath glorified his Son Jē'-sūs; whom ye *delivered up, and *denied him in the presence of Pī'-lāte, when he was determined to let him go.

14 But ye denied *the Holy One *and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the *Prince of life, *whom God hath raised from the dead; *whereof we are witnesses.

16 And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I wot that *through ignorance ye did it, as also your rulers.

18 *But *those things, which God before had shewed *by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 ¶ Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord;

20 And he shall send Jē'-sūs Christ, which before was preached unto you.

21 *Whom the heaven must receive until the times of *restitution of things, *which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

22 For Mō'-sēs truly said unto the fathers, 'A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear the prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from Sām'-ū-ēl and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days.

25 *Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Ā'-brā-hām, *And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 *Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jē'-sūs, *sent him to bless you, *in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

CHAPTER 4.

3 Peter and John imprisoned. 10 Peter boldly avoucheth the lame man to be healed by the name of Jesus. 13 They command them to preach more in that name, adding also threatening, whereupon the church fleeth to prayer.

AND as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the *captains of the temple, and the Sād'-dū-see came upon them,

2 *Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jē'-sūs the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide.
 4 Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.
 5 ¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,
 6 And An'-nās the high priest, and Q'ā-phās, and Jōhn, and Al-ēx-ān'-nār, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jē-rū-sā-lēm.
 7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, 'By what power, or by what name, have ye done this?
 8 ¶ Then Pē-tēr, filled with the holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Jē-rā-ēl,
 9 If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;
 10 Be it known unto you all, and unto all the people of Jē-rā-ēl, 'that by the name of Jē'-šūs Christ of Naz'-ā-rēth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, and by him doth this man stand before you whole.
 11 ¶ This is the stone which was set before you, of which ye have said, 'Nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.
 12 ¶ Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved.
 13 ¶ Now when they saw the boldness of Pē-tēr and Jōhn, 'and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jē'-šūs.
 14 And beholding the man which was healed 'standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
 15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, 16 Saying, "What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them, is manifest to all them that dwell in Jē-rū-sā-lēm; and we cannot deny it.
 17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

 18 ¶ And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jē'-šūs.
 19 But Pē-tēr and Jōhn answered and said unto them, 'Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye.
 20 ¶ For we cannot but speak the things which 'we have seen and heard.
 21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, 'because of the people: for all men glorified God for 'that which was done.
 22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.
 23 ¶ And being let go, ^kthey went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.
 24 And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, ^mthou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:
 25 Who by the mouth of thy servant Dā'-vīd hast said, ^pWhy did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?
 26 The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Christ.
 27 For 'of a truth against 'thy holy child Jē'-šūs, ^uwhom thou hast anointed, both Hēr'-od, and Pōn'-tius Pi'-lāte, with the Gēn'-tīlēs, and the people of Jē-rā-ēl, were gathered together, 28 ¶ For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.
 29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, 'that with all boldness they may speak thy word, 30 By stretching forth thine hand to heal; ^band that signs and wonders may be done ^dby the name of 'thy holy child Jē'-šūs.
 31 ¶ And when they had prayed, 'the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jē'sūs: and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

36 And Jō'sēs, who by the apostles is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Lē-vīte, and of the country of Cŷ-prūs, 37 Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Sin of Ananias and Sapphira. 17 The apostles again imprisoned: 19 delivered by an angel, &c.

BUT a certain man named Ān-ā-nī'ās, with Sāpph-i-rā his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Pē-tēr said, Ān-ā-nī'ās, why hath Sā-tān filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ān-ā-nī'ās hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Pē-tēr answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, so much.

9 Then Pē-tēr said unto her, H is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord at Söl-ō-mon's porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Pē-tēr passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jē-rū-sā-lēm, bringing sick folk, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Saddūcees,) and were filled with indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the angel of the Lord night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the orning, and taught. " But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Is-rā-ēl, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly founde shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, " Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jē-rū'-sā-lēm with your doctrine, " and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Pē'-tēr and the other apostles answered and said, " We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 " The God of our fathers raised up Jē'-šūs, whom ye slew and " hanged on a tree.

31 " Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be " a Prince and " a Saviour, " for to give repentance to Is-rā-ēl, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And " we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, " whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ " When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the council, a Phār'-i-sēe, named " Gā-ā'-li-ēl, a doctor of the law, had great reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space;

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Is'-rā-ēl, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theū'-dās, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Jū'-dās of Gāl'-i-lēe in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: " for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought:

39 " But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even " to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had " called the apostles, " and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jē'-šūs, and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, " rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.

42 And daily " in the temple, and in every house, " they ceased not to teach and preach Jē'-šūs Christ.

CHAPTER 6.

1 The apostles, in their care for the poor, 3 appoint the office of deaconship to seven chosen men. 5 Of whom Stephen, a man full of faith, and of the Holy Ghost, 12 is taken, and falsely accused of blasphemy.

AND in those days, " when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the " Grē'-ciāns against the Hē'-brēws, because their widows were neglected " in the daily ministration.

2 Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, " It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, " look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we " will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 ¶ And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stē'-phēn, ^aa man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and 'Phīl'-īp, and Prōch'-ō-rūs, and Nī-cā'-nōr, and Tī'-mōn, and Pār'-mē-nās, and 'Nīc'-ō-lās a proselyte of Ān'-tī-ōch:

6 Whom they set before the apostles: and ¹when they had prayed, ²they laid their hands on them.

7 And ^athe word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jē-rū'-sā-lēm greatly; and a great company ^bof the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And Stē'-phēn, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 ¶ Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Lī-bēr'-tines, and Cŷ-rē'-nī-āns, and Āl-ēx-ān'-dri-āns, and of them of Cī-līc'-ī-ā and of Ā'-sīā, disputing with Stē'-phēn.

10 And ^athey were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

11 ¹Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Mō'-šēs, and against God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

13 And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

14 ^aFor we have heard him say, that this Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth shall ^adestroy this place, and shall change the ^bcustoms which Mō'-šēs delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7.

¹ Stephen answereth to the accusation of blasphemy: ² sheweth that Abraham worshipped God rightly: ³¹ reprehendeth their rebellion, and murdering of Christ, the Just One, ⁵⁴ whereupon they stone him to death.

THEN said the high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said, ^aMen, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Ā'-brā-hām, when he was in Mēs-ō-pō-tā'-mī-ā, before he dwelt in Chār'-rān,

3 And said unto him, ^aGet thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall shew thee.

4 Then ^dcame he out of the land of the Chāl-dæ'-āns, and dwelt in Chār'-rān: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye dwell.

5 And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as he set his foot on: ^ayet he promised that he would give it to him for possession, and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no children.

6 And God spake on this wise: ¹That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and ²treat them evil: ³four hundred years.

7 And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and ^aserve me in this place.

8 ²And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: ^aand so Ā'-brā-hām begat Ī'-śāac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; ^aand Ī'-śāac begat Jā'-cob; and Jā'-cob begat twelve patriarchs.

9 ^aAnd the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Jō'-sēph into Ē'-gŷt: ^abut God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of his afflictions, ^aand gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Phār'-ā-king of Ē'-gŷpt; and he made him governor over Ē'-gŷpt and all his house.

11 ^bNow there came a dearth over all the land of Ē'-gŷpt and Chāl'-ān, and great affliction: and ^ctheir fathers found no sustenance.

12 ^cBut when Jā'-cob heard that there was corn in Ē'-gŷpt, he sent out our fathers first.

13 ^dAnd at the second time Jō'-sēph was made known to his brethren; and Jō'-sēph's kindred was made known unto Phār'-āoh.

14 ^eThen sent Jō'-sēph, and called his father Jā'-cob to him, and ^fhis kindred, threescore and fifty souls.

15 ^hSo Jā'-cob went down into Ē'-gŷpt, ^aand died, he, and ^bhis fathers,

16 And ^kwere carried over into

7-chēm, and laid in ^a the sepulchre at Ā'-brā-hām bought for a sum of money of the sons of Ēm'-môr
the father of Sŷ'-chēm.

17 But when ^c the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had promised to Ā'-brā-hām, ^d the people increased and multiplied in Ē'-gŷpt, 18 Till another king arose, which knew not Jō'-šēph.

19 The same dealt subtilly with his kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, ^e so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.

20 ^a In which time Mō'-šēs was born, and ^b was ² exceeding fair, and nourished up in his father's house three months:

21 And ^c when he was cast out,
nār'-āōh's daughter took him up,
and nourished him for her own son.

22 And Mō'-šēs was learned in all the wisdom of the Ē'-gŷp'-tŷāns, and was ^d mighty in words and in deeds.

23 ^a And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Īs'-rā-ēl.

24 And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenge him that was oppressed, and smote the Ē'-gŷp'-tŷān:

25 ^a For he supposed his brethren might have understood how that aided by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 ^a And the next day he shewed himself unto them as they strove, and would have set them at one gain, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren;
why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying,
Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Ē'-gŷp'-tŷān yesterday?

29 ^a Then fled Mō'-šēs at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Mā'-dī-ān, where he begat two sons.

30 ^a And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sī'-nā an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Mō'-šēs saw it, he won-near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him,

32 Saying, ^a I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Ā'-brā-hām, and the God of Ī'-śāac, and the God of Jā'-cob. Then Mō'-šēs trembled, and durst not behold.

33 ^a Then said the Lord to him,
Put off thy shoes from thy feet:
for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 ^a I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in Ē'-gŷpt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Ē'-gŷpt.

35 This Mō'-šēs whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer ^b by the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush.

36 ^a He brought them out, after that he had ^b shewed wonders and signs in the land of Ē'-gŷpt, ^c and in the Red sea, ^d and in the wilderness forty years.

37 ^a This is that Mō'-šēs, which said unto the children of Īs'-rā-ēl, ^b A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren,
^c like unto me; ^d him shall ye hear.

38 ^a This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with ^b the angel which spake to him in the mount Sī'-nā, and ^c with our fathers:
^d who received the lively ^e oracles to give unto us:

39 To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Ē'-gŷpt,

40 ^a Saying unto Aā'-ron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Mō'-šēs, which brought us out of the land of Ē'-gŷpt, we wot not what is become of him.

41 ^a And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then ^a God turned, and gave them up to worship ^b the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, ^c O ye house of Īs'-rā-ēl, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Mō'-lōch, and the star of your god Rēm'-phān, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Bāb'-y-lon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, ² speaking unto Mō'-šēs, ³ that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 ¹ Which also our fathers ² that came after brought in with Jē'-sūs into the possession of the Gēn'-tīlēs, ³ whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of Dā'-vid;

46 ¹ Who found favour before God, and ² desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jā'-qōb.

47 ¹ But Sōl'-ō-mōn built him an house.

48 Howbeit ² the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 ¹ Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 ¹ ¶ Ye ² stiffnecked and ³ uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 ¹ Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of ² the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers:

53 ¹ Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 ¹ ¶ ² When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.

55 But he, ¹ being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jē'-sūs standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, ¹ I see the heavens opened, and the ² Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,

58 And ¹ cast him out of the city, ² and stoned him: and ³ the witnesses

CHAPTER 8.

¹ By occasion of the persecution in Jerusalem, church being planted in Samaria, 5 by Philip deacon, 14 Peter and John come to confirm and enlarge the church. 9, 18 Of Simon the sorcerer 37 Philip baptizeth an Ethiopian eunuch.

AND ¹ Sāul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and ² they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Jū-dā and Sā-mā'-i-ā, except the apostles.

2 And devout men carried Stē'-phēn to his burial, and ³ made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Sāul, ¹ he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison.

4 Therefore ¹ they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word.

5 Then ¹ Phīl'-ip went down to the city of Sā-mā'-i-ā, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one accord gave heed unto those things which Phīl'-ip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For ¹ unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in the city.

9 But there was a certain man called Si'-mōn, which beforetime was the same city ² used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Sā-mā'-i-ā ³ giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard because that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they believed Phīl'- reaching the things ^a concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jē'-sūs Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

13 Then Sī'-mon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Phil'-ip, and wondered, beholding the ²miracles and signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles which were at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm heard that Sā-mār'-i-ā had received the word of God, they sent unto them Pē'-tēr and Jōhn:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, ^athat they might receive the Holy Ghost:

16 (For ^aas yet he was fallen upon one of them: only ^fthey were baptized in ^gthe name of the Lord Jē'-sūs.)

17 Then ^hlaid they their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost.

18 And when Sī'-mon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, 19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, they may receive the Holy Ghost.

20 But Pē'-tēr said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that ⁱthe gift of God may be purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, ^kif perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Sī'-mon, and said, ^lPray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and reached the gospel in many villages of the Sā-mār'-i-tāns.

26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Phil'-ip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm unto Bē'-zā, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, ^ba man of Ē-thī-ō'-pī-ā, an eunuch of great authority under Cān'-dā-qē queen of the Ē-thī-ō'-pī-āns, who had the charge of all her treasure, and ^chad come to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm for to worship, 28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read Ē-sāi'-ās the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Phil'-ip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Phil'-ip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Ē-sāi'-ās, and said, Understandest thou what thou readeest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Phil'-ip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, ^d'He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Phil'-ip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Phil'-ip opened his mouth, ^eand began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jē'-sūs.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; ^fwhat doth hinder me to be baptized?

37 And Phil'-ip said, ^gIf thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, ^h'I believe that Jē'-sūs Christ is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Phil'-ip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, ⁱ'the Spirit of the Lord caught away Phil'-ip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Phil'-ip was found at Ā-zō'-tūs: and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Cē-sā-rē-ā.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Saul, going towards Damascus, is called by Christ: 18 is baptized by Ananias. 20 He preacheth Christ boldly. 31 Peter healeth Aeneas, 36 and restoreth Tabitha.

AND ^aSaul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Dă-măs'-cūs to the synagogues, that if he found any ^a of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jê-rû'-să-lēm.

3 And ^a as he journeyed, he came near Dă-măs'-cūs: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, ^a why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jê'-šus whom thou persecutest: ^a it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

6 And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, ^a what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And ^a the men which journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Dă-măs'-cūs.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 ¶ And there was a certain disciple at Dă-măs'-cūs, ^a named An-ă-nî'-ăs; and to him said the Lord in a vision, An-ă-nî'-ăs. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Jû'-dăs for one called Saul, ^a of Tăr'-sūs: for, behold, he prayeth, 12 And hath seen in a vision a man named An-ă-nî'-ăs coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then An-ă-nî'-ăs answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, ^a how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jê-rû'-să-lēm:

16 For ^d I will shew him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

17 ^e And An-ă-nî'-ăs went his way and entered into the house; and ^f putting his hands on him said Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jê'-šus that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and ^g be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.

19 And when he had received meat he was strengthened. ^a Then was Saul certain days with the disciples which were at Dă-măs'-cūs.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, ^a that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; ^a Is not this that destroyed them which call on this name in Jê-rû'-să-lēm, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, ^a and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Dă-măs'-cūs, proving that this is very Christ.

23 ¶ And after that many days were fulfilled, ^a the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 ^a But their laying await was known of Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 Then the disciples took him by night, and ^a let him down by the wall in a basket.

26 And ^a when Saul was come to Jê-rû'-să-lēm, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 ^b But Băr'-nă-băs took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, ^a and how and preached boldly at Dă-măs'-cūs the name of Jē'-sūs.

28 And °he was with them coming and going out at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jē'-sūs, and disputed against the °Grē'-ciāns: °but they went about to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cē-sā-rē'-ā, and sent him forth to Fār'-sūs.

31 Then had the churches rest throughout all Jū-dæ'-ā and Gāl'-i-lē and Sā-mār'-i-ā, and were edified:
and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

32 ¶ And it came to pass, as Pē'-tēr passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lŷd'-dā.

33 And there he found a certain man named Æ-nē'-ās, which had slept his bed eight years, and was racked of the palsy.

34 And Pē'-tēr said unto him, Ænē'-ās, Jē'-sūs Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed.
And he arose immediately.

good works and almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died:
whom when they had washed, they laid her in °an upper chamber.

with them. When he was come,

CHAPTER 10.

1 Cornelius sendeth for Peter: 11 who by a vision 15, 20 is taught not to despise the Gentiles. 34 As he preacheth, 44 the Holy Ghost descendeth, 48 and they are baptized.

THERE was a certain man in Cē-sā-rē'-ā called Cōr-nē'-li-ūs, a centurion of the band called the Ī-tāl'-iān band,

2 °A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people,
and prayed to God alway.

3 °He saw in a vision evidently about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cōr-nē'-li-ūs.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Jōp'-pā, and call for one Sī'-mōn, whose surname is Pē'-tēr:

6 He lodgeth with one °Sī'-mōn a tanner, whose house is by the sea side: °he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do.

7 And when the angel which spake unto Cōr-nē'-li-ūs was departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Jōp'-pā.

9 ¶ On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, °Pē'-tēr went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And °saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth :

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Pē'-tēr; kill, and eat.

14 But Pē'-tēr said, Not so, Lord; ^afor I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, ^aWhat God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Pē'-tēr doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cōr-nē'-lī-ūs had made enquiry for Sī'-mon's house, and stood before the gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Sī'-mon, which was surnamed Pē'-tēr, were lodged there.

19 ¶ While Pē'-tēr thought on the vision, ^athe Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 ^aArise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Pē'-tēr went down to the men which were sent unto him from Cōr-nē'-lī-ūs; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, ^aCōr-nē'-lī-ūs the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and ^aof good report among all the nation of the Jēws, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Pē'-tēr went away with them, ^aand certain brethren from Jōp'-pā accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into Cē-sā-rē-ā. And Cōr-nē'-lī-ūs waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.

25 And as Pē'-tēr was coming in, Cōr-nē'-lī-ūs met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Pē'-tēr took him up, say-

27 And as he talked with him, went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, know how ^bthat it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but ^cGod hath shewed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cōr-nē'-lī-ūs said, Few days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour prayed in my house, and, behold, ^da man stood before me ^ein bright clothing,

31 And said, Cōr-nē'-lī-ūs, ^fthy prayer is heard, ^gand thine affairs are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

33 Immediately therefore I sent thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore stand we all here present before God, and hear all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 ¶ Then Pē'-tēr opened his mouth, and said, ^hOf a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

35 But ⁱin every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.

36 The word which God sent unto the children of İs-rā-ēl, ^jpreaching peace by Jē'-šūs Christ: (^khe is Lord of all:)

37 That word, I say, ye know which was published throughout all Jû-dæ-ā, and ^lbegan from Galî-lée, after the baptism which John preached;

38 How ^mGod anointed Jē'-šūs Naz-ā-rēth with the Holy Ghost, and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; ⁿfor God was with him.

9 And 'we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jēw's, and in Jē-rū'-sā-lēm; 'whom they slew and hanged on a tree:

10 Him 'God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly;

11 'Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, 'who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

12 And 'he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify 'that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge 'of quick and dead.

13 'To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

14 ¶ While Pē'-tēr yet spake these words, 'the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word.

15 'And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Pē'-tēr, 'because that on the Gēn'-tīlēs also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost.

16 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Pē'-tēr, 17 Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost 'as well as we?

18 'And he commanded them to be baptized 'in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

6 Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, Pē'-tēr; slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cæ-sā-rē'-ā unto me.

12 And 'the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover 'these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

13 'And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Jōp'-pā, and call for Si'-mon, whose surname is Pē'-tēr;

14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall be saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, 'as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, 'Jōhn indeed baptized with water; but 'ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost.

17 'Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ; 'what was I, that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, 'Then hath God also to the Gēn'-tīlēs granted repentance unto life.

19 ¶ 'Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stē'-phēn travelled as far as Phē-nī'-cē, and Cŷ'-prūs, and Ān'-tī-ōch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jēws only.

20 And some of them were men of Cŷ'-prūs and Cŷ'-rē'-nē, which, when they were come to Ān'-tī-ōch, spake unto ^e the Grē'-tiāns, preaching the Lord Jē'-šūs.

21 And ^e the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and ^f turned unto the Lord.

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jē-rū'-sā-lēm: and they sent forth ^g Bār'-nā-bās, that he should go as far as Ān'-tī-ōch.

23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and ^h exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and ^k full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: ^l and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Bār'-nā-bās to ^m Tār'-sūs, for to seek Sāul:

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Ān'-tī-ōch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves ⁿ with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Chrīs'-tiāns first in Ān'-tī-ōch.

27 ¶ And in these days came ^o prophets from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm unto Ān'-tī-ōch.

28 And there stood up one of them named ^p Āg'-ā-būs, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Clāu'-dī-ūs Cē'-sār.

29 Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send ^q relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Jū-dē'-ā:

30 ^r Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Bār'-nā-bās and Sāul.

2 And he killed James ^a the brother of Jōhn with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jēws, he proceeded further to take Pē'-tēr also. (Then were ^b t days of unleavened bread.)

4 And ^c when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and ^d livered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people.

5 Pē'-tēr therefore was kept in prison: but ^e prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him.

6 And when Hēr'-ōd would have brought him forth, the same night Pē'-tēr was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept him in prison.

7 And, behold, ^f the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Pē'-tēr on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he said unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and ^g wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought ^h he saw a vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; ⁱ which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street, and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Pē'-tēr was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that ^j the Lord hath sent his angel, and ^k hath delivered me out of the hand of Hēr'-ōd, and from the expectation of the people of the Jēws.

12 And when he had considered the thing, ^l he came to the house of Mār'-y the mother of ^m Jōhn, whose surname was Mārķ; where many were gathered together ⁿ praying.

13 And as Pē'-tēr knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhō'-dā.

14 And when she knew Pē-tēr's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Pē-tēr stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Pē-tēr continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto Jāmes, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, that was become of Pē-tēr.

19 And when Hēr-od had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Jū-dæ'-ā to Cæsā-rē'-ā, and there abode.

20 ¶ And Hēr-od was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blās'-tūs the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was ravished by the king's cruelty.

21 And upon a set day Hēr-od, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

23 And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, and gave up the ghost.

24 ¶ But the word of God grew and multiplied.

25 And Bār'-nā-bās and Sāul returned from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them Jōhn, whose surname was Mārķ.

NOW there were in the church that was at An-ti-ōch certain prophets and teachers; as Bār'-nā-bās, and Sim'-ē-on that was called Nī'-gēr, and Lū'-cī-ūs of Cŷ-rē'-nē, and Mān'-ā-ēn, which had been brought up with Hēr-od the tē-trārch, and Sāul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Bār'-nā-bās and Sāul for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 ¶ So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Sē-lēu'-cī-ā; and from thence they sailed to Cŷ-prūs.

5 And when they were at Sāl'-ā-mis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jēws: and they had also Jōhn to their minister.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Pā-phōs, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jēw, whose name was Bār-jē-sūs:

7 Which was with the deputy of the country, Sēr'-gī-ūs Pāu-lūs, a prudent man; who called for Bār'-nā-bās and Sāul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But EL'-y-mās the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 Then Sāul, (who also is called Pāul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Pāul and his company loosed from Pā-phōs, they came to Pēr-gā in Pām-phyl'-i-ā:

and *Jōhn departing from them returned to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

14 ¶ But when they departed from Pēr'-gā, they came to An'-ti-ōch in Pi-sid'-i-ā, and *went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And *after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have *any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Is'-rā-ēl, and *ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Is'-rā-ēl *chose our fathers, and exalted the people *when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Ē'-gýpt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And *about the time of forty years *suffered he their manners in the wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chā'-nā-ān, *he divided their land to them by lot.

20 And after that *he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, *until Sām'-ū-ēl the prophet.

21 *And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Sāul the son of Čis, a man of the tribe of Bēn'-já-min, by the space of forty years.

22 And *when he had removed him, *he raised up unto them Dā'-vid to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, *I have found Dā'-vid the son of Jēs'-sé, *a man after mine own heart, which shall fulfil all my will.

23 *Of this man's seed hath God according *to his promise raised unto Is'-rā-ēl *a Saviour, Jē'-sūs:

24 *When Jōhn had first preached before his coming the baptism of repentance to all the people of Is'-rā-ēl.

25 And as Jōhn fulfilled his course, he said, *Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.

soever among you feareth God, *you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at Jē-rū'-lēm, and their rulers, *because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he has raised up Jē'-sūs again; as it is also written in the second psalm, *Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, *we say no more to return to corruption; he said on this wise, *I will give you the sure *mercies of Dā'-vid.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, *Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

36 For Dā'-vid, *after he had served his own generation by the will of God, *fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 ¶ Be it known unto you therefore, men and brethren, that *through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins.

41 Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a wonder in your days, a work which ye shall no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And when the Jēws were gone out of the synagogue, the Gēn'-tīlēs sought that these words might be reached to them² the next sabbath.

43 Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jēws and religious proselytes followed Pāul and Bār'-nā-bās: who, speaking to them,³ persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 ¶ And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jēws saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Pāul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Pāul and Bār'-nā-bās waxed bold, and said, ⁴It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye shut it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, we turn to the Gēn'-tīlēs.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, "I have set thee to be a light of the Gēn'-tīlēs, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gēn'-tīlēs heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jēws stirred up the devout and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Pāul and Bār'-nā-bās, and expelled them out of their coasts.

51 But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto Ī-cō'-nī-ūm.

52 And the disciples were filled with joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

2 But the unbelieving Jēws stirred up the Gēn'-tīlēs, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jēws, and part with the apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gēn'-tīlēs, and also of the Jēws with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled unto Lys'-trā and Dēr'-bē, cities of Lys'-cā-ō'-nī-ā, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 ¶ And there sat a certain man at Lys'-trā, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard Pāul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Pāul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lys'-cā-ō'-nī-ā, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called Bār'-nā-bās, Jū'-pī-tēr; and Pāul, Mēr'-cū'-rī-ūs, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jū'-pī-tēr, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Bār'-nā-bās and Pāul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 * Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 ^d Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and ^e gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them.

19 ¶ ^a And there came thither certain Jēws from Ān'-tī-ōch and Ī-cō-nī-ūm, who persuaded the people, ^b and, having stoned Pāul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Bār'-nā-bās to Dēr'-bē.

21 And when they had preached the gospel to that city, ^c and ^d had taught many, they returned again to Lys'-trā, and to Ī-cō-nī-ūm, and Ān'-tī-ōch,

22 Confirming the souls of the disciples, and ^e exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that ^f we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had ^g ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout Pi-sīd'-i-ā, they came to Pām-phyl'-i-ā.

25 And when they had preached the word in Pēr'-gā, they went down into Āt-tā'-lī-ā:

26 And thence sailed to Ān'-tī-ōch, ^h from whence they had been ⁱ recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, ^j they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had ^k opened the door of faith unto the Ġēn'-tīlēs.

28 And there they abode long time with the disciples.

brethren, and said, ^b Except ye be circumcised ^c after the manner of Mō'-sēs, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore Pāul and Bār'-nā-bās had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that ^d Pāul and Bār'-nā-bās and certain other of them, should go up to Jē-rû'-sā-lēm unto the apostles and elders about this question.

3 And ^e being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phē-nī'-cē and Sā-mār'-i-ā, ^f declaring the conversion of the Ġēn'-tīlēs: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jē-rû'-sā-lēm, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and ^g they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there ^h rose up certain of the sect of the Phār'-i-sēēs which believed, saying, ⁱ That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Mō'-sēs.

6 ¶ And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter.

7 And when there had been much disputing, Pē'-tēr rose up, and said unto them, ^j Men and brethren, know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that through the Ġēn'-tīlēs by my mouth should be preached the word of the gospel, and believed.

8 And God, ^k which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, ^l giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he doth unto us;

9 ^m And put no difference between us and them, ⁿ purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why tempt ye God, ^o to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But ^p we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ all shall be saved, even as they.

12 ¶ Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Bār'-nā-bās and Pāul, declaring the miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Ġēn'-tīlēs.

13 ¶ And after they had held their peace, ^q Jāmes answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me:

14 ^r Sīm'-ē-on hath declared how od at the first did visit the Ğn'-tîlêš, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 ^b After this I will return, and I'll build again the tabernacle of Ğ-vid, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Ğn'-tîlêš, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.

19 Wherefore ^d my sentence is, that ye trouble not them, which from among the Ğn'-tîlêš ^e are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain ^a from pollutions of idols, and ^f from fornication, and from things strangled, ^g and from blood.

21 For Mō'-sêš of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to choose men of their own company to Ğn'-tî-öch with Pål and Bär'-nä-bäs; namely, Jû'-däs surnamed ^h Bär'-sä-bäs, and Sî'-lās, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote letters by them in this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Ğn'-tîlêš in Ğn'-tî-öch and Sÿr'-i-ä and Cî-lic'-i-ä:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that ⁱ certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment:

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Bär'-nä-bäs and Pål, 26 ^a Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jê'-sus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Jû'-däs and Sî'-lās, who shall also tell you the same things by ^b mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;

29 ^a That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and ^b from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Ğn'-tî-öch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle:

31 Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the ^c consolation.

32 And Jû'-däs and Sî'-lās, being prophets also themselves, ^d exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space, they were let ^e go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles.

34 Notwithstanding it pleased Sî'-lās to abide there still.

35 ^f Pål also and Bär'-nä-bäs continued in Ğn'-tî-öch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 ^g And some days after Pål said unto Bär'-nä-bäs, Let us go again and visit our brethren ^h in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Bär'-nä-bäs determined to take with them ⁱ Jöhn, whose surname was Märk.

38 But Pål thought not good to take him with them, ^j who departed from them from Päm-phÿl'-i-ä, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other: and so Bär'-nä-bäs took Märk, and sailed unto Cÿ'-prüs;

40 And Pål chose Sî'-lās, and departed, ^k being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Sÿr'-i-ä and Cî-lic'-i-ä, ^l confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16.

¹ Paul circumciseth Timothy: 14 converteth Lydia, 16 and casteth out a spirit of divination. 19 Paul and Silas imprisoned, 36 and delivered.

THEN came he to ^a Dêr'-bê and Lÿs'-trä: and, behold, a certain disciple was there, ^b named Ti-möth'-ê-üs, ^c the son of a certain woman, which was a Jew'-ess, and believed; but his father was a Græek:

2 Which ^a was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lÿs'-trä and I-cō-ni-um.

3 Him would Pāul have to go forth with him; and ^c took and circumcised him because of the Jew's which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Græek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, ^d that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jē-ru'-sā-lēm.

5 And ^e so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone through-out Phryg'-i-ā and the region of Gālā'-tiā, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in A'-siā,

7 After they were come to Mÿs'-i-ā, they assayed to go into Bī-thÿn'-i-ā: but the Spirit suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mÿs'-i-ā ^a came down to Trō'-ās.

9 And a vision appeared to Pāul in the night; There stood a ^b man of Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go ^c into Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them.

11 Therefore loosing from Trō'-ās, we came with a straight course to Sām-ō-thrā'-cī-ā, and the next day to Nē-ā'-pō-lis;

12 And from thence to ^d Phī-lip'-pī, which is ^e the chief city of that part of Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the ^f sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 ¶ And a certain woman named Lÿd'-i-ā, a seller of purple, of the city of Thÿ-ā-tī'-rā, which worshipped God, heard us: whose ^g heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken of Pāul.

15 And when she was baptized and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come in unto my house, and abide there. And ^a she constrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to pass, as ^b we went to prayer, a certain dam^c possessed with a spirit ^d of divination met us, which brought her masters ^e much gain by soothsaying:

17 The same followed Pāul as, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, which shew unto us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Pāul, ^f being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jē'-sūs Christ to come out of her. ^g And he came out the same hour.

19 ¶ And ^h when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, ⁱ they caught Pāul and Sī'-lās and ^j drew them into the ^k marketplace unto the rulers,

20 And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, ^l do exceedingly trouble this city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Rō'-māns.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, ^m and commanded to beat them.

23 And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely:

24 Who, having received such charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast to the stocks.

25 ¶ And at midnight Pāul and Sī'-lās prayed, and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them.

26 ⁿ And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately ^o all the doors were opened, and every one's bars were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had been fled.

8 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

9 Then he called for a light, and rang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas,

10 And brought them out, and said, 'Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

11 And they said, 'Believe on the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.

12 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

13 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

14 And when he had brought them to his house, ^a he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.

15 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go.

16 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.

17 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, ^b being Rō-māns, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

18 And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: and they feared, when they heard that they were Rō-māns.

19 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.

20 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Tyndarion; and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

ā-lō-nī'-cā, where was a synagogue of the Jēws:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, ^a went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, ^b that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jē'sūs, ^c whom I preach unto you, is Christ.

4 ^d And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and ^e Silas; and of the devout Grēeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jēws which believed not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of ^f Jā'son, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jā'son and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, ^g These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jā'son hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cā'-sār, ^h saying that there is another king, one Jē'sūs.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jā'son, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And ⁱ the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Bē-rē'-ā: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jēws.

11 These were more noble than those in Thēss-ā-lō-nī'-cā, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and ^j searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Grēeks, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jēws of Thēss-ā-lō-nī'-cā had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Bē-rē'-ā, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Si'lās and Ti-mōth'-ē-ūs abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Ath'-ēns: and receiving a commandment unto Si'lās and Ti-mōth'-ē-ūs for to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Ath'-ēns, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jēws, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Ēp-ī-cū-rē-āns, and of the Stō'-icks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babblers say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jē'-šūs, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Ār-ē-ōp'-ā-gūs, saying, May we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 (For all the A-thē-ni-āns and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)

22 ¶ Then Paul stood in the midst of Mārs' hill, and said, Ye men of Ath'-ēns, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you.

24 God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is worshipped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us:

28 For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said. For we are also his offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereunto he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

34 Howbeit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Di-ō-nys'-i-ūs the Ār-ē-ōp'-ā-gūs, and a woman named Dām'-ā-ris, and others with them.

CHAPTER 18.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth in Corinth. 9 He is encouraged in a vision: accused before Gallio, but dismissed. 24 Apollos preacheth Christ with great efficacy.

AFTER these things Paul departed from Ath'-ēns, and came to Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jēw named Ā-quil'-ā, born in Pōn'-tūs, lately come from It'-ā-ly, with his wife Prisc'-il-lā; (because that Clāu'-d-ius had commanded all Jēws to depart from Rōme;) and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jēws and the Greeks.

5 And when Si'lās and Ti-mōth'-ē-ūs were come from Māc'-ē-dō-ni-ā, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and stified to the Jēws that Jē'-sūs was Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gēn'-tīlēs. 7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Jūs'-tūs, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And Cris'-pūs, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the Jē-rin'-thi-āns hearing believed, and were baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Pāul the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:

10 For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I have much people in this city. 11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 ¶ And when Gāl'-li-ō was the deputy of A'-chāi'-ā, the Jēws made surrection with one accord against him, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth us to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Pāul was now about to open his mouth, Gāl'-li-ō said unto the Jēws, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, O ye Jēws, reason would that I should fight with you:

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drave them from the judgment seat.

17 Then all the Grēeks took Sōs'-tē-nēs, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gāl'-li-ō cared for none of those things.

18 ¶ And Pāul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Sŷr'-i-ā, and with him Prīs-cil'-lā and A-quil'-ā; having shorn his head in Cēn'-chrē'-ā: for he had a vow.

19 And he came to Ēph'-ē-sūs, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jēws.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not;

21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jē-rū'-sā-lēm: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ēph'-ē-sūs.

22 And when he had landed at Cē-sā-rē'-ā, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to An'-ti-ōch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Gā-lā'-tīā and Phrŷg'-i-ā in order, strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ And a certain Jēw named A-pōl'-lōs, born at Al-ēx-ān'-dri-ā, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ēph'-ē-sūs.

25 This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of Jōhn.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when A-quil'-ā and Prīs-cil'-lā had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into A'-chāi'-ā, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace:

28 For he mightily convinced the Jēws, and that publickly, shewing by the scriptures that Jē'-sūs was Christ.

CHAPTER 19.

6 The Holy Ghost is given by Paul's hands. 9 The Jews believe not. 16 The Jewish exorcists are beaten.

AND it came to pass, that, while A-pōl'-lōs was at Cōr'-inth, Pāul having passed through the upper coasts came to Ēph'-ē-sūs: and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto Jōhn's baptism.

4 Then said Pául, "Jóhn verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jē'-sūs.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized 'in the name of the Lord Jē'-sūs.

6 And when Pául had ^alaid his hands upon them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and ^fthey spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 'And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things 'concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But 'when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil ^pof that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tŷ-răn'-nūs.

10 And 'this continued by the space of two years; so that all they which dwelt in Ā'-sīā heard the word of the Lord Jē'-sūs, both Jēws and Grēeks.

11 And *God wrought special miracles by the hands of Pául:

12 "So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ "Then certain of the vagabond Jēws, exorcists, *took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jē'-sūs, saying, We adjure you by Jē'-sūs whom Pául preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Scē-vā, a Jēw, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jē'-sūs I know, and Pául I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jēws and Grēeks also dwelling at Eph'-ē-sūs; and ^afear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jē'-sūs was magnified.

18 And many that believed came and ^bconfessed, and shewed their deeds.

19 Many of them also which were curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before them: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 "So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 ¶ "After these things were ended, Pául ^apurposed in the spring when he had passed through Măc-dō-ni-ā and Ā-chāi'-ā, to go to Jē-rsā-lēm, saying, After I have been there, ^kI must also see Rōme.

22 So he sent into Măc-ē-dō-ni two of "them that ministered unto him, Ti-mōth'-ē-ūs and "Ē-rās-tus; but he himself stayed in Ā'-sīā a season.

23 And 'the same time there arose no small stir about 'that way.

24 For a certain man named I-mē-tri-ūs, a silversmith, which made silver shrines for Di-ān brought 'no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that I am not alone at Eph'-ē-sūs, but almost throughout all Ā'-sīā, this Pául has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that 'they be no gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Di-ān'-ā should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Ā'-sīā and the world worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Di-ān of the Eph'-ē-sians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught ^bGai'-ūs and 'Ar-is-tarchus, men of Măc-ē-dō-ni-ā, Pául and his companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Pául would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the chief of which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he should not adventure himself into the theatre.

Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

And they drew Āl-ēx-ān'-dēr out of the multitude, the Jēws putting him forward. And Āl-ēx-ān'-dēr beckoned with the hand, and could have made his defence unto the people.

But when they knew that he was Jēw, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great Dī-ān'-ā of the Ēph-ē'-sīāns.

And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ēph-ē'-sūs, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ēph-ē'-sīāns is ²a worshipper of the great goddess Dī-ān'-ā, and of her image which fell down from ḡl-pī-tēr?

Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

Wherefore if Dē-mē'-trī-ūs, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, let the law be open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.

But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a 'lawful assembly.

For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And ^awhen the Jēws laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Sŷr-ī-ā, he purposed to return through Māç-ē-dō'-nī-ā.

4 And there accompanied him into Ā'-sīā Sō'-pā-tēr of Bē-rē'-ā; and of the Thēss-ā-lō'-nī-āns, ^b*Ār-is-tār'-chūs* and Sē-cūn'-dūs; and ^c*Gāl'-ūs* of Dēr'-bē, and ^d*Tī-mōth'-ē-ūs*; and of Ā'-sīā, ^e*Tŷch'-ī-cūs* and ^f*Trōph'-ī-mūs*.

5 These going before tarried for us at Trō'-ās.

6 And we sailed away from Phīlip'-pī after 'the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them ²to Trō'-ās in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon 'the first day of the week, when the disciples came together ^mto break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights ⁿin the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eū'-tŷ-chūs, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and ^ofell on him, and embracing him said, ^pTrouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 ¶ And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Ās'-sōs, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to go afoot.

14 And when he met with us at Ās'-sōs, we took him in, and came to Mit-ŷ-lē'-nē.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chī'-ōs; and the next day we arrived at Sā-

mōs, and tarried at Trō-gŷl'-lī-ūm; and the next day we came to Mi-lē'-tūs.

16 For Pāul had determined to sail by Ēph'-ē-sūs, because he would not spend the time in A'-sīā: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm the day of Pēn'-tē-cōst.

17 ¶ And from Mi-lē'-tūs he sent to Ēph'-ē-sūs, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into A'-sīā, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jēws:

20 And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jēws, and also to the Grēeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:

23 Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jē'-šūs, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after I departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of threescore years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jē'-šūs, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Sorrowing most of all for these words, which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

1 Paul will not be dissuaded from going to Jerusalem: 27 where he is apprehended, and in danger, 81 but is permitted to speak to the people.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with straight course unto Cō'-ōs, and the day following unto Rhōdes, and from thence unto Pāt'-ā-rā:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phē-nīc'-iā, we went aboard and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cŷ-prūs, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Sŷr'-i-ā, and landed at Tŷre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Peter through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

And when we had accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

And the next day we that were Paul's company departed, and came unto Cæsarea: and we entered into the house of Phil'ip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him.

And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which did prophesy.

And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Jerusalem a certain prophet, named Agabus.

And when he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.

And after those days we took our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cæsarea, and abode with them one Mnason of old acquaintance, with whom we should lodge.

And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses's, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say unto thee: We have four men which have a vow on them;

24 Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephē'-sān, whom they supposed that Pāul had brought into the temple.)

30 And ^aall the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Pāul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jē-rū'-sā-lēm was in an uproar.

32 ^aWho immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Pāul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and ^kcommanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, ^oAway with him.

37 And as Pāul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 ^oArt not thou that Ē-gŷp'-fiān, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Pāul said, ^rI am a man which am a Jēw of Tār'-sūs, a city in Ći-līc'-i-ā, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Pāul stood on the stairs, and ^sbeckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hē'-brēw tongue, saying,

3 ^bI am verily a man which am Jēw, born in Tār'-sūs, a city in līc'-i-ā, yet brought up in this c^c at the feet of ^dGā-mā'-lī-ēl, taught ^eaccording to the per manner of the law of the father and ^fwas zealous toward God, ^gye all are this day.

4 ^hAnd I persecuted this wⁱ unto the death, binding and ⁱlivering into prisons both men ^jwomen.

5 As also the high priest doth be me witness, and ^kall the estate of ^lelders: ^mfrom-whom also I receiv letters unto the brethren, and wⁿ to Dā-mās'-cūs, to bring them wh^o were there bound unto Jē-rū'-sā-lē for to be punished.

6 And ^pit came to pass, that, ^qmade my journey, and was co^rnigh unto Dā-mās'-cūs about no^s suddenly there shone from heav^ta great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, heard a voice saying unto me, Sā^u Sāul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art th^e Lord? And he said unto me, I^o Jē'-šūs of Nāz'-ā-rēth, whom th^e persecutest.

9 And ^pthey that were with^t saw indeed the light, and w^o afraid; but they heard not the voⁱ of him that spake to me.

6 And now why tarriest thou?

7 And ^git came to pass, that, when

8 And ^hsaw him saying unto me, ake haste, and get thee quickly t of Jê-rû'-să-lêm: for they will

12 And they gave him audience

13 And as they cried out, and cast

29 Then straightway they departed was afraid, after he knew that he was a Rô'-măn, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from ^{bb}his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Păul down. and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23.

1 ^{bc}As Paul pleadeth his cause, 2 Ananias commandeth them to smite him. 11 God encourageth Paul, 14 The Jews tie in wait for him. 27 He is sent to Felix.

AND Păul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and brethren, ^{bd}'I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ān-ă-nî'-ăs commanded them that stood by him ^{be}to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Păul unto him, God shall smite thee, ^{bf}thou whited wall:
for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and ^{bg}'commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Păul, ^{bh}'I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, ^{bi}'Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Păul perceived that the one part were Săd'-dū-çê's, and the other Phăr'-î-sê's, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, ^{bj}'I am a Phăr'-î-sêe, the son of a Phăr'-î-sêe: ^{bk}'of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Phăr'-î-sê's and the Săd'-dū-çê's:
and the multitude was divided.

8 ^{bl}'For the Săd'-dū-çê's say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Phăr'-îsê's confess both.

9 And there arose a great cry:
and the scribes ^{bm}that were of the Phăr'-î-sê's' part arose, and strove, saying, ^{bn}'We find no evil in this man: but ^{bo}'if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, ^{bp}'let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Pául should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And ^athe night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Pául: for as thou hast testified of me in Jě-rú'-să-lēm, so must thou bear witness also at Rōme.

12 And when it was day, ^bcertain of the Jēws banded together, and bound themselves ²under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Pául.

13 And they were more than forty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Pául.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Pául's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Pául.

17 Then Pául called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Pául the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, 'The Jēws have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Pául to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready, looking for thy promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him. See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him the centurions, saying, Make ready to you hundred soldiers to go to Cēsā-rē'-ă, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Pául on, and bring him safe unto Fē'-lix the governor.

26 Cláu'-dī-ūs Lys'-i-ăs unto the most excellent governor Fē'-lix sendeth greeting.

27 ^eThis man was taken of the Jēws, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an arm and rescued him, having understood that he was a Rō'-mān.

33 Who, when they came to Cēsā-rē'-ă, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Pául also before him.

34 And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of ^kCi-lic'-i-ăs;

35 'I will hear thee, said he, whether thine accusers are also come. And commanded him to be kept in

CHAPTER 24.

Paul being accused by Tertullus the orator, 10 answereth for his life and doctrine. 24 He preacheth Christ to Felix, 27 who leaveth Paul in prison.

AND after ^cfive days / Ān-ā-nī'-ās the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tēr-tūl'-lūs, who informed the governor against Pāul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tēr-tūl'-lūs began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Fē'-lix, with all thankfulness.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 ^aFor we have found this man a restless fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jēws throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nāz'-ā-rēnēs:

6 ^bWho also hath gone about to defame the temple: whom we took, and would ^chave judged according to our law.

7 ^dBut the chief captain Lys'-ī-ās came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 ^eCommanding his accusers to come unto thee: by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jēws also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Pāul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: 11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm to worship.

12 ^fAnd they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confess unto thee, that after ^bthe way which they call heresy, so worship I the ^cGod of my fathers, believing all things which are written in ^dthe law and in the prophets:

15 And ^ehave hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, ^fthat there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

16 And ^gherein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years ^hI came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 ⁱWhereupon certain Jēws from Ā'-sīā found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

22 And when Fē'-lix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When ^lLys'-ī-ās the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Pāul, and to let him have liberty, and ^mthat he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Fē'-lix came with his wife Drū-sil'-lā, which was a Jēw'-ēss, he sent for Pāul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Fē'-lix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that ⁿmoney should have been given him of Pāul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.

27 But after two years Pôr'-cī-ūs Fēs'-tūs came into Fē'-līx' room: and Fē'-līx, *willing to shew the Jēw's a pleasure, left Pāul bound.

CHAPTER 25.

² The Jews accuse Paul before Festus. ⁸ He answereth for himself, ¹¹ and appealeth unto Cæsar.

NOW when Fēs'-tūs was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cæ-sā-rē'-ā to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm.

2 ^a Then the high priest and the chief of the Jēw's informed him against Pāul, and besought him,

3 And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, ^d laying wait in the way to kill him.

4 But Fēs'-tūs answered, that Pāul should be kept at Cæ-sā-rē'-ā, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, ^a if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them ^a more than ten days, he went down unto Cæ-sā-rē'-ā; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Pāul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jēw's which came down from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm stood round about, ^a and laid many and grievous complaints against Pāul, which they could not prove.

8 While he answered for himself, ^a Neither against the law of the Jēw's, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cæ'-sār, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Fēs'-tūs, ^m willing to do the Jēw's a pleasure, answered Pāul, and said, ^m Wilt thou go up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Pāul, I stand at Cæ'-sār's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jēw's have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 ^a For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. ^a I appeal unto Cæ'-sār.

12 Then Fēs'-tūs, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæ'-sār unto Cæ'-sār shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days King Ā-grīp'-pā and Bēr-nī'-cē came unto Cæ-sā-rē'-ā to salute Fēs'-tūs.

14 And when they had been there many days, Fēs'-tūs declared Pāul cause unto the king, saying, ^b There is a certain man left in bonds at Fē'-līx:

15 ^c About whom, when I was at Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, the chief priests and the elders of the Jēw's informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 ^e To whom I answered, It is the manner of the Rō-māns to deliver any man to die, before that which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, ^f without any delay on tomorrow I sat on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed.

19 ^g But had certain questions against him of their own superstitions and of one Jē'-sūs, which was dead whom Pāul affirmed to be alive.

20 And because ^h I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Pāul had appealed to be reserved unto the ⁱ hearing at Aū-gūs'-tūs, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæ'-sār.

22 Then ^j Ā-grīp'-pā said unto Fēs'-tūs, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when King Ā-grīp'-pā was come, and Bēr-nī'-cē with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Fēs'-tūs' commandment Pāul was brought forth.

24 And Fēs'-tūs said, King Ā-grīp'-pā, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man about whom ^k all the multitude of the Jēw's have dealt with me, but

Jě-rû'-să-lēm, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Cæsar, I have determined to send him.

26 Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, after examination had, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26.

Paul, before Agrippa, declareth his life, 12 and miraculous conversion, &c.

WHEN Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth his hand, and answered for himself: I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews:

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jě-rû'-lēm, know all the Jews;

5 Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged of you for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jě'sus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jěrû'-să-lēm: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which journeyed with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Săul, Săul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jě'sus whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gen'tiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Să'tan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But shewed first unto them of Damascus, and at Jě-rû'-să-lēm, and throughout all the coasts of Jûdă'-ă, and then to the Gen'tiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those ^b which the prophets and ^c Mō'-sēs did say should come:

23 ^d That Christ should suffer, and ^e that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and ^f should shew light unto the people, and to the Gēn'-tīlēs.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Fēs'-tūs said with a loud voice, Pāul, ^g thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad.

25 But he said, I am not mad, most noble Fēs'-tūs; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

26 For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.

27 King Ā'-grip'-pā, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.

28 Then Ā'-grip'-pā said unto Pāul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Chrīs'-tiān.

29 And Pāul said, 'I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.

30 And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, and the governor, and Bēr-nī'-cē, and they that sat with them:

31 And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, ^h This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

32 Then said Ā'-grip'-pā unto Fēs'-tūs, This man might have been set at liberty, ⁱ if he had not appealed unto Cæ'-sār.

3 And the next day we touched ^r Sī'-dōn. And Jū'-li-ūs ^s courteous entreated Pāul, and gave ^t him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

4 And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under Cŷ'-prūs, because the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed over ^u sea of Cī-līc'-i-ā and Pām-phŷl'-i-ā, we came to Mŷ'-rā, a city of Lŷ'-i-ā.

6 And there the centurion found ship of Āl-ēx-ān'-drī-ā sailing in Īt'-ā-lŷ; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnī'-dūs, the wind ^v n suffering us, we sailed under ^w Crēt over against Sāl-mō'-nē;

8 And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lā-sē'-ā.

9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, ^x because the fast was now at hand, ready past, Pāul admonished them.

10 And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with ^y hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Pāul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the master part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phē-nī'-cē, and there to winter, which is an haven of Crēte, and lieth toward the south west and north west.

13 And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained ^z their purpose, loosing thence they sailed close by Crēte.

14 But not long after there ^{aa} arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Eū-rōc'-lŷ-dōn.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let ^{ab} her drive.

16 And running under a certain island which is called Clāu'-dā, we had much work to come by the boat:

17 Which when they had taken unto they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven.

18 And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day ^a we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sun nor stars many days appeared, and no hall tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crète, and to have gained this arm and loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship.

23 ^aFor there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and ^bwhom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cæ'sar: so, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: ^cfor I believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit ^dwe must be cast upon certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Æ-dri-ä, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast our anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the fore-ship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for ^bthere shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and ^cgave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat.

37 And we were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen ^dsouls.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had ^ataken up the anchors, they committed themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, ^bthey ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:

44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, ^cthat they escaped all safe to land.

CHAPTER 28.

1 Paul after his shipwreck is kindly entertained. 8 He healeth many diseased. 11 They depart toward Rome. 30 He preacheth there two years

AND when they were escaped, then they knew that ^a the island was called Mēl'-i-tā.

2 And the ^b barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 And when Pāul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and ^c felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and ^d said that he was a god.

7 In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Pūb'-lī-ūs; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Pūb'-lī-ūs lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Pāul entered in, and ^e prayed, and ^f laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in the island, came, and were healed:

10 Who also honoured us with many ^g honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of Āl-ēx-ān'-dri-ā, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Cās-tōr and Pōl'-lūx.

12 And landing at Sŷr'-ā-cūse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhē'-gī-ūm: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Pū-tē'-ō-lī:

14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward Rōme.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Ap'-pī-i fōr'-ū and The three taverns: whom when Pāul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rōme, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: ^a Pāul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Pāul called the chief of the Jēws together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, ^b though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet ^c was I delivered prisoner from Jē-rū'-sā-lēm into the hands of the Rō'-māns.

 31 b Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those things which concern the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE RŌ-MĀNS.

CHAPTER 1.

Paul commendeth his calling. 16 The power of the gospel. 21 The sins of the Gentiles.

PAUL, a servant of Jē'-sūs Christ, called to be an apostle, c separated unto the gospel of God,
 2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures.)

3 Concerning his Son Jē'-sūs Christ the Lord, which was s made of the seed of Dā'-vid according to the flesh;

4 And 4k declared to be the Son of God with power, according m to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 By whom n we have received grace and apostleship, b for o obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:

6 Among whom are ye also the called of Jē'-sūs Christ:

7 To all that be in Rōme, beloved to God, c called to be saints: u Grace and you peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ.
 8 First, v I thank my God through Jē'-sūs Christ for you all, that a your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

9 For e God is my witness, d whom I serve f with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that g without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;

10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey i by the will of God to come unto you.

11 For I long to see you, that a I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

12 That is, that I may be comforted together 2 with you by d the mutual faith both of you and me.

13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but a was let hitherto,) that I might have some e fruit 2 among you also, even as among other Gēn'-tīlēs.

14 i I am debtor both to the Grēeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.

15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rōme also.

16 For p I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for r it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; s to the Jēw first, and also to the Grēek.

17 For t therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, u The just shall live by faith.

18 b For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness;

19 Because f that which may be known of God is manifest 7 in them; for g God hath shewed it unto them.

20 For h the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; ^a so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but ^c became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 ^d Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,

23 And changed the glory of the uncorruptible ^e God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things.

24 ^f Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, ^h to dishonour their own bodies ^k between themselves:

25 Who changed ^a the truth of God ^e into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature ^b more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Ä-mën.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto ^a vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:

27 And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like ^a to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to ^a a reprobate mind, to do those things ^a which are not convenient;

29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenantbreakers, ^a without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:

32 Who ^a knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things ^b are worthy of death, not only do the same, but ^c have pleasure in them that do them.

THEREFORE thou art ^a inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: ^b for when thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou thou judgest doest the same things.

4 Or despisest thou ^a the riches of his goodness and ^b forbearance and ^c longsuffering; ^d not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

6 ^a Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and ^a do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath;

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil of the Jew ^a first, and also of the Gentile;

10 ^a But glory, honour, and peace to every man that worketh good to the Jew ^a first, and also to the Gentile:

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law;

13 (For ^a not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified)

14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, they, having not the law, are a law unto themselves:

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way: chiefly, because that 'unto them were com- mitted the oracles of God.

3 For what if 'some did not be- lieve? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 'God forbid: yea, let 'God be true, but 'every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man)

6 God forbid: for then 'how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) 'Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before 'proved both Jews and Gēn'-tiles, that 'they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, 'There is none righteous, no, not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

13 'Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:

14 'Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:

15 'Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 'There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever 'the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that

^a John 10. 34.

'The Jews' prerogative. 20 None justified by the law, 28 but all by faith only.

CHAPTER 3.

every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;

22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jē'sūs Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:

23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jē'sūs:

25 Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jē'sūs.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jēws only? is he not also of the Gēn'-tīlēs? Yes, of the Gēn'-tīlēs also:

30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Abraham's faith imputed to him for righteousness.
13 By faith he and his seed received the promise.
24 So, likewise, our faith shall be imputed to us.

WHAT shall we say then that A'-brā-hām our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if A'-brā-hām were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? A'-brā-hām believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh the reward not reckoned of grace but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 Even as Dā-vid also describeth the blessedness of the man, to whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for say that faith was reckoned to brā-hām for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned when he was in circumcision, or uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father A'-brā-hām, which he had being uncircumcised.

13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was made to A'-brā-hām, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect:

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that the promise might be sure to all, to the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of A'-brā-hām; who is the father of us all,

17 (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he believed, even God, ^awho quickeneth the dead, and calleth those ^cthings which be not as though they were.

18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, ^dSo shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the leadness of Sār'-āh's womb:

20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, ^ehe was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now ^fit was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe ^gon him that raised up Jē'-sūs our Lord from the dead;

25 ^hWho was delivered for our offences, and ⁱwas raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5.

Being justified by faith, we have peace with God, and righteousness and life by Jesus Christ.

THEREFORE ^jbeing justified by faith, we have ^kpeace with God through our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ:

2 ^lBy whom also we have access by faith into this grace ^mwherein we stand, and ⁿrejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but ^owe glory in tribulations also: ^pknowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 ^qAnd patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 ^rAnd hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, ^sin due time ^tChrist died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But ^aGod commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now justified ^dby his blood, we shall be saved ^efrom wrath through him.

10 For ^fif, when we were enemies, ^gwe were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved ^hby his life.

11 And not only so, but we also ⁱjoy in God through our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, by whom we have now received the ^jatonement.

12 Wherefore, as ^kby one man sin entered into the world, and ^ldeath by sin; and so death passed upon all men, ^mfor that all have sinned:

13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but ⁿsin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Ād'-ām to Mō'-sēs, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Ād'-ām's transgression, ^owho is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jē'-sūs Christ, hath abounded ^punto many.

16 And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if ^qby one man's offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jē'-sūs Christ.)

18 Therefore as ^rby the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so ^sby the righteousness of one the free gift came ^tupon all men unto justification of life.

19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover ^uthe law entered, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much ^vmore abound:

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jē'-sūs Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6.

1 We may not live in sin, 12 nor let sin reign any more. 23 Death the wages of sin.

WHAT shall we say then? ^b Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid. How shall we, that are ^a dead to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that ^f so many of us as ^a were baptized into Jē'-sūs Christ ^a were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we are ^a buried with him by baptism into death: that ^a like as Christ was raised up from the dead by ^a the glory of the Father, ^a even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 ^a For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:

6 Knowing this, that ^a our old man is crucified with him, that ^a the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

7 For ^a he that is dead is ^a freed from sin.

8 Now ^a if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:

9 Knowing that ^a Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, ^a he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, ^a he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be ^a dead indeed unto sin, but ^a alive unto God through Jē'-sūs Christ our Lord.

12 ^f Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yield ye your ^a members as ^a instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but ^a yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For ^a sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, ^a because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that ^a to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart ^a that form of doctrine ^a which was delivered you.

18 Being then ^a made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were ^a the servants of sin, ye were free ^a from righteousness.

21 ^a What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for ^a the end of those things is death.

22 But now ^a being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, unto the end everlasting life.

23 For ^a the wages of sin is death; but ^a the gift of God is eternal life through Jē'-sūs Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

1 No law hath power over a man longer than he liveth. 4 We are dead to the law. 7 Yet is not the law sin, 12 but holy, just, good.

KNOW ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For ^a the woman which hath a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So then ^a if, while her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become ^a dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should ^a bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the ² motions of sins, which were by the law, ³ did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are delivered from the law, ³ that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, ¹ I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known ⁵ lust, except the law had said, ⁶ Thou shalt not covet.

8 But ⁷ sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For ⁸ without the law sin was dead.

9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, ⁹ which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by ¹⁰ slew me.

12 Wherefore ¹¹ the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Was then that which is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which ¹² is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, ¹³ sold under sin.

15 For that which I do I ¹⁴ allow not: for ¹⁵ what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it ¹⁶ is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that ¹⁷ in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for ¹⁸ what I please with me; but now to perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, ¹⁹ that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I ²¹ delight in the law of God after ²² the inward man:

23 But ²³ I see another law in ²⁴ my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from ²⁵ the body of this death?

25 ²⁶ I thank God through Jē'-sūs Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Who are free from condemnation. 5, 13 What harm cometh of the flesh, 6, 14 and what good of the Spirit. 17 Of being God's children.

THERE is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jē'-sūs, who ¹ walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For ² the law of ³ the Spirit of life in Christ Jē'-sūs hath made me free from ⁴ the law of sin and death.

3 For ⁵ what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, ⁶ God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and ⁷ for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:

4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, ⁸ who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For ⁹ they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit ¹⁰ the things of the Spirit.

6 For ¹¹ to be carnally minded is death; but ¹² to be spiritually minded is life and peace.

7 Because ¹³ the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, ¹⁴ neither indeed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that ¹⁵ the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not ¹⁶ the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of ^ahim that raised up Jē'-sūs from the dead dwell in you, ^che that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies ^bby his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 ^cTherefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For ^cif ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do ^cmortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For ^cas many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ^cye have not received the spirit of bondage again ^cto fear; but ye have received the ^cSpirit of adoption, whereby we cry, 'Ab'-bā, Father.

16 ^cThe Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

17 And if children, then heirs; ^cheirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; ^bif so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

18 For I reckon that ^cthe sufferings of this present time ^care not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.

19 For ^cthe earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the ^c'manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For ^cthe creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected ^cthe same in hope,

21 Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that ^cthe whole creation ^c'groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only ^cthey, but ourselves also, which have ^cthe firstfruits of the Spirit, ^ceven we ourselves groan within ourselves, ^c'waiting for the adoption, ^cto wit, the ^c'redemption of our body.

24 For we are saved by hope: but ^c'hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, ^cthen do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for ^bwe know not what we should pray for as we ought: but ^dthe Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And ^che that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, ^bbecause he maketh intercession for the saints ^aaccording to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them ^bwho are called according to his purpose.

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? ^a*It is God that justifieth.*

34 ^aWho is he that condemneth? ^c*is Christ* that died, yea rather, that is risen again, ^c'who is even at the right hand of God, ^c'who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? ^c*shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?*

36 As it is written, ^c'For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 ^cNay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor ^c'principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jē'-sūs our Lord.

CHAPTER 9.

Paul's sorrow for the Jews. 7 All the seed of Abraham not the children of the promise. 18 God hath mercy upon whom he will. 25 The calling of the Gentiles and rejection of the Jews. 32 Why so few Jews embraced the righteousness of faith.

1 SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Ghost,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Īś'-rā-ēl-ites; ^ato whom ^bcertaineth the adoption, and ^cthe glory, and ^dthe covenants, and ^ethe giving of the law, and ^fthe service of God, and ^gthe promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Ā'-mĕn.

6 Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Īś'-rā-ēl, which are of Īś'-rā-ēl:

7 Neither, because they are the seed of Ā'-brā'-hām, are they all children: but, In ^bĪ'-śāac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and ^aśār'-āh shall have a son.

10 And not only this; but when Rē-bēc'-cā also had conceived by one, even by our father Ī'-śāac;

11 For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of ^ahim that calleth;

12 It was said unto her, The ^aelder shall serve the ^byounger.

13 As it is written, ^aJā'-qob have I loved, but Ē'-sāu have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? ^aIs here unrighteousness with God? God forbid.

15 For he saith to Mō'-śēs, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy.

17 For ^athe scripture saith unto Phār'-āōh, ^bEven for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For ^cwho hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that ^drepliest against God? ^eThou the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the ^fpotter power over the clay, of the same lump to make ^gone vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to shew his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering ^hthe vessels of wrath ⁱas fitted to destruction:

23 And that he might make known ^jthe riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had ^kafore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, ^lnot of the Jēws only, but also of the Gēn'-tīlēs?

25 As he saith also in Ō'-sēē, ^mI will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved.

26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.

27 Ē'-sāl'-ās also crieth concerning Īś'-rā-ēl, ⁿThough the number of the children of Īś'-rā-ēl be as the sand of the sea, ^oa remnant shall be saved:

28 For he will finish ^pthe work, and cut it short in righteousness: ^qbecause a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Ē'-sāl'-ās said before, ^rExcept the Lord of Sā-bā'-ōth had left us a seed, ^swe had been as Sōd'-ō-mā, and been made like unto Gō-mōr'-rhā.

30 What shall we say then? ^tThat the Gēn'-tīlēs, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, ^a even the righteousness which is of faith.

31 But Īs'-rā-ēl, ^c which followed after the law of righteousness, ^d hath not attained to the law of righteousness.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For ^e they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, ^f Behold, I lay in Śi-on a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and ^g whosoever believeth on him shall not be ^h ashamed.

CHAPTER 10.

⁵ The difference between the righteousness of the law, and of faith. ¹¹ Salvation is open to all that believe, both Jew and Gentile.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Īs'-rā-ēl is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record ⁱ that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of ^j God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own ^k righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For ^l Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Mō'-sēs describeth the righteousness which is of the law, ^m That the man which doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, ⁿ Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down ^o from above:)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.)

8 But what saith it? ^p The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;

9 That ^q if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jē'-šūs, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, ^r Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For ^c there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for ^d the same Lord over all ^e is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 ^f For whosoever shall call ^g upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed, and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear ^h without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach except they be sent? as it is written, ⁱ How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But ^j they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Ē-sāi'-ās saith, ^k Lord, who hath believed ^l our report?

17 So then faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, ^m their sound went into all the earth, ⁿ and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, Did not Īs'-rā-ēl know? First Mō'-sēs saith, ^o I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are not people, and by a ^p foolish nation will anger you.

20 But Ē-sāi'-ās is very bold, and saith, ^q I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Īs'-rā-ēl he saith, ^r All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

¹ God hath not cast off all Israel. ⁷ Some were elected though the rest were hardened. ¹⁸ The Gentiles may not be boastful.

I SAY then, ^s Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For ^t also am an Īs'-rā-ēl-ite, of the seed of Ā'-brā-hām, of the tribe of Bēn-jā-mīn.

2 God hath not cast away his people which ^u he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith ^v of Ē-lī-ās? how he maketh intercession to God against Īs'-rā-ēl, saying,

3 ^w Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thine altars, and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? ^x I have reserved

o myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Bā'-āl.

5 *Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 And *if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? *İs'-rā-ēl hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were ²blinded

8 (According as it is written, *God hath given them the spirit of ³slumber, *eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day.

9 And Dā'-vid saith, 'Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a tumblingblock, and a recompence unto them:

10 "Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: but rather *through their fall salvation is come unto the Gën'-tīlēs, for to provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the ⁵diminishing of them the riches of the Gën'-tīlēs; how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gën'-tīlēs, asmuch as *I am the apostle of the Gën'-tīlēs, I magnify mine office:

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation them which are my flesh, and *might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if *the firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 And if ⁶some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the live tree;

18 *Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.

20 Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. ^bBe not highminded, but ^dfear:

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, ^fif thou continue in his goodness: otherwise ^gthou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, ^hif they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be ⁱwise in your own conceits; that ^jblindness in part is happened to İs'-rā-ēl, ^kuntil the fulness of the Gën'-tīlēs be come in.

26 And so all İs'-rā-ēl shall be saved: as it is written, *There shall come out of Sī'-on the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jā'-cob:

27 *For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are ^lbeloved for the fathers' sakes.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are ^mwithout repentance.

30 For as ye ⁿin times past have not ^obelieved God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:

31 Even so have these also now not ^pbelieved, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.

32 For ^qGod hath ^rconcluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! ^show unsearchable are his judgments, and ^this ways past finding out!

34 * For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or * who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or * who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For ^a of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: ^b to ^c whom be glory for ever. A-mēn.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God's mercies must move us to please God. 9 Exhortation to love, and sundry other duties.

I * BESEECH you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, * that ye * present your bodies * a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And * be not conformed to this world: but ^a be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may ^a prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, * through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, * not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think ^a soberly, according as God hath dealt ^a to every man the measure of faith.

4 For ^a as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So ^a we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

6 ^a Having then gifts differing ^a according to the grace that is given to us, whether ^a prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

21 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13.

1 Of subjection to magistrates. 8 Love is the fulfilling of the law. 11 The works of darkness are out of season in the time of the gospel.

LET every soul ^a be subject unto the higher powers. For ^a there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ^a ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth ^a the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? ^a do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ^a ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, ^a but also for conscience sake.

6 For for this cause pay ye tribute so: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

CHAPTER 14.

How to treat a weak brother. 3 Men may not condemn one the other for things indifferent.

1 HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

Ps. 34. 14.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and living.

10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

11 For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jē'sūs, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:

17 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith ^aone may edify another.

20 ^bFor meat destroy not the work of God. ^dAll things indeed are pure; ^cbut it is evil for that man who eateth with offence.

21 It is good neither to eat ^fflesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. ^eHappy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 And he that ²doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for ¹whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15.

1 The strong must bear with the weak. 2 We may not please ourselves, 3 for Christ did not so. 15 Paul excuseth his writing, &c.

WE ^ethen that are strong ought to bear the ^finfirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 ^eLet every one of us please his neighbour for his good ^fto edification.

3 ^eFor even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, ^eThe reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 For ^ewhatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 ^eNow the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another ^eaccording to Christ Jē'-sūs:

6 That ye may ^ewith one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ.

7 Wherefore ^ereceive ye one another, ^aas Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that ^aJē'-sūs Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, ¹to confirm the promises made unto the fathers:

9 And ^athat the Gēn'-tīlēs might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, ^eFor this cause I will confess to thee among the Gēn'-tīlēs, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, ^eRejoice, ye Gēn'-tīlēs, with his people.

11 And again, ^ePraise the Lord, all and the world by wisdom knew not and, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

2 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:

3 But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness;

4 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

5 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

6 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men understand the flesh, not many mighty, nor many noble, are called:

7 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound

the things which are mighty;

8 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to nought things that are:

9 That no flesh should glory in his presence.

10 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:

11 That, according as it is written, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2.

He declareth that his preaching, though it bring of excellency of speech, yet far excellethe 6 the wisdom of this world, and 9 human sense.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.

For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:

That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth: comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God:
for they are foolishness unto him:
neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.

16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3.

2 Milk is fit for children. 3 Against strife and division. 11 Christ the only foundation. 16 Men the temples of God, which 17 must be kept holy.

AND I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for

^a whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and ² divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk ³ as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Pål; and another, I am of Ä-pöl-lös; are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Pål, and who is Ä-pöl-lös, but ^a ministers by whom ye believed, ^f even as the Lord gave to every man?

6 ^a I have planted, ^a Ä-pöl-lös watered; ^b but God gave the increase.

7 So then ¹ neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; ^b but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: ^m and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour.

9 For ^p we are labourers together with God: ye are God's ¹ husbandry, ye are ¹ God's building.

10 ^a According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid ^a the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay than ^a that is laid, ^a which is Jē'-sus Christ.

12 Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day ^a shall declare it, because ^b it ^a shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.

14 If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 ^f Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man ^a defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 ^a Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, ^b He taketh the wise their own craftiness.

20 And again, ^c The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For ^d all things are your's;

22 Whether Pål, or Ä-pöl-lös, Cē-phās, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are your's;

23 And ^e ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

1 Of Christ's ministers. 9 The apostles speak to the world, angels, and men.

LET a man so account of us, as ^a the ministers of Christ, ^a stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's ^a judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by myself yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 ^a Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will manifest the counsels of the heart, and ^a then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, have in a figure transferred to ourselves and to Ä-pöl-lös for your sakes: ^a that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who ^a maketh thee to differ from another? and ^a what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now ye are full, ^a now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye might reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth ^a us the apostles last, ^a as were appointed to death: for ^a we are made a ^a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 ^a We are ^a fools for Christ

ke, but ye are wise in Christ; ye are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are de-ised.

1 ^b Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and ^c are naked, and ^d are buffeted, and ^e have no certain dwellingplace;

2 ^a And labour, working with our own hands: 'being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it:

3 Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day.

4 I write not these things to shame you, but ^a as my beloved sons I warn you.

5 For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have not many fathers: for 'in Christ Jē'-šūs I have begotten you through the gospel.

6 Wherefore I beseech you, 'be ye followers of me.

7 For this cause have I sent unto you 'Tī-mōth'-ē-ūs, 'who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you 'into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I 'teach every where 'in every church.

8 ^a Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

9 'But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power.

10 For 'the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

11 What will ye? 'shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and the spirit of meekness?

CHAPTER 5.

Of the incestuous person. 7 The old leaven must be purged out, &c.

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, and such fornication as is not so much named among the Gēn'-tīlēs, that one should have his 'father's life.

2 'And ye are puffed up, and have not rather 'mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 'For I verily, as absent in body, yet present in spirit, have 'judged ready, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

4 In the name of our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, 'with the power of our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ,

5 'To deliver such an one unto 'Sā'-tān for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jē'-šūs.

6 ^a Your glorying is not good. Know ye not that 'a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?

7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even ' Christ our 'passover 'is sacrificed for us:

8 Therefore 'let us keep 'the feast, 'not with old leaven, neither 'with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you in an epistle 'not to company with fornicators:

10 'Yet not altogether with the fornicators 'of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go 'out of the world.

11 But now I have written unto you not to keep company, 'if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one 'no not to eat.

12 For what have I to do to judge 'them also that are without? do not ye judge 'them that are within?

13 But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore 'put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

CHAPTER 6.

1 Of going to law with the brethren. 9 The unrighteous condemned. 15 Our bodies are members of Christ, &c., and must not be defiled.

DARE any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Do ye not know that 'the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

3 Know ye not that we shall 'judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?

4 ^a If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. ^aWhy do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, ^aand that your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: ^aneither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were ^asome of you: ^abut ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jē'-šūs, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ^aAll things are lawful unto me, but all things are not ^aexpedient; all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 ^aMeats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but ^afor the Lord; ^aand the Lord for the body.

14 And ^aGod hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us ^bby his own power.

15 Know ye not that ^ayour bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot? God forbid.

16 What? know ye not that he which is joined to an harlot is one body? for ^atwo, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 ^aBut he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 ^aFlee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication ^aagainst his own body.

19 What? ^aknow ye not that ^ayour body is the temple of the Holy Ghost, which is in you, which ye have of God? ^aand ye are not your own?

20 For ^aye are bought with price: therefore glorify God in ^ayour body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

CHAPTER 7.

2 He treateth of marriage, 10 shewing that the thereof ought not lightly to be dissolved. 25, the marriage of virgins, &c.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 ^aLet the husband render unto ^ahis wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power of ^aher own body, but the husband: ^aas likewise also the husband hath power of his own body, but ^ahis wife.

5 ^aDefraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that ^aSā-tān tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I speak this by permission, ^aand not of commandment.

7 For ^aI would that all men were ^aeven as I myself. But ^aevery man hath his proper gift of God, ^aafter this manner, and another after that.

8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, ^aIt is good for them that they abide even as I.

9 But ^aif they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, ^athat the wife depart from ^aher husband:

11 But and if she depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to ^aher husband: and let not the husband put away ^ahis wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else ^bwere your children unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us ^ato peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt ^csave thy husband? or ^dhow knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And ^eso ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? ^flet him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but ^gthe keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a servant? are not for it: but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is ^hthe Lord's ⁱfree-man: likewise also he that is called, being free, is ^jChrist's servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, whereunto he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins ^kI have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one ^lthat hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present ^mdistress, ⁿsay, ^othat it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou art not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.

29 But ^athis I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none;

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And they that use this world, as not ^babusing it: for ^cthe fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulness. ^dHe that is unmarried careth for the things ^ethat belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman ^fcareth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.

38 ^aSo then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 ^bThe wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; ^conly in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she so abide, ^dafter my judgment: and ^eI think also that I have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8.

1 Of meats offered to idols. 8 We must not abuse our Christian liberty, to the offence of our brethren.

NOW ^aas touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have ^aknowledge. ^fKnowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

2 And ^hif any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man love God, ⁱthe same is known of him.

4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that ^man idol is nothing in the world, ⁿand that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are ^rcalled gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

6 But ^tto us there is but one God, the Father, ^uof whom are all things, and we ^vin him; and ^wone Lord Jē'sūs Chrīst, ^xby whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some ^bwith conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is ^cdefiled.

8 But ^dmeat commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, ^eare we the better; neither, if we eat not, ^eare we the worse.

9 But ^ftake heed lest by any means this ^gliberty of your's become ^ga stumblingblock to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit at meat in the idol's temple, shall not ^hthe conscience of him which is weak be ^hemboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;

11 And ⁱthrough thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Chrīst died?

12 But ^jwhen ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Chrīst.

13 Wherefore, ^kif meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

^a AM I not an apostle? am I ^bfree? ^chave I not seen Jē's-Christ our Lord? ^dare not ye ^ework in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto other, yet doubtless I am to you: for ^fthe seal of mine apostleship are ye in ^gthe Lord.

3 Mine answer to them that ^hexamine me is this,

4 ⁱHave we not power to eat ^jand to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a ^kwife, as well as other apostles, and as ^l'the brethren of the Lord, and ^mCē-phās?

6 Or I only and Bār'-nā-bās, ⁿhave we not power to forbear working?

7 Who ^ogoeth a warfare any thing at his own charges? who ^pplanteth vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who ^q'feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law Mō'-šēs, ^r'Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth the corn. Doth God take care of oxen?

10 Or saith he ^sit altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, ^tit is written: that ^u'he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that ^vthat thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 ^wIf we have sown unto you spiritual things, ^xis it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of ^ythe power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used ^zthe power; but suffer all things, ^{aa}lest we should hinder the gospel of Chrīst.

13 ^{ab}Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things ^{ac}live of the things of the temple, and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so ^{ad}hath the Lord ordained ^{ae}that they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel.

15 But ^{af}I have used none of the things: ^{ag}neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for ^{ah}'it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

6 For though I preach the gospel, have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

7 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, ^aa dispensation of the gospel committed unto me.

8 What is my reward then? Verily at, ^awhen I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I ^aabuse not my power in the gospel.

9 For though I be ^afree from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, ^athat I might gain the more.

10 And ^aunto the Jews I became as Jew, that I might gain the Jews; them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;

11 ^aTo ^athem that are without law, without law, (^abeing not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.

12 ^aTo the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: ^aI am made all things to all men, ^athat I might by all means save some.

13 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

14 Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? ^aSo run, that ye may obtain.

15 And every man that ^astriveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain an corruptible crown; but we ^aan corruptible.

16 I therefore so run, ^anot as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air:

17 ^aBut I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be ^aa castaway.

CHAPTER 10.

2 And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same ^aspiritual meat;

4 And did all drink the same ^aspiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that ^afollowed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they ^awere overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things were ^aour examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as ^athey also lusted.

7 ^aNeither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, ^aThe people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 ^aNeither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and ^afell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as ^asome of them also tempted, and ^awere destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither murmur ye, as ^asome of them also murmured, and ^awere destroyed of ^athe destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them for ^aensamples: and ^athey are written for our admonition, ^aupon whom the ends of the world are come.

12 Wherefore ^alet him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no temptation taken you but such as is ^acommon to man: but ^aGod is faithful, ^awho will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also ^amake a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, ^aflee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to ^awise men; judge ye what I say.

16 ^aThe cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? ^aThe bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?

17 For ^awe being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.

18 Behold ^aIs-ra-el ^aafter the flesh: ^aare not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? ^athat the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 But I say, that the things which the Gén'-tles ^bsacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils.

21 ^cYe cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and ^dthe cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.

22 Do we ^eprovoke the Lord to jealousy? ^fare we stronger than he?

23 ^gAll things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.

24 ^hLet no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.

25 ⁱWhatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:

26 For ^jthe earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; ^kwhatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.

28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not ^lfor his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for ^mthe earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof:

29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for ⁿwhy is my liberty judged of another man's conscience?

30 For if I by ^ograce be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that ^pfor which I give thanks?

31 ^qWhether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.

32 ^rGive none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the ^s*Gén'-tles*, nor to ^tthe church of God:

33 Even as ^uI please all men in all things, ^vnot seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

ye remember me in all things, ^ckeep the ^dordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But I would have you know that ^ethe head of every man is Christ; and ^fthe head of the woman is the man; and ^gthe head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or ^hprophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But ⁱevery woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head: that is even all one as if she were ^jshaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as ^khe is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

8 For ^lthe man is not of the woman; but the woman of the man.

9 ^mNeither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have ⁿpower on her head, as the church of the body of Christ, which is the cause of the angels.

11 Nevertheless ^oneither is the man without the woman, neither the church without the man, which is the body of Christ, the Lord.

12 For as the woman ^pis of the church, even so is the man also of the church; ^qbut all things of God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a ^rcovering.

16 But ^sif any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the church, ^tI hear that there be ^udivisions among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For ^vthere must be also ^wheresies among you, ^athat they which are approved may be made manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, ^athis is not to eat the Lord's supper.

21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and he is hungry, and ^aanother is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and ^a'shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For ^aI have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, that the Lord Jē'-sūs the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do ^ain remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ^aye do shew the Lord's death ^atill he come.

27 ^aWherefore whosoever shall eat of this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of his body and blood of the Lord.

28 But ^alet a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.

30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.

31 For ^aif we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, ^awe are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.

34 And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto ^a'condemnation. And

CHAPTER 12.

1 Spiritual gifts ^aare divers, ^ayet all given for our profit. 8 Their great diversity. 27 Of Christ's body.

NOW ^aconcerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.

2 Ye know ^athat ye were Gēn'-tiles, carried away unto these ^a'dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, ^athat no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jē'-sūs ^a'accursed: and ^athat no man can say that Jē'-sūs is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost.

4 Now ^athere are diversities of gifts, but ^athe same Spirit.

5 ^aAnd there are differences of ^a'administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God ^awhich worketh all in all.

7 ^aBut the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit ^a'the word of wisdom; to another ^a'the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;

9 ^aTo another faith by the same Spirit; to another ^a'the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;

10 ^aTo another the working of miracles; to another ^a'prophecy; ^ato another discerning of spirits; to another ^a'divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, ^adividing to every man severally ^aas he will.

12 For ^aas the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: ^aso also is Christ.

13 For ^aby one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, ^a'whether we be Jēws or ^aGēn'-tiles, whether we be bond or free; and ^a'have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath ^b God set the members every one of them in the body, ^d as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body; which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ^a bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked:

25 That there should be no ^a schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now ^a ye are the body of Christ, and ^a members in particular.

28 And ^a God hath set some in the church, first ^a apostles, secondarily ^a prophets, thirdly teachers, after that ^a miracles, then ^a gifts of healings, ^a helps, ^a governments, ^a diversities of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all ^a workers of miracles?

30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

31 But ^b covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

THOUGH I speak with the tongue of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift ^a of prophecy, and understand ^a mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, ^a so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And ^a though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 ^a Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity

^a vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly

^a seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 ^a Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but ^a rejoiceth ^a in the truth;

7 ^a Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 ^a For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, ^a I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For ^a now we see through a glass, darkly; but then ^a face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAPTER 14.

1 Prophecy is commended, 2 and preferred before speaking with tongues, &c.

FOLLOW after charity, and ^a desire spiritual gifts, ^a but rather that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that ^a speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man ^a understandeth him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.
 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.
 Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by 'revelation, by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
 And even things without life, as singing sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?
 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?
 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words 'easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak to the air.
 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto them that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me.
 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous ^o of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.
 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: ⁴ I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing ¹ with the understanding also.
 Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned y Ä'-mën ^o at thy giving of thanks,

A.D. 50.

seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
 17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
 18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all:
 19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
 20 Brethren, ^a be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice ^b be ye children, but in understanding be ² men.
 21 ^c In the law it is ^d written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.
 22 Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.
 23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, ^f will they not say that ye are mad?
 24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:
 25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report ⁷ that God is in you of a truth.
 26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, ^h hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. ⁱ Let all things be done unto edifying.
 27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.
 28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
 29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and ^m let the other judge.
 30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, ⁿ let the first hold his peace.

Acts 1. 3, 4.

8 ^lAnd last of all he was seen me also, as of ^mone born out of death.

9 For I am ⁿthe least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because ^oI persecuted the church of God.

10 But ^pby the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which ^qbestowed upon me was not in vain; but ^rI laboured more abundantly than they all: ^syet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether ^tit were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believe.

12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, ^uthen is Christ not risen:

14 And if Christ be not risen, then ^vis our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because ^wwe have testified of God that he raised Christ: whom he raised not up, so be that the dead rise not.

16 For if the dead rise not, then ^xnot Christ raised:

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ^yye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.

19 ^zIf in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

20 But now ^ais Christ risen from the dead, and become ^bthe firstfruits of them that slept.

21 For ^csince by man came death, ^dby man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But ^eevery man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; afterwards they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then cometh the end, when ^fhe shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reign, ^guntill he have put all enemies under his feet.

26 *The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.

27 For he ^chath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which ^d he put all things under him.

28 ^dAnd when all things shall be subdued unto him, then ^e shall the Son also himself be subject unto him, that he put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?

30 And ^f why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by ^g your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jē-sūs our Lord, ^h I die daily.

32 If ⁱ after the manner of men ^j I have fought with beasts at Ēph'ē-sus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? ^k let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived: ^l evil communications corrupt good manners.

34 ^m Awake to righteousness, and do not; ⁿ for some have not the knowledge of God: ^o I speak this to our shame.

35 But some man will say, ^p How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Thou fool, ^q that which thou sowest is not quickened, except it die:

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed is its own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: ^r at there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 ^s So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; ^t it is raised in incorruption:

43 ^b It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:

44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, The first man Ad-ām ^c was made a living soul; ^d the last Ad-ām ^e was made ^f a quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 ^g The first man is of the earth, ^h earthy: the second man is the Lord ⁱ from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: ^j and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And ^k as we have borne the image of the earthy, ^l we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that ^m flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mystery; ⁿ We shall not all sleep, ^o but we shall all be changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: ^p the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and ^q this mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, ^r Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 ^s O death, where is thy sting? ^t O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin; and ^u the strength of sin is the law.

57 ^v But thanks be to God, which giveth us ^w the victory through our Lord Jē-sūs Christ.

58 ^x Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know ^y that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

Duty of relieving the brethren, &c.

NOW concerning ^athe collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Gă-lă'-tîă, even so do ye.

2 ^fUpon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.

3 And when I come, ^e'whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your ^e'liberality unto Jē-rū'-să-lēm.

4 ^mAnd if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, ^ewhen I shall pass through Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă: for I do pass through Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may ^e'bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, ^e'if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ēph'-ē-sūs until Pěn'-tē-cōst.

9 For ^aa great door and effectual is opened unto me, and ^e'there are many adversaries.

10 Now ^bif Ti-mōth'-ē-ūs come, see that he may be with you without fear: for ^e'he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

3 ^eBlessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

4 Who comforteth us in all tribulation, that we may be able comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as ¹the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

And whether we be afflicted, ²it is for your consolation and salvation, which ³is effectual in the enduring the same sufferings which we also offer: or whether we be comforted, ⁴it is for your consolation and salvation.

And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that ⁵as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of ⁶our trouble which came to us in Ä'-sä, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:

But we had the ⁷sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead:

Who delivered us from so great death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;

Ye also ⁸helping together by prayer for us, that ⁹for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of any persons thanks may be given for many on our behalf.

For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and ¹⁰godly sincerity, ¹¹not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward.

For we write none other things unto you, than what ye read or know; and I trust ye shall know knowledge even to the end;

As also ye have acknowledged in part, ¹²that we are your rejoicing, even as ¹³ye also are ours in the joy of the Lord Jē'-šūs.

And in this confidence ¹⁴I was minded to come unto you before, and at ye might have ¹⁵a second ¹⁶bene-

And to pass by you into Māc-ē-ni-ä, and ¹⁷to come again out of äc-ē-dō'-ni-ä unto you, and of you be brought on my way toward d-ä'-ä.

minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose ¹⁸according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay?

18 But as God is true, our ¹⁹word toward you was not yea and nay.

19 For ²⁰the Son of God, Jē'-šūs Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Sil-vā-nūs and Ti-móth'-ē-ūs, was not yea and nay, ²¹but in him was yea.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Paul's reason for not coming to them. 5 Of the excommunicated person. 14 The success of Paul's preaching.

BUT I determined this with myself, ²that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, ⁴I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; ⁵having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; ⁶not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But ⁷if any have caused grief, he hath not ⁸grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.

6 Sufficient to such a man is this ⁹punishment, which was inflicted ¹⁰of many.

7 ¹¹So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it ² in the person of Christ;

11 Lest Sā-tǎn should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.

12 Furthermore, ^o when I came to Trō-ās to preach Christ's gospel, and ^p a door was opened unto me of the Lord,

13 ⁱ I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Tī-tūs my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Māc-ē-dō'-nī-ā.

14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest 'the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, ^u in them that are saved, and ^z in them that perish:

16 ^a To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life unto life. And ^b who is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which ^d corrupt the word of God: but as ^f of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we ^e in Christ.

God; not ^a in tables of stone, ^b in fleshy tables of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:

5 ^c Not that we are sufficient ourselves to think any thing as ourselves; but ^d our sufficiency is God;

6 Who also hath made us ^f ministers of ^e the new testament, not ^a of the letter, but of the spirit, for 'the letter killeth, ^b but the spirit ^c giveth life.

7 But if 'the ministration of death ^m written and engraven in stone was glorious, ⁿ so that the children of Is'-rā-ēl could not stedfastly hold the face of Mō'-sēs for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:

8 How shall not 'the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?

9 For if the ministration of o demnation be glory, much more de the ministration 'of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was more glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, ^e we use great 'plainness of speech:

13 And not as Mō'-sēs, ^a which wore a vail over his face, that the children of Is'-rā-ēl could not stedfastly look to 'the end of that which was abolished:

14 But 'their minds were blinded, for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Mō'-sēs is read, the vail is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless ^a when it shall be taken to the Lord, ^b the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now 'the Lord is that Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with open face, holding ^a as in a glass 'the glory of the Lord, ^p are changed into the same image from glory to glory even ^r by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

He declareth how he hath used all sincerity and faithful diligence in preaching the gospel, 7 and how he daily endured troubles and persecutions for the same

WHEREFORE seeing we have 'this ministry, ^d as we have received mercy, we faint not;

But have renounced the hidden things of 'dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, ^e nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but ^a by manifestation of the truth 'commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

But if our gospel be hid, 'it is hid to them that are lost:

In whom ⁼ the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest 'the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, ^f who is the image of God, should shine into them.

For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jē'sūs the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jē'sūs' sake.

For God, 'who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, ^g hath shined in our hearts, to give 'the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jē'sūs Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, ^h that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

We are 'troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but 'not in despair;

Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jē'sūs, that the life also of Jē'sūs might be made manifest in our body.

For we which live ⁱ are always delivered unto death for Jē'sūs' sake, that the life also of Jē'sūs might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

So then ^j death worketh in us, that life in you.

We having 'the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

Knowing that 'he which raised up the Lord Jē'sūs shall raise up us also by Jē'sūs, and shall present us with you.

15 For 'all things are for your sakes, that 'the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet 'the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For 'our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Paul, in his assured hope of immortal glory, 9 laboureth to keep a good conscience, 18 and by his ministry to reconcile others also in Christ to God.

FOR we know that if 'our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this ⁼ we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that ^a being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but ^b clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now 'he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also ^c hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For 'we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are confident, I say, and ^d willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ^e labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; 'that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore ^a the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but ^b we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For ^d we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion ^f to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory ^a in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For ^a whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that ^a if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, ^a that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 ^a Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after the flesh, ^a yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man ^a be in Christ, ^a he is ^a a new creature: ^a old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, ^a who hath reconciled us to himself by Jē-sūs Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 To wit, that ^a God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath ^a committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ^a ambassadors for Christ, as ^a though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For ^a he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made ^a the righteousness of God in him.

of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time: behold, now is the day of salvation.

3 ^a Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things ^a approving ourselves ^a as the ministers of God, ^a much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 ^a In stripes, in imprisonment, ^a in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned,

7 ^a By the word of truth, by ^a the power of God, by ^a the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 By honour and dishonour, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; ^a as dying, and, behold, we live; ^a as chastened, and not killed.

10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Cō-rin'-thi-āns, our mouth is open unto you, ^a our heart enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ^a ye are straitened in your own bowels.

13 Now for a recompence in the same, (^a I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

14 ^a Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for ^a what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Bē-lī-āl? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; ^a God hath said, ^a I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 ^a Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 ^a And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7.

He exhorteth to purity of life, 3 and declareth what comfort he found in his afflictions, by reason of their godly sorrow.

HAVING ^btherefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness the flesh and spirit, perfecting ourselves in the fear of God.

Receive us; we have wronged man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

I speak not this to condemn you:

^aI have said before, that ye are our hearts to die and live with us.

^cGreat is my boldness of speech toward you, ^egreat is my glorying in you: ^aI am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

For, ^bwhen we were come into Macedonia, ^cour flesh had no rest, ^dwe were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

Nevertheless ^eGod, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by ^fthe coming of Titus;

And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he comforted in you, when he told your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; that I rejoiced the more.

For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive at the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.

Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed with repentance: for ye were made sorry ^aafter a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in this thing.

For ^bgodly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: ^cbut the sorrow of the world worketh death.

For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, ^awhat clearing of yourselves, ^bwhat indignation, yea, ^cwhat fear, yea, ^dwhat vehement desire, yea, ^ewhat zeal, yea, ^fwhat revenge! In ^gthings ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit ^bwas refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his ^cinward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth ^dthe obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that ^eI have confidence in you in all things.

CHAPTER 8.

1 He stirreth them up to a liberal contribution for the poor saints at Jerusalem, by the example of the Macedonians, 9 and as followers of Christ. 16 He commendeth Titus and others.

MOREOVER, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and ^atheir deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their ^bliberality.

3 For to their power, I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us ^cthe fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that ^dwe desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same ^egrace also.

7 Therefore, as ^fye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, ^gsee that ye abound in this grace also.

8 ^hI speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jē'sūs Christ, ¹that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein ²I give my advice: for ³this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be ⁴forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For ⁵if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, ⁶*He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.*

16 But thanks be to God, which ⁷put the same earnest care into the heart of Tī'tūs for you.

17 For indeed he accepted ⁸the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him ⁹the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also ¹⁰chosen of the churches to travel with us with this ¹¹grace, which is administered by us ¹²to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

21 ¹³Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which ¹⁴*I have* in you.

23 Whether any do enquire of Tī'tūs, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are

2 For I know ²the forwardness of your mind, ³for which I boast you to them of Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă, that ⁴A-cha'ŭ-ă was ready a year ago; as your zeal hath provoked very many.

3 ⁵Yet have I sent the brethren lest our boasting of you should ⁶be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

4 Lest haply if they of Măc-ē-dō'-nī-ă come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your ⁷bounty, ⁸whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.

6 ⁹But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully.

7 Every man according as he hath poseth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: ¹⁰God loveth a cheerful giver.

8 ¹¹And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

9 (As it is written, ¹²*He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.*

10 Now he that ¹³ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread ¹⁴your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your ¹⁵righteousness;)

11 Being enriched in every thing to all ¹⁶bountifulness, ¹⁷which causeth through us thanksgiving to God

12 For the administration of this service not only ^csupplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by any thanksgivings unto God;

13 Whiles by the experiment of his ministration they ^cglorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your ^cequal ^cdistribution unto them, and unto all men;

14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding ^cgrace of God in you.

15 Thanks be unto God ^cfor his unspeakable gift.

CHAPTER 10.

Paul setteth forth the spiritual might and authority, with which he is armed against all adversary powers, 12 reprehending them for reaching out themselves beyond their measure, and boasting themselves in other men's labours.

NOW ^cI Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, ^cwho ^cin presence ^cam base among you, but being absent ^cam bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you, ^cthat I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think ^cto be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 ^c(For the weapons ^cof our warfare are not carnal, but ^cmighty through God ^cto the pulling down of strong holds:)

5 ^c Casting down ^cimaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

6 ^cAnd having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when ^cyour obedience is fulfilled.

7 ^cDo ye look on things after the outward appearance? ^cIf any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more ^cof our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, ^csay they, are weighty and powerful; but ^chis bodily presence ^cis weak, and his ^cspeech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such ^cwill we be also in deed when we are present.

12 ^d For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, ^eare not wise.

13 ^f But we will not boast of things without ^cour measure, but according to the measure of the ^grule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond ^cour measure, as though we reached not unto you: ^hfor we are come as far as to you also in ^cpreaching the gospel of Christ:

15 Not boasting of things without ^cour measure, that is, ⁱof other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be ^jenlarged by you according to our rule abundantly.

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's ^kline of things made ready to our hand.

17 ^cBut he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For ^cnot he that commendeth himself is approved, but ^cwhom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11.

1 Paul entereth into a forced commendation of himself and of his preaching, 23 and recounteth his sufferings for the gospel.

WOULD to God ye could bear with me a little in ^cmy folly: and indeed ^cbear with me.

2 For I am ^cjealous over you with godly jealousy: for ^cI have espoused you to one husband, ^cthat I may present you ^cas a chaste virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as ^cthe serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds ^cshould be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jē-sūs, whom we have not preached, or ^cif ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or ^canother gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear² with him.

5 For I suppose ^bI was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 But though ^dI be rude in speech, yet not ^fin knowledge; but ^gwe have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, ^mI was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me ⁿthe brethren which came from Măc-ê-dô-nĩ-ă supplied: and in all things I have kept myself ^rfrom being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 ^aAs the truth of Christ is in me, ³no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of A-chaĩ-ă.

11 Wherefore? ^vbecause I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, ^bthat I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such ^care false apostles, ^ddeceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Să'-tăn himself is transformed into ^gan angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; ⁱwhose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool ⁱreceive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, ^mI speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 ^oSeeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye suffer fools gladly, ^rseeing ye yourselves are wise.

20 For ye suffer, ^vif a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I bump not?

30 If I must needs glory, ^rI will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

31 ^sThe God and Father of our Lord Jê'-süs Christ, ^twhich is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I bump not.

32 ^uIn Dă-măs'-cüs the governor under Ar'-ê-tăs the king kept the city of the Dăm'-ăs-cênes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

1 In commending his apostleship, 9 he chooses rather to glory of his infirmities, than of his wonderful revelations, 11 blaming them for forcing him to this vain boasting.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. ^aI will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 I knew a man ^bin Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one ^a caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not ^a lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such an one will I glory: ^a yet of myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For ^a though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a ^a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Sā'-tān to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 ^a For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore ^a will I rather glory in my infirmities, ^a that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore ^a I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: ^a for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become ^a a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: or ^a in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though ^a I be nothing.

12 ^a Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 ^a For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except this? that ^a I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me ^a this wrong.

14 ^a Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for ^a I seek not your's, but you: ^a for the chil-

19 ^a Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? ^a we speak before God in Christ: ^a but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that ^a I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest, when I come again, my God ^a will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many ^a which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and ^a fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

CHAPTER 13.

1 He threateneth severity against obstinate sinners: 11 concludeth with general exhortation and prayer.

THIS is ^a the third time I am coming to you. ^a In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 ^a I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them ^a which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, ^a I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ ^a speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty ^a in you.

4 ^a For though he was crucified through weakness, yet ^a he liveth by the power of God. For ^a we also are weak ^a in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God to-ward you.

5 "Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, ^bhow that Jē-sūs Christ is in you, except ye be ^creprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though ^dwe be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad, ^ewhen we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, ^feven your perfection.

10 For ^bdo I now ^cpersuade me or God? or ^ddo I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, should not be the servant of Christ.

11 ^eBut I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.

12 For ^fI neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but ^gby the revelation of Jē'-sūs Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jewish religion, how that ^hI beyond measure persecuted the church of God, and ⁱwasted it:

14 And profited in the Jewish religion above many my ^jequals mine own nation, ^kbeing more exceedingly zealous ^lof the traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, ^mwho separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace

16 ⁿTo reveal his Son in me, that ^oI might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with ^pflesh and blood:

17 Neither went I up to Jē-rū-salēm to them which were apostles before me; but I went into A-rā-bi-ā, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years ^aI ²went up to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm to see Pē'-tēr, and abode with him fifteen days.
 19 But ^dother of the apostles saw none, save ^eJāmes the Lord's brother.
 20 Now the things which I write unto you, ^abehold, before God, I lie not.
 21 ^aAfterwards I came into the regions of Sŷr'-i-ā and Ći-liç'-i-ā;
 22 And was unknown by face ^kunto the churches of Jū-dæ'-ā which ^lwere of Christ:
 23 But they had heard only, That ^mhe which persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.
 24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2.

He sheweth when and for what purpose he went again to Jerusalem. 16 Of justification by faith.

WHEN fourteen years after ^pI went up again to Jē-rū'-sā-lēm with Bār'-nā-bās, and took Tī'-tūs with me also.

2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gēn'-tīlēs, but ^qprivately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means ^rI should run, or had run, in vain.

3 But neither Tī'-tūs, who was with me, being a Grēek, was compelled to be circumcised:

4 And that because of ^sfalse brethren unawares brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jē'-sūs, ^tthat they might bring us unto bondage:

5 To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But of these ^uwho seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: ^v'God accepteth no man's person:;) for they who seemed to be somewhat ^win conference added nothing to me:

7 But contrariwise, ^x'when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision ^ywas committed unto me, ^zas the gospel of the circumcision was unto Pē'-tēr;

the circumcision, ⁿthe same was ^o'mighty in me toward the Gēn'-tīlēs:)

9 And when Jāmes, Ćē'-phās, and Jōhn, who seemed to be ^p'pillars, perceived ^q'the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Bār'-nā-bās the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; ^r'the same which I also was forward to do.

11 ^s'But when Pē'-tēr was come to An'-ti-ōch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from Jāmes, ^t'he did eat with the Gēn'-tīlēs: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jēws dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Bār'-nā-bās also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to ^u'the truth of the gospel, I said unto Pē'-tēr ^v'before them all, ^w'If thou, being a Jēw, livest after the manner of Gēn'-tīlēs, and not as do the Jēws, why compellest thou the Gēn'-tīlēs to live as do the Jēws?

15 ^x'We who are Jēws by nature, and not ^y'sinners of the Gēn'-tīlēs,

16 ^z'Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but ^a'by the faith of Jē'-sūs Christ, even we have believed in Jē'-sūs Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for ^b'by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found ^c'sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? God forbid.

18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I ^d'am through the law ^e'am dead to the law, that I might ^f'live unto God.

20 I am ^g'crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh ^h'I live by the faith of the Son of God, ^awho loved me, and gave himself for me.

21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for ^aif righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

CHAPTER 3.

He asketh what moved them to leave the faith, &c.

O FOOLISH Gă-lă'-tîans, ^fwho hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey ^gthe truth, before whose eyes Jē'-sūs Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye ^kthe Spirit by the works of the law, ⁱor by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? ^ahaving begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by ^hthe flesh?

4 ^gHave ye suffered ^aso many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.

5 He therefore ^athat ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as ^aĀ'-bră-hām believed God, and it was ^aaccounted to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that ^athey which are of faith, the same are the children of Ā'-bră-hām.

8 And ^athe scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Ā'-bră-hām, saying, ^dIn thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Ā'-bră-hām.

10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, ^gCursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But ^athat no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, ⁱThe just shall live by faith.

12 And ^mthe law is not of faith: but, ^aThe man that doeth them shall live in them.

13 ^gChrist hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, ^gCursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

14 ^bThat the blessing of Ā'-bră-hām might come on the Gēn'-tiles through Jē'-sūs Christ; that we might receive ^athe promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; ^aThough it be but man's ^acovenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, and addeth thereto.

16 Now ^ato Ā'-bră-hām and ^aseed were the promises made. ^asaith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is ^aChrist.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before ^aGod in Christ, the law, ^awhich was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, ^athat it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if ^athe inheritance be of the law, ^ait is no more of promise: but ^aGod gave it to Ā'-bră-hām by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? ^aIt was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made; ^ait was ^aordained by angels in the hand ^aof a mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, ^bbut God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law.

22 But the scripture hath concluded ^aall under sin, ^athat the promise of faith of Jē'-sūs Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.

24 Wherefore ^athe law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ; ^athat we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.

26 For ye ^aare all the children of God by faith in Christ Jē'-sūs.

27 For ^aas many of you as have been baptized into Christ ^ahave put on Christ.

28 ^aThere is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor male: for ye are all ^aone in Christ ^bsūs.

 9 And ^cif ye be Christ's, then are A'-brā-hām's seed, and ^dheirs according to the promise.

CHAPTER 4.

^ewe were under the law till Christ came. 24 Allegory of Agar and Sara.

NOW I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all;

But is under tutors and governors till the time appointed of the father.

Even so we, when we were children, ^fwere in bondage under the elements of the world:

But ^gwhen the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his son, ^hmade ⁱof a woman, ^jmade
 under the law,

^kTo redeem them that were under the law, ^lthat we might receive the adoption of sons.

And ^mbecause ye are sons, God hath sent forth ⁿthe Spirit of his son into your hearts, crying, Ab'-bā, Father.

Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; ^oand if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
 Howbeit then, ^pwhen ye knew not God, ^qye did service unto them which by nature are no gods.

But now, ^rafter that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, ^show turn ye ^tagain to ^uthe weak and beggarly ^velements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

Ye observe days, and months,
 and times, and years.

I am afraid of you, ^wlest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ^xye have not injured me at all.

Ye know how ^ythrough infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.

And my temptation which was of my flesh ye despised not, nor respected; but received me ^zas an angel of God, ^{aa}even as Christ Jē'-sūs.

Where is then the blessedness of which I spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They ^czealously affect you, but not well; yea, they would exclude ^dyou, that ye might affect them.

18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.

19 ^eMy little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for ^fI stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written, that A'-brāhām had two sons, ^gthe one by a bondmaid, ^hthe other by a free-woman.

23 But he who was of the bond-woman ⁱwas born after the flesh; ^jbut he of the freewoman was by promise.

24 Which things are an allegory:
 for these are the two ^kcovenants;
 the one from the mount ^lSī'-nāi, which gendereth to bondage, which is A'-gār.

25 For this A'-gār is mount Sī'-nāi in A-rā'-bi-ā, and ^manswereth to Jērū'-sā-lēm which now is, and is in bondage with her children.

26 But ⁿJē-rū'-sā-lēm which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, ^oRejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not:
 for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband.

28 Now we, brethren, as I'-sāac was,
 are ^pthe children of promise.

29 But as then ^qhe that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, ^reven so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith ^sthe scripture? ^tCast out the bondwoman and her son: for ^uthe son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, ^vbut of the free.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He moveth them to stand fast in their liberty. 19
 The works of the flesh, 22 and fruits of the Spirit.

STAND fast therefore in ^athe liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again ^bwith the yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that ^cif ye be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, ^dthat he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 ^eChrist is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ^fye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit ^gwait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For ^hin Jē-sūs Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but ⁱfaith which worketh by love.

7 Ye ^jdid run well; ^kwho did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

8 This persuasion ^lcometh not of him ^mthat calleth you.

9 ⁿA little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 ^oI have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded: but ^phe that troubleth you ^qshall bear his judgment, whosoever he be.

11 ^rAnd I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, ^swhy do I yet suffer persecution? then is ^tthe offence of the cross ceased.

12 ^uI would they were even cut off ^vwhich trouble you.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only ^wuse not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but ^xby love serve one another.

14 For ^yall the law is fulfilled in one word, ^zeven in this; ^{aa}Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 ^{ab}This I say then, ^{ac}Walk in the Spirit, and ^{ad}ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.

17 For ^{ae}the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: ^{af}so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.

18 But ^{ag}if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now ^{ah}the works of the flesh are

1 He moveth them to deal mildly with a brother that hath slipped: 2 to bear one another's burden, &c.

BRETHREN, ^aif a man be overtaken in a fault, ye ^bwhich are spiritual, restore such an one ^cin the spirit of meekness; considering ^dthyself, ^elest thou also be tempted.

2 ^fBear ye one another's burden, and so fulfil ^gthe law of Christ.

6 ^mLet him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things.

7 ⁿBe not deceived; ^oGod is not mocked: for ^pwhatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

8 ^qFor he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And ^rlet us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, ^sif we faint not.

10 ^tAs we have therefore oppounity, ¹ let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of ² the household of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, ³ they constrain you to be circumcised; ⁴ only lest they should ⁵ suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 ⁶ But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, ⁷ by whom the world

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ĒPH-Ē'-SĪĀNS.

CHAPTER 1.

He blesseth God for spiritual blessings: 4 treateth of our election, 6 and adoption by grace, &c.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'-sūs Christ ¹ by the will of God, ² to the saints which are at Eph'-ē-sūs, ³ and to the faithful in Christ Jē'-sūs:

2 ⁴ Grace be to you, and peace, from our Father, and from the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ.

3 ⁵ Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly ⁶ places in Christ:

4 According as ⁷ he hath chosen us in him ⁸ before the foundation of the world, that we should ⁹ be holy, and without blame before him in love:

5 ¹⁰ Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jē'-sūs Christ to himself, ¹¹ according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, ¹² wherein he hath made us accepted in ¹³ the beloved.

7 ¹⁴ In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to ¹⁵ the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 ¹⁶ Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure ¹⁷ which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of ¹⁸ the fulness of times ¹⁹ he might gather together in one ²⁰ all things in Christ, both which are in ²¹ heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 ²² In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, ²³ being predestinated according to ²⁴ the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 ²⁵ That we should be to the praise of his glory, ²⁶ who first ²⁷ trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard ²⁸ the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ²⁹ ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 ³⁰ Which is the earnest of our inheritance ³¹ until the redemption of ³² the purchased possession, ³³ unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, ³⁴ after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jē'-sūs, and love unto all the saints,

16 ³⁵ Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That ³⁶ the God of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, the Father of glory, ³⁷ may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation ³⁸ in the knowledge of him:

18 ³⁹ The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is ⁶the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, ⁸according to the working ²of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when ⁹he raised him from the dead, and ¹set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 ^mFar above all ⁿprincipality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And ¹hath put all things under his feet, and gave him ¹⁰to be the head over all things to the church,

23 ⁷Which is his body, ⁸the fulness of him ¹¹that filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2.

What we were by nature, and what we are by grace.

AND ¹you hath he quickened, ²who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 ³Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to ⁴the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in ⁵the children of disobedience:

3 ⁶Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in ⁷the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling ⁸the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and ⁹were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, ¹⁰who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 ¹¹Even when we were dead in sins, hath ¹²quickened us together with Christ, (¹³by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together ¹⁴in heavenly places in Christ Jē-sūs:

7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in ¹⁵his kindness toward us through Christ Jē-sūs.

8 ¹⁶For by grace are ye saved ¹⁷through faith; and that not of yourselves: ¹⁸it is the gift of God:

9 ¹⁹Not of works, lest any man should boast.

10 For we are ²⁰his workmanship, created in Christ Jē-sūs unto good works, which God hath before ²¹ordained that we should walk in them.

CHAPTER 3.

The hidden mystery, that the Gentiles should be saved, was made known to Paul by revelation, &c.

FOR this cause I Paul, ¹the prisoner of Jē-sūs Christ ²for you Gēn'-tīlēs,

2 If ye have heard of ³the dispensation of the grace of God ⁴which is given me to you-ward:

3 ⁵How that ⁶by revelation ⁷made known unto me the mystery (as I wrote ⁸before in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge ^a in the mystery of Christ)

⁵ Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit ;

⁶ That the Gén'-tiles ^a should be fellowheirs, and ^c of the same body, and ^a partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel :

⁷ Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace ^a God given unto me by ^a the effectual working of his power.

⁸ Unto me, ^a who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that ^a I should preach among the Gén'-tiles ^a the unsearchable riches of Christ ;

⁹ And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, ^a who created all things by Jē'-sūs Christ :

¹⁰ To the intent that now ^a unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places ^a might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

¹¹ According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jē'-sūs our Lord :

¹² In whom we have boldness and access ^a with confidence by the faith in him.

¹³ Wherefore I desire that ye cease not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

¹⁴ For this cause I bow my knees unto the Father of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ,

¹⁵ Of whom ^a the whole family in heaven and earth is named,

¹⁶ That he would grant you, ^a according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit-in ^a the inner man ;

¹⁷ That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith ; that ye, ^a being rooted and grounded in love,

¹⁸ May be able to comprehend with all saints ^a what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height ;

¹⁹ And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled ^a with all the fulness of God.

²⁰ Now ^a unto him that is able to exceed abundantly ^a above all that we ask or think, ^a according to the power that worketh in us,

CHAPTER 4.

¹ He exhorteth to unity, ²⁴ to put on the new man, ²⁵ to cast off lying, &c.

I THEREFORE, ^a the prisoner ^a of the Lord, beseech you that ye ^a walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called,

² With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love ;

³ Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit ^a in the bond of peace.

⁴ ^a There is one body, and ^a one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling ;

⁵ ^a One Lord, ^a one faith, ^a one baptism,

⁶ ^a One God and Father of all, who is above all, and ^a through all, and in you all.

⁷ But ^a unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

⁸ Wherefore he saith, ^a When he ascended up on high, ^a he led ^a captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

⁹ (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth ?

¹⁰ He that descended is the same also ^a that ascended up far above all heavens, ^a that he might ^a fill all things.)

¹¹ ^a And he gave some, apostles ; and some, prophets ; and some, ^a evangelists ; and some, ^a pastors and ^a teachers ;

¹² ^a For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, ^a for the edifying of ^a the body of Christ :

¹³ Till we all come ^a in the unity of the faith, ^a and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto ^a ^a a perfect man, unto the measure of the ^a stature of the fulness of Christ :

¹⁴ That we henceforth be no more ^a children, ^a tossed to and fro, and carried about with every ^a wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, ^a whereby they lie in wait to deceive ;

¹⁵ But ^a speaking the truth in love, ^a may grow up into him in all things, ^a which is the head, even Christ :

16 "From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ^aye henceforth walk not as other Gên'-tles walk, ^fin the vanity of their mind,

18 "Having the understanding darkened, ^kbeing alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the ^m"blindness of their heart:

19 "Who being past feeling ^phave given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jê'-süs:

22 That ye ^z"put off concerning ^z"the former conversation ^z"the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And ^c"be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye ^c"put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and ^c"true holiness.

25 Wherefore ^c"putting away lying, ^c"speak every man truth with his neighbour: for ^c"we are members one of another.

26 ^m"Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

27 "Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather ^t"let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have ^t"to give ^t"to him that needeth.

29 "Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but ^t"that which is good ^t"to the use of edifying, ^t"that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And ^c"grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of ^c"redemption.

31 ^f"Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and ^k"evil speaking, be put away from you, ^f"with all malice:

2 General exhortations to love, 8 to fly fornication and all uncleanness, 15 to walk warily, 18 to be filled with the Spirit. 22 Duties of wives husbands.

10 "Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And ^phave no fellowship with ^p"the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather ^preprove them.

12 "For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret.

13 But ^m"all things that are ^mreprovable are made manifest by the light: whatsoever doth make manifest light.

14 Wherefore ^bhe saith, ^bAwake thou that sleepest, and ^darise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 ^fSee then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, 16 "Redeeming the time, ^kbecause the days are evil.

7 *Wherefore be ye not unwise, ^t understanding ^d what the will the Lord is.

8 And ^f be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

9 Speaking to yourselves ⁱ in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody ^j to your heart to the Lord;

10 ^k Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father ⁱ in the name of our Lord Jē-^sūs Christ;

11 ^m Submitting yourselves one to other in the fear of God.

12 ⁿ Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, ^o as unto the Lord.

13 For ^p the husband is the head of the wife, even as ^q Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour ^r of the body.

14 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so ^s let the wives be to their own husbands ^t in every thing.

15 ^u Husbands, love your wives, ^v as Christ also loved the church, ^w and ^x gave himself for it;

16 That he might sanctify and cleanse it ^y with the washing of water by the word,

17 ^z That he might present it to himself a glorious church, ^{aa} not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy ^{ab} and without blemish.

18 So ought men to love their wives ^{ac} their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

19 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:

20 For ^{ad} we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

21 ^{ae} For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be united unto his wife, and they ^{af} two shall be one flesh.

22 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.

23 Nevertheless ^{ag} let every one of you in particular so love his wife ^{ah} as himself; and the wife ^{ai} see that she ^{aj} reverence her husband.

CHILDREN, ^a obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

2 *Honour thy father and mother; which is the first commandment with promise;

3 That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

4 And, ^a ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but ^b bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

5 = Servants, be obedient to them that are ^a your masters according to the flesh, ^b with fear and trembling, ^c in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 *Not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:

8 *Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, ^a whether he be bond or free.

9 And, ye ^a masters, do the same things unto them, ^b forbearing threatening: knowing that ^a your Master also is in heaven; ^c neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

11 *Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

12 For we wrestle not against ^a flesh and blood, but against ^b principalities, against powers, against ^c the rulers of the darkness of this world, against ^d spiritual wickedness in ^e high places.

13 = Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand ^a in the evil day, and ^b having done all, to stand.

14 Stand therefore, ^a having your loins girt about with truth, and ^b having on the breastplate of righteousness;

CHAPTER 1.

3 Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for the Philippians: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ.

PAUL and Tī-mōth'-ē-ūs, the servants of Jē'-sūs Christ, to all the saints ° in Christ Jē'-sūs which are at Phī-lip'-pī, with the bishops and deacons:

2 ° Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ.

3 ° I thank my God upon every ° remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 ° For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun ° a good work in you ° will perform it ° until the day of Jē'-sūs Christ:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because ° I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are ° partakers of my grace.

8 For ° God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jē'-sūs Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all ° judgment;

12 But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen rather unto the furtherance of gospel;

13 So that my bonds ° in Christ manifest ° in all ° the palace, and all other places;

14 And many of the brethren of the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Christ of envy and ° strife; and some of good will:

16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn my salvation ° through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Jē'-sūs Christ,

20 According to my ° earnest expectation and my hope, that nothing I shall be ashamed, that ° with all boldness, as always so now also Christ shall be magnified my body, whether it be by life, by death.

For to me to live is Christ, and die is gain.

But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I will choose I wot not.

For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:
Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.

And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance of joy of faith;

That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jē-sūs Christ for my coming to you again.

Only let your conversation be such as it becometh the gospel of Christ:
whether I come and see you, or I be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an ident token of perdition, but to us of salvation, and that of God.

For unto you it is given in the gospel of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his name;

Having the same conflict which I saw in me, and now hear to be in you.

exhorteth them to unity and humility, by the example of Christ.

There be therefore any consolation peace, if any fellowship of the Spirit,

any bowels and mercies,

Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be of one accord, of one mind.

Let nothing be done through vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

Let this mind be in you, which is also in Christ Jē-sūs:

Who, being in the form of God,

tion, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

That at the name of Jē-sūs every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

And that every tongue should confess that Jē-sūs Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

Holding forth the word of life;
that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.

But I trust in the Lord Jē-sūs to send Ti-mōth-ē-ūs shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.

For all seek their own, not the things which are Jē-sūs Christ's.

But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you ⁶Ēp-āph-rō-dī'-tūs, my brother, and companion in labour, and ⁴fellowsoldier, ⁶but your messenger, and ⁷he that ministered to my wants.

26 ⁹For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and ²⁰hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, ²⁰to supply your lack of service toward me.

Let your moderation be known to 'all men. ^a The Lord is at nd.

^a Be careful for nothing; but in ery thing by prayer and suppli- ion with thanksgiving let your uests be made known unto God.

And ^a the peace of God, which sseth all understanding, shall ep your hearts and minds through rist Jē'-sūs.

Finally, brethren, whatsoever ings are true, whatsoever things e 'honest, whatsoever things are st, whatsoever things are pure, atsoever things are lovely, ^a what- ever things are of good report; if ey be any virtue, and if there be y praise, think on these things.

^a Those things, which ye have th learned, and received, and ard, and seen in me, do: and ^a the d of peace shall be with you.

0 But I rejoiced in the Lord great- that now at the last ^a your care me 'hath flourished again; where- ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

1 Not that I speak in respect of unt: for I have learned, in what- ever state I am, ^a therewith to be content.

3 ^a We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, praying always for you,

4 ^a Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jē'-sūs, and of ^a the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the hope ^a which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, ^bas it is in all the world; and ^cbringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew ^cthe grace of God in truth:

7 As ye also learned of ^aĒp'-ā-phrās our dear fellow-servant, who is for you ^aa faithful minister of Christ;

1 He sheweth where we should seek Christ: 10 exhort-eth to put off the old man, and put on Christ, &c.

IF ye then ^abe risen with Christ, seek those things which are above, where ^aChrist sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ^aaffection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 ^aFor ye are dead, ^aand your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 ^aWhen Christ, who is ^dour life, shall appear, then shall ye also ap-

5 ^aMortify therefore ^ayour members which are upon the earth; ^afornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, ^awhich is idolatry:

6 ^aFor which things' sake the wrath of God cometh on ^athe children of disobedience:

7 ^aIn the which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them.

8 ^aBut now ye also put off all these;
anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, ^afilthy communication out of your mouth.

9 ^aLie not one to another, ^aseeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new man, which ^ais renewed in knowledge ^aafter the image of him that ^acreated
him:

11 Where there is neither ^dGræek nor Jēw, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scyth'-i-än, bond nor free: ^a but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, ^c as the elect of God, holy and beloved, ^c bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;

13 ^c Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a ^a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.

14 ⁱ And above all these things ^m put on charity, which is the ^o bond of perfectness.

15 And let ^e the peace of God rule in your hearts, ^o to the which also ye are called ^e in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another ^e in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And ^b whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jē'-sūs, ^c giving thanks to God and the Father by him.

18 ^c Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, ^j as it is fit in the Lord.

19 ^a Husbands, love your wives, and be not ^k bitter against them.

20 ⁱ Children, obey your parents ^m in all things: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 ⁿ Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.

22 ^o Servants, obey ^e in all things your masters ⁱ according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:

23 ^c And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 ⁿ Knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: ^e for ye serve the Lord Christ.

25 But he that doeth wrong shall receive for the wrong which he hath done: and ^e there is no respect of persons.

CHAPTER 2.

*In what manner the gospel was preached to them,
 and in what way received.*

FOR ^cyourselfs, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at / Phī-līp'-pī, ^gwe were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God ⁱwith much contention.

3 ^mFor our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:

4 But as ⁿwe were allowed of God ^oto be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; ^pnot as pleasing men, but God, ^qwhich trieth our hearts.

5 For ^rneither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; ^sGod is witness:

6 ^bNor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when ^dwe might have ³been ^cburdensome, ^fas the apostles of Christ.

7 But ^gwe were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:

8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing ⁱto have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also ^hour own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for ^mlabouring night and day, ^obecause we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.

10 ⁿYe are witnesses, and God also,
^ohow holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children, 12 That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Jû-dæ'-ă are in Christ Jē'-sūs: for ye also have suffered like things of your own countrymen, even as they have of the Jēws:

15 Who both killed the Lord Jē'-sūs, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:

16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gën'-tîles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Să'-tăn hindered us.

19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Paul testifieth his great love to the Thessalonians, by sending Timothy unto them to strengthen and comfort them: 10 by praying for them, &c.

WHEREFORE when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Ath'-ens alone;

2 And sent Ti-mōth'-ê-ūs, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed to unto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that should suffer tribulation; even as we came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to let you know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and your labour be in vain.

6 But now when Ti-mōth'-ê-ūs came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith.

8 For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the wherewith we joy for your sake before our God;

10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself and our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love toward another, and toward us, even as we do toward you.

13 To the end he may establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ with all his saints.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He exhorteth to godliness, 9 to love one another, 13 to sorrow moderately for the dead, 15 of the resurrection, and second coming of Christ.

FURTHERMORE then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jē'-sūs, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more in love.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jē'-sūs.

3 For this is the will of God, that ye should abstain from fornication: that ye should

4 That every one of you should how how to possess his vessel in actification and honour;

Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gēn'-tīlēs¹ which know
t God:

That no man go beyond and fraud his brother² in any matter:
cause that the Lord³ is the avenger all such, as we also have forenamed you and testified.

For God hath not called us unto cleanness,⁴ but unto holiness.

He therefore that despiseth, spiseth not man, but God,⁵ who th also given unto us his holy irit.

But as touching brotherly love
e need not that I write unto you:
ye yourselves are taught of to love one another.

And indeed ye do it toward all brethren which are in all Māc-ē-nī-ā: but we beseech you, brethn, that ye increase more and more; 1 And that ye study to be quiet, d to do your own business, and o work with your own hands, as e commanded you;

That ye may walk honestly ward them that are without, and at ye may have lack⁶ of nothing.

But I would not have you to be norant, brethren, concerning them hich are asleep, that ye sorrow t, even as others⁷ which have hope.

For if we believe that Jē'-sūs ed and rose again, even so⁸ them so which sleep in Jē'-sūs will God ing with him.

For this we say unto you⁹ by e word of the Lord, that ye hich are alive and remain unto e coming of the Lord shall not event them which are asleep.

For the Lord himself shall de-end from heaven with a shout,
th the voice of the archangel,
d with the trump of God: and e dead in Christ shall rise first:

Then we which are alive and nain shall be caught up together
th them¹⁰ in the clouds, to meet e Lord in the air: and so¹¹ shall e ever be with the Lord.

Wherefore comfort one an-er with these words.

BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ,

10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.

11 Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;

13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.

14 Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men.

15 See that none render evil for evil unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.

16 Rejoice evermore.

17 Pray without ceasing.

18 In every thing give thanks:
for this is the will of God in Christ
Jē'-sūs concerning you.

19 Quench not the Spirit.

20 Despise not prophesyings.

21 Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.

22 ^a Abstain from all appearance of evil.

23 And ^d the very God of peace ^c sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body ^b be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THĒSS-Ā-LŌ'-NĪ-ĀNS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul testifieth to the Thessalonians' faith, love, and patience: 4 and comforteth them against persecution by a consideration of the righteous judgment of God.

PAUL, ^b and Sil-vā'-nūs, and Ti-mōth'-ē-ūs, unto the church of the Thēss-ā-lō'-nī-āns ^d in God our Father and the Lord Jē'-šūs Christ:

2 ^c Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jē'-šūs Christ.

3 ^a We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;

4 So that ^c we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God ^b for your patience and faith ^d in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

5 Which is ^a a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, ^c for which ye also suffer:

NOW we beseech you, brethren, ^a by the coming of our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ, ^b and by our gathering together unto him,

For ¹the mystery of iniquity doth ready work: only he who now ²setteth will let, until he be taken out the way.

And then shall that Wicked be revealed, ³whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy ⁴with the brightness of his coming:

Even him, whose coming is ⁵after the working of Sā'-tān with all power and ⁶signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of righteousness in ⁷them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

And ⁸for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, ⁹that they should believe a lie:

That they all might be damned to be believed not the truth, but ¹⁰'had measure in unrighteousness.

But ¹¹'we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God ¹²'hath ¹³'from the beginning chosen you to salvation ¹⁴'through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth:

Whereunto he called you by ¹⁵his gospel, to ¹⁶'the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ.

Therefore, brethren, ¹⁷'stand fast, and hold ¹⁸'the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or by our epistle.

Now our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, Comfort your hearts, ¹⁹'and stablish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3.

¹He craveth their prayers, ²maketh request to God in their behalf, ³giveth them divers precepts.

FINALLY, brethren, ⁴'pray for us, that the word of the Lord ⁵'may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you:

And ⁶'that we may be delivered from ⁷'unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.

But ⁸'the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and ⁹'keep you from evil.

7 For yourselves know ⁸'how ye ought to follow us: for ⁹'we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but ¹⁰'wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 ¹¹'Not because we have not power, but to make ¹²'ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us.

10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, ¹³'that if any would not work, neither should he eat.

11 For we hear that there are some ¹⁴'which walk among you disorderly, ¹⁵'working not at all, but are busybodies.

12 ¹⁶'Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ, ¹⁷'that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

14 And if any man obey not our word ¹⁹'by this epistle, note that man, and ²⁰'have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAÛL THE APOSTLE TO TĪM'-Ō-THŸ.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Of Paul's former charge to Timothy. 5 The right use and end of the law. 11 Saint Paul's calling to be an apostle. 20 Of Hymeneus and Alexander.

PAÛL, an apostle of Jē'-sūs Christ^d by the commandment^c of God our Saviour, and Lord Jē'-sūs Christ,^a which is our hope;

2 Unto 'Tīm'-ō-thŷ, ^kmy own son in the faith: ^mGrace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jē'-sūs Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Eph'-ē-sūs, ^cwhen I went into Măc-ē-dō-ni-ă, that thou mightest charge some ^ethat they teach no other doctrine,

4 ^eNeither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, ^ewhich minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now ^athe end of the commandment is charity ^cout of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some ²having swerved have turned aside unto ^fvain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; ^eunderstanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that ^ethe law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 ^mKnowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary ^eto sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, ^awhich was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jē'-sūs our Lord, ^ewho hath enabled me, ^afor that he counted me faithful, ^aputting me into the ministry;

14 ^bAnd the grace of our Lord exceeding abundant ^cwith faith and love which is in Christ Jē'-sūs

15 ^eThis is a faithful saying, and ^eworthy of all acceptance, that ^eChrist Jē'-sūs came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause ^aI was detained mercy, that in me ^fChrist Jē'-sūs might shew forth longsuffering, ^efor a pattern to them which should hereafter believe him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto ^athe King eternal, ^aimmortal, ^ainvisible, ^vthe only wise God, ^abe honour and glory ever and ever. Ā'-mĕn.

18 This charge ^aI commit unto thee, son Tīm'-ō-thŷ, ^daccording to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest ^cwar a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having laid away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is ^aHŷ-mĕ-nă'-ūs alive, ^kĀ-ĕx-ăn'-dĕr; whom I have delivered unto Să'-tăn, that they may learn not to ^ablaspheme.

CHAPTER 2.

1 He exhorteth to pray and give thanks for all. 9 How women should be attired. 15 They should be saved in travail, if they continue in faith.

I ³EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 ^cFor kings, and ^efor all that are in ^aauthority; that we may lead quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is ^egood and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour:

4 ^aWho will have all men to be saved, ^eand to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 ^bFor there is one God, and ^cone mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jē'-sūs;

6 * Who gave himself a ransom for 1, * to be testified ^d in due time.
7 * Whereunto I am ordained a teacher, and an apostle, (^f I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) 8 a teacher of the Gēn'-tiles in faith and verity.
9 I will therefore that men pray every where, ² lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.
10 In like manner also, that * women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with ³ broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array; 11 * But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.
12 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.
13 But ⁴ I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over a man, but to be in silence.
14 For ⁵ Ād'-ām was first formed, then Ève.
15 And ⁶ Ād'-ām was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was the transgression.
16 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

CHAPTER 3.

Qualifications of bishops and deacons. 15 Of the church, and the blessed truth taught therein.

THIS is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a ^b bishop, he desireth a good ^c work.
2 * A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, ⁷ of good behaviour, given to hospitality, ⁸ apt to teach;
3 * Not given to wine, ⁹ no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous;
4 One that ruleth well his own house, ¹⁰ having his children in subjection with all gravity;
5 (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
6 Not ^a a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
7 Moreover he must have a good report ¹¹ of them which are without; lest he fall into reproach ¹² and the snares of the devil.
8 Likewise must ¹³ the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, ¹ not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 * Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 * Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For * they that have * used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jē'-sūs.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly:

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself ¹⁴ in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ¹⁵ ground of the truth.

16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: * God was ¹⁶ manifest in the flesh, ¹⁷ * justified in the Spirit, ¹⁸ * seen of angels, ¹⁹ * preached unto the Gēn'-tiles, ²⁰ * believed on in the world, ²¹ * received up into glory.

CHAPTER 4.

1 He foretelleth a departure from the faith, 6 and giveth divers directions to Timothy.

NOW the Spirit ^d speaketh expressly, that ¹ in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed ² to seducing spirits, ³ and doctrines of devils;

2 * Speaking lies in hypocrisy; ⁴ * having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

3 * Forbidding to marry, ⁵ and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created ⁶ to be received ⁷ with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth.

4 For ⁸ every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jē'-sūs Christ, ⁹ * nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained.

7 But ^arefuse profane and old wives' fables, and ^bexercise thyself rather unto godliness.

8 For ^c'bodily exercise profiteth ^dlittle: ^ebut godliness is profitable unto all things, ^fhaving promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For therefore ^gwe both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, ^hwho is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no man despise thy youth; but ⁱbe thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 ^jNeglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee ^kby prophecy, ^lwith the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear ^mto all.

16 ⁿTake heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both ^osave thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Rules to be observed in reproving. 3 Of widows. 17 Of elders. 23 A precept for Timothy's health.

REBUKE ^anot an elder, but in- treat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew ^bpiety at home, and ^cto requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 ^dNow she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and ^econtinueth in supplications and prayers ^f'night and day.

8 But if any provide not for own, ^cand specially for those of own ^dhouse, ^ehe hath denied faith, ^fand is worse than an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be ^gtaken in the number under threescore years old, having been the wife of a man,

10 Well reported of for good works if she have brought up children; if she have ^hlodged strangers, if she have ⁱwashed the saints' feet, if she have relieved the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work.

11 But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wanton against Christ, they will marry;

12 Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.

13 ^jAnd withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 ^kI will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, govern the house, ^lgive none occasion to the adversary ^mto speak reproachfully.

15 For some are already turned aside after Sā'tān.

16 If any man or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve ⁿthem that are widows indeed.

17 ^oLet the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the scripture saith, ^pThou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, ^qThe labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an elder receive not accusation, but ^rbefore two or three witnesses.

20 ^sThem that sin rebuke before all, ^tthat others also may fear.

21 ^uI charge thee before God, and the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things ^vwithout preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 ^wLay hands suddenly on man, "neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but use little wine ⁶ for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities.
24 "Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after.
25 Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

The duty of servants. 6 Godliness is great gain, 10 and love of money the root of all evil. 11 What Timothy is to fly, and what to follow.

1 ¹ET as many ^mservants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honour, "that be the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are ⁴faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man teach otherwise, and consent "not to wholesome words, ⁿin the words of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, "and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

4 He is ⁵proud, "knowing nothing, "doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmises,

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAÛL THE APOSTLE TO TĪM'-Ō-THŸ.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's love to Timothy. 6 He exhorteth him to stir up the gift of God which was in him, &c.

PAÛL, 'an apostle of Jē'-šūs Christ by the will of God, according to ^dthe promise of life which is in Christ Jē'-šūs,

2 'To Tīm'-ō-thŸ, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jē'-šūs our Lord.

3 'I thank God, ^mwhom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that ^pwithout ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 'Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 When I call to remembrance 'the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lō'-is, and ^zthy mother Eū-nī'-cē; and I am persuaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance 'that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For ^bGod hath not given us the spirit of fear; 'but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 ^dBe not thou therefore ashamed of ^gthe testimony of our Lord, nor of me ^ahis prisoner: 'but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;

9 ^kWho hath saved us, and ^lcalled us with an holy calling, ^mnot according to our works, but ⁿaccording to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jē'-šūs ^pbefore the world began,

10 But 'is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jē'-šūs Christ, 'who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

11 ^{*}Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the ġēn'-tilēs.

16 The Lord ⁱgive mercy unto the house of Ō-nēs-iph'-ō-rūs; 'for he refreshed me, and was not ashamed of ^jmy chain:

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord ^kthat day: and in how many things he ^lministered unto me at Ephē'sūs, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2.

1 An exhortation to constancy and perseverance. 19 The foundation of the Lord is sure.

THOU therefore, 'my son, ^abe strong in the grace that is in Christ Jē'-šūs.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me ^bamong many weaknesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure hardness ^cas a good soldier of Jē'-šūs Christ.

4 'No man that warreth entangle himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And 'if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully.

6 'The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruit.

7 Consider what I say; and ^athe Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jē'-sūs Christ ^aof the seed of Dā'-vid ^bwas raised from the dead ^caccording to my gospel:
9 ^dWherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, ^eeven unto bonds; ^fbut the word of God is not bound.
10 Therefore ^gI endure all things for the elect's sakes, ^hthat they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jē'-sūs with eternal glory.
11 It is a faithful saying: For ⁱif we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:
12 ^jIf we suffer, we shall also reign with him: ^kif we deny him, he also will deny us:
13 ^lIf we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: ^mhe cannot deny himself.
14 Of these things put them in remembrance, ⁿcharging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, ^obut to the subverting of the hearers.
15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
16 But ^pshun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.
17 And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hŷ-mē-nā'-ūs and Phī-lē-tūs;
18 Who concerning the truth have erred, ^qsaying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.
19 Nevertheless ^rthe foundation of God standeth ^ssure, having this seal,
The Lord ^tknoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that ameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; ^uand some to honour, and some to dishonour.
21 ^vIf a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and ^wprepared unto every good work.
22 Flee also youthful lusts: but pursue righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that ^xcall on the Lord ^yout of a pure heart.

8 ^rNow as Jān'-nēs and Jām'-brēs

17 "That the man of God may be perfect, "throughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAPTER 4.

1 His solemn charge to Timothy. 6 The nearness of his death. 9 Directions to Timothy.

I "CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, "who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;

2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, "rebuke, "exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.

3 "For the time will come when they will not endure "sound doctrine; "but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and "shall be turned unto fables.

5 But watch thou in all things, "endure afflictions, do the work of "an evangelist, "make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For "I am now ready to be offered, and the time of "my departure is at hand.

7 "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me "a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me "at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TĪ-TŪS.

CHAPTER 1.

Qualifications of ministers. 10 Of evil teachers.

PAUL, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jē-sūs Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is after godliness;

2¹ In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

4 To Tī-tūs, mine own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and the Lord Jē-sūs Christ our Saviour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Crète, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

6 If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly.

7 For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;

8 But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;

9 Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.

10 For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:

11 Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake.

12 One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Crē-tians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.

13 This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

14 Not giving heed to Jēw-ish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth.

15 Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.

16 They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

CHAPTER 2.

Directions to Titus for doctrine and life.

BUT speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:

2 That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience.

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 Young men likewise exhort to be sober minded.

7 In all things shewing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you.

9 Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;

10 Not purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.

11 For the grace of God that bringeth salvation ^a hath appeared unto all men,

12 Teaching us ^c that, denying ungodliness ^d and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world;

13 ^a Looking for that blessed ^b hope, and the glorious ^k appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jē'-sūs Christ;

14 ^m Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, ^e and purify unto himself ^p a peculiar people, ^g zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and ^e exhort, and rebuke with all authority. ⁿ Let no man despise thee.

CHAPTER 3.

¹ Titus is yet further directed by Paul, both concerning the things he should teach, and not teach.
¹⁰ The rejection of obstinate hereticks.

PUT them in mind ^a to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, ^b to be ready to every good work,

2 ^d To speak evil of no man, ^e to be no brawlers, but ^f gentle, shewing all ^g meekness unto all men.

3 For ^k we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.

4 But after that ⁱ the kindness and ^m love of ⁿ God our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 ^o Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by ^p the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost;

CHAPTER 1.

Christ is preferred above the angels, both in person and office.

1 GOD, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath ^a in these last days ^a spoken unto us by his Son, ^a whom he hath appointed heir of all things, ^a by whom also he made the worlds;

3 ^a Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and ^a upholding all things by the word of his power, ^a when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;

ance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, ^a Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, ^a I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 ^a And again, when he bringeth in ^a the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, ^a And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And ^a of the angels he saith, ^a Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, ^a Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of ^a righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, ^b hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

10 And, ^d Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands:

11 ^e They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, ^e Sit on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 ^f Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be ^g heirs of salvation?

CHAPTER 2.

1 Obedience enjoined to Christ Jesus, 5 who vouchsafed to take our nature upon him, &c.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should ^h let them slip.

2 For if the word ^a spoken by angels was stedfast, and ^c every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 ^d How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; ^e which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was ^f confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 ^g God also bearing them witness, ^h both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and ⁱ gifts of the Holy Ghost, ^m according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection ⁿ the world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, ^p What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him ^q a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:

him. But now ^c we see not yet things put under him.

9 But we see Jē'sūs, ^c who made a little lower than the angels ² for the suffering of death, ^c crowned with glory and honour; that he the grace of God should taste death ^f for every man.

10 ^a For it became him, ^a for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make ^b the captain of their salvation ^c perfect through sufferings.

11 For ^m both he that sanctified and they who are sanctified ⁿ are of one: for which cause ^p he is ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, ^q I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, ^r I will put my trust in him. And again, ^s Behold I and the children ^t which God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, ^u also himself likewise took part of the same; ^v that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And deliver them who ^w through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.

16 For verily ^x he took not on the nature of angels; but he took ^y him the seed of A'brā'hām.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him ^z to be made like unto brethren, that he might be ^a a merciful and faithful high priest in things ^b pertaining to God, to reconcile us to God, to our reconciliation for the sins of people.

18 ^c For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

1 Christ is more worthy than Moses, 7 than the more to be regarded.

WHEREFORE, holy brethren, partakers of ^a the heavenly calling, consider ^b the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jē'sūs;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also ^c Mō'ses was faithful in all his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy more glory than Mō'-sēs, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house.

 4 For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God.
 5 And Mō'-sēs verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
 6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoycing of the hope firm unto the end.
 7 Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, 'To day if ye will hear his voice,
 8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
 9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
 10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do not way err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
 11 So I swear in my wrath, 'They shall not enter into my rest.)
 12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
 13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
 14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end;
 15 While it is said, 'To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
 16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Ē'-gŷpt by Mō'-sēs.
 17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?
 18 And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
 19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, 'As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, 'And God did rest the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:

7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in Dā'-vid, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, 'To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Jē'-sūs had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is 'quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jē'-sūs the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.

15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, ^a yet without sin.

16 ^b Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Authority and honour of Christ's priesthood. 11 Negligence in the knowledge thereof reprov'd.

FOR every high priest taken from among men ^c is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 Who ^c can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And ^m by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 ^p And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as ^a was Aa'-ron.

5 ^c So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, ^m Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee.

6 As he saith also in another place, ^m Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mël-chîs'-êd-êc.

7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had ^a offered up prayers and supplications ^b with strong crying and tears unto him ^c that was able to save him from death, and was heard ^c in that he feared;

8 ^c Though he were a Son, yet learned he ^b obedience by the things which he suffered;

9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;

10 Called of God an high priest after the order of Mël-chîs'-êd-êc.

11 Of whom ^c we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are ^m dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of ^c milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk ^a is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is ^a a babe.

14 But strong meat belongeth to

CHAPTER 6.

1 An exhortation to be steadfast in the faith seeing God is most sure in his promise.

THEREFORE ^d leaving ^c the principles of the doctrine of Christ let us go on unto perfection; laying again the foundation of repentance ^f from dead works, and faith toward God,

2 ^g Of the doctrine of baptism ^h and of laying on of hands, ⁱ and resurrection of the dead, ^k and eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, ^c if God permit.

4 For ^m it is impossible for them ⁿ who were once enlightened, ^o and have tasted of ^p the heavenly gift, and ^q were made partakers of the Holy Ghost,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of ^m the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; ^m seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the earth which drinketh the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ^c by whom it is dressed, ^d receiveth blessing from God:

8 ^f But that which beareth thorns and briers ^g is rejected, and ^h is numbered unto cursing; whose end ⁱ is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though thus speak.

10 ^c For ^k God ^l is not unrighteous to forget ^m your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ⁿ ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that ^c every one of you do shew the same diligence ^d to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience ^c inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise

Ā'-brā-hām, because he could swear no greater, ^ahe sware by himself,
14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater: and ^aan oath for confirmation is to them an end of all rife.

17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to shew unto ^fthe heirs of promise ^gthe immutability of his counsel, ^hconfirmed it by an oath:

18 That by two immutable things, by which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope ⁱset before us:

19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, ^jand which entereth into that within the veil;

20 ^kWhither the forerunner is forward entered, even Jē'-šūs, ^lmade an high priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chīś'-ēd-ēc.

CHAPTER 7.

Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, 11 and so, far more excellent than the priests of Aaron's order.

FOR this ^mMēl-chīś'-ēd-ēc, king of Sā'-lēm, priest of the most high God, who met Ā'-brā-hām returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 To whom also Ā'-brā-hām gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Sā'-lēm,
which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life;
but made like unto the Son of God;
and holdeth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, ⁿunto whom even the patriarch Ā'-brā-hām gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily ^othey that are of the sons of Lē'-vī, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Ā'-brā-hām:

6 But he whose ^adescent is not of Ā'-brā-hām, ^band blessed ^chim that had the promises.

7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, ^dof whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Lē'-vī also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes
in Ā'-brā-hām.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Mēl-chīś'-ēd-ēc met
him.

11 ^eIf therefore perfection were by the Lē'-vīt'-i-cāl priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) ^fwhat further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Mēl-chīś'-ēd-ēc, and not be called after the order of Aā'-ron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that ^gour Lord sprang out of Jū'-dā; of which tribe Mō'-šēs spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Mēl-chīś'-ēd-ēc there ariseth another priest,

16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.

17 For he testifieth, ^hThou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chīś'-ēd-ēc.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for ⁱthe weakness and unprofit-ableness thereof.

19 For ^jthe law made nothing perfect, ^kbut the bringing in of ^la better hope did; by the which ^mwe draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:

21 (For those priests were made ⁿwithout an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, ^oThe Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Mēl-chīś'-ēd-ēc:)

22 By so much ^a was Jē'-šūs made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:

24 But this man, because he continueth ever, hath ^a an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them ^a to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth. ^d to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, ^f and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, ^a first for his own sins, ^a and then for the people's: for ^k this he did once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh ^m men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, ^o who is ^r consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

By the eternal priesthood of Christ the Levitical priesthood of Aaron is abolished.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such an high priest, ^r who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister ^o of ^o the sanctuary, and of ^o the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For ^u every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore ^u it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that ² there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Who serve unto the example and ^a shadow of heavenly things, as Mō'-šēs was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: ^f for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now ^k hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better ² covenant, which was established upon better promises.

7 ^b For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, saith, ^c Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Is'rahel and with the house of Jū'-dāh:

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of E'-gypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For ^d this is the covenant that will make with the house of Is'rahel after those days, saith the Lord: I will ^e put my laws into their mind, and write them ^e in their hearts: and ^f I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:

11 And ^g they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, ^h and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 ⁱ In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first obsolete. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

1 Description of the rites and sacrifices of the law, 11 so far inferior to the dignity and perfection of the blood and sacrifice of Christ.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ^o ordinances of divine service, and ^a a worldly sanctuary.

2 ² For there was a tabernacle made; the first, ^a wherein was ^b the candlestick, and ^c the table, and ^d the shewbread; which is called ^e the sanctuary.

3 ^d And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holy of holies;

4 Which had the golden censers, and ^o the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was ^a the golden pot that had manna, and ^b Aa'-ron's rod that budded, and ^c the tables of the covenant;

5 And ^m over it the chēr'-ū-bims glory shadowing the mercyseat; which we cannot now speak particularly.

Now when these things were ordained, ^bthe priests went ways into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

But into the second went the high priest alone ^conce every year, without blood, ^dwhich he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:

^eThe Holy Ghost this signifying, that ^fthe way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, ^gthat could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;

^hWhich stood only in ⁱmeats and drinks, and ^jdivers washings, ^kand ^lceremonial ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

But Christ being come ^man high priest ⁿof good things to come, ^oby greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;

Neither ^pby the blood of goats and calves, but ^qby his own blood he entered in ^ronce into the holy place, ^shaving obtained eternal redemption for us.

For if ^tthe blood of bulls and of goats, and ^uthe ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth the purifying of the flesh:

How much more ^vshall the blood of Christ, ^wwho through the eternal Spirit ^xoffered himself without spot to God, ^ypurge your conscience from ^zdead works ^ato serve the living God?

And for this cause ^bhe is the mediator of the new testament, ^cthat by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, ^dthey which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

For where a testament is, there must also of necessity ^ebe the death of the testator.

For ^fa testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is void and of no strength at all while the testator liveth.

24 For ^jChrist is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of ^kthe true; but into heaven itself, now ^lto appear in the presence of God for us:

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as ^mthe high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now ⁿonce ^oin the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 ^pAnd as it is appointed unto men once to die, ^qbut after this the judgment:

28 So ^rChrist was once ^soffered to bear the sins ^tof many; and unto them that ^ulook for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

1 Weakness of the law sacrifices. 10 The sacrifice of Christ's body once offered, 14 for ever hath taken away sins. 19 Exhortation to hold fast the faith, with patience and thanksgiving.

FOR the law having ^aa shadow ^bof good things to come, and not the very image of the things, ^ccan never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto ^dperfect.

2 For then ^ewould they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.

3 ^b But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.

4 For ^c it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, ^d Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ^e hast thou prepared me:

6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; which are offered by the law;

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified ^f through the offering of the body of Jē-sūs Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth ^g daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, ^h which can never take away sins:

12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth expecting ⁱ till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering ^j he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, ^k boldness to enter ^l into the holiest by the blood of Jē-sūs, which he hath ^c consecrated for ^d through the veil, that is to say his flesh;

21 And having ^e an high priest of the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart ^f in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled ^g from an evil conscience, and ^h our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; ⁱ (for ^j he is faithful that promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and ^k so much the more, ye see ^l the day approaching.

26 For ^m if we sin wilfully ⁿ after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and ^o fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised Mō-sēs^o died without mercy ^p under two or three witnesses:

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and ^q hath counted the blood of the covenant, whereof he was sanctified, an unholy thing, ^r and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, ^s Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, ^t The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But ^u call to remembrance former days, in which, ^v after ye were illuminated, ye endured great fight of afflictions;

33 Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye had compassion of them ^w in my bonds, and ^x took joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing ^y in yourselves that ^z ye had heaven a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, ^a which hath great recompence of reward.

36 ^a For ye have need of patience, ^a that, after ye have done the will of God, ^a ye might receive the promise. 37 For ^a yet a little while, and ^a he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.

38 Now ^a the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, ^a his soul shall have no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them ^a who draw back unto perdition; but of them that ^a believe to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11.

That faith is. 7 The worthy fruits thereof in the fathers of old time.

NOW faith is the ^a substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For ^a by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that ^a the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith ^a Ā'-bēl offered unto God more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.

5 By faith ^a Ē'-nōch was translated so that he should not see death; and he was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith ^a Nō'-āh, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, ^a prepared an ark of gopher wood, ^a in the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of ^a the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith ^a Ā'-brā'-hām, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, ^a dwelling in tabernacles with Ī'-śāac and Jā'-cōb, ^a the heirs with him of the same promise:

10 For he looked for ^a a city which hath foundations, ^a whose builder and maker is God.

11 Through faith also ^a Sār'-ā herself received strength to conceive seed, and ^a was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him ^a faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and ^a him as good as dead, ^a so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.

13 These all died ^a in faith, ^a not having received the promises, but ^a having seen them afar off, and ^a were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and ^a confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things ^a declare plainly that they seek a country.

15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned.

16 But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed ^a to be called their God: for ^a he hath prepared for them a city.

17 By faith ^a Ā'-brā'-hām, when he was tried, offered up Ī'-śāac; and he that had received the promises ^a offered up his only begotten son,

18 ^a Of whom it was said, ^a That in Ī'-śāac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God ^a was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.

20 By faith ^a Ī'-śāac blessed Jā'-cōb and Ē'-sāu concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jā'-cōb, when he was a dying, ^a blessed both the sons of Jō'-sēph; and ^a worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith ^a Jō'-sēph, when he died, ^a made mention of the departing of the children of Īs'-rā-ēl; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith ^b Mō'-šēs, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's ^c commandment.

24 By faith ^d Mō'-šēs, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Phâr'-aoh's daughter;

25 ^e Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming ^f the reproach ^g of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Ē'-gÿpt: for he had respect unto ^h the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith ⁱ he forsook Ē'-gÿpt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as ^j seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith ^k he kept the pass-over, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith ^l they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Ē'-gÿp'-tiāns assaying to do were drowned.

30 By faith ^m the walls of Jēr'-i-chō fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith ⁿ the harlot Rā'-hăb perished not with them ^o that believed not, when ^p she had received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of ^q Géd'-ē-on, and of Bār'-āk, and of ^r Sām'-son, and of ^s Jéph'-thā; of ^t Dā'-vid also, and ^u Sām'-ū-ēl, and of the prophets:

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, ^v obtained promises, ^w stopped the mouths of lions,

34 ^x Quenched the violence of fire, ^y escaped the edge of the sword, ^z out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, ^{aa} turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 ^{ab} Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were ^{ac} tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:

36 And others had trial of cruel

CHAPTER 12.

1 An exhortation to constant faith, patience, godliness. 22 A commendation of the new ment above the old.

WHEREFORE seeing we also compassed about with so g a cloud of witnesses, ^a let us aside every weight, and the which doth so easily beset us, ^b let us run ^c with patience the that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jē'-šūs the ^d aut and finisher of our faith; ^e who the joy that was set before him dured the cross, despising the sha and ^f is set down at the right h of the throne of God.

3 ^g For consider him that endu such contradiction of sinners agai himself, ^h lest ye be wearied faint in your minds.

4 ⁱ Ye have not yet resisted n blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the hortation which speaketh unto as unto children, ^j My son, des not thou the chastening of the L nor faint when thou art rebuked him:

6 For ^k whom the Lord loveth chasteneth, and scourgeth every whom he receiveth.

7 ^l If ye endure chastening, dealeth with you as with sons; what son is he whom the fa chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chast ment, ^m whereof all are partak then are ye bastards, and not son

9 Furthermore we have had fa of our flesh which corrected and we gave them reverence: s not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live?

For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous:
nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.

Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

And make straight paths for our feet, lest that which is lame be tripped out of the way: but let it there be healed.

Follow with all men, and kindness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God;
lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

Lest there be any fornicator, profane person, as E'sau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected:
for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.

For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:

For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust rough with a dart:

And so terrible was the sight, that Mo'ses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

25 See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on cape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:

26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let

CHAPTER 13.

1 Divers admonitions, as to charity, 4 to honest life, 5 to avoid covetousness, 7 to regard God's preachers, 9 to beware of strange doctrines, 10 to confess Christ, 16 to give alms, &c. 20 The conclusion.

LET d brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable in all,
and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do unto me.

7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conversation.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JAMES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 We are to rejoice under the cross, 5 to ask patience of God, 13 and in our trials not to impute our weakness, or sins, unto him, 19 but rather to hearken to the word, and to do thereafter.

^aJAMES, ^ba servant of God and of the Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, ^cto the twelve tribes ^dwhich are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, ^ecount it all joy ^fwhen ye fall into divers temptations;

3 ^gKnowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have ^hher perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 ⁱIf any of you lack wisdom, ^jlet him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth ^aand ^bit shall be given him.

6 ^cBut let him ask in faith, without wavering. For he that wavereth ^dlike a wave of the sea driven of the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think he shall receive any thing of ^eLord.

8 ^fA double minded man ^gis unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree ^hrejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is ⁱlow: because ^jas the flower of grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner ^kwith a burning heat, but it with h the grass, and the flower thereof leth, and the grace of the fashion an fade away in his ways.

2 ¹Blessed is the man that en-reth temptation: for when he is led, he shall receive ⁴the crown of e, ⁵which the Lord hath promised them that love him.

3 Let no man say when he is mpted, I am tempted of God: for od cannot be tempted with ²evil, ither tempteth he any man:

4 But every man is tempted, hen he is drawn away of his own st, and enticed.

5 Then ¹when lust hath convived, it bringeth forth sin: and er shadow of turning.

nto a man beholding his natural tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, their affliction, ²and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2.

1 It is not agreeable to Christian profession to regard the rich, and to despise the poor: 13 but rather to be loving, and merciful: 14 not to boast of faith where no deeds are, 17 which is but a dead faith, 19 the faith of devils, 21 not of Abraham, &c.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jē'-sūs Christ, ¹the Lord of glory, with ²respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your ³as-sembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here ⁴in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, ²Hath not God chosen the poor of this world ³rich in faith, and heirs of ⁴the kingdom ⁵which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ²ye have despised the poor.
Do not rich men oppress you, ³and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, ²Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ³ye do well:

9 But ¹if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, ²he is guilty of all.

11 For ¹he that said, ²Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill.
Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by ³the law of liberty.

13 For ²he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and ¹mercy ²rejoiceth against judgment.

14 ¹What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 ¹If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

16 And ¹one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?

17 Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being ¹alone.

18 Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith ¹without thy works, ²and I will shew thee my faith by my works.

19 Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: ¹the devils also believe, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?

21 Was not Ā'-brā-hām our father justified by works, ¹when he had offered Ī'-śāac his son upon the altar?

22 ¹Seest thou ²how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, ¹Ā'-brā-hām believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and he was called ¹the Friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 Likewise also ¹was not Rā'-hāb the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the ¹spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

CHAPTER 3.

¹We are not rashly or arrogantly to reprove others; ⁵but rather to bridle the tongue, a little member, but a powerful instrument of much good and great harm. ¹³The truly wise described.

MY brethren, ¹be not many masters, ²knowing that we shall receive the greater ¹condemnation.

2 For ¹in many things we offend all. ²If any man offend not in word, ¹the same is a perfect man, and also to bridle the whole body.

3 Behold, ¹we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about the whole body.

4 Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are turned about with a very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth.

5 Even so ¹the tongue is a little member, and ²boasteth great things. Behold, how great ³a matter a little fire kindleth!

6 And ¹the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the ²course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For every ¹kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of ²mankind:

8 But the tongue can no man tame; ¹it is an unruly evil, ²full of deadly poison.

9 Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith curse we men, ¹which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doth a fountain send forth at the same ²place sweet water and bitter?

12 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh.

13 ¹Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation ²his works ³with meekness of wisdom.

14 But if ye have ¹bitter envy and strife in your hearts, ²a glory not and lie not against the truth.

15 ¹This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, ²sensual, devilish.

16 For ¹where envying and strife is, there is ²confusion and every evil work.

17 But ¹the wisdom that is first above is first pure, then peaceable gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace of them that make peace.

CHAPTER 4.

Ye are to strive against covetousness, 4 intemperance, 5 pride, 11 detraction, &c.: 15 and, mindful of the uncertainty of this life, to commit ourselves and all our affairs to God's providence.

FROM whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members?

2 Ye lust, and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.

3 Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?

6 But he giveth more grace. Therefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy to heaviness.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: who wilt thou that judgest another?

13 Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy and sell, and get gain:

CHAPTER 5.

1 Wicked rich men are to fear God's vengeance. 7 Of patience under affliction. 13 We ought to pray in adversity, 16 to acknowledge mutually our several faults, and to pray one for another.

GO to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.

2 Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last days.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the Lord of sabaoth.

5 Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.

7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.

8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

9 Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.

10 Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.

11 Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of 'the patience of Jōb, and have seen

 'the end of the Lord; that 'the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.

12 But above all things, my brethren,
 'swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? 'let him sing psalms.

14 Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, 'anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; 'and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF

PĒ'-TĒR.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Peter blesseth God for his manifold spiritual graces: 10 shewing that salvation in Christ was prophesied of old: 13 and exhorteth them accordingly to godliness.

PĒ'-TĒR, an apostle of Jē'-šūs Christ, to the strangers 'scattered throughout Pōn'-tūs, Gā-lā'- tiā, Cāp-pā-dō'-cī-ā, Ā'-sīā, and Bī'- thyn'-iā,

2 'Elect 'according to the fore-knowledge of God the Father,
 'through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and 'sprinkling of the blood of Jē'-šūs Christ: 'Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 'Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ, which 'according to his 'abundant mercy
 'hath begotten us again unto a lively hope 'by the resurrection of Jē'-šūs Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, 'reserved in heaven 'for
 you,

5 'Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 'Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now 'for a season, if need be, pocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings,

2 ^aAs newborn babes, desire the sincere ^amilk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have ^atasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming, as unto a living stone, ^adisallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 ^aYe also, as lively stones, ^aare built up ^aa spiritual house, ^aan holy priesthood, to offer up ^aspiritual sacrifices, ^aacceptable to God by Jē'-sūs Christ.

6 Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, ^aBehold, I lay in Sī'-on a chief corner stone, elect, precious:
and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which believe he is ^aprecious: but unto them which be disobedient, ^athe stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,

8 ^aAnd a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, ^aeven to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: ^awhereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are ^aa chosen generation,
^ka royal priesthood, ^aan holy nation, ^ma peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the ^apraises of him who hath called you out of ^adarkness into his marvellous light:

10 ^aWhich in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you ^aas strangers and pilgrims, ^aabstain from fleshly lusts, ^awhich war against the soul;

12 ^aHaving your conversation honest among the Gēn'-tīles: that, ^awhereas they speak against you as evildoers, ^athey may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.

13 ^aSubmit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme;

14 Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him ^afor the punishment of evildoers, and ^afor the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that ^awith well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 ^aAs free, and not ²using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as ^bthe servants of God.

17 ^aHonour all men. ^aLove the brotherhood. ^aFear God. Honour the king.

18 ^aServants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

19 For this is ^athankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is ^aacceptable with God.

21 For ^aeven hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered ^afor us, ^aleaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 ^aWho did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 ^aWho, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but ^acommitted himself to him that judgeth righteously:

24 ^aWho his own self bare our sins in his own body ^aon the tree, ^athat we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: ^aby whose stripes ye were healed.

25 For ^aye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned ^aunto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The duty of wives and husbands. 8 Exhortation to unity and love. 19 Christ's benefits of old time.

LIKewise, ^aye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, ^athey also may without the word ^abe won by the conversation of the wives;

2 ^aWhile they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear.

3 ^aWhose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel;

4 But let it be ^athe hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 For after this manner in the time the holy women also, ^atrusted in God, adorned themselves in subjection unto their husbands:

6 Even as Sâr-ä obeyed Ä-I häm, ^acalling him lord: ^awhom ^adaughters ye are, as long as ye well, and are not afraid with amazement.

7 ^aLikewise, ye husbands, ^ado with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, unto the weaker vessel, and as be heirs together of the grace of ^alife: ^athat your prayers be not hindered.

8 Finally, ^abe ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another: ^alove as brethren, ^abe pitiful and courteous:

9 ^aNot rendering evil for evil, railing for railing: but contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are ^athereunto called, ^athat ye should inherit a blessing.

10 For ^ahe that will love life, see good days, ^alet him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips from guile:

11 Let him ^aeschew evil, and do good; ^alet him seek peace, and ensue it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, ^aand his ears are open unto their prayers: but ^athe face of the Lord is ^aagainst them that do evil.

13 ^aAnd who is he that will be just, if ye be followers of that which is good?

14 ^aBut and if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: ^abe not afraid of their terror, ^aneither be troubled;

15 But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and ^abe ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and ^afeared.

16 ^aHaving a good conscience, ^athat, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ.

17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil doing.

18 For Christ also hath ^asuffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us

l, 'being put to death ^bin the h, but ^dquickened by the Spirit:
By which also he went and eached unto the spirits ^ein
son;

Which sometime were disobe-at, 'when once the long suffering God waited in the days of Nō'-āh, le "the ark was a preparing, herein few, that is, eight souls
re saved by water.

'The like figure whereunto even tism doth also now save us (not putting away of 'the filth of the h, 'but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) "by the resurrection of Jē'-sūs Christ:

Who is gone into heaven, and on the right hand of God;
angels and authorities and powers
all made subject unto him.

CHAPTER 4.

*Exhorteth them to cease from sin by the example
Christ, and the approaching end of all things.*

ORASMUCH then 'as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, a yourselves likewise with the e mind: for ^dhe that hath suffer-n the flesh hath ceased from sin;
'That he no longer ^eshould live rest of his time in the flesh to lusts of men, 'but to the will of l.

^kFor the time past of our life
y suffice us "to have wrought will of the Gēn'-tīlēs, when we ked in lasciviousness, lusts, ex-of wine, revellings, banquetings, abominable idolatries:
Wherein they think it strange t ye run not with them to the e excess of riot, 'speaking evil
you:

Who shall give account to him
t is ready 'to judge the quick the dead.

For for this cause "was the gos-preached also to them that are i, that they might be judged ording to men in the flesh, but according to God in the spirit.
But 'the end of all things is at d: 'be ye therefore sober, and ch unto prayer.

'And above all things have ent charity among yourselves: ^dcharity "shall cover the multi-e of sins.

'Use hospitality one to another hout grudging.

God: and 'if it first begin at us, ^pwhat shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?

18 'And if the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer mit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

CHAPTER 5.

1 The elders exhorted to feed their flocks, 5 the younger to obey, 8 and all to be sober and watchful.

THE elders which are among you
I exhort, who am also 'an elder, and ^ba witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also 'a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 'Feed the flock of God ^ywhich is among you, taking the oversight thereof, ^anot by constraint, but willingly; *not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind;

3 Neither as ²being lords over *God's heritage, but ¹being ensamples to the flock.

4 And when ^athe chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive ^aa crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves unto the elder. Yea, *all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for *God resisteth the proud, and *giveth grace to the humble.

6 *Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:

7 *Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

8 *Be sober, be vigilant; because ^ayour adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:

⁵ He exhorteth them to make their calling and election sure: ¹² whereof he is careful to remind them, knowing that his death is at hand.

^a SĪ-MON Pē'-tēr, a servant and an apostle of Jē'-sūs Christ, to them that have obtained ^blike precious faith with us through the righteousness ^cof God and our Saviour Jē'-sūs Christ:

² ^dGrace and peace be multiplied unto you through the knowledge of God, and of Jē'-sūs our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him ^ethat hath called us ^fto glory and virtue:

4 ^gWhereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be ^hpartakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.

5 And beside this, ⁱgiving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue ^jknowledge; with the filthy conversation of the wicked:

8 (For that righteous man dwelling among them, ^oin seeing and from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)

9 ^rThe Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished:

10 But chiefly ^tthem that walk after the flesh in the lust of un-cleanness, and despise ^zgovernment.
^aPresumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.

11 Whereas ^aangels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation ^aagainst them before the Lord.

12 But these, ^bas natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;

13 ^cAnd shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure ^dto riot in the day time. ^eSpots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while ^kthey feast with
you;

14 Having eyes full of ^aadultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: ^aan heart practices; cursed children:

15 Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of ^rBā'-lāam the son of Bō'-sōr, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;

16 But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet.

17 ^c These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

18 For when ^e they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that ^a were ³ clean escaped from them who live in error.

19 While they promise them ^k liberty, they themselves are ^k the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage.

20 For ⁿ if after they ^e have escaped the pollutions of the world ^r through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jē-šūs Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.

21 For ⁿ it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them.

22 But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, ^e The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

CHAPTER 3.

1 The certainty of Christ's coming to judgment.
8 He warneth the godly, for the long patience of God, to hasten their repentance. 10 The day of the Lord described.

THIS second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which ^e I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:

2 That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, ^a and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Saviour:

3 ^e Knowing this first, that these shall come in the last days scoffers, ^e walking after their own lusts,

4 And saying, ⁿ Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.

8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is as the Lord as a thousand years, ^a a thousand years as one day.

9 ^m The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but ^p is longsuffering to us-ward, ⁿ not willing that any should perish, but ^t that all should come to repentance.

10 But ^e the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which ^u the heavens shall pass with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, earth also and the works that therein shall be burned up.

the person of Christ described, in whom we have eternal life. 5 We must walk in the light.

THAT ^b which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the word of life;

(For ^c the life ^a was manifested, and we have seen it, ^k and bear wit-

That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us:
and truly ^c our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jē'-šūs Christ.

And these things write we unto you, ^c that your joy may be full.

That then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that ^b God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:

But if we walk in the light, as is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and ^a the word of Jē'-šūs Christ his Son cleans-eth us from all sin.

If we say that we have no sin,
we deceive ourselves, "and the truth is not in us.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to ^c cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

not. And if any man sin, ^a we have an advocate with the Father, Jē'-šūs Christ the righteous:

2 And ^a he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for our's only, but ^a also for the sins of the whole world.

3 And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his command-

4 He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, ^a is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

5 But ^a whose keepeth his word, ^a in him verily is the love of God perfected: ^a hereby know we that we are in him.

6 He that saith he abideth in him
^a ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.

7 Brethren, ^a I write no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment ^a which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

8 Again, ^a a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: ^a because the darkness is past, and ^a the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness
even until now.

10 He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and ^a there is none ^a occasion of stumbling in him.

11 But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and ^a walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

12 I write unto you, little children, because ^a your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him ^a that is from young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ^c ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 ^f Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. ^g If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, ^k and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And ⁱ the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.

18 ^o Little children, ^p it is the last time: and as ye have heard that ^q an-ti-christ shall come, ^r even now are there many an-ti-christs; whereby we know ^s that it is the last time.

19 ^v They went out from us, but they were not of us; for ^a if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, ^c that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

20 But ^d ye have an unction ^e from the Holy One, and ^f ye know all things.

21 I have not written unto you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 ^m Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jē-sūs is the Christ? He is an-ti-christ, that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 ^p Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: [but] ^q he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you, ^r which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ^s ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 ^t And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things have I written unto you, ^u concerning them that seduce you.

27 But ^v the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and 29 ^f If ye know that he is righteous, ^g ye know that ^h every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

CHAPTER 3.

The singular love of God in making us his sons

BEHOLD, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that ^a we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, ^b because it knoweth him not.

2 Beloved, ^c now are we the sons of God, and ^d it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, ^e we shall be like him; for ^f we shall see him as he is.

3 ^g And every man that hath hoped in him purifieth himself, ^h as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for ⁱ sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know ^j that he was manifested ^k to take away our sins; and ^l in him is no sin.

6 Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: ^m whosoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, ⁿ let no man deceive you: ^o he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 ^p He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, ^q that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 ^r Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for ^s his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: ^t whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, ^u neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For ^v this is the ^w message that heard from the beginning, ^a that e should love one another.

2 Not as ^b Cain, who was of that cked one, and slew his brother.
d wherefore slew he him? Because s own works were evil, and his other's righteous.
3 Marvel not, my brethren, if ^c the rld hate you.
4 ^d We know that we have passed om death unto life, because we ve the brethren. ^e He that lov-not ^f his brother abideth in ath.
5 ^g Whosoever hateth his brother a murderer: and ye know that ^h no urderer hath eternal life abiding
him.
6 ⁱ Hereby perceive we the love of d, because he laid down his life us: and we ought to lay down
r lives for the brethren.
7 But ^j whoso hath this world's od, and seeth his brother have ed, and shutteth up his bowels of mpassion from him, ^k how dwell-n the love of God in him?
8 My little children, ^l let us not ve in word, neither in tongue; but deed and in truth.
And hereby we know ^m that we e of the truth, and shall ⁿ assure r hearts before him.
9 ^o For if our heart condemn us, d is greater than our heart, and oweth all things.
1 ^p Beloved, if our heart condemn not, ^q then have we confidence ward God.
2 And ^r whatsoever we ask, we eive of him, because we keep his nmandments, ^s and do those things
t are pleasing in his sight.
3 ^t And this is his commandment, at we should believe on the name his Son Jē'-sūs Christ, ^u and love e another, ^v as he gave us comndment.
4 And ^w he that keepeth his com-ndments ^x dwelleth in him, and in him. And ^y hereby we know t he abideth in us, by the Spirit ich he hath given us.

false prophets are gone out into the world.
2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: ^a Every spirit that confesseth that Jē'-sūs Christ is come in the flesh is of God:
3 And ^b every spirit that confesseth not that Jē'-sūs Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of ān'-tī-christ, whereof ye have heard that it should come;
and ^c even now already is it in the world.
4 ^d Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than ^e he that is in the world.
5 ^f They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and ^g the world heareth them.
6 We are of God: ^h he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we ⁱ the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
7 ^j Beloved, let us love one another:
for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.
8 He that loveth not ^k knoweth not God; for ^l God is love.
9 ^m In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, ⁿ that we might live through
him.
10 Herein is love, ^o not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son ^p to be the propitiation for our sins.
11 Beloved, ^q if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.
12 ^r No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and ^s his love is perfected in us.
13 ^t Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
14 And ^u we have seen and do testify that ^v the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.
15 ^w Whosoever shall confess that Jē'-sūs is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.
16 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. ^x God is love; and ^y he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is ^a our love made perfect, that ^b we may have boldness in the day of judgment: ^c because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth ^d is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 ^a If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God ^m whom he hath not seen?

21 And ⁿ this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

CHAPTER 5.

1 He that loveth God loveth his children, and keepeth his commandments, which are light, and not grievous. 6 The witnesses of our faith.

WHOSOEVER ^a believeth that ^b Jē-sūs is the Christ is ^c born of God: ^d and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

3 ^a For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and ^b his commandments are not grievous.

4 For ^a whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but ^a he that believeth that Jē-sūs is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came ^a by water and blood, even Jē-sūs Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. ^a And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, ^m the Word, and the Holy Ghost: ⁿ and these three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JÖHN.

exhorteth a certain honourable matron, with her children, to persevere in Christian love and belief.

THE elder unto the elect lady and her children, 'whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also they that have known 'the truth; For the truth's sake, which dwell in us, and shall be with us for ever.

'Grace 'be with you, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jē'sūs Christ, the Son of the Father, 'in truth and love.

I rejoiced greatly that I found of my children 'walking in truth, as I have received a commandment from the Father.

And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that which I had from the beginning, 'that we love one another.

And 'this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, 'as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JÖHN.

commendeth Gaius for his piety, 5 and hospitality: 9 complaining of ambitious Diotrephes, &c.

THE elder unto the wellbeloved Gái'üs, 'whom I love 'in the truth.

Beloved, I 'wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF

JUDE.

He exhorteth them to constancy in the faith, ⁴seeing false teachers are crept in to seduce them: for whom a terrible punishment is prepared.

JUDE, the servant of Jē'-šūs Christ, and ^cbrother of Jāmeš, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and ^dpreserved in Jē'-šūs Christ, and ^ecalled:

2 Mercy unto you, and ^apeace, and love, be multiplied.

3 Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you ^kof the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ^lye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints.

4 ^eFor there are certain men crept in unawares, ^fwho were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, ^gturning ^hthe grace of our God into lasciviousness, and ⁱdenying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jē'-šūs Christ.

5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that ^bthe Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Ē'-gypt, afterward ^cdestroyed them that believed not.

6 And ^dthe angels which kept not their ^efirst estate, but left their own habitation, ^fhe hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness ^gunto the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as ^hSōd'-om and Gō-mōr'-rhā, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after ⁱstrange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.

8 ^jLikewise also these filthy dream-

THE REVELATION

OF

ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

CHAPTER 1.

John writeth his revelation to the seven churches of Asia. ¹ The coming of Christ. ¹⁴ His glorious power and majesty.

THE Revelation of Jē'-sūs Christ, ^a which God gave unto him, to show unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass ; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant Jōhn :

^b Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jē'-sūs Christ, and of all things ^c that he saw.
^d Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein : for ^e the time is at hand.

JōHN to the seven churches which are in A'-sīā : Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and ^a which was, and which is to come ; ^b and from the seven Spirits which are before his throne ;

And from Jē'-sūs Christ, ^c who is the faithful witness, and the ^d first-born of the dead, and ^e the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto ^f him that loved us, ^g and washed us from our sins in his own blood,

And hath ^h made us kings and priests unto God and his Father ; unto him be glory and dominion forever and ever. A'-mēn.

7 ^a Behold, he cometh with clouds ; and every eye shall see him, and ^b they also which pierced him : and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, A'-mēn.

8 ^a I am A'-l'-phā and Ō-mēg'-ā, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, ^b which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty.

9 I Jōhn, who also am your brother, and ^c companion in tribulation, and ^d in the kingdom and patience of Jē'-sūs Christ, was in the isle that is called Pāt'-mōs, ^e for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jē'- sūs Christ.

10 ^a I was in the Spirit on ^b the Lord's day, and heard behind me
^c a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, ^a I am A'-l'-phā and Ōmēg'-ā, ^b the first and the last ; and,
What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in A'-sīā ; unto Ēph'-ē-sūs, and unto Smȳr'-nā, and unto Pēr-gā-mōs, and unto Thȳ'-ā-tī'-rā, and unto Sār'-dīs, and unto Phil'-ā-dēl'- phī'-ā, and unto Lā-ōd-i-cē'-ā.

12 And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, ^a I saw seven golden candlesticks ;

13 ^a And in the midst of the seven candlesticks ^b one like unto the Son of man, * clothed with a garment down to the foot, and ^b girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head and ^c his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and ^d his eyes were as a flame of fire;

15 And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and ^e his voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and ^f out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

17 And ^g when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And ^h he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; ⁱ I am the first and the last:

18 ^j I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, ^k I am alive for evermore, ^l Ā'mēn; and ^m have the keys of hell and of death.

19 Write the things which thou hast seen, ⁿ and the things which are, ^o and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are ^p the angels of the seven churches: and ^q the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2.

What is commanded to be written to the angels, that is, the ministers of the churches.

UNTO the angel of the church of Ēph'ē-sūs write; These things saith ^r he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, ^s who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 ^t I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and ^u thou hast tried them ^v which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars:

3 And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast ^w not fainted.

4 Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; ^x or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicō-tānes, which I also hate.

7 ^{fa} He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give ^{fb} to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And unto the angel of the church in Smȳr'-nā write; These things saith ^{fc} the first and the last, who was dead, and is alive;

9 I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art ^{fd} rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jēws, are not, ^{fe} but are the synagogue of Sā'-tān.

10 ^{ff} Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; ye shall have tribulation ten days: ^{fg} be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee ^{fh} a crown of life.

11 ^{fi} He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh shall not be hurt of ^{fj} the second death.

12 And to the angel of the church in Pēr'-gā-mōs write; These things saith ^{fk} he which hath the sharp sword with two edges;

13 I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Sā'-tān seat is: and thou holdest fast his name, and hast not denied his faith, even in those days when Ān'-ti-pās was my faithful martyr who was slain among you, where Sā'-tān dwelleth.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of ^{fl} Bā'-lā, who taught Bā'-lāc to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Is'-rā-ēl, ^{fm} to eat things sacrificed unto idols, ^{fn} and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicō-tānes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and ^{fo} will remove against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh I will give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it.

18 And unto the angel of the church in Thy-ā-ti-rā write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;

19 I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last shall be more than the first.

20 Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jez'-ē-bēl, which calleth herself a prophetess, and teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto all that rest in Thy-ā-ti-rā, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Sā'-tan, as they speak; I will put upon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations:

27 And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the morning star.

29 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAPTER 3.

What John was commanded to write to the churches of 1 Sardis, 7 Philadelphia, 15 Laodicea.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sār'-dis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sār'-dis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Phīl-ā-dēl'-phī-ā write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of Dā'-vid, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and he that shutteth, and no man openeth;

8 I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it; for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Sā'-tān, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, ^a I come quickly: ^b hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take ^c thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh will I make ^a a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and ^b I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is 'new Jē-rū'-sā-lēm, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: ^c and I will write upon him my new name.

13 ^a He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

14 And unto the angel of the church ^a of the Lā-ōd-i-cē-āns write; ^b These things saith the Ḍ'-mēn, ^c the faithful and true witness, ^d the beginning of the creation of God;

15 ^a I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.

16 So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.

17 Because thou sayest, ^a I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

18 I counsel thee ^a to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and ^b white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see.

19 ^a As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.

20 Behold, ^a I stand at the door, and knock: ^b if any man hear my voice, and open the door, ^c I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that overcometh ^a will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

AFTER this I looked, and, behold, ^a a door was opened in heaven, and ^b the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, ^c Come hither, ^d and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately ^a I was in spirit; and, behold, ^b a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: ^a and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 ^a And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, ^b clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded ^a lightnings and thunderings and voices: ^b and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are ^c the seven Spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was ^a a sea of glass like unto crystal: ^b and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes before the throne.

7 ^a And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them ^a six wings about him; ^b and they were full of eyes within: ^c and ^d they rest not day and night, saying, ^e Holy, holy, holy, ^f Lord God Almighty, ^g which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts gave glory and honour and thanks unto him that sat on the throne, ^a he liveth for ever and ever,

11 ^a Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: ^b for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAPTER 5.

The book sealed with seven seals, 9 which only the Lamb that was slain is worthy to open.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

And I saw a strong angel promising with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon.

And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open and read the book, neither to look thereon.

And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Jû-dâ, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

And I beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.

And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.

And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints.

And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation;

And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.

And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

CHAPTER 6.

The opening of the seals in order, &c., containing a prophecy to the end of the world.

AND I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, ^ato kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, ^band with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under ^dthe altar ^ethe souls of them that were slain ^ffor the word of God, and for ^gthe testimony which they held:

10 And they cried with a loud voice, saying, ^hHow long, O Lord, ⁱholy and true, ^jdost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And ^kwhite robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, ^lthat they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, ^mand, lo, there was a great earthquake; and ⁿthe sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 ^oAnd the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her ^puntimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 ^qAnd the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and ^revery mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, ^shid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 ^tAnd said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 ^uFor the great day of his wrath is come; ^vand who shall be able to stand?

CHAPTER 7.

³ An angel scaleth the servants of God in their foreheads. 4, 9 The number of them that were sealed.

AND after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, ^kholding the four winds of the earth, ^lthat the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ^cHurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, we have ^dsealed the servants of God ^ein their foreheads.

4 ^fAnd I heard the number of them which were sealed: and ^gthey were sealed ^han hundred and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Is'-ra-él.

5 Of the tribe of Ju'-dā were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reu'-bēn were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, ^aof all nations, and dreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, ^bclothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 And cried with a loud voice, saying, ^cSalvation to our God ^dsitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb.

10 And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;

11 "And the name of the star is part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I beheld, "and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice,
"Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabiters of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

CHAPTER 9.

1 The fifth angel soundeth: a star falleth from heaven. 12 The first woe past: the sixth trumpet soundeth.

AND the fifth angel sounded, "and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of "the bottomless pit.

2 And he opened the bottomless pit; "and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, "as the scorpions of the earth have power.

4 And it was commanded them
"that they should not hurt "the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not "the seal of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them it was given that they should not kill them, "but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he strieth a man.

6 And in those days "shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 And ^bthe shapes of the locusts were like unto horses prepared unto battle; ^cand on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, ^dand their faces were as the faces of men.

8 And they had hair as the hair of women, and ^etheir teeth were as the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates of iron; and the sound of their wings was ^fas the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

10 And they had tails like unto scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: ^gand their power was to hurt men five months.

11 ^hAnd they had a king over them, which is ⁱthe angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hē'-brēw tongue is A-bād'-dōn, but in the Grēek tongue hath his name ^jĀ-pōl'-lŷ-on.

12 ^kOne woe is past; ^land, behold, there come two woes more hereafter.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,

14 Saying to the sixth angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound ^min the great river Eū-phrā'-tēs.

15 And the four angels were loosed, which were prepared ⁿfor an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, for to slay the third part of men.

16 And ^othe number of the army ^pof the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: ^qand I heard the number of them.

17 And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: ^rand the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke and brimstone.

18 By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.

19 For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: ^sfor their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.

CHAPTER 10.

1 The angel with the book. 6 He sweareth by him that liveth for ever, that time shall be no more.

AND I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: ^{ay}and a rainbow upon his head, and ^{az}his face was as it were the sun, and ^{ba}his feet were pillars of fire:

2 And he had in his hand a little book open: ^{bb}and he set his right foot upon the sea, and ^{bc}his left foot on the earth,

3 And cried with a loud voice, when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, ^{bd}seven thunders uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, ^{be}Seal those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.

5 And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth, ^{bf}lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And sware by him that liveth for ever and ever, ^{bg}who created heaven and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, ^{bh}that there should be time no longer:

7 But ^{bi}in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And ^{bj}the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again and said, Go ^{bk}and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, ^{bl}Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make my belly bitter, but it shall be in my mouth sweet as honey.

And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up;
and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten my belly was bitter.
And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

angel stood, saying, ^b'Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

But ^c'the court which is without entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them.

12 And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. ⁱ'And they ascended up to heaven ^j'in a cloud; ^k'and their enemies beheld them.

opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and ^{ad}'there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, ^{ae}'and great hail.

CHAPTER 12.

1 A woman clothed with the sun travaileth. 9 The great red dragon is cast out of heaven.

AND there appeared a great ²wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:

2 And she being with child cried, ³'travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

3 And there appeared another ⁴wonder in heaven; and behold ⁵a great red dragon, ⁶'having seven heads and ten horns, ⁷'and seven crowns upon his heads.

4 And ⁸his tail drew the third part ⁹'of the stars of heaven, ¹⁰'and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood ¹¹'before the woman which was ready ¹²'to be delivered, ¹³'for to devour her child as soon as it was born.

5 And she brought forth a man child, ¹⁴'who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and ¹⁵to his throne.

6 And ¹⁶the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there ¹⁷'a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

7 And there was war in heaven: ¹⁸'Mi'-chā-ēl and his angels fought ¹⁹'against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And ²⁰the great dragon was cast out, ²¹'that old serpent, called the Devil, and Sā'-tān, ²²'which deceiveth the whole world: ²³'he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, ²⁴'Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our ²⁵God, and the power of his ²⁶Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, ²⁷'which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And ²⁸'they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; ²⁹'and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore ³⁰'rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. ³¹'Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down

15 And the serpent ¹¹'cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, ¹'and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, ²'which keep the commandments of God, and have ³the testimony of Jē-Christ.

CHAPTER 13.

1 A beast riseth out of the sea: 11 another cometh out of the earth. 18 The number of the beast

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw ¹'a beast rise out of the sea, ²'having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads ³'name of blasphemy.

2 ⁴'And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, ⁵'and his feet were as ⁶the feet of a bear, ⁷'and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: ⁸'and the dragon gave him his power, ⁹'and his seat, ¹⁰'and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads ¹'as it were ²wounded to death; and ³his deadly wound was healed: and ⁴the world wondered after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, ¹'saying, ²'Who is like unto the beast, who is able to make war with him?

5 And there was given unto him ¹'a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him ²'to continue ³'forty and two months.

6 And he opened his mouth to blaspheme his name, ¹'and his tab cle, and them that dwell in aven.

And it was given unto him ^ato ake war with the saints, and to ercome them: ^cand power was ven him over all kindreds, and ngues, and nations.

And all that dwell upon the earth
all worship him, ^fwhose names

¹⁰ He that leadeth into captivity all go into captivity: ^ahe that kill-h with the sword must be killed
th the sword. ^pHere is ^bthe pae and the faith of the saints.

1 And I beheld another beast oming up out of the earth; and e had two horns like a lamb, and e spake as a dragon.

2 And he exerciseth all the power the first beast before him, and useth the earth and them which vell therein to worship the first ast, ^awhose deadly wound was aled.

3 And ^ahe doeth great wonders, that he maketh fire come down om heaven on the earth in the ght of men,

4 And ^adeceiveth them that dwell iracles which he had power to do the sight of the beast; saying to em that dwell on the earth, that ey should make an image to the ast, which had the wound by a ord, ^hand did live.

5 And he had power to give ^alife to the image of the beast, that the age of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would ot worship the image of the beast ould be killed.

CHAPTER 14.

1 The Lamb standing on mount Sion. 8 The fall of Babylon. 15 The harvest of the world.

AND I looked, and, lo, ^ba Lamb stood on the mount Si'-on, and with him ^dan hundred forty and four thousand, ^ehaving his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, ^gas the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of ^hharpers harping with their harps:

3 And ⁱthey sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song ^jbut the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; ^kfor they are virgins. These are they ^lwhich follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These ^mwere redeemed from among men, ⁿbeing the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And ^oin their mouth was found no guile: for ^pthey are without fault before the throne of God.

6 And I saw another angel ^qfly in the midst of heaven, ^rhaving the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, ^sand to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voice, ^tFear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: ^uand worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.

8 And there followed another angel, saying, ^vBăb'-y'-lon is fallen, is fallen, ^wthat great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, ^xIf any man worship the beast and his image, and receive ^yhis mark in his forehead, or in his hand,

10 The same ^zshall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is ^a'poured out without mixture into ^b'the cup of his indignation; and ^che shall be tormented with ^d'fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

11 And ^athe smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

12 ^aHere is the patience of the saints: ^ahere are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jē'-šūs.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, ^aBlessed are the dead ^mwhich die in the Lord ³from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, ^athat they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them.

14 And I looked, and behold a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat ^alike unto the Son of man, ^ahaving on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another angel ^acame out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, ^aThrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest ^aof the earth is ^aripe.

16 And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel came out from the altar, ^awhich had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, ^aThrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.

19 And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast ^ait into ^athe great winepress of the wrath of God.

20 And ^athe winepress was trodden ^awithout the city, and blood came out of the winepress, ^aeven unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

2 And I saw as it were ^aa sea of glass ^amingled with fire: and they that had gotten the victory over the beast, ^aand over his image, and his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass ^ahaving the harps of God.

3 And they sing ^athe song of Moyses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, ^aGreat and marvellous are thy works, O God Almighty; ^ajust and true are thy ways, thou King of ^asaints.

4 ^aWho shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? ^athou only art holy: for ^aall nations shall come and worship before thee: for thy judgments are made manifest.

5 And after that I looked, and behold, ^athe temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven opened:

6 ^aAnd the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, ^aclothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 ^aAnd one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, ^athat they should live for ever and ever.

8 And ^athe temple was filled with smoke ^afrom the glory of God, and no man was able to enter into the temple, for the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

CHAPTER 16.

2 The angels pour out their vials: the plagues follow. 15 Christ cometh as a thief.

AND I heard a great voice out of the temple saying ^ato the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour the vials ^aof the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and poured out his vial ^aupon the earth; ^athere fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men ^awhich had the mark of the beast, and upon ^athem which worshipped his image.

3 And the second angel poured his vial ^aupon the sea; and ^ait came as the blood of a dead man: ^aand every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third angel poured his vial ^aupon the rivers and of waters; and they became good.

And I heard the angel of the waters say, ^dThou art righteous, O Lord, ^fwhich art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou hast judged us.

For ^athey have shed the blood of saints and prophets, ^kand thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, ^aLord God Almighty, ^ptrue and righteous are thy judgments.

And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire.

And men were ²scorched with great heat, and ^ablasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not ^ato give him glory.

And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

And ^fblasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.

And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, ^pthat the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

And I saw three unclean ^aspirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.

For they are the spirits of devils, ^aworking miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to ^athe battle of that great day of God Almighty.

⁵Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.

And he gathered them together unto a place called in the Hebrew tongue Ar-ma-géd-don.

And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple

19 And ⁱthe great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Bāb'-y-lon came in remembrance before God, ^oto give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.

20 And ^aevery island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

CHAPTER 17

3 A woman arrayed in purple and scarlet, &c. 9 The interpretation. 14 The victory of the Lamb.

AND there came ^aone of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; ^aI will shew unto thee the judgment of ^athe great whore ⁱthat sitteth upon many waters:

2 ^aWith whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and ^athe inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit ^ainto the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit ^aupon a scarlet coloured beast, full of ^anames of blasphemy, ^ahaving seven heads and ^bten horns.

4 And the woman ^awas arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and ^adecked with gold and precious stones and pearls, ^ahaving a golden cup in her hand ^afull of abominations and filthiness of her fornication:

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, ^mMYSTERY, BĀB'-Y-LON ^oTHE GREAT, ^pTHE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw ^athe woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of ^athe martyrs of Jē'-šūs: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

13 These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.

15 And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which

CHAPTER 18.

2 Babylon is fallen. 9 The kings of the earth, lament over her. 20 The saints rejoice.

AND after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; the earth was lightened with glory.

2 And he cried mightily with strong voice, saying, Bāb'-y-lon that great is fallen, is fallen, and shall become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and cage of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 For all nations have drunk the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.

5 For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

6 Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill her double.

7 How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.

9 And the kings of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning.

10 Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Bāb'-y-lon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

11 And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for

CHAPTER 19.

1 God is praised in her for his righteous judgments. 7 The marriage of the Lamb.

AND after these things ¹I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, ¹Āl-lē-lū-¹ĭă; ¹Salvation, and glory, and honour, and power, unto the Lord our God:

2 For ²true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and ²hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

3 And again they said, ³Āl-lē-lū-³ĭă.
And ³her smoke rose up for ever and ever.

4 And ⁴the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on the throne, saying, ⁴Ā'-mĕn; ⁴Āl-lē-lū-⁴ĭă.

5 And a voice came out of the throne, saying, ⁵Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, ⁵both small and great.

6 ⁶And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, ⁶Āl-lē-lū-⁶ĭă: for ⁶the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.

7 Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for ⁷the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.

8 And ⁸to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and ⁸white: ⁸for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

9 And he saith unto me, Write, ⁹Blessed are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith unto me, ⁹These are the true sayings of God.

10 And ¹⁰I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me,

* See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren^b that have the testimony of Jē'-šūs: worship God: for the testimony of Jē'-šūs is the spirit of prophecy.

11 * And I saw heaven opened, and behold / a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called / Faithful and True, and ^a in righteousness he doth judge and make war.

12 ^a His eyes were as a flame of fire, ^a and on his head were many crowns; ^a and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.

13 * And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called / The Word of God.

14 * And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, / clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

15 And *out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and ^a he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and ^b he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.

16 And ^a he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, / KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

17 And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying ^a to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, 'Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God;

18 ^a That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.

19 * And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

20 * And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and ^a them that worshipped his image. ^a These both were cast alive into a lake of fire ^a burning with brimstone.

21 And the remnant ^b were slain

CHAPTER 20.

2 Satan bound for a thousand years. 6 The first resurrection. 12 The last and general resurrection.

AND I saw an angel come down from heaven, ^a having the key of the bottomless pit and a garb chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on ^a the dragon that old serpent, which is the Devil and Sā'-tān, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and ^a set a seal upon him, ^a that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: ^a after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw ^a thrones, and they upon them, and ^a judgment given unto them: ^a and I saw ^a souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jē'-šūs, and for the word of God, and ^a which had not worshipped the beast, ^a neither image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and ^a reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: such ^a the second death hath no power, but they shall be ^a priests of God and of Christ, ^a and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, ^a Sā'-tān shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 And shall go out ^a to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, ^a Gōg and Mā'-gog ^a to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 * And they went up on the breach of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 * And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of and brimstone, "where the beast and the false prophet are, and "shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

1 And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

2 And I saw the dead, "small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, "according to their works.

3 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

4 And "death and hell were cast to the lake of fire. "This is the second death.

5 And whosoever was not found written in the book of life "was cast to the lake of fire.

CHAPTER 21.

a new heaven and a new earth. 10 The heavenly Jerusalem, with a full description thereof.

ND "I saw a new heaven and a new earth: "for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

And I Jöhn saw "the holy city, w Jě-rû'-să-lēm, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, "the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and "there shall be no more death, "neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

And "he that sat upon the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

And he said unto me, "It is done.

"I am Āl'-phā and Ō-mög'-ā, the beginning and the end. "I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit "all things; and "I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

8 "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in "the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

9 And there came unto me one of "the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee "the bride, the Lamb's wife.

10 And he carried me away "in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me "that great city, the holy Jě-rû'-să-lēm, descending out of heaven from God,

11 "Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal;

12 And had a wall great and high, and had "twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Īs'-rā-ēl:

13 "On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.

14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and "in them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And he that talked with me "had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the height of it are equal.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19^a And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolyte; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.

21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls: every several gate was of one pearl: ^aand the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

22 ^aAnd I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.

23 ^aAnd the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.

24 ^aAnd the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth do bring their glory and honour into it.

25 ^aAnd the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for ^athere shall be no night there.

26 ^aAnd they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.

27 And ^athere shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's ^bbook of life.

AND he shewed me ^aa pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 ^aIn the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there ^mthe tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were ^pfor the healing of the nations.

NOTE.

THE OXFORD CYCLOPÆDIC CONCORDANCE contains a selection of the Oxford Helps to the Study of the Bible, thoroughly revised so as to embody the results of the most recent researches. For the greater convenience of teacher and student the information given in the forty-seven alphabetical lists of the Helps has been rearranged in a single alphabetical order, so that any subject about which information is required may be instantly found in its proper alphabetical place, without the necessity of reference to an index, or of search in a table of contents.

But though the arrangement is that of a Dictionary the CYCLOPÆDIC CONCORDANCE is much more than a word-book, for many of the cyclopædic articles of the Helps are included, each in its alphabetic place, and wherever it is necessary cross references to these are given under the more special entries. For instance, each weight, measure, and coin is entered in its own place in the general alphabetical order, and under each entry a reference is given to the general articles, such as Weights, Measures, or Coins, in which further information will be found. Of the illustrations, some have been taken from the 'Bible Illustrations' which have appeared in recent issues of the Oxford Helps, and nothing has been included that is not authentic beyond all possibility of doubt. The pictures of scenes in Bible Lands are from photographs recently taken by M. Bonfils, and are reproduced with his permission. A new series of maps is included in the volume.

NOTE.—The dates in the left-hand column are from Lewin. Those in the first right-hand column are very nearly in accord with those of Mr. C. H. Turner in Dr. Hastings' Dictionary of the Bible, and not far from the average of the leading authorities. Dates are also given from a number of leading scholars to show the variation of opinions, usually within narrow limits, and that we must be "content with what Harnack describes as relative rather than absolute chronology." The dates of secular events are derived originally from Tacitus, Josephus, and Eusebius. These do not in all cases agree, although there are considerations, such as the different times of beginning the year, which may bring them closer together. But the dates are abundantly accurate for all practical purposes.

Animals of the Bible (MAMMALIA).

In its physical characteristics Palestine is unique, combining the most opposite physical features: e. g., maritime and inland, mountain and plain, luxuriance and desert, cold and tropical, glacial and volcanic, pastoral and arid. Some species of animals, formerly abundant, have disappeared, e. g., the lion, wild bull, rhinoceros, bison; but eighty species of mammalia still exist there.

Grounded on the Rev. W. Houghton's Paper ("Transactions of Society of Biblical Archaeology").

Apostle is from the Greek, meaning 'one who is sent forth, a delegate.' The word is used specially of 'the twelve' (also of St. Paul, Rom. 1. 1; 1 Cor. 9. 1, but also in a wider sense, in which it is applied such men as Matthias, James the Lord's brother, Barnabas, Andronicus and Junias. The first qualification was 'to have seen the Lord,' i. e., to be a witness of the Resurrection; the second, effectual mission work (the signs of an apostle, 2 Cor. 12. 12); divine appointment and commission was also necessary (1 Cor. 12. 28; Eph. 4. 11).

Babylonia and Assyria.

By Babylonia (the plain of Shinar, Gen. 10. 10) is meant the great alluvial district of the lower Euphrates and Tigris, which extends from about 30° to 33° N. lat. Owing probably to the great fertility of its soil, it was from prehistoric times a populous region, and it is now known to have been, with its great capital Babylon, the cradle of the civilization of western Asia. Assyria lies further to the north, to the east of the Tigris, from about 35°-37° N. lat., above the confluence of the Tigris and its tributary, the river Zab. In Gen. 10. 8, it is said that Nimrod Babylonian built the Assyrian capital Nineveh; and modern researches do at least show that the civilization the northern was derived from that of the southern district. The language of both these regions was Semitic, i. e., the races inhabiting them belonged to the same nation of the human race as the Hebrews; but the monuments prove that Babylonia was at a remote period peopled by a non-Semitic race (the Sumerian), from which the cuneiform (wedge-shaped) writing of the early monuments was derived.

During the nineteenth century a world of new knowledge was opened up by the excavation of ancient sites in Assyria and Babylonia, and by the almost miraculous decipherment of the vast stores of cuneiform documents there discovered. One single site, that of Nippur, excavated by the expedition of the University of Pennsylvania, yielded over 20,000 inscriptions and some 25,000 clay tablets.

The cuneiform literature, notably the tablets found in the library of Assurbanipal at Nineveh, throws a remarkable light on the early chapters of Genesis. The Babylonian mythology, we learn, contained an account of creation which, like that of the Hebrews, was divided into seven stages; it contained also the story of a deluge in which one family was saved by an ark, which they did not leave until a dove, a swallow, and a raven had been sent out to see whether they could find dry land. The Babylonian legends contain many rude polytheistic elements, and their moral tone contrasts markedly with that of the narratives in Genesis; but there can be little doubt that in them we have the sources from which Hebrew cosmogony was derived. (For a detailed account see Sayce, Fresh Light from the Ancient Monuments, Ryle, Early Narratives of Genesis.)

The oldest historical record by which the cuneiform literature illustrates the Old Testament history is that relating to the Babylonian king Chammu-rabi (perhaps about 1900 B. C.), who consolidated North and South Babylonia into one kingdom, by overcoming Eri-aku of Larsa. Some scholars identify these rulers with Amraphel, Shinar, and Arioch of Ellasar (Gen. 14. 1-16), who with Chedorlaomer of Elam and Tidal of Gollim were overthrown by Abraham on their return from an expedition against the cities of the Dead Sea; but the identification is not undisputed.

Assyria and Israel. The rise of the Assyrian Empire belongs to the fifteenth and following centuries B. C. Before that time Babylonia had been of relatively great importance; but a remarkable series of tablets unearthed at Tell-el-Amarna in Egypt proves that by about 1430 B. C. Assyria had become so predominant that the Assyrian language and writing were used even in Egypt as the medium of diplomatic correspondence.

In the twelfth century the sway of the Assyrian Tiglath-pileser I. extended as far west as the Phœnician coast, and during the two following centuries internal weakness hindered the expansion of the Assyrian empire, and Rome was left for the growth of the Syrian kingdom and of that of Israel. But in the ninth century the Assyrians began to move southward: it is even possible that Omri, king of Israel, was made tributary to them. Certainly in 854 B. C. Shalmaneser II. overthrew a coalition in which Syria and Israel took a part, and in 842 the same king took tribute from Jehu. From this time onward the policy of Assyria was a continual menace to Israel and Judah, to whom an intermediate state of Syria proved an ineffectual bulwark. A revolt of Syria and Israel in 734 B. C. only led to the fall of Damascus, the deportation of the people of Gilead and Naphtali, and the subjection of Judah to Assyria. Israel now began to look toward Egypt for help, but vainly. Samaria, besieged in 725 by Shalmaneser IV., taken in 722 by Sargon, who also defeated an Egyptian army at Raphia in 720. The northern kingdom now disappeared from history, and the time of Judah was short. A revolt of the Babylonian Merodach-Baladan against Assyria (721-710) led Hezekiah to hope for deliverance from that quarter: the prophet Isaiah, however, succeeded in proving to the king the folly of attempting revolt, and of seeking help from Egypt. But in 702 B. C. Hezekiah, with other Palestinian kings, refused to pay tribute; and when Sennacherib came south for vengeance only a sudden catastrophe averted from Jerusalem a room that seemed inevitable (701).

From this point the Assyrians begin to disappear from Biblical history. They conquered Egypt at the beginning of the seventh century, but soon lost it again: and at the end of that century the Medes and Babylonians overthrew their empire and destroyed Nineveh (607). The Syrian and Palestinian part of the Assyrian empire was not left to the Babylonians in undisputed possession. Pharaoh Necho of Egypt marched northward to claim it, but after having overcome the ineffectual resistance of Josiah at Megiddo was defeated at Carchemish by Nebuchadnezzar the Chaldean (605). Josiah's successor Jehoiahim wavered between the Chaldeans and the Egyptians: but in 597 Jerusalem was taken by Nebuchadnezzar: Jehoiahim's son and successor Jehoiachin was carried off to Babylon with nearly the whole population of the city.

The new Babylonian empire was of short duration. Nebuchadnezzar had time to make Babylon one of the world's wonders, but his successors achieved nothing: and in 538 Cyrus the Elamite, who had already overthrown the Medes and created an empire extending from the Caspian to the Persian Gulf, and from the Indus to the Mediterranean, entered Babylon as a conqueror, and the ancient Semitic empire gave place to that of Persia. Babylonians, bāb-ŷ-lō-ni-āns, people of Babylon. Bible, Names of. [37.
 1. The Bible. 'Biblos' was the name given to the inner bark of the papyrus, which was used as we now use writing-paper. Hence the papyrus when written upon came to be called Biblos, and from the word Biblion, a papyrus roll, comes our word Bible.
 2. The Scriptures. The term simply means 'The Writings,' from the Latin scribere, to write.
 3. The Law and The Law and the Prophets. The first name expresses the fact that the Bible contains God's law to man, and the second that conjoined with the law were prophecies concerning times to come.
 4. The Oracles. The word signifies things spoken, from the Latin, orare, to speak. Many things in the Bible have a 'Thus saith the Lord,' before them.
 5. The Old and New Testaments. 'Covenants' would better express the meaning. The two great covenants of the Bible contain God's covenants with man.

6. God's Word. So called because the Bible expresses God's thought toward man.

7. The Canon. 'Canon' means a rule or standard, and was in early Christian times applied to the Creed: it also meant a list, and the 'canonical' books were those included in the recognized list of the Church's books.

Bible, Facts concerning.

The first complete translation of the whole Bible into English was made by John Wycliffe, A. D. 1380-1382.

The first book ever printed was the Bible. The first Bible was printed between the years 1450 and 1455, at Mentz, by Gutenberg, the reputed inventor of printing.

First New Testament printed in English was that of William Tyndale, A. D. 1525-1526.

First Bible printed in English was Miles Coverdale's,
 A. D. 1535.

The Old Testament was divided into chapters, as they now stand, by Cardinal Hugo, in the middle of the thirteenth century. These chapters were divided into verses, as we now have them, by Rabbi Nathan, and adopted by Robert Stephens, a French printer, in his edition of the Vulgate, in 1555, and transferred to the Authorized Version in 1611.

The authorized version of the Bible was 'set forth' in the year 1611.

The Revised Version of the English Bible was begun in England June 22, 1870, and in America October 4, 1872.

The Revised New Testament was published in May, 1881; the Revised Old Testament in May, 1885.

Bishop, Gr. ἐπίσκοπος = an overseer, a secular term of Greek administration. It is used in a general sense in Acts 20. 28, but in Phil. 1. 1 and the Pastoral Epistles has a technical meaning as the title of the second grade of Church official—under the Apostles but over the Deacons. It is in N. T. synonymous with πρεσβύτερος or elder. See Tit. 1. 5 & 7.

Botany of the Bible.

A noted scientist says of Palestine, 'There is not another spot on earth where so much of nature is focused as in this little corner. You have Alpine cold and torrid heat. Here are all the animals, birds, insects, plants, shells, rocks, of all zones.'

The plants mentioned in the Bible are as follows. See each under its own name.

N. B.—The names to which an asterisk (*) is prefixed do not occur in the A. V., but the trees, plants, &c., are supposed to be indicated by the original text.

Christ, Date of the Birth of.

It is very perplexing to many to find that Jesus was actually born four years before the time from which we count his birth. The simple reason is that no one calculated dates from the birth of Christ till centuries after He was born, and then Dionysius Exiguus, the monk who published the calculations in A. D. 526, made a mistake of four years. He placed the birth of Christ in the year of Rome (A. U. C.) 754. But Herod the Great, who slew the innocents of Bethlehem, died in April of the year of Rome 750; so that Christ must have been born several months before, or not later than the last of 749. The following table will help to make the matter clear:—

Year of Rome (Anno Urbis Condite = A. U. C.).....	749	750	751	752	753	754	755	756
Year of Our Lord (Anno Domini = A. D.).....	5	4	3	2	1	1	2	3
Age of Jesus.....	birth	1st year	2nd	3rd	4th	5th	6th	7th

It should be carefully noted that the numbers are ordinal, standing for first, second, etc.

Jesus was probably born at the very close of A. C. 5, which would be only four years before our era, for in a week after the 25th of December, B. C. 5, it was January, B. C. 4.

Since it is impossible to rectify the dates in all books and records over the world, we simply apply the true dates to the life of Christ. He was five years old at the close of A. D. 1.

REMARKS.

The Chronology of the Old Testament, as given in the Hebrew text, is represented with much accuracy by the original dates inserted in many editions of the Authorized English Version. These dates, reduced to system by Archbishop Ussher (Annales Veteris Testamenti, 1650), were first added to the English Bible by Bishop Lloyd, in the great edition of 1701.

The dates of Archbishop Ussher for this period are convenient for keeping the succession of events, but are not authoritative, as is agreed by the most conservative scholars. They are only one of several possible arrangements. Opinions of chronologists as to the 'era of Creation' vary indeed by many centuries.

The question is, in fact, insoluble.

REMARKS.

The two principal points on which there is a marked difference of opinion in relation to this period are: 1. date of the Exodus. 2. The period over which the 430 years of Ex. 12. 40 and Gal. 3. 17 extends. "The sojourning of the children of Israel, which they sojourned in Egypt, was 430 years." The Sept. says Egypt and in the land of Canaan." That is, the 430 years covers the whole period from Abraham's entrance Canaan to the Exodus, with which agrees Paul's statement in Gal. 3. 17, that from the covenant with (or call Abraham to the giving of the law (less than a year after the Exodus) was 430 years. In Gen. 15. 13, 14, it is at they should be strangers in a strange land, and be afflicted 400 years, nearly the same as Ex. 12. 40. But, in truth, the children of Israel were strangers in a strange land from the time that Abraham left his home for the promised land, and during that whole period of 430 years to the Exodus, they were nowhere rulers in the land. Another reason in favour of this view is the difficulty of arranging any other system of chronology that will agree with the Biblical statements. In 1 Kn. 6. 1, it is stated that there were 480 years from the Exodus to the building of the Temple.

Starting with B. C. 1012 as the date of the Temple, which cannot be more than a few years out of the way (not more than thirty-seven years according to the Eponym Canon), we obtain the following dates:—

If the 430 years were wholly spent in Egypt, the dating would be somewhat in this manner:—

It does not seem probable that the Israelites could have been so long in Egypt.

The present tendency of modern scholarship is to accept the late date of about 1300 B. C. for the Exodus, Rameses as the Pharaoh of the oppression, and his son Menephtah (Merenptah) as the Pharaoh of the Exodus. Prof. Ward L. Curtis in Hastings' Bible Dictionary, says that 'the Exodus can in no case be placed earlier than after the reign of Rameses II.' but adds in a note that since that statement was in type (1898), the new inscription of King Merneptah may require the assignment of the Exodus to an earlier period. And Prof. James Orr, in The Expositor March, 1897, argues stoutly for Thothmes and against Rameses.

It is impossible as yet to obtain certainty as to these early dates. Prof. Karl Marti, in Prof. Cheyne's Encyclopædia Biblica, states that the earliest date certain beyond doubt in the Chronology of the Old Testament is the year 1012 B. C., the date of the battle of Karkar, when Ahab was defeated by Shalmaneser II.

REMARKS.

The exact chronology is very uncertain during this whole period. There is a wide difference of opinion among scholars, and the latest Bible Dictionaries are unwilling to furnish even conjectural dates for most of the events. It is, therefore, more helpful to the practical study of this period to give the dates in the margins of our Bibles, and the understanding that they are not authoritative, but give the general order and arrangement of events, and as good as any that can be obtained.

REMARKS.

THE PERIOD OF THE JUDGES. According to 1 Kn. 6. 1, there were 480 years between the Exodus and the commencement of the Temple in the fourth year of Solomon's reign. Deducting from this the 40 years in the wilderness, 25 years of Joshua in Canaan, and 20 or 40 for Saul's reign, 40 for David's reign, and 3 years of Solomon's reign, the period of the Judges would be 480 — 148 = 332 years (or 480 — 128 = 352 years) including the judgeships of Eli and Samuel up to the beginning of the reign of Saul. Of this about 280 years belong to the book of Judges. But if we add together the numbers given in Judges, they amount to 410 years. For this and other reasons it is entirely probable that 'the oppressions and deliverances were not successive, but, in part, synchronous. They were, in fact, without exception, local struggles; and it is not only conceivable, but highly probable, that while one part of the land was enjoying security under its judge, other tribes were groaning under the foreign yoke.' — Professor Molesworth. While several of the events were thus occurring at the same time in different parts of the land, in other cases judges ruled practically over the whole. 'The judges formed temporary heads in particular centres, or over particular groups of tribes, — Barak, in the north of Israel, Gideon, in the centre, Jephthah, on the east of Jordan, Samson, in the extreme southwest.' — Professor Driver.

NOTE 1. The data for this period are the explicit chronological statements of Scripture, chiefly in the books of Kings and Chronicles. These assign to each reign its duration; and, after the division of the kingdom, give cross references to the times of the contemporary kings. The difficulty is that the lists of Israel and Judah do not agree. From the accession of Rehoboam to the sixth year of Hezekiah, the year of the destruction of Samaria, 255 years appear to be enumerated in the line of Judah, 241 in that of Israel. Some unknown fact would very possibly place the lists in harmony; and it is probable either (1) that there were in the Israelite line intervals of interregnum, so lengthening the period; or (2) that in the life of David there were times of associated sovereignty, — father with son, — the years in the annals being counted to both, so shortening the period. The former explanation is generally adopted in the older chronologies, but the latter appears the more satisfactory. There can be little doubt that Jotham, for instance, reigned for several years conjointly with his father Uzziah, who himself had previously been associated with Amaziah. It must be remembered that the Hebrews counted the unfinished years of a reign as complete. Thus a reign beginning a little before the end of one year, and ending a little after the close of the next, would be reckoned as of three years, although really hardly more than one. It follows that the same year will be often reckoned twice, as belonging to two different reigns.

NOTE 2. The dates given in the first column are those arranged by Archbishop Ussher, and placed in the margins of our Bibles. They vary but from one to forty years from the revised chronology, and whichever one we accept as correct, it is necessary to record the Ussher chronology for the sake of comparison. The dates in the revised chronology are those of Hastings' Bible Dictionary, closely compared with those of Prof. George Adam Smith in his Book of the Twelve Prophets, and Prof. Cheyne's Encyclopædia Biblica.

NOTE 3. The most important extra-Biblical source of the chronology of this period is found in the Assyrian inscriptions. In 1862 Sir Henry Rawlinson discovered among the records of the stone libraries of Nineveh, on certain slabs, important historical documents, called the Assyrian Eponym Canon, by which we have the Assyrian record of the chronology during a large part of the history of the kingdom of Israel.

The Eponyms were annually elected Assyrian officers, like the Roman consuls, and, like them, events were commonly dated by reference to their term of office. An accurate register was kept, with notes of important events and the succession of kings. These constitute the Canon. Its dates harmonize with the Bible in their order and general accuracy, and are exact as to 722 B. C. for the fall of Samaria, and 586 B. C. for the destruction of Jerusalem, and are thus a marvellous confirmation of the Bible. But in details the Assyrian dates vary from those Ussher has derived from the Bible numbers, from seven to forty years. The records are complete from 897 to 666 B. C., as well as for shorter periods before and after. There are several copies, all of which closely agree. They contain notices of the succession of kings and the most important events in their respective years. From the mention of a total eclipse in 763 is determined the date of all the remaining years. The persons and events in next to the last column of the preceding table are mentioned in the Eponym Canon.

NOTE 4. The dates in the last column of the above table are from the remarkable astronomical calculations of the astronomer Mahler, based on the Biblical notices of such possible events, taken from the Encyclopædia Biblica.
